272-(819) Ibn Abbas narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Gabriel "Peace be upon him" made me recite (The Quran), in a certain way, which I reviewed with him. I kept asking him for more (ways) until he reached seven ways". Ibn Shihab said: "I was informed that those seven ways apply to the matter which is essentially one, in which there is no difference about what is permissible and what is forbidden".

273-(820) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila narrated that Ubai Ibn Ka'b said: I was in the mosque when a man entered and prayed. He recited (The Quran) in a way, which I rejected. Then, another man entered and recited (The Quran in the prayer) in a way different from that of his companion. When we finished the prayer we all entered into The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and I said: "This (man) recited (The Quran) in a way which I rejected, and then another man entered and recited (it) in a way different from that of his companion". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told them to recite, and they did. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" approved of their state (as he admitted their way of recitation).

There occurred In my mind (by the help of Satan) a kind of renunciation, which did not happen even during the Days of the pre-Islamic period of Ignorance. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw how I was impressed (by such a thought), he struck my chest, whereupon I burst into sweat, and felt as if I were looking at Allah fearfully. He said to me: "O Ubai! It was sent to me to recite the Quran in one way, and I replied: "Make it easy for my nation". It was sent to me, for the second time, to recite it in two ways. I said to him: "Make it easy for my nation". It was sent to me, for the third time, to recite it in seven ways. (I was told): "You have got, for every reply that I sent you, a demand, which you should ask Me for". I said: "O Allah! forgive my nation, forgive my nation". However, I deferred the third one for the day on which all of the creatures, and even Ibrahim, will turn to me, (in order to intercede for them)".

[49] Reciting The Quran quietly and distinctively, and refraining from reciting it hurriedly, and the permissibility of recite two Suras or more in one Rak'a

275-(822) Abu Wa'il reported: A person called Nahik Ibn Sinan came to Abdullah and asked: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! How do you recite this letter! (Alif) or (Ya) do you read it "Min ma'in ghair asin" or "Min ma'in ghair yasin)?" Abdullah said: "You (seem to) have kept the whole of The Quran except this". He again said: "I recite all the Mufassal Suras in one Rak'a". Upon this Abdullah said: "(you must have been reciting it) as hurriedly as the recitation of poetry. Verily, there are people who recite The Quran, but it does not go beyond their collarbones. It (The Quran) becomes beneficial only when it settles in the heart and is deeply rooted in it. The best of (the acts in the) Prayer are bowing and prostration. I know well the matches, which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to combine two Suras in every Rak'a". Abdullah then stood up and left, and Alqama went in his footsteps. Then, he came out and said: "he told me about them". According to the narration of Ibn Numair, he told: "A person from sons of Bajila came to Abdullah", and did not mention Nahik Ibn Sinan.

[50] Matters related with (the ways of) recitation

280-(823) Abu Ishaq narrated: I saw a man asking Al-Aswad Ibn Yazid, while he was teaching (the people) The Holy Quran in the mosque: "How do you read this Verse: "then is there any that will receive admonition (Muddakir)?": i.e. is it (pronounced with) d or dh?" he said: "It is (to be pronounced with) d. I heard Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud saying: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting (Muddakir) with d".

281-(...) Abu Ishaq narrated from Al-Aswad from Abdullah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite: "then is there any that will receive admonition (Muddakir)?"

282-(824) Alqama narrated: We came to Sham and went to Abu Ad-Darda who asked: "Who from amongst you could recite (The Quran) in the way Abdullah used to recite?" I replied: "I could do". He asked: "How did you hear him reciting: "By the Night as it conceals (the light)"?" I replied: "I heard him reciting: "By the Night as it conceals (the light)...By male and female". He commented: "By Allah! I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting it as such. But those (people of Sham) wanted me to recite: "By (the mystery of) the creation of male and female". I am not to follow them".

283-(...) Ibrahim narrated: Alqama came to Sham, and entered the mosque wherein he offered the prayer. Then, he went to a (place where people were sitting in a) circle and sat therein. A man came and I noticed that the people were disturbed (by his arrival). He sat by my side and asked: "Do you know how Abdullah used to recite (the Quran)?"...(and the remaining of the narration is the same).

[51] The times at which offering prayer is forbidden

285-(825) Abu Huraira narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade offering prayer following the Afternoon (Asr prayer) until the sun sets, and after the Morning (prayer) until the sun rises.

286-(826) Ibn Abbas narrated: I heard more than one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", including Umar Ibn Al-Khattab, and he was the dearest to me, reporting that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade offering prayer after the Dawn until the sun rises, and following the Afternoon (prayer) until the sun sets.

287-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters. But, in the narration of Hisham and Sa'id it was mentioned: "After the Morning (instead of Dawn) till the sun rises".

288-(827) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no prayer (to be offered) following the Afternoon (Asr) prayer until the sun sets, and after the Dawn (Fajr) prayer until the sun rises".

289-(828) Ibn Umar narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you should try to pray at the rising of the sun or at its setting".

290-(...) Ibn Umar narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should not try to pray at the rising of the sun or at its setting, for it (the sun) appears between the two horns of Satan".

291-(829) Ibn Umar narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the edge of the sun appears (above the horizon) you should delay the prayer till it becomes high, and if the edge of the sun disappears, you must delay the prayer till it sets (i.e. disappears completely)".

[52] The conversion of Amr Ibn Abasa to Islam

294-(832) Amr Ibn Abasa As-Sulami narrated: While I was in the state of Ignorance (before Islam), I used to think that the people were in error and they were on nothing (which may be called the straight path) and worshipped the idols. In the meanwhile I heard of a man in Mecca who was giving news (from heaven) . So I rode my mount and went to him. At that time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was hiding since his people made life hard for him. I adopted a friendly attitude (towards the people of Mecca, in order to be able) to enter Mecca and go to him (The Prophet). (When I came to him) I said to him: "Who are you?" He said: "I am a Prophet (sent by Allah)". I said: "Who is a Prophet?" He said: "I have been sent by Allah". I said: "What is that which you have been sent with?" He said: "I have been sent to join ties of relationship (with kindness and mercy), to break the Idols, and to proclaim the oneness of Allah (in such a way that) nothing is to be associated with Him (in worship)". I said: "Who is with you in this matter?" He said: "A free man and a slave".

He (the narrator) said: Abu Bakr and Bilal were there with him, from among those who had embraced Islam at that time. I said: "I intend to follow you". He said: "During these days you would not be able to do so. Don't you see the (difficult) state in which I and (followers) people are living? You'd better go back to your people and when you hear that I have been granted victory, you could come to me".

So I went to my family. I was in my home when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Medina. I was among my people and used to try to find news and ask people when he arrived in Medina. Then a group of people belonging to Yathrib (Medina) came. I said (to them): "How is that person who has come to Medina?" They said: "The people are hastening to him, while his people (the pagans of Mecca) decided to kill him, but they could not do so".

Then, I came to Medina and went to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Do you recognize me?" He said: "Yes, you are the same man who met me at Mecca". I said: "that's right". I said: "O Prophet of Allah! tell me that which Allah has taught you and which I do not know, tell me about the prayer". He said: "Offer the Dawn prayer, then stop praying when the sun starts to rise till it Is fully high, for when it rises, it comes up between the horns of Satan, and the unbelievers prostrate themselves to it at that time. Then pray, for the prayer is witnessed and attended (by angels) till the shadow becomes nearly equal to a lance in length. Then stop from praying, for at that time Hell is heated up. Then when the shadow moves forward, pray, for the prayer is witnessed and attended (by angels). When you offer the Afternoon prayer, you should refrain from praying till the sun sets, for it sets between the horns of Satan, and at that time the unbelievers prostrate themselves to it".

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! tell me about (performing) ablution". He said: "There is no one from amongst you who uses water for ablution, rinses his mouth, snuffs water and then blows it, but that the sins of his face, his mouth and his nostrils will fall out. When he washes his face, as Allah ordered him, the sins of his face will fall out with water from the end of his beard. When he washes his forearms up to the elbows, the sins of his arms will fall out along with water from his fingertips. When he passes his wet hands over his head, the sins of his head will fall out with water from the points of his hair. When he washes his feet up to the ankles, the sins of his feet will fall out with water from his toes. When he stands for prayer, praising, applauding, and glorifying Allah with what He deserves, showing wholehearted devotion to Him, his sins will depart from him, leaving him (as innocent) as he was on the day he was born".

Amr Ibn Abasa narrated this Hadith to Abu Umama, one of the Companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said to him: "O Amr Ibn Abasa! Consider what you are saying. (Do you say) that such (a great reward) would be given to a man at one station (i.e. performing ablution and prayer)?" Upon this Amr said: "O

قَالَ: فَذَهَبْتُ إِلَى أَهْلِي. وَقَدِمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ الْمَدِينَةَ ـ وَكُنْتُ فِي أَهْلِي ـ فَجَعَلْتُ أَتَخَبَّرُ الأَخْبَارَ وَأَسْأَلُ النَّاسَ حِينَ قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ. حَتَّىٰ قَدِمَ عَلَيَّ نَفَرٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ يَثْرِبَ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ. فَقُلْتُ: مَا فَعَلَ هَٰذَا الرَّجُلُ الَّذِي قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ؟ فَقَالُوا: النَّاسُ إِلَيْهِ سِرَاعٌ. وَقَدْ أَرَادَ قَوْمُهُ قَتْلَهُ فَلَمْ يَسْتَطِيعُوا ذَٰلِكَ، فَقَدِمْتُ الْمَدِينَةَ، فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ. فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَتَعْرِفُنِي؟ قَالَ: «نَعَمْ. أَنْتَ الَّذِي لَقِيتَنِي بِمَكَّةَ؟»

فَقُلْتُ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، أَخْبِرْنِي عَمَّا عَلَّمَكَ اللَّهُ وَأَجْهَلُهُ. أَخْبِرْنِي عَنِ الصَّلاَةِ؟

قَالَ: «صَلِّ صَلاَةَ الصُّبْحِ. ثُمَّ أَقْصِرْ عَنِ الصَّلاَةِ حَتَّىٰ تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ حَتَّىٰ تَرْتَفِعَ، فَإِنَّهَا تَطْلُعُ حِينَ تَطْلُعُ بَيْنَ قَرْنَيْ شَيْطَانٍ. وَحِينَئِذٍ يَسْجُدُ لَهَا الْكُفَّارُ. ثُمَّ صَلِّ، فَإِنَّ الصَّلاَةَ مَشْهُودَةٌ مَحْضُورَةٌ، حَتَّىٰ يَسْتَقِلَّ الظِّلُّ بِالرُّمْحِ. ثُمَّ أَقْصِرْ عَنِ الصَّلاَةِ، فَإِنَّ حِينَئِذٍ تُسْجَرُ جَهَنَّمُ، فَإِذَا أَقْبَلَ الْفَيْءُ فَصَلِّ، فَإِنَّ الصَّلاَةَ مَشْهُودَةٌ مَحْضُورَةٌ حَتَّى تُصَلِّيَ الْعَصْرَ. ثمَّ أَقْصِرْ عَنِ الصَّلاَةِ حَتَّىٰ تَغْرُبَ الشَّمْسُ. فَإِنَّهَا تَغْرُبُ بَيْنَ قَرْنَيْ شَيْطَانٍ. وَحِينَئِذٍ يَسْجُدُ لَهَا الْكُفَّارُ». قَالَ فَقُلْتُ: يَا نَبِيَّ اللَّهِ، فَالْوُضُوءُ؟ حَدِّثْنِي عَنْهُ. قَالَ: «مَا مِنْكُمْ رَجُلٌ يُقَرِّبُ وَضُوءَهُ فَيَتَمَضْمَضُ وَيَسْتَنْشِقُ فَيَنْتَثِرُ إِلا خَرَّتْ خَطَايَا وَجْهِهِ وَفِيهِ وَخَيَاشِيمِهِ. ثُمَّ إِذَا غَسَلَ وَجْهَهُ كَمَا أَمَرَهُ اللَّهُ إِلا خَرَّتْ خَطَايَا وَجْهِهِ مِنْ أَطْرَافِ لِحْيَتِهِ مَعَ الْمَاءِ. ثُمَّ يَغْسِلُ يَدَيْهِ إِلَى الْمِرْفَقَيْنِ إِلا خَرَّتْ خَطَايَا يَدَيْهِ مِنْ أَنَامِلِهِ مَعَ الْمَاءِ. ثُمَّ يَمْسَحُ رَأْسَهُ إِلا خَرَّتْ خَطَايَا رَأْسِهِ مِنْ أَطْرَافِ شَعْرِهِ مَعَ الْمَاءِ. ثُمَّ يَغْسِلُ قَدَمَيْهِ إِلَى الْكَعْبَيْنِ إِلاَّ خَرَّتْ خَطَايَا رِجْلَيْهِ مِنْ أَنَامِلِهِ مَعَ الْمَاءِ، فَإِنْ هُوَ قَامَ فَصَلَّىٰ، فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ وَأَثْنَىٰ عَلَيْهِ، وَمَجَّدَهُ بِالَّذِي هُوَ لَهُ أَهْلٌ، وَفَرَّغَ قَلْبَهُ لِلَّهِ، إِلاَّ انْصَرَفَ مِنْ خَطِيئَتِهِ كَهَيْئَتِهِ يَوْمَ وَلَدَتْهُ أُمُّهُ».

فَحَدَّثَ عَمْرُو بْنُ عَبَسَةَ بِهَٰذَا الْحَدِيثِ أَبَا أُمَامَةَ صَاحِبَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَقَالَ لَهُ أَبُو أُمَامَةَ: يَا عَمْرُو بْنَ عَبَسَةَ، انْظُرْ مَا تَقُولُ، فِي مَقَامٍ وَاحِدٍ يُعْطَىٰ هَٰذَا الرَّجُلُ؟ فَقَالَ عَمْرٌو: يَا أَبَا أُمَامَةَ، لَقَدْ كَبِرَتْ سِنِّي، وَرَقَّ عَظْمِي، وَاقْتَرَبَ أَجَلِي، وَمَا بِي

Abu Umama! I have grown old and my bones have become weak and I am at the threshold of death. what could cause me to attribute a lie to Allah and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? Had I heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" once, twice, or thrice, (or even more) I would have never narrated it, but I have heard it from him more than that, on many occasions".

[53] Do not try to offer prayer at (the time of) the rising of the sun or at its setting

295-(833) A'isha narrated: Umar misunderstood the fact that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had forbidden offering prayer at the time of the rising of the sun and at the time of its setting.

296-(...) A'isha narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never gave up offering two Rak'as after Asr (prayer). But, (on the other hand) she narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not try to utilize (the time of) the rising of the sun or its setting and offer prayer at them".

[54] The two Rak'as The Messenger of Allah prayed after Asr

297-(834) Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas, narrated: Ibn Abbas, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Azhar and Al-Miswar Ibn Makhrama had sent me to A'isha. They told me to greet her on their behalf and to ask her about offering the two Rak'as after the Asr prayer and to say to her: "We were informed that you offer those two Rak'as and we were told that the Prophet had forbidden offering them". Ibn Abbas said: "I along with Umar Ibn Al-Khattab used to beat the people whenever they offered them". I went to A'isha and told her that message. A'isha said: "Go and ask Umm Salama about them". So I returned and informed them about her statement. They then told me to go to Umm Salama with the same question with which they sent me to A'isha. Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" replied: "I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidding them. Later I saw him offering them.

He prayed them immediately after he performed the Asr prayer. He then entered my house at a time when some of the Ansari women from the tribe of Banu Haram were sitting with me, so I sent my slave girl to him and said to her: "Stand beside him and tell him that Umm Salama says to you: "O Allah's Apostle! I have heard you forbidding offering these (two Rak'as after the Asr prayer) but I have seen you offering them". If he waves his hand then wait for him".

٢٩٧ ـ (٨٣٤) ـ حدّثني حَرْمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ التُّجِيبِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ وَهْبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي عَمْرٌو ـ وَهُوَ ابْنُ الْحَارِثِ ـ عَنْ بُكَيْرٍ، عَنْ كُرَيْبٍ مَوْلَى ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ: أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللهِ بْنَ عَبَّاسٍ وَعَبْدَ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنَ أَزْهَرَ وَالْمِسْوَرَ بْنَ مَخْرَمَةَ أَرْسَلُوهُ إِلَىٰ عَائِشَةَ زَوْجِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ. فَقَالُوا: اقْرَأْ عَلَيْهَا السَّلامَ مِنَّا جَمِيعاً وَسَلْهَا عَنِ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ بَعْدَ الْعَصْرِ. وَقُلْ: إِنَّا أُخْبِرْنَا أَنَّكِ تُصَلِّينَهُمَا. وَقَدْ بَلَغَنَا أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ نَهَىٰ عَنْهُمَا. قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ: وَكُنْتُ أَضْرِبُ مَعَ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطابِ النَّاسَ عَلَيْهَا. قَالَ كُرَيْبٌ: فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَيْهَا وَبَلَّغْتُهَا مَا أَرْسَلُونِي بِهِ. فَقَالَتْ: سَلْ أُمَّ سَلَمَةَ. فَخَرَجْتُ إِلَيْهِمْ فَأَخْبَرْتُهُمْ بِقَوْلِهَا. فَرَدُّونِي إِلَىٰ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ، بِمِثْلِ مَا أَرْسَلُونِي بِهِ إِلَىٰ عَائِشَةَ. فَقَالَتْ أُمُّ سَلَمَةَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَنْهَىٰ عَنْهُمَا. ثُمَّ رَأَيْتُهُ يُصَلِّيهِمَا. أَمَّا حِينَ صَلاَّهُمَا فَإِنَّهُ صَلَّى الْعَصْرَ. ثُمَّ دَخَلَ وَعِنْدِي نِسْوَةٌ مِنْ بَنِي حَرَامٍ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ، فَصَلاَّهُمَا، فَأَرْسَلْتُ إِلَيْهِ الْجَارِيَةَ فَقُلْتُ: قُومِي بِجَنْبِهِ فَقُولِي لَهُ: تَقُولُ أُمُّ سَلَمَةَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، إِنِّي أَسْمَعُكَ تَنْهَىٰ عَنْ هَاتَيْنِ الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ. وَأَرَاكَ تُصَلِّيهِمَا؟ فَإِنْ أَشَارَ بِيَدِهِ فَاسْتَأْخِرِي عَنْهُ. قَالَ فَفَعَلَتِ الْجَارِيَةُ، فَأَشَارَ بِيَدِهِ، فَاسْتَأْخَرَتْ عَنْهُ. فَلَمَّا انْصَرَفَ قَالَ: «يَا بِنْتَ أَبِي

The slave girl did that. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" beckoned to her with his hand and she waited for him. When he had finished the prayer he said (addressing me): "O daughter of Banu Umaiyya! You have asked me about the two Rak'as after the Asr prayer. The people of the tribe of Abd Al-Qais came to me in order to embrace Islam, and occupied me from praying the two Rak'as after the Noon (Dhuhr) prayer. These (two Rak'as that I have just prayed) are for those (missed) ones"".

298-(835) Abu Salama narrated that he asked A'isha about the two Rak'as which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer after Asr (prayer). She said: He (at first) used to pray them before Asr (prayer). But he was occupied from them or perhaps he forgot them. So, he prayed them after Asr (prayer). Then, he kept on offering them regularly. However, whenever he offered a certain prayer, he would keep on offering it regularly.

299-(...) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that A'isha said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", while being in my house, never left praying two Rak'as after Asr (prayer).

300-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Aswad narrated from his father that A'isha said: There are two (supererogatory) prayers, which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never left offering while being in my house, either secretly or openly: Two Rak'as before Dawn (Fajr) and two Rak'as after Asr.

301-(...) Both of Al-Aswad and Masruq narrated: We testify that A'isha said: "There was no day, on which he (The Prophet) was with me (as it was my turn) except that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered them". She meant the two Rak'as after Asr (prayer).

[55] It is desirable to pray two Rak'as before the Evening prayer

302-(836) Mukhtar Ibn Fulful narrated: I asked Anas Ibn Malik about the voluntary prayer following the Afternoon (obligatory) prayer. He replied: "Umar used to strike the hands on any prayer offered following the Afternoon prayer. Moreover, we used to offer two Rak'as after the sun set before the Evening (Maghrib) prayer during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"". I asked him: "Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" use to offer them?" He said: "He saw us offering them, but he neither ordered nor forbade us to do it".

303-(837) Anas Ibn Malik narrated: We were in Medina, and whenever the Mu'adhdhin announced the call for the Evening prayer, the people would hurry to the pillars (of the mosque) and pray two Rak'as. So, any stranger coming into the mosque would think that the obligatory prayer had been offered in view of the multitudes (of people) who were praying.

[56] There is a prayer (in the period) between each two calls for prayer (The first is for the prayer and the other for establishing it)

304-(838) Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There Is a (voluntary) prayer (in the period) between each two calls (one for prayer and another for establishment)". He said it thrice, and at the third time he said: "for him, who wished to do so".

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but he said here in the fourth time: "for him, who wished to do so".

[57] The prayer of fear

305-(839) Salim narrated that Ibn Umar said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led the fear prayer (and he offered) one Rak'a with one of the two groups (of the army), while the other was (standing) facing the enemy. Then, they (the first group) turned and replaced their companions (of the other group), facing the enemy. Then those (of the second group) came, with whom The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered one Rak'a. then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uttered the end salutation, and those (of the first group) prayed (another) Rak'a, and those (of the other group) prayed (another) Rak'a (in order that the fear prayer offered by both groups should become two Rak'as).

(...) Salim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from his father that he talked about the fear prayer offered by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: I offered it with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and told the same).

306-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the fear prayer on some days (of fighting). One group stood with him, and the other (stood) facing the enemy. He prayed one Rak'a with those who were with him, and then they turned and the others (of the second group) came with whom he prayed one Rak'a. then, each of the two groups prayed one Rak'a. Ibn Umar said: "When there is greater danger, pray as riding or as standing by signs".

307-(840) Jaber Ibn Abdullah narrated: I offered prayer of fear with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". We drew ourselves up in two rows, one row behind him with the enemy between us and the Qibla. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah is Greater", and we all said it. He then bowed and we all bowed. He then raised his head from bowing, and we all raised (our heads). He then fell down in prostration along with the row close to him, and the rear row faced the enemy. Then the rear row went to the front and the front row went to the rear. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" bowed down and we all bowed. He then raised his head from bowing and we also raised (our heads). He and the row close to him which had been in the rear then fell down in prostration In the first Rak'a, whereas the row (which became in the rear) faced the enemy. And when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the rear row (which became) close to him finished the prostration, the row (which became in the rear) fell down in prostration. Then The Messenger of Allah uttered the end salutation and we also uttered the end salutation, (Jaber commented) as your guards do with their chiefs.

308-(...) Jaber narrated: We took part in a holy battle with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" against the tribe of Juhaina. They fought with us terribly. When we had finished the noon prayer, the polytheists said: If we attacked them at once. we would kill them. Gabriel informed The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about It (i.e. their evil plan). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mention that to us, adding that they (the polytheists) had also said: Shortly there would be time for the Asr prayer, which is dearer to them (the Muslims) than even their children. So when the time of the Asr prayer came, we formed ourselves into two rows, while the polytheists were between us and the Qibla. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah is Greater", and we also said so. He bowed and we also bowed. He fell down in prostration and the first row prostrated with him. When they stood up, the second row fell down in prostration. Then the first row went into the rear, and the second row came in the front and occupied the place of the first row. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "Allah is Greater", and we also said so. He then bowed, and we also bowed. He then fell down in prostration followed by the row close to him, and the second row remained standing. When the second row also prostrated and all of them sat down, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uttered the end salutation to them. Abu Az-Zubair told: Jaber said: just as your rulers offer prayer.

309-(841) Sahl Ibn Abu Hathma narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed with his companions during the danger time. He made them in two rows. He prayed one Rak'a with those close to him, and then stood, and kept standing until those in the 310-(842) Salih Ibn Khawat narrated from those, who offered the fear prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of the (holy battle of) Patches, that one of the two groups (into which the army was divided in order to offer the prayer) aligned behind him, and the other stood facing the enemy. He prayed one Rak'a with those who were with him. Then, he kept standing, and they completed their prayer (by performing another Rak'a). then, they turned and aligned facing the enemy, and (those of) the other group came, with whom he prayed the remaining Rak'a. he kept sitting, and they completed their prayer (by offering another Rak'a). then, he uttered the end salutation.

311-(843) Jaber reported: We went forward with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and when we reached Dhat Ar-Riqa, we came to a shady tree which we left for him. One of the polytheists came there and, seeing the sword of the Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" hanging by a tree, took it up, drew it from the scabbard and asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Are you afraid of me?" He (the Prophet) said: "No". He again asked: "Who would protect you from me?" He said: "Allah will protect me from you". The Companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" threatened him. He sheathed the sword and hung it up. Then the call to the Prayer was made and he (the Prophet) led a group in two Rak'as. Then they (the members of this group) withdrew and he led the second group in two Rak'as. So the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered four Rak'as and people (of the two groups) offered two Rak'as.

312-(...) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that Jaber told him that he offered the fear prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed two Rak'as with (the members of) one of the two groups, and then prayed two Rak'as with (the members of) the other group. In this way, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed four Rak'as, and prayed with (the people of) each one of the two groups two Rak'as.

In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful

Allah Almighty said: "Allah did confer a great favour on the Believers when he sent among them a Messenger from among themselves, rehearsing unto them the Signs of Allah, sanctifying them, and instructing them in Scripture and Wisdom, while, before that, they had been in manifest error." (Al Imran 164)

He also said: "It is He Who has sent amongst the Unlettered a messenger from among themselves, to rehearse to them His Signs, to sanctify them, and to instruct them in Scripture and Wisdom although they had been before in manifest error." (Friday "Al-Jumu'a" 2)

(7) The Book Of Friday

1-(844) Nafi narrated from Abdullah (Ibn Umar) "Allah be pleased with both": I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If anyone of you intended to attend (the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, he should take a bath (before coming)."

2-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said while being on the pulpit: "If anyone of you attended (the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, he should take a bath (before coming)."

(...) Both of Salim and Abdullah, sons of Ibn Umar narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.

(...) Salim narrated from Abdullah from his father "Allah be pleased with him": I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.

3-(845) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: While Umar Ibn Al-Khattab was standing and delivering the sermon on a Friday, one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came. Umar called (and asked) him: "What is the time now?" He replied: "I was busy and could not go back to my home till I heard the Adhan. I did not perform more than the ablution." Thereupon Umar said to him: "Did you perform only the ablution although you know that Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to order us to take a bath (on Fridays)?"

[البخاري: كتاب الجمعة، باب فضل الغسل يوم الجمعة، رقم: ٨٧٧].

4-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: while Umar Ibn Al-Khattab was addressing the people on Friday, Uthman Ibn Affan entered (the mosque). Umar referred to him indirectly in his speech saying: "What is the matter with (those) men, who delay in coming after the Adhan?" Uthman replied: "O Commander of the Believers! I did nothing after I heard the Adhan more than I performed ablution and then came." Upon this, Umar said: "Did you only perform ablution? Did you not hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If anyone of you attended (the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, he should take a bath (before coming)"?"

[1] Taking a bath on Friday is necessary for every adult, who reached the age of puberty, and what men have been ordered to do

5-(846) Ata Ibn Yasar narrated from Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Taking a bath on Friday is fundamental for anyone who reached the age of puberty."

6-(847) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The people used to come (to attend the prayer in the mosque on) Friday from their homes in the precincts of Medina, wearing their garments. But, they used to be covered with dust, with the result that they would smell bitter. Once, a man of them (in such a state) came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was in my dwelling place. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you (people) got clean (by taking a bath) for (attending) this day of yours (it would be better)."

(...) Amra narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The people used to do their work by themselves, because they had no servants to suffice them (such a work). So, a bad smell used to come out of them. It was said to them: "If you took a bath (it would be better)."

[2] Applying perfume and using the teeth cleansing stick on Friday

7-(846) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri narrated from his father "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is right on everyone who reached the age of puberty to take a bath on Friday. He should also use the teeth cleansing stick and apply perfume to himself as much as he could." Bukair (a sub-narrator) did not mention Abd Ar-Rahman in his narration and said concerning the perfume: "Even from that perfume used by his lady."

8-(848) Tawus narrated that once Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" mentioned what The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said concerning taking bath on Friday. Tawus said: I said to Ibn Abbas: "One should also apply to himself perfume or oil in case it is available to his wife." Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" replied: "I have no knowledge of it."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibn Juraij, with the same chain of transmitters.

9-(849) Abdullah Ibn Tawus narrated from his father from Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is the right of Allah upon every Muslim to take a bath (at least once) every week, i.e. to wash his head and body."

10-(850) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Any person who takes a bath on Friday like the bath of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse) and then goes for the prayer (in the first hour as early as it could be), it is as if he has sacrificed a camel (in Allah's cause). Whoever goes in the second hour, it is as if he has sacrificed a cow. Whoever goes in the third hour, then it is as if he has sacrificed a horned ram. If one goes in the fourth hour, then it is as if he has sacrificed a hen. Whoever goes in the fifth hour, then it is as if he has offered an egg. When the Imam comes out (and Starts delivering the speech), the angels attend to listen to the speech."

more than you) said to your companion (sitting by your side): "Pay attention (to the sermon)", while the imam is delivering his speech on Friday, then you would be regarded to have talked nonsense."

[4] The certain time on Friday (at which the invocation is responded to)

13-(852) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned Friday, and said: "In it, there is a certain time, with which, no Muslim slave coincides while he is praying and asks Allah for anything but that He will grant it to him." Qutaiba, (a sub-narrator) added in his narration that he (The Prophet) pointed with his hand, suggesting that it is very short.

14-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Abu Al-Qasim (The Prophet) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is a certain time on Friday, with which no praying Muslim coincides and asks Allah for good, except that He will endow him with it." He said (pointing) with his hand that it is very short and narrow.

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that Abu Al-Qasim (The Prophet) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said the same.

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated through another chain of transmitters that Abu Al-Qasim (The Messenger of Allah) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said the same.

15-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "There is a certain time on Friday, with which no Muslim coincides and asks Allah for good, except that He will endow him with it." He said that it is a short time.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hammam Ibn Munabbih, from Abu Huraira, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he did not mention that it is a short time.

16-(853) Abu Burda Ibn Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari narrated: Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" said to me: "Did you hear your father relating (a Hadith) from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" concerning the certain time on Friday?" I replied: "Yes, I heard him saying: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It lies from the time when the imam sits (for delivering the sermon) until the prayer comes to its end"."

[5] The superiority of Friday

17-(854) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The best day on which the sun rose is Friday: On which Adam was created (by Allah), on which he was admitted in Paradise, and on which too he was made to come out from it."

18-(...) However, the Hour (of doom) would not be established except on Friday."

[6] This (Muslim) nation's being guided to Friday

19-(855) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We (Muslims) would be the last and the foremost on The Day of Judgement, but every nation (other than us) was given the Book before us, and we have been given the Book after them. On the other hand, this (Friday) was the day, which Allah has enjoined upon us , and guided us to it, and all the people came after us concerning it: The Jews observe the day next to it (Saturday) and the Christians observe the day following it (Sunday)."

26-(857) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who took a bath, then came to (attend the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, then prayed what was fixed for him, then listened and kept silent until he (the imam) has finished his sermon, and then prayed with him, his sins would be forgiven for him (from this Friday) to the next Friday, in addition to three days more."

27-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who performed ablution perfectly, then came (to attend the prayer in the mosque on) Friday, and listened and kept silent (during the sermon) his sins would be forgiven for him during the period between it and the next Friday, in addition to three days more; and he, who touched the pebbles would be regarded to have done an invalid thing."

[9] The Friday prayer is to be offered when the sun declines

28-(858) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We used to offer (the Friday) prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Then we would return and give rest to our camels used for carrying water. Hassan(a sub-narrator) said: I asked Ja'far: What time was that? He said: It was when the sun has declined.

29-(...) Sulaiman Ibn Bilal narrated from Ja'far from his father that he asked Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both": "When did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" use to offer the Friday prayer?" he replied: "He used to pray (it) and then we would go to our camels and give rest to them (when the sun has passed over the meridian, according to the narration of Abdullah)." (He meant the camels used for carrying water).

30-(859) Abd Al-Aziz Ibn Abu Hazim narrated from his father from Sahl: "We neither had our nap, nor did we take our lunch except after (offering) the Friday (prayer)." (Ibn Hujr added in his narration "during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"").

31-(860) Iyas Ibn Salama Ibn Al-Akwa' narrated from his father: "We used to offer the Friday prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when the sun declined. Then, we would return and try to pursue the afternoon shadow (of the walls to shade ourselves)."

32-(...) Iyas Ibn Salama Ibn Al-Akwa' narrated from his father: "We used to offer the Friday prayer with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (when the sun declined). Then, we would return and find no shadow of the walls in order to shade ourselves."

[10] What about the two sermons before the (Friday) prayer, and the while-sitting interval between them

33-(861) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to deliver the (first) sermon on Friday as standing. Then he would sit (for a while) after which he would stand (for delivering the second sermon), as they (the imams) do those days."

34-(862) Jabir Ibn Samura narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to deliver two sermons (on Friday), between which, he used to sit (for a while) in order to recite The Qur'an and admonish the people.

35-(...) Simak narrated: Jabir Ibn Samura told me: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to deliver the (first) sermon (on Friday) as standing. Then, he would sit (for a while), after which he would stand and deliver the (second) sermon while standing. Whoever told you that he (The Prophet) used to deliver the sermon as sitting has told a lie. By Allah! I prayed with him (The Prophet) more than two thousand (obligatory congregational) prayers."

[11] Allah's saying: "But when they see some bargain or some amusement, they disperse headlong to it, and leave thee standing." (Friday "Al-Jumu'a" 11)

36-(863) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: While The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the sermon as standing on Friday, a caravan (loaded with food) came from Sham. The people turned and went to it (and left the mosque), but only twelve persons remained (with The Prophet). So this verse in the Sura of Friday was revealed: " But when they see some bargain or some amusement, they disperse headlong to it, and leave thee standing." (Friday 11)

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Husain, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned: "While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the sermon" but he did not mention "as standing."

37-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" reported: While we were (attending the speech and prayer) with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on Friday, some camels loaded with food, arrived. The people turned towards the camels (and left the mosque), but only twelve persons –and I was one of them- remained (with The Prophet). 38-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: While The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was standing (for the sermon) on Friday, a caravan came to Medina. The companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ran towards it; and no one remained with him but twelve men, including Abu Bakr and Umar. So, Allah revealed: "But when they see some bargain or some amusement, they disperse headlong to it, and leave thee standing." (Friday 11)

39-(864) Ka'b Ibn Ujra narrated that once he entered the mosque and found Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Umm Al-Hakam delivering the (Friday) sermon as sitting. Upon this, he said: "Look at that wicked man, who is delivering the sermon while sitting, and Allah Almighty said: "But when they see some bargain or some amusement, they disperse headlong to it, and leave thee standing." (Friday 11)

[12] The grievous punishment for neglecting the Friday (prayer)

40-(865) Both of Abdullah Ibn Umar and Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with them" narrated that they heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying, while being on the wood sticks of his pulpit: "Let those people (who do not attend the Friday congregational prayers) stop from leaving the Friday (congregational prayers), otherwise, Allah would set a seal upon their hearts, and they would become from amongst the negligents."

[13] Shortening both the prayer and the sermon

He also would say: "(The time at which) I have been sent, and the Hour (of doom) are (as close to one another) as those two", joining his index finger and middle finger. He also would say: "Now and then: The best speech is The Book of Allah, and the best guidance is that of Muhammad; the worst of affairs is its innovations (of heresies), and every innovation (of heresy) is an error." He used to say: "I'm much closer to every believer than himself: Whoever left wealth (to be inherited) then it would go to his family, and whoever left debts (to be fulfilled) or (helpless) children, then, I'm responsible to fulfill (his debts) and take care (of his children)."

Ja'far Ibn Muhammad narrated from his father that Jabir said: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed the people in his sermon, he used to praise Allah and laud Him as He deserves. Then, he would say: "Whomever Allah guides (to the straight path), then no one would be able to lead him astray; and whoever goes astray, then, no one would be able to guide him (to the straight path). The best speech is The Book of Allah..." (and he mentioned a Hadith like that narrated by Ath-Thaqafi).

46-(868) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Dimad came to Mecca and he belonged to the tribe of Azd Shanu'a, and he used to treat the one who was under the influence of magic charm. He heard the foolish people of Mecca saying that Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was under the influence of magic charm. Upon this he said: "If I happened to meet this man, Allah might cure him at my hand." He met him and said: "O Muhammad! I can treat (one) who is under the influence of magic charm, and Allah cures whomever He desires at my hand. Do you have a desire (for that)?"

Upon this the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Praise be to Allah, we praise Him, and ask for His help; and whomever Allah guides (to the straight path) then, none would be able to lead him astray, and whoever is led astray, then, none would be able to guide him. I testify that there is no god but Allah, He is One, with Whom there is no partner, and that Muhammad is His Servant and Messenger. Now and then...." He (Dimad) said: "Repeat these words of yours before me!" The messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" repeated them before him thrice. He said: "I heard the words of soothsayers, those of magicians, and those of poets, but I have never heard such words as yours, which reach the depth (of the ocean of eloquence) . Stretch your hand so that I would give you the pledge of allegiance on Islam." He gave him the pledge of allegiance. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It (this pledge of allegiance) is on behalf of your people too." He said: "It is on behalf of my people too."

Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent an expedition and (a portion of it) passed by his people. The leader of the expedition said to the detachment: "Did you get anything from these people?" One of them said: "I got a pot for water." Upon this he said: "Return it, for it (belongs to) one of the people of Dimad."

47-(869) Abu Wa'il narrated: Once, Ammar delivered the sermon before us. Though it was brief, it was so much eloquent. When he (Ammar) came down (from the pulpit) we said to him: "O Abu al-Yaqzan! you delivered a brief and eloquent speech. Would that you had lengthened (it)!" He said: "I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Lengthening the prayer and shortening the sermon by one is the sign of his understanding (of religion). So lengthen the prayer and shorten the sermon, for from among the expressions, some are (as eloquent in their persuasion and influence as) charm"."

48-(870) Adi Ibn Hatim narrated: Once, a man delivered a speech in the presence of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in which he said: "Whoever obeyed Allah and His Messenger, would be guided aright, and whoever disobeyed them would go astray." Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "What a bad orator you are! You should say: "And whoever disobeyed Allah and His Messenger (went astray according to Ibn Numair)."

49-(871) Safwan Ibn Ya'li narrated from his father that he heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting while being on the pulpit (Allah's saying): "They will cry: O Malik!"

50-(872) Amra, daughter of Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from a sister of hers: I kept (Allah's saying): "Qaf: By The Glorious Qur'an!" from the mouth of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on Friday; and he used to recite it on the pulpit every Friday.

(...) Amra narrated from a sister of hers, who was elder than her the same Hadith transmitted by Sulaiman Ibn Bilal.

51-(873) A daughter of Al-Harith Ibn An-Nu'man narrated: "I did not keep (the Sura of) Qaf except from the mouth of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as he used to recite it in the sermon on every Friday." She further said: "Our oven and that of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was one." (She made a metonymy with this illustrating that she was so much close in residence to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to the extent that she used to be well-acquainted with his states).

Umm Hisham, the daughter of Haritha Ibn An-Nu'man narrated: Our oven and that of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was one for two years, or for more than a year; and I did not keep (Allah's saying) "Qaf: By The Glorious Qur'an" except from the tongue of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", which he used to recite every Friday on the pulpit, whenever he delivered the sermon before the people.

53-(874) Imara Ibn Ruwaiba narrated that once he saw Bishr Ibn Marwan on the pulpit, raising his hands (while delivering the sermon). Upon this, he said: "Might Allah make ugly those hands! No doubt, I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (on the pulpit) doing no more than pointing with his hand as such", and he beckoned with his index finger.

(...) Husain Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated: I saw Bishr Ibn Marwan on Friday, raising his hands (while delivering the sermon on the pulpit). Upon this, Imara Ibn Ruwaiba said...(and he mentioned the same narration).

came (to the mosque) on Friday while the imam is delivering the sermon, he should (even then) pray two Rak'as, and shorten them."

[15] The tradition of instructing (the people) during the sermon

60-(876) Humaid Ibn Hilal narrated: Abu Rifa'a said: I reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was delivering the sermon, and said: "O Messenger of Allah! (I'm) a stranger, who came to inquire about his religion, and he does not know what (the principles of) his religion are." Then, he (The Prophet) turned towards me, and left his sermon, until he reached me. A chair, whose sides I thought to be of iron, was brought, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat. then, he started instructing me from what Allah taught him. Then, he returned to (the pulpit to resume) his sermon, and he completed it to its end.

[16] What is recited in the Friday prayer

61-(877) Ibn Abu Rafi narrated: Once, Marwan appointed Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" as his successor in Medina, and he set out to Mecca. Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" led us in the Friday prayer, in which he recited, after the Sura of Friday (in the first Rak'a) (the Sura beginning with): "If the hypocrites came to you." I caught Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" after he had finished (the prayer), to whom I said: "You recited two Suras, which Ali Ibn Abu Talib used to recite in Kufa." Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: "No doubt, I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reciting them (in the prayer) on Friday."

(...) Ubaidullah Ibn Abu Rafi narrated: Once, Marwan appointed Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" as his successor ...(and mentioned the same narration, but according to the narration of Hatim: He recited the Sura of Friday in the first Rak'a, and "If the hypocrites came to you" in the other). However, the narration of Abd Al-Aziz is like that transmitted by Sulaiman Ibn Bilal.

62-(878) An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the (prayers of the) two festivals and in the Friday (prayer) both the Suras of "Glorify the name of your Lord, The Most High" and "Has the story reached thee, of the overwhelming (Event)?." In case the festival came on Friday, he used to recite both in the two prayers.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Al-Muntashir, with the same chain of transmitters.

63-(...) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah narrated: Ad-Dahhak wrote to An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir, asking him about what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite on Friday other than the Sura of Friday. He said: He used to recite: "Has the story reached thee, of the overwhelming (Event)?."

[17] What is recited on Friday

64-(879) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated from Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the Dawn prayer on Friday (the Sura of) the Prostration "As-Sajda" (in the first Rak'a), and (the Sura of) Man "Al-Insan" (in the second Rak'a). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the Friday prayer the Suras of Friday and Hypocrites.

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Sufyan, with the same chain of transmitters.

(...) The same was narrated in both the prayers on the authority of Mukhawwil from Sufyan, with the same chain of transmitters.

65-(880) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the Morning prayer on Friday the Suras of the Prostration "As-Sajda" and the Man "Al-Insan."

66-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the Morning prayer on Friday (the Sura of) the Prostration "As-Sajda" and "Has there not been over Man a long period of Time, when he was nothing (not even) mentioned?."

[18] The (Sunna) prayer after the Friday (obligatory prayer)

67-(881) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you offers the (obligatory two-Rak'a) Friday prayer, he should pray four Rak'as after it."

68-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When you offer prayer after the Friday (obligatory prayer), you should pray four Rak'as." Amr added in his narration that Ibn Idris reported from Suhail: "If you are in a hurry because of something, then, pray two Rak'as in the mosque, and two when you return home."

70-(882) Nafi narrated that whenever Abdullah (Ibn Umar) offered the Friday (obligatory) prayer, he would go and pray two Rak'as in his house. He said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do the same.

71-(...) Nafi narrated that Ibn Umar said, describing the supererogatory prayers of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "He used not to pray after the Friday (obligatory prayer) until he left (for home). Then, he would pray two Rak'as in his house."

72-(...) Salim narrated from his father that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pray two Rak'as after the Friday (obligatory prayer).

73-(883) Umar Ibn Ata Ibn Abu Khuwar said that Nafi Ibn Jubair sent him to As-Sa'ib, the son of Namir's sister, asking him about what he had seen in the prayer of Mu'awiya. He said: Well, I offered the Friday (obligatory) prayer with him in Maqsura. When the Imam uttered the end salutation, I stood up at my place and prayed. After he had entered (the dwelling place) he sent for me and said: "Do not repeat what you did. Whenever you offered the Friday (obligatory) prayer, you should not pray until you have talked or left, because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to do so and not to combine two (sorts of) prayers before talking or leaving."

(...) Umar Ibn Ata Ibn Abu Khuwar said that Nafi Ibn Jubair sent him to As-Sa'ib, the son of Namir's sister...(and he mentioned the same, but here he said: "When he uttered the salutation" and did not mention "the imam").

(8) The Book Of The Two Festivals' Prayer

1-(884) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I attended the Prayer of the breaking fast festival "Id Al-Fitr" with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman, and all of them offered this Prayer before the sermon, and then he (the Prophet) delivered the sermon. Then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came down (from the pulpit), as if I am seeing him, ordering the people with (the help of) his hand to sit down. Then, he made his way through them till he came to the women. Bilal was with him. He then recited (Allah's saying): "O Prophet, when believing women come to thee giving thee a pledge that they will not associate aught with Allah " till he finished (addressing) them and then asked: "Do you comply with that?" Only a woman from among them replied: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah." None else answered. (However, the narrator was not certain who actually she was). He (the Prophet) exhorted them to give alms. Bilal stretched his cloth and said: "Come forward with alms. Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!" They started to throw rings and ringlets in the cloth of Bilal.

2-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I testify that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the (Id) prayer before delivering the sermon. Then, he delivered the speech, but, thinking that he was not able to make the women hear him, he came to them, reminded them (of good deeds), instructed them, and ordered them to give in charity. Bilal was stretching his cloth (to put the alms in it). The women started throwing rings, earrings and ringlets.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Aiyyub, with the same chain of transmitters.

3-(885) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that on the breaking fast "Al-Fitr" day, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and prayed. He offered the prayer before delivering the sermon. Then, he delivered the speech before the people. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished, he came down (from the pulpit) and went to the women, whom he reminded (of their religious duties), while he was reclining against the hand of Bilal, who was stretching his cloth, in which the women were throwing the alms. I (the sub-narrator) asked Ata: "Was it the charity of the day of the breaking fast "Fitr"?" he said: "No, but it was charity which they gave at this time (voluntarily): A woman threw her ring, and then the others threw such-and such a thing and such-and-such a thing (of their ornaments)."I asked Ata: "Is it right upon the imams to come to the women after finishing from the sermon, in order to remind them (of good deeds)?" he said: "Verily, by my Life! It is right upon them to do so; and why do they not do that?"

4-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I attended with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the prayer on the day of the festival "Id." He started with offering the prayer before delivering the sermon, with neither call for prayer "Adhan" nor call for prayer establishment "Iqama." Then, he got up, leaning on Bilal. He ordered them to fear Allah and exhorted them to obey Him. Then, he instructed the people, and reminded them (of good deeds). Then, he made his way to the women, whom he instructed and reminded (of good deeds). He said to them: "Give in charity, for the majority of you would be the fuel of the Hell." One from among the women, with brown cheeks, stood up and said: "Why is that, O Messenger of Allah?" he replied: "Because your complaints are so much, and you are ungrateful to your husbands." Then, they started giving in charity from their ornaments. They started throwing their earrings and rings in the cloth of Bilal.

5-(886) Ibn Juraij narrated from Ata that both of Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" and Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" had told him: There was no call for prayer on the days of breaking fast "Al-Fitr" and sacrifice "Al-Adha." Sometime later, I (the narrator) asked him about that. He told me: Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" told me: On the day of breaking fast "Al-Fitr" there is no call for prayer whether when the imam comes out (to the mosque) or after his coming out, nor is there a call for prayer establishment, i.e. there is neither Adhan nor Iqama nor any kind of calling to prayer on that day.

6-(...) Ata narrated that when Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair was given the pledge of allegiance as a caliph, Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" sent to him (saying) that there was no call to prayer on the day of breaking fast "Al-Fitr"; so do not pronounce Adhan for it. So, Ibn Az-Zubair did not pronounce Adhan for it on that day. On the other hand, he (Ibn Abbas) sent to him (saying) that the sermon should be delivered after offering the prayer, and that used to be done. So, Ibn Az-Zubair offered the (Id) prayer before delivering the sermon.

7-(887) Jabir Ibn Samura narrated: I offered the prayers of the two festivals with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" more than once and twice, with neither call to prayer "Adhan" nor call to prayer establishment "Iqama".

8-(888) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then Abu Bakr and Umar used to offer the prayers of the two festivals before delivering the sermon.

9-(889) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to proceed to the place of prayer on the days of Breaking fast and Sacrifice festivals. The first thing to begin with was the prayer and after that he would stand in front of the people who would keep sitting in their rows. If he wished to send an army for an expedition, he would do so; or if he wanted to give an order, he would do so, and he used to say: "Give in charity! Give in charity! Give in charity!" the most people who used to give in charity were the women. Then, he would depart. The people followed this tradition till Marwan Ibn Al-Hakam (became the governor of Medina). I went out walking along with Marwan till we reached the place of prayer.

There was a pulpit made of mud and bricks by Kathir Ibn As-Salt. Marwan started to pull me with his hand, as he was drawing me towards the pulpit, while I was drawing him towards the (place of) prayer. When I observed that from him, I asked him: "Where is (the tradition of) starting with the prayer (before delivering the sermon)?" He replied: "No Abu Sa'id! That which you know has been left." I said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my soul is! You would not bring anything better than what I know" thrice. Then, he went away.

[1] The permissibility of women's getting out to the place of prayer on the days of the two festivals, to attend the sermon, as separate from men

10-(890) Umm Atiyya narrated: He (meaning The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") ordered us: virgins and matrons, to get out on the days of the two festivals (to the place of prayer). He also ordered the menstruating women to keep themselves far from the praying place of the Muslims.

11-(...) Hafsa Bint Sirin narrated that Umm Atiyya told: We, matrons and virgins, were ordered to get out on the days of the two festivals, and menstruating women would come out but they would remain behind people and magnify Allah along with them.

12-(...) Hafsa Bint Sirin narrated that Umm Atiyya said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us (women) to bring them out, i.e. the virgins, the menstruating women and the matrons on the days of breaking fast "Al-Fitr" and sacrifice "Al-Adha." As for the menstruating women, they would keep themselves away from the prayer,

[2] Leaving the prayer before or after the festival in the praying place

13-(884) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated from Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got out (for prayer) on the day of either sacrifice "Adha" or breaking fast "Fitr." He offered a two-Rak'a prayer, before or after which he did not pray anything. Then, he came to women, accompanying Bilal with him. He ordered them to give in charity. (They responded immediately to the extent that) the woman started throwing her ring and throwing her perfumed bid-like collar.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.

[3] What is recited in the prayer of the two festivals

14-(891) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah narrated that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked Abu Waqid Al-Laithi about what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the (prayer of the) two festivals of Sacrifice "Al-Adha" and Breaking Fast "Al-Fitr." He said: He used to recite in them: "Qaf, by The Glorious Qur'an" and "The Hour (of Judgment) is nigh, and the moon is cleft asunder."

15-(...) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba narrated that Abu Waqid Al-Laithi said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked me about what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited in the (prayer of the) festival. I said to him: He recited: "The Hour (of Judgment) is nigh, and the moon is cleft asunder" and "Qaf, by The Glorious Qur'an."

[4] Permission for playing in which there is no disobedience during the days of the festival

16-(892) Hisham narrated from his father that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: Abu Bakr came to my home while two small Ansari girls were singing beside me what the Ansar said (of poetry) concerning the Day of Bu'ath (on which the war broke up between the tribes of Khazraj and Aws, and the victory was for the latter). They were not (professional) singers. Abu Bakr said protestingly: "Musical instruments of Satan are in the home of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" It happened on the day of Festival, and The Messenger of Allah

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abu Bakr! Every nation has its festival; and this is our festival."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which (they were) two small girls, playing on drums.

17-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that during the Mina days, Abu Bakr came to her, while there where two girls with her, beating drums, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was (lying) covering himself with his garment. Abu Bakr rebuked the two girls, but The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uncovered his face and said: "O Abu Bakr! Let them, for these are the days of the festival." On the other hand, I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" screening me with his garment, while I was watching the Ethiopians playing (with spears), and I was still a small girl. So you would consider how a little girl was to listen to amusement.

18-(...) Urwa narrated: A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: By Allah! I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" standing at the door of my chamber, while the Ethiopians were playing with their spears in the mosque of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He was screening me with his garment in order that I would watch their display. He kept standing as such for my sake until I left (after being satisfied). So you would consider how a little girl was keen on watching the amusement.

19-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to my house while two girls were singing beside me the songs of Bu'ath (a story about the war between the two tribes of the Ansar, Khazraj and Aws, before Islam). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lay down and turned his face to the other side. Then Abu Bakr came and spoke to me harshly saying: "Musical instruments of Satan are near The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his face towards him and said: "Leave them." When Abu Bakr became inattentive, I signalled to those girls to go out and they left.

It was the day of festival, and the Black people were playing with shields and spears; so either I requested the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" or he asked me whether I would like to see the display. I replied in the affirmative. Then the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made me stand behind him and my cheek was touching his cheek

(9) The Book of Istisqa Prayer

1-(894) Abbad Ibn Tamim reported from his uncle Abdullah Ibn Zaid Al-Mazini: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out to the praying place and offered the Istisqa prayer and turned (and put on) his cloak inside out when he faced the Qibla.

2-(...) Abbad Ibn Tamim reported from his uncle (Abdullah Ibn Zaid): The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out to the praying place to offer the Istisqa prayer. He faced the Qibla, turned (and put on) his cloak inside out and then offered two Rak'as.

3-(...) Abbad Ibn Tamim narrated that Abdullah Ibn Zaid Al-Ansari told him that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out to the praying place to offer the prayer of asking Allah for rain "Istisqa." When he intended to invoke (Allah for rain), he faced the Qibla and turned (and put on) his cloak inside out.

4-(...) Abbad Ibn Tamim Al-Mazini narrated that he heard his uncle (Abdullah Ibn Zaid), who was one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: One day, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out (to the praying place) to perform the prayer of invoking Allah for rain. He turned his back to the people and invoked Allah (for rain) while facing the Qibla. He turned (and put on) his cloak inside out and prayed two Rak'as.

[1] Raising the hands while invoking Allah for rain

5-(895) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raising his hands while invoking (Allah) to the extent that the whiteness of his armpits was visible.

6-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never raised his hands in supplication except in invoking Allah for rain, (and he used to raise them so much) that the whiteness of his armpits was visible. Ibn Abd Al-A'la (a sub-narrator) said in his narration: Until the whiteness of his armpit or the whiteness of his armpits was visible.

(...) Quatada narrated that Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated to them about The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.

7-(896) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked Allah for rain, and pointed with the back of his hands to the sky.

[2] The supplication of asking Allah for rain

8-(897) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On a Friday a person entered the main Mosque through the gate facing Dar Al-Qada while Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the Sermon. The man stood in front of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The livestock are dying and the roads are cut off; so please invoke Allah for rain." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised both his hands and said: "O Allah! Bless us with rain! O Allah! Bless us with rain! O Allah! Bless us with rain!"

Anas added: By Allah, there was no trace of cloud in the sky seen by us, and there was no building or a house between us and (the mountain of) Sal. Anas added: A heavy cloud like a shield appeared from behind it (Sal Mountain). When it came in the middle of the sky, it spread and then rained. Anas further said: By Allah! We could not see the sun for a week. Next Friday a person entered through the same gate and at that time Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the Friday's speech. The man stood in front of him and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The livestock are dying and the roads are cut off, please invoke Allah to withhold rain." Anas added: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised both his hands and said: "O Allah! Let it be round us and not on us. O Allah! Let it be on the plateaus, on the mountains, on the hills, in the valleys and on the places where trees grow." So the rain stopped and we came out walking in the sun. Anas was asked: "Was he (who came later) the (same) first man (who came complaining of drought)?" Anas replied: "I do not know."

9-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the people were stricken by famine. While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on the pulpit, delivering the sermon to the people on Friday, a Bedouin stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The livestock are dying, and the children are suffering from starvation"...(and the rest is the same, in which he said: "O Allah! Let it be round us and not upon us!." So, in whatever direction he pointed with his hands, the clouds dispersed and cleared away. In this way, (the sky of) Medina became clear as a hole in between the clouds. The valley of Qanat remained flooded for one month. None came from outside but talked about the abundant rain).

10-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the sermon on Friday when people stood up, shouted and said: "O Allah's Apostle! There is no rain (because of drought), the trees have dried and the livestock are destroyed; please invoke Allah for rain"...(and the rest is the same, in which he mentioned, according to the narration of Abd Al-A'la: So it (the sky) became clear over Medina but it kept on raining over the outskirts (of Medina). No single drop of rain fell over Medina. I looked towards the sky which was as (bright and clear as) the crown).

11-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Thabit from Anas, according to which he said: Allah gathered the clouds and as we (were forced to) stay back I saw that even the strong man, prompted by a desire to go to his family (could not do so)).

12-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, a Bedouin came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was delivering the sermon on Friday...(and the rest is the same, in which he added: I saw the cloud clearing away like a sheet when it is folded up).

13-(898) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: It rained on us while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his garment (and uncovered a portion of his body) till the rain fell upon it. We asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Why did you do so?" He said: "Because it (the rain is a mercy which) has just come from the Glorious Lord."

[3] Taking refuge (with Allah) when one sees a windstorm and a (dark) cloud, and one's feeling happy because of the rainfall

14-(899) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: Whenever it was a stormy or a cloudy day, it (the sign of anxiety) would be visible in the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he would go coming and returning (because of worry). But, whenever it rained, he would become pleased with that, and that (state of anxiety) would be over. I (A'isha) asked him about (the reason of) that. He said: "I was afraid that perhaps it (that windstorm or dark cloud) was a torment inflicted upon my nation." Whenever he saw rainfall, he would say: "It is a mercy (from Allah)."

A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: I never saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughing too loudly to see his uvula, but he used to smile. Whenever he saw clouds or winds, the signs of deep worry would appear on his face. I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Whenever people see clouds they used to feel happy, hoping that it would rain, while I see that whenever you see clouds, the signs of dissatisfaction would be seen on your face." He said: "O A'isha! What does guarantee to me that there will be no punishment in it, since some people were punished with a wind? Behold! Some people saw the Penalty (in the shape of a cloud traversing the sky, coming to meet their valleys), they said, This cloud will give us rain!"

[4] Concerning the winds of As-Saba and Ad-Dabur

(10) The Book Of Eclipse

[1] The prayer of eclipse

1-(901) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: In the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the sun eclipsed, so he led the people in prayer. He stood up and performed a very long standing, then bowed and it was a very long bowing. He raised his head and performed a very long standing but shorter than the first. He bowed again for a very long time but shorter than the first one. Then he prostrated and prolonged the prostration. He got up again (for the second Rak'a) and performed a very long standing but shorter than the first. He bowed again for a very long time but shorter than the first one. He raised his head and performed a very long standing but shorter than the first. He bowed again for a very long time but shorter than the first one. Then he prostrated and prolonged the prostration. Then he finished the prayer. By then the sun (eclipse) cleared. He delivered the sermon and after praising and glorifying Allah he said: "The sun and the moon are two of Allah's signs; they do not eclipse for the death or life of anyone. So when you see the eclipse, remember Allah by saying Takbir (Magnification of Allah), pray and give charity." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "O followers of Mohammad! By Allah! There is none who is more protective (for people to have self-respect) than Allah as He has made it unlawful for His slaves, male or female, to commit adultery. O followers of Mohammad! By Allah! If you knew that which I know, you would laugh little and weep much. Have I not conveyed (Allah's message to you)?."

2-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwa, with the same chain of transmitters, with the following addition: He (The Prophet) said: "Now and then: Both the sun and the moon are from amongst Allah's signs." He also added: Then, he raised his hands and said: "O Allah! Have I not reported (Your Message)?"

3-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: In the lifetime of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the sun eclipsed and he went to the Mosque and the people aligned behind him. He said the Takbir (of starting the prayer) and prolonged the recitation (from the Holy Qur'an) and then said Takbir and performed a prolonged bowing; then he (raised his head and) said: "Sami'a Allahu liman hamidah; Rabbana walaka al-hamd" (Allah heard him who praised Him; O our Lord! To You be the praise). He then (did not prostrate but) stood up and recited a prolonged recitation, which was shorter than the first. He again said Takbir and then bowed a prolonged bowing but shorter than the first one and then said: "Sami'a Allahu Lyman hamidah; Rabbana walaka al-hamd" (Allah heard him who praised Him; O our lord! To You be the praise) and then prostrated. He did the same in the second rak'a. Thus he completed four bowings and four prostrations. The sun (eclipse) had cleared before he finished the prayer. (After the prayer) he stood up, glorified and praised Allah as He deserved and then said: "The sun and the moon are two of Allah's signs. They do not eclipse because of death or life (birth) of anyone. When you see them hurry to the prayer." He said: "You should pray until Allah relieves you." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also said: "Verily, in that station of mine, I saw everything you have been promised. I even saw myself having the intention of picking a bunch (of grapes) from Paradise (and that was) when you saw me moving forward. And I saw Hell with some of its parts destroying the others (and that was) when you saw me moving backward. I saw in it (the Hell) Ibn Luhai who made the she-camels loiter about." The narration of Abu Tahir ended with his saying: "You should hurry to prayer" and he did not mention what is next to that.

4-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that once, there was a solar eclipse during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who sent a caller announcing that ("you should come to) a congregational prayer." They gathered, and he (The Prophet) proceeded and led a two-Rak'a prayer, including four bowings and four prostrations.

5-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited (the Qur'an) loudly in the eclipse prayer, which he offered as two Rak'as, including four bowings and four prostrations.

(902) Az-Zuhri narrated: Kathir Ibn Abbas told me from Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered two Rak'as (for the eclipse prayer), including four bowings and four prostrations.

(...) Az-Zuhri narrated: Kathir Ibn Abbas narrated that Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" told about the prayer of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day when the sun eclipsed the same as narrated by Urwa from A'isha.

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who stood up (in the prayer) for a very long time. He then bowed, then stood up, then bowed, then stood up and then bowed, offering (in this way) two Rak'as, including three bowings and four prostrations. He then finished and the sun became bright. Whenever he bowed, he would say: "Allah is Greater." Whenever he raised his head (from bowing) He would say: "Allah heard him who praised Him." Then, he stood up, praised and thanked Allah, and then said: "The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of the death or the life (birth) of anyone. But they are from amongst the signs of Allah, with which Allah frightens His slaves. So when you see their eclipse, celebrate Allah till they become bright."

7-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered (for the eclipse prayer) six bowings and four prostrations.

[2] Mentioning the grave punishment in the eclipse prayer

8-(903) Amra narrated that a Jewess came to ask A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" about something. She said to her: "May Allah give you refuge from the punishment of the grave." So A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Would the people be punished in their graves?" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", after seeking refuge with Allah from the punishment of the grave, replied in the affirmative. Then one day, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode to go to some place but the sun eclipsed. I came out with some women through the rear of the dwellings (of The Prophet's wives) in the mosque. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came back from his journey and reached his praying place. He stood for the (eclipse) prayer, with people standing behind him. He stood up for a long period and then performed a long bowing. Then he raised (his head) and stood for a long period but shorter than the first standing, and then performed a prolonged bowing which was shorter than the first bowing. Then he raised his head and (at that time) the sun became bright. Then, he said (after finishing the prayer): "I see that you would be put to trial in the graves like that (trial) of Ad-Dajjal." Afterwards, I used to listen to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seeking refuge (with Allah) from the torment of the fire (of Hell) and from the punishment of the grave.

(...) The same Hadith transmitted by Sulaiman Ibn Bilal was also narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, with the same chain of transmitters.

[3] What was displayed before The Prophet during the eclipse prayer concerning the Paradise and the fire (of Hell)

9-(904) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", there was a solar eclipse on a very hot day. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led his companions in the (eclipse) prayer, in which he prolonged the standing to the extent that they (the companions) started to fall down. Then, he bowed for a long time. Then he raised (his head from bowing) and prolonged the standing. Then, he bowed for a long period. Then, he raised (his head from bowing) and stood for a long time. Then, he offered two prostrations. Then, he stood up and did the same (in the second Rak'a). in this way, it (the prayer) consisted of (two Rak'as, including) four bowings and four prostrations. Then, he said (after finishing the prayer): "Verily, everything you would enter (whether Paradise or Hell) was displayed to me. The Paradise was shown to me, (and it was so much near to me) that if I (stretched my hand and) picked a bunch (of grapes) from it, I could do, (or he said: I intended to pick a punch from it) but my hand was too short to take it. The fire (of Hell) was shown to me, in which I saw a woman from the children of Israel, who was tortured for the sake of a cat, which she tied (and imprisoned): She did neither feed it, nor did she (release and) let it eat from the insects of the earth. I also saw (in the Hell) Abu Thumama: Amr Ibn Malik, dragging his intestines in the fire. However, it is said (by some people) that both the sun and the moon do not eclipse except for the death of a great person. Verily, they are two of Allah's signs, which He shows you. So, if they eclipsed, then, you should pray until they become bright."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, but here he mentioned (that The Prophet said): "I saw in the fire (of Hell) a tall black woman, from Himyar", and did not mention that she was from the children of Israel.

10-(...) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the sun eclipsed on the day when Ibrahim, the son of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died. The people said that it eclipsed only for the death of Ibrahim. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and led the people in the (eclipse) prayer, which consisted of six bowings and four prostrations (in two Rak'as). He started (the prayer) with magnification. Then, he recited, and prolonged the recitation. Then, he bowed for a long time equal to the duration of his standing. Then, he raised his head from bowing, and recited for a certain period shorter than the (duration of the) first recitation. Then, he bowed for a certain period, equal to the duration of his standing. Then, he raised his head from bowing, and recited for a certain time, shorter than the (duration of the) second recitation. Then, he bowed for a certain time, equal to the duration of his standing. Then, he raised his head from bowing. Then, he fell down in prostration, and offered two prostrations.

Then, he stood up, and offered three bowings, and there was none of them except that the preceding one was longer (in duration) than the subsequent. His bowing was also equal (in duration) to his prostration. Then, he went back, with the rows behind him moving back too, until we (or he, according to the narration of Abu Bakr) reached the women. Then, he proceeded, and the people moved forward with him, until he stood in his place (where he led the prayer). He did not finish the prayer before the sun had become bright.

Then, he said (addressing the people): "O people! Verily, both the sun and the moon are two of Allah's signs, and they never eclipse for the death of anyone (or human, according to the narration of Abu Bakr) of the people. So, if you saw such a thing (as the eclipse), then, you should pray until it becomes bright. However, there was nothing, which you have been promised (in the hereafter) but that I saw in this prayer of mine. The fire (of Hell) was brought, and that was when you saw me having gone back, for fear that its heat might hurt me. In it, I saw the man, famous for his hook, dragging his intestines in the fire. He used to steal the pilgrims with his hook. If he (the pilgrim) was attentive to it, he (the thief) would say: "No doubt, that (stolen thing) was caught unintentionally by my hook"; and if he was inattentive to it, he would take it. I saw in it also the woman, famous for the cat, which she tied (and imprisoned). She neither fed it, nor did she (release and) let it eat from the insects of the earth, until it died of hunger. Then, the Paradise was brought, and that was when you saw me having proceeded until I stood in my place (where I led the prayer). I stretched my hand, with the intention of picking some of its fruits in order to see them, but, it seemed to me not to do so. So, there was nothing which you have been promised (in the hereafter) except that I saw it in that prayer of mine."

11-(905) Asma Bint "daughter of" Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I came to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" while she was praying, and said to her: "What has happened to the people?" She pointed out with her head towards the sky. I

I caught hold of a water-skin lying by my side, and began to pour water over my head, or on my face. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, the sun had become bright. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, addressing the people, after he had praised and glorified Allah: "Just now at this place of mine, there was nothing which I have never seen before but that I saw it including Paradise and Hell. No doubt it has been inspired to me that you will be put to trials in your graves and these trials will be like the trials of Ad-Dajjal (or nearly like it, I do not know which expression was used). You will be asked: "What do you know about this man (The Prophet Muhammad)?" Then the faithful believer (or the assuredly believer) will reply: "He is Muhammad Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who had come to us with clear evidences and guidance and so we accepted his teachings and followed him." He will repeat it thrice. Then the angels will say to him: "Sleep peacefully as we have come to know that you were a faithful believer." On the other hand, a hypocrite or a doubtful person (I do not know which word was used) will reply: "I do not know, but I heard the people saying something and so I said it"."

12-(...) Asma "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Once, I came to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", while the people were standing (for prayer). She was also offering the prayer. I asked her: "What has happened to the people?"...and the rest is the same as narrated by Ibn Numair from Hisham.

13-(...) Az-Zuhri narrated that Urwa said: Do not say "The sun eclipsed" but say: "The sun was eclipsed."

14-(906) Asma' Bint Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: One day (i.e. on the day when the sun eclipsed), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt so much anxious that he (hurriedly) took hold of the outer garment (of one of his wives) and later, his (own) cloak was sent to him. He stood in prayer leading the people for such a long time that if a man came and did not know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had bowed, he would not think that he had bowed, in view of his long standing.

15-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abu Juraij, with the same chain of transmitters and added: "He (The Prophet) stood (in prayer) for a long period, after which he bowed." He added too: "I (Asma') looked at a woman who was older than me, and at another who was weaker than me."

16-(...) Asma Bint Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who felt so much anxious that he (hastily) took, by mistake, an outer garment of one of his wives (instead of his own). Later on, his own cloak was sent to him. After I had answered the call of nature (and performed ablution) I came and entered the mosque, where I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" standing for prayer.

I stood (for prayer) with him. He prolonged the standing so much that I saw myself having the desire to sit down. But, I looked and found the weak woman, and said: "That woman is weaker than me (though she is still standing)." So, I kept standing. Then, he bowed and prolonged the bowing. Then, he raised his head (from bowing) and prolonged the standing to the extent that if a man came (and did not know that he had bowed), he would think that he (The Prophet) had not bowed.

17-(907) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The sun eclipsed in the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the eclipse prayer and stood for a long time, equal to the period in which one could recite The Sura of Al-Baqara. Then he bowed for a long time and then stood up for a long period, shorter than that of the first standing, then bowed again for a long time, shorter than that of the first; then he prostrated (twice). Then he stood up (in the second Rak'a) for a long period , shorter than that of the previous standing. Then he bowed for a long time, shorter than that of the previous bowing. Then he raised his head and stood up for a long period, shorter than that of the previous standing. Then he bowed for a long time, shorter than that of the previous bowing. Then he prostrated (twice) and finished the prayer. By then, the sun (eclipse) cleared.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "The sun and the moon are two of the signs of Allah. They eclipse neither because of the death nor because of the life of anybody. So when you see them, remember Allah." The people said: "O Allah's Apostle! We saw you taking something from your place and then we saw you having prevented yourself." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "I saw Paradise and stretched my hands towards a bunch (of its fruits) and had I taken it, you would have eaten from it as long as the world remains. I also saw the Hell-fire and I had never seen such a horrible sight. I saw that most of its inhabitants were women." The people asked: "O Allah's Apostle! Why is it so?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Because of their ungratefulness." He was asked whether they are ungrateful to Allah. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They are ungrateful to their companions of life (husbands) and ungrateful to good deeds. If you are benevolent to one of them throughout the life, and (once) she sees anything (undesirable) in you, she will say: I have never had any good from you."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Aslam, with the same chain of transmitters, in which he mentioned that they (the companions) said: "Then, we saw you having kept back."

[4] What about him, who said that he (The Prophet) offered eight bowings and four prostrations(for the eclipse prayer)

18-(908) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: When the sun eclipsed, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered eight bowings and four prostrations (in two Rak'as). Ali narrated the same.

19-(909) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the eclipse prayer as follows: He recited (as standing) then bowed, then (raised his head from bowing and) recited (as standing), then bowed, then (raised his head and) recited (as standing), then bowed, then (raised his head and) recited (as standing) and then bowed. Then he prostrated (twice). He did the same in the other Rak'a.

[5] The call to the eclipse prayer: "(Come to) the congregational prayer"

20-(910) Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: When the sun eclipsed during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", it was called for the prayer: "(Come to) the congregational prayer!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (offered the eclipse prayer, in which he) performed two bowings in one Rak'a. then, he stood up and offered two bowings in one Rak'a. by then, the sun (eclipse) cleared. A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: "I have never offered such bowing and prostration as longer than that (I offered in such a prayer)."

21-(911) Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both the sun and the moon are two of Allah's signs, by whose (eclipse) Allah frightens His slaves. They never eclipse for the death of anyone of the people. If you see anything like that, offer (the eclipse) prayer, and invoke Allah until it (the eclipse) is over."

22-(...) Abu Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of anyone's death. But they are two signs of Allah (which He uses to frighten His slaves). So whenever you see these (eclipses), stand up and pray."

23-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Isma'il, with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Sufyan and Waki, he (the narrator) said: The sun eclipsed on the day when Ibrahim (the son of The Prophet) died. The people said: "It eclipsed for the death of Ibrahim."

24-(912) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He got up, prompted by the fear that it might be the doomed Hour. He went to the Mosque and offered the prayer with the longest standing, bowing and prostration, which I had never seen him doing in any prayer else. Then he said: "These signs which Allah sends do not occur because of the death or life of somebody, but Allah sends them in order to make His worshipers afraid by them (or in order to frighten His slaves, according to the narration of Ibn Al-Ala). So when you see anything thereof, take refuge to remembering Allah, invoking Him and asking for His forgiveness."

25-(913) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura narrated: While I was practicing archery during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the sun eclipsed. I threw my arrows away and said (to myself): "I'm going to see what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would do as regards the sun eclipse today. I reached him, while he was raising his hand, invoking (Allah), magnifying and praising (Him), and uttering (the phrase): "There is no God but Allah", until the sun (eclipse) was over. He recited two Suras and offered two Rak'as.

26-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Samura, who was one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", narrated: I was shooting with some arrows of mine in Medina during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", when the sun eclipsed. I threw them away and said (to myself): "By Allah! I'm going to see what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would do, concerning the sun eclipse." I came to him, while he was standing in prayer, raising his hands. He started glorifying, praising, magnifying (Allah), saying: "There is no god but Allah", and supplicating until it (the sun) brightened. When it brightened, he recited two Suras, and offered two Rak'as.

(11) The Book Of Funerals

[1] Reminding the dying person to utter "There is no god but Allah"

1-(916) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Remind your dying person to utter "There is no god but Allah" (by reciting it aloud before him)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Bilal, with the same chain of transmitters.

2-(917) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Remind your dying person to utter "There is no god but Allah" (by reciting it aloud before him)."

[2] What is said at the time of calamity

3-(918) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There is no Muslim befallen by a calamity, because of which he says what Allah commanded him to say: "We are to Allah, to Whom we shall return; O Allah! Give me a reward for (my patience on) my calamity, and recompense me with something better in substitution for it", but that Allah would recompense him with something better than it, in substitution for it." When (my husband) Abu Salama died, I said: "Who of the Muslims is better than Abu Salama! (He with) his family was the first to emigrate to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." When I said it, Allah recompensed me with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (as a husband in substitution for Abu Salama). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Hatib Ibn Abu Balta'a to demand my hand on his behalf. I said: "I have a daughter (as my dependent), and I'm a jealous (woman)." He replied: "As for her daughter, we supplicate to Allah to cause her to become independent from her. I also supplicate to Allah to take away the jealousy."

4-(...) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There is no slave befallen by a calamity, because of which he says: "We are to Allah, to Whom we shall return; O Allah! Give me a reward for (my patience on) my calamity, and recompense me with something better in substitution for it", but that Allah would give him a reward for his (patience on such a) calamity, and give him something better, in substitution for it." When (my husband) Abu Salama died, I said what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to say. So, Allah gave me a substitute, better than him, i.e. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

5-(...) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying (the same Hadith narrated by Abu Usama, in which he added: She said: When Abu Salama died, I said: "Who of the Muslims is better than Abu Salama, the companion of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" Allah determined for me (to say it), and I said it. Then, I was married to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[3] What is said beside the sick and the dead

6-(919) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you are present by the side of a sick or a dead person, you should say good, for the angels confirm by uttering "amen" to what you said." She added: When Abu Salama died, I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Abu Salama died." He said: "You should say: O Allah! Forgive for me and him, and give me a substitute, better than him." I said so, and Allah gave me a better substitute, who was good for me, (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[4] Closing the eyes of the dead, and invoking good upon him at the time of visiting him

7-(920) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon Abu Salama (after he had died), with his eyes fixedly open . He closed them and said: "If one's soul is arrested (by the angels), the sight would follow it." Some of the people of his family went on weeping. He said: "Do not invoke upon yourselves anything but good, for angels say " Amen" in confirmation to what you say." He then said (invoking): "O Allah, forgive Abu Salama, raise his degree among those who are rightly guided, grant him a (good) successor in his remaining offspring. Forgive us and him, O Lord of the worlds, make spacious his grave, and endow him with light in it."

8-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Khalid Al-Hadhdha, with the same chain of transmitters, including such changes as: "(O Allah)

مُصِيبَتِهِ، وَأَخْلَفَ لَهُ خَيْراً مِنْهَا».

قَالَتْ: فَلَمَّا تُوُفِّيَ أَبُو سَلَمَةَ قُلْتُ كَمَا أَمَرَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَأَخْلَفَ اللَّهُ لِي خَيْراً مِنْهُ: رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

٣ ـ باب ما يُقال عند المَرِيض والمَيِّت

٦ ـ (٩١٩) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَأَبُو كُرَيْبٍ. قَالاَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ شَقِيقٍ، عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ؛ قَالَتْ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِذَا حَضَرْتُمُ الْمَرِيضَ، أَوِ الْمَيِّتَ، فَقُولُوا خَيْراً، فَإِنَّ الْمَلاَئِكَةَ يُؤَمِّنُونَ عَلَىٰ مَا تَقُولُونَ». قَالَتْ: فَلَمَّا مَاتَ أَبُو سَلَمَةَ أَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ، فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، إِنَّ أَبَا سَلَمَةَ قَدْ مَاتَ. قَالَ: «قُولِي: اللَّهُمَّ، اغْفِرْ لِي وَلَهُ، وَأَعْقِبْنِي مِنْهُ عُقْبَىٰ حَسَنَةً». قَالَتْ: فَقُلْتُ، فَأَعْقَبَنِي اللَّهُ مَنْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ لِي مِنْهُ، مُحَمَّداً ﷺ.

٤ ـ باب في إغْمَاضِ المَيِّت والدعاءِ له إذا حُضر

Let You be a Guardian of what he left...O Allah! Make large his grave." Khalid Al-Hadhdha said: There is a seventh invocation, which I forgot.

[5] The dead's sight is fixedly open, following the soul

9-(921) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Did you not see that whenever one died, his eyes would be fixedly open?" they said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) said: "That is because when (the soul is taken away) his eyesight follows the soul."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-Ala, with the same chain of transmitters.

[6] Weeping for the dead

10-(922) Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: When (my husband) Abu Salama died, I said: "What a stranger he was, who died in a strange land! (She meant that he died in Medina, though he belonged to the dwellers of Mecca) Verily, I'm going to weep for him so much that the people would talk about it." I was getting myself ready to weep for him, when a woman came from the upper part of Medina, in order to support me (in weeping for him). At this time, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" received her and said: "Do you want to cause Satan to enter a house, from which Allah drove him away twice?" I kept myself from weeping. In this way, I did not wail (on him).

11-(923) Usama Ibn Zaid "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The daughter of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent (a messenger) to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" requesting him to come as her child (or son) was dying (or was gasping), but The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told the messenger: "Return and say to her: Whatever Allah takes is for Him, and whatever He gives is for Him, and everything with Him has a limited fixed term (in this world). So tell her to be patient and hope for Allah's reward." The messenger came back (to him once again) and said to him: "She swore that you should come to her." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up accompanied by Sa'd Ibn Ubada, Mu'adh Ibn Jabal, and I went with them. The child was brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while his breath was disturbed in his chest as if it was a leather water-skin. On that the eyes of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started shedding tears. Sa'd said: "O Allah's Apostle! What is this?" He replied: "It is mercy which Allah has lodged in وَلَمْ يَقُلِ: «افْسَحْ لَهُ». وَزَادَ: قَالَ خَالِدٌ الْحَذَّاءُ: وَدَعْوَةٌ أُخْرَىٰ سَابِعَةٌ نَسِيتُهَا.

٥ ـ باب في شُخوص بصرِ الميِّت يَتْبَعُ نفسَه

(...) ـ وحدّثناه قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ ـ يَعْنِي الدَّرَاوَرْدِيَّ ـ عَنِ الْعَلَاءِ، بِهٰذَا الإِسْنَادِ.

٦ ـ باب البُكاء على الميِّت

the hearts of His slaves, and Allah is merciful only to those among His slaves who are merciful (to others)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Asim Al-Ahwal, with the same chain of transmitters, but the Hadith narrated by Hammad is more complete and much longer.

12-(924) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, Sa'd Ibn Ubada complained of a certain disease, for which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", accompanied by Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf and Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, came to visit him (and inquire about his health). When he entered upon him, he found him unconscious (or surrounded by his household, according to another interpretation). He asked: "Has he died?" they replied: "No, O Messenger of Allah." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wept. When the people (who were present there) saw the weeping of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they all wept. Upon this, he said: "Do you not listen? Verily, Allah never punishes (His slaves) because of the eye-tears, nor does He do for the grief of the heart. But He punishes or turns in mercy for that (and he pointed to the tongue)."

[7] Visiting the sick persons

13-(925) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We were sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man from the Ansar came and greeted him. Then, he turned back. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O brother of Ansar! How is (the health of) my brother (in the religion of Allah) Sa'd Ibn Ubada?" the man replied: "He is fine." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who of you would (go and) visit him (with me to inquire about his health)?" he got up, and we got up with him. We were over ten persons, having neither sandals nor leather socks, neither turbans nor shirts. We walked across this salty land until we reached his house. His companions who were around him moved backward in order that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions who came with him could approach him.

[8] The patience is to be at the first stroke of the calamity

14-(926) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The patience is to be (only rewardable when it occurs) at the first stroke (of the calamity)."

مَا هٰذَا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالَ: «هٰذِهِ رَحْمَةٌ جَعَلَهَا اللَّهُ فِي قُلُوبِ عِبَادِهِ، وَإِنَّمَا يَرْحَمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الرُّحَمَاءَ».

15-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" happened to come across a woman, who was weeping for (the death of) a child of hers. He said to her: "Fear Allah and be patient." She said: "What do you have to do with my calamity?" when he went away, it was said to her that he was The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". As a result, she was taken by a state (of unconsciousness as terrible) as death. She came to the door (of his house) and found no porters. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! I did not recognize you." He said: "The patience is to be (only rewardable) at the first stroke (of the calamity)."

22-(928) Abdullah Ibn Abu Mulaika reported: I was sitting beside Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both", waiting for the funeral of Umm Aban, the daughter of Uthman. (With us) there was Amr Ibn Uthman. At the same time there came Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" led by a guide. I think he was informed (by his guide) of the place where Ibn Umar was sitting. He came till he sat beside me. While I was between them (Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar) there came a voice (of wailing) from the house. Ibn Umar said (as if he was hinting to Amr to stand and forbid them): I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The dead is punished for the wailing of his family (upon him)." Abdullah made it general (without restricting it to any particular occasion).

(927) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: We were with the Commander of The Believers, Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him", when we reached Al-Baida, where there was a man under the shadow of the tree. He said to me: "Go and tell me who is that man." I went and (found out) that he was Suhaib. I returned to him and said: "You ordered me to (go and then) tell you who that was, and he is Suhaib. He said: "Tell him to join us." I said: "He has his family with him." He said: "Even if he has his family with him (tell him to join us, perhaps Aiyyub, a sub-narrator said)."

When we came (to Medina), it was not after a long time that the Commander of The Believers was fatally wounded. Suhaib came weeping and crying: "Alas for the brother! alas for the companion!" Upon this, Umar said: "Did you not know, or did you not hear that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said:" The dead would be punished for a certain kind of his family's wailing (on him)"?" Abdullah made it general (without restricting it to any particular type of wailing), though Umar restricted it to certain type (of wailing).

(929) I (the narrator Abdullah Ibn Abu Mulaika) stood up and went to A'isha whom I told of what Ibn Umar had said. She said: "No, by Allah! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never said that "the dead would be punished for his family's wailing (over him)." But, he said that "Allah would increase the torment of the unbeliever for his family's wailing on him." Verily it is Allah Who has caused laughter and weeping. No bearer of a burden will bear the burden of another." Ibn Abu Mulaika told that Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad said that when the statement of both Umar and Ibn Umar was reported to A'isha, she said: "You are narrating it to me from those who are neither liars nor suspected of lying, but one's hearing might mislead (him)."

23-(928) Abdullah Ibn Abu Mulaika reported: A daughter of Uthman died in Mecca, and we came to follow her funeral procession, which was attended by both Ibn Umar and Ibn Abbas. While I was sitting between them (or I was sitting by the side of one of them, and then the other came and sat beside me), (there came a voice of wailing from the house and) Ibn Umar said to Amr Ibn Uthman, who was facing him: "Do you not forbid (them) from wailing? No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dead is punished for the wailing of his family (upon him)"."

(927) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: "Umar used to say some of that." Then, he narrated: I set out with Umar from Mecca. When we reached Al-Baida, there was a group of people under the shadow of a tree. He said to me: "Go and tell me who are those people." I (went and) found out that he was Suhaib (and his family). I (returned and) told him. He said: "Invite him to me." I returned to Suhaib and told him: "Set out and join the Commander of the believers." قَالَ أَيُّوبُ: قَالَ ابْنُ أَبِي مُلَيْكَةَ: حَدَّثَنِي الْقَاسِمُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ قَالَ: لَمَّا بَلَغَ عَائِشَةَ قَوْلُ عُمَرَ وَابْنِ عُمَرَ، قَالَتْ: إِنَّكُمْ لَتُحَدِّثُونِي عَنْ غَيْرِ كَاذِبَيْنِ وَلاَ مُكَذَّبَيْنِ، وَلٰكِنَّ السَّمْعَ يُخْطِىءُ.

(٩٢٩) ـ فَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ: فَلَمَّا مَاتَ عُمَرُ ذَكَرْتُ ذٰلِكَ لِعَائِشَةَ. فَقَالَتْ: يَرْحَمُ اللَّهُ عُمَرَ، لاَ وَاللَّهِ مَا حَدَّثَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُعَذِّبُ الْمُؤْمِنَ بِبُكَاءِ أَحَدٍ»، that "Allah would punish the (dying) believer for anyone's wailing (on him)." But, he said that "Allah would increase the torment of the (dying) unbeliever for his family's wailing on him." It is enough for you (to recite the following Verse from) The Qur'an: "No bearer of a burden will bear the burden of another." (The Originator of Creation "Fatir" 18) at this point, Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" said: "Verily it is Allah Who has caused laughter and weeping." Ibn Abu Mulaika said: By Allah! Ibn Umar never said anything.

(...) Amr narrated from Ibn Abu Mulaika: We were attending the funeral of Umm Aban, the daughter of Uthman...(and the rest is the same, without tracing it to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through Umar, as did both Aiyyub and Ibn Juraij, whose narration is more complete than that narrated by Amr).

24-(930) Salim narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dead is punished for the wailing of the living (humans on him)."

25-(931) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father that once, it was mentioned before A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" the state of Ibn Umar "The dead is punished for his family's wailing on him." Upon this, she said: "Allah's mercy be upon Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! He heard something, which he did not keep well. What really happened was that once, a bear of a Jew came across The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and they (the members of his family) were wailing on him. Upon this, he (The Prophet) said: "You are wailing, and no doubt, he is being punished"."

26-(932) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father: It was mentioned in the presence of A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated the following statement, tracing it to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "The dead is punished for the wailing of his family on him." Upon this, she said: "He is mistaken. What The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said was that "He (the dead) is punished for his sin or guilt, and the members of his family are now weeping for him." That (what Ibn Umar said) is like what he said, i.e. that on the day of (the holy battle of) Badr, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up beside the well of Qalib, in which there were the killed unbelievers of Badr. When he said to them what he had said, he commented: "They are hearing what I'm saying." However, he (Ibn Umar) is mistaken (concerning this matter too). What he (The Prophet) said was that "They know well that what I used to say to them (before their death) was true." Then, she recited:

وَلٰكِنْ قَالَ: «إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرَ عَذَاباً بِبُكَاءِ أَهْلِهِ عَلَيْهِ». قَالَ: وَقَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ: حَسْبُكُمُ الْقُرْآنُ: ﴿وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِزْرَ أُخْرَىٰ﴾ [فاطر: ١٨] قَالَ: وَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ عِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ: وَاللَّهُ «أَضْحَكَ وَأَبْكَى».

Amra Bint Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that she heard A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" saying, when it was mentioned to her that Abdullah Ibn Umar said that the dead would be punished for the wailing of the living (persons on him): May Allah pardon Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! No doubt, he did not intend to tell a lie, but, perhaps he forgot or committed a mistake. It was that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" happened to pass by a Jewess, who was being wailed on (because of her death). Upon this, he said: "They (the members of her family) are wailing for her, and she is being punished in her grave."

28-(933) Ali Ibn Rabie'a narrated: The dead who was wailed upon in Kufa was Qaraza Ibn Ka'b. Al-Mughira Ibn Shu'ba said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He, who was wailed upon, would be punished for such a wailing on him on The Day of Judgement."

[10] The grievous punishment for the wailing (on the dead)

29-(934) Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are, in my nation, four characteristics belonging to the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, which they (my people) would not give up: Vying in glory with high ranks, abusing the genealogies of others, seeking for rain by (the help of) stars, and wailing (for the dead)." He (The Prophet) said: "If the wailing woman does not repent before her death, she will be made to stand on The Day of Judgement, wearing a garment of pitch and a shirt of mange."

30-(935) Amra narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: When the news of the martyrdom of Zaid Ibn Haritha, Ja'far Ibn Abu Talib and Abdullah Ibn Rawaha came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he sat down looking sad, and I was looking through the chink of the door. A man came and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The women of Ja'far," and then he mentioned their crying. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to stop them from crying. The man went and came back and said: "I tried to stop them but they disobeyed." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him for the second time to forbid them. He went again and came back and said: "They overpowered us O Messenger of Allah!" she (Amra) said that she (A'isha) told: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Put dust in their mouths." (Then she said): I said (to that man): "May Allah stick your nose in the dust! By Allah! You could neither (get the women) comply with the order of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" nor did you relieve Allah's Apostle from trouble!"

31-(936) Umm Atiyya narrated: At the time of giving the pledge of allegiance The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a covenant from us not to wail (for the dead). But that was not fulfilled at that time except by five women: Umm Sulaim, Umm Al-Ala, the daughter of Abu Sabra, the wife of Mu'adh, (and two other women), or the daughter of Abu Sabra and the wife of Mu'adh (and another woman).

34-(938) Umm Atiyya narrated: We (women) were forbidden to follow the funeral processions, but that was not made absolute for us.

35-(...) Umm Atiyya narrated: We (women) were forbidden to follow the funeral processions, but that was not made absolute for us.

[12] Washing the dead body

36-(939) Umm Atiyya reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us while we were washing (the dead body of) his daughter. He said: "Wash her thrice or five times or more, if you see it necessary, with water and fused leaves of lote. Then apply camphor or some of it at the end. When you finish, notify me." So when we finished it, we informed him and he gave us his waist-sheet and told us to shroud the dead body in it.

37-(...) Umm Atiyya narrated: We combed her hair, and entwined it in three braids.

38-(...) Umm Atiyya reported: One of the daughters of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died. In the Hadith narrated by Ibn Ulaiyya (she said): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us while we were washing (the dead body of) his daughter. In the Hadith narrated by Malik (she said): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered (the house) when his daughter died. The rest of the Hadith is the same as narrated by Yazid Ibn Zurai from Aiyyub from Muhammad from Umm Atiyya.

39-(...) Umm Atiyya narrated the same Hadith, with this addition: He (The Prophet) said: "Wash her three times, five times, seven times, or more, if you see it necessary." Hafsa narrated from Umm Atiyya: We entwined (the hair of) her head in three braids.

(...) Hafsa narrated from Umm Atiyya (that The Prophet said): "Wash her odd number of times: three, five or seven times." Umm Atiyya said: We combed her hair and entwined it in three braids.

40-(...) Umm Atiyya narrated: When Zainab, daughter of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, He said: "Wash her odd number of times: three or five times. Then apply camphor or some of it at the fifth (washing). When you finish, notify me."

[13] The shroud of the dead

44-(940) Khabbab Ibn Al-Aratt reported: We emigrated with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in Allah's cause, and so our reward was then surely incumbent on Allah. Some of us died and they did not take anything from their rewards in this world, amongst whom was Mus'ab Ibn Umair ; and others got their rewards. Mus'ab Ibn Umair was martyred on the day of Uhud battle, and we could get nothing except his short garment to shroud him in. When we covered his head his feet became bare and vice versa. So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to cover his head only and to put Idhkhir (a kind of shrub) over his feet. On the other hand, there is one amongst us for whom the fruit (of reward) has become ripe which he plucks.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

45-(941) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was shrouded in three Yemenite white pieces of cotton cloth, in which there was neither a shirt nor a turban. As regards the cloak, the people had a doubt as to the fact that it was bought for him to be shrouded in it. However, it was left, and he (The Prophet) was shrouded in three Yemenite white pieces of cotton cloth. It (the cloak) was taken by Abdullah Ibn Abu Bakr, who said: "I'm going to keep it, so that I would be shrouded in it." But later, he said (to himself): "If Allah Almighty

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters.

[15] Making well the shroud of the dead

49-(943) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering a speech when he mentioned one of his companions who died. He was shrouded in a badly incomplete shroud (too short to cover the whole of his body), and then he was buried at night. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" scolded (the people for the fact) that a man should be buried at night before offering the funeral prayer on him, except in case one is forced to do so. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you shrouded his brother, he should shroud him well."

[16] Hastening in the funeral

50-(944) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Hurry up with the dead body for if it was (of a person who was) righteous, then it would be good (Perhaps he said "to which you would forward it"); and if it was otherwise, then you would put off an evil thing down your necks."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, from Sa'id, from Abu Huraira, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But, in the narration of Ma'mar, he said: I do not know except that he traced the Hadith.

51-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Hurry up with the dead body for if it was (of a person who was) righteous, you would forward it to welfare; otherwise, you would put off an evil thing down your necks."

[17] The excellence of the funeral prayer and of following the funeral procession

52-(945) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who accompanies the funeral procession and remains with it till the funeral prayer is offered will have (a reward equal to) one Qirat. If he waits till it (the dead body) is buried, he will have (a reward equal to) two Qirats." They asked: "What are the two Qirats?" he said: "They are as huge as two Mountains." To this point, the narration of Abu Tahir ended. There is an addition, narrated from Salim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar that Ibn Umar used to offer the funeral prayer and then go away. When he was informed of the Hadith narrated by Abu Huraira, he said: "No doubt, we wasted a lot of Qirats."

(...) The same was narrated by Ma'mar, from Az-Zuhri, from Sa'id, from Abu Huraira, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to the words "Two huge mountains", and what follows was not mentioned. In the narration of Abd Al-A'la, he said: "until the burial ceremonies are over." In the narration of Abd Ar-Razzaq he said: "until it (the dead body) is put in the grave."

(...) The same as transmitted by Ma'mar was narrated on the authority of Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters, in which he said: "and whoever followed it (the funeral procession) until it (the dead body) is buried."

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him. It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him. It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him." Then another funeral procession passed and the people condemned the deceased. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It (Hell) has been affirmed to him. It (Hell) has been affirmed to him. It (Hell) has been affirmed to him." Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! A funeral procession passed by, with the people praising the deceased; and you said: "It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him. It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him. It (Paradise) has been affirmed to him." Another funeral procession passed, with the people criticizing the deceased; and you said: "It (Hell) has been affirmed to him. It (Hell) has been affirmed to him. It (Hell) has been affirmed to him"." Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whomever you praised, Paradise has been affirmed to him; and whomever you criticized, Hell has been affirmed to him. You people are Allah's witnesses on earth. You people are Allah's witnesses on earth. You people are Allah's witnesses on earth."

[21] What about the one who would be relieved, and the one from whom others would be relieved

61-(950) Abu Quatada Ibn Rib'i narrated: Once, a funeral procession passed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Let him be relieved and from whom others be relieved!" they asked: "O Messenger of Allah! What is the one who would be relieved and the one from whom others would be relieved?" he said: "The believing slave would be relieved from this world troubles, and the wicked slave would cause the people, towns, trees and beasts to be relieved from him."

(...) Abu Quatada narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters. In the Hadith narrated by Yahya Ibn Sa'id he (The Prophet) said: "He (the believer) would get relief from the world's damages and troubles (and enters) into the mercy of Allah."

[22] Reciting Takbir for the funeral (prayer)

62-(951) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" announced to the people the death of Negus on the day he died. He took them out to the praying place, where he offered four Takbirs.

63-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" announced to us (the death of) the Negus of Ethiopia on the day he died and said: "Ask for Allah's forgiveness for your brother." Ibn Shihab narrated that Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab told him that Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made them align in the praying place, where he offered prayer and recited four Takbirs for him.

(...) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters.

64-(952) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the (funeral) prayer for Ashama, the Negus, and recited four Takbirs for him.

65-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Today, a righteous one of Allah's slaves died, i.e. Ashama (the Negus of Ethiopia)." He stood up and led us in a funeral prayer for him.

66-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: (When the Negus died) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "One of your brothers died. So, stand up and offer the (funeral) prayer for him." We got up, and he drew us in two rows (to offer the funeral prayer for him).

67-(953) Imran Ibn Husain narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "One of your brothers (or your brother, according to the narration of Zuhair) died. (He meant the Negus). So, stand up and offer the (funeral) prayer for him."

[23] Offering the prayer on the grave

68-(954) Ash-Sha'bi narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the (funeral) prayer on a grave and recited four Takbirs after the deceased was buried. Ash-Shaibani said: I asked Ash-Sha'bi: "Who narrated that to you?" he said: "The reliable one, i.e. Ibn Abbas. That is the wording of a good tradition." 69-(...) The same as narrated by Ash-Shaibani was transmitted from Ash-Sha'bi from Ibn Abbas, as regards the (funeral) prayer of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the grave. But this narration did not mention that he recited four Takbirs.

70-(955) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the (funeral) prayer on a grave.

71-(956) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: A black person, a male or a female used to clean the Mosque and then died. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" missed her (or him). He asked about her (or him). The people replied: "He died." He said: "Why did you not inform me?" They said: "(His story was so-and-so) as if they regarded her (or him) as something little." He said: "Show me his grave." He then went to his grave and offered the funeral prayer. Then he said: "No doubt, those graves are full of darkness upon its inhabitants, and Allah make them light for their inhabitants because of my prayer on them."

72-(957) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila narrated: Zaid used to recite four Takbirs on our funerals. Once, he recited five Takbirs on a certain funeral. I asked him about that, and he said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do it (sometimes).

75-(...) Nafi narrated a Hadith like that narrated by Al-Laith Ibn Sa'd, with the same chain of transmitters. But, in the Hadith narrated by Ibn Juraij, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you saw the funeral, he should stand up on seeing it until it leaves him behind, in case he did not accompany it."

76-(959) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you accompanied a funeral procession, do not sit down until it is put down."

77-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you saw a funeral procession, you should stand up (to it); and he, who accompanied it, should not sit down until it is put down."

78-(960) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A funeral procession passed by, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and we too stood up. We said: "O Allah's Apostle! This is the funeral procession of a Jewess." He said: "No doubt, death is (a matter of) anxiety. Whenever you see a funeral procession, you should stand up."

79-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" saying: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up to a funeral procession which passed by him until it disappeared.

80-(...) Ibn Juraij narrated: Abu Az-Zubair told me too that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions stood up to a funeral procession of a Jew until it disappeared.

81-(961) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila reported: Qais Ibn Sa'd and Sahl Ibn Hunaif were sitting in the city of Al-Qadisiyya. A funeral procession passed in front of them and they stood up. They were told that the funeral procession was for one of the inhabitants of the land (i.e. of a non-believer, under the protection of Muslims). They said: A funeral procession passed in front of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he stood up. When he was told that it was the coffin of a Jew, he said: "Is it not a living being (soul)?"

by Ibn Al-Muthanna, he (the narrator) said: He (The Prophet) stood by the middle of her body to offer (the funeral) prayer for her.

[28] The one who offered the funeral prayer could ride (for departure) when the prayer is over

89-(965) Jabir Ibn Samura narrated that an unsaddled horse was brought to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on which he rode when he finished from the funeral prayer of Ibn Ad-Dahdah, and we were walking around him.

(...)Jabir Ibn Samura narrated: the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the funeral prayer on Ibn Ad-Dahdah. Then, an unsaddled horse, hobbled by somebody, was brought to him, on which he (The Prophet) rode. It was jumping and we were following and running after it. One of the people said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "How much hanging bunches in Paradise are for Ibn Ad-Dahdah!"

[29] The niche in the grave, and putting the bricks over the dead body

90-(966) Amir Ibn Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas narrated that his father said in his fatal illness: "Make a niche in the side of the grave, and set up bricks over my body, as was done to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

[30] Putting a (piece of) valve in the grave

91-(967) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A red (piece of) valve was put in the grave of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[31] The order to level the grave

92-(968) Thumama Ibn Shafayy narrated: We were with Fadala Ibn Ubaid at (the island of) Rudis in the state of the Romans when a companion of ours died. Fadala Ibn Ubaid ordered that a grave should be prepared for him and then leveled. He said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordering to level the grave.

93-(969) Abu l-Haiyyaj Al-Asadi narrated: Ali (Ibn Abu Talib) said to me: "Would I not send you on the same (principles) as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had sent me? Do not leave a statue but that you should destroy it, or a high grave but that you should level It."

garment slowly, put on the shoes slowly, opened the door, went out and then closed it lightly. I covered my head, put on my veil , tightened my waist sheet, and then followed him until he reached Baqi, where he stood for a long time. He then raised his hands thrice. Then, he returned and I also returned. He hastened his steps and I also hastened mine. He ran and so did I. He came (to the house) and so did I. I preceded him and entered (the house)

As soon as I had lain down, he entered (the house) and said: "What is the reason O A'isha, that you are out of breath?" I said: "There is nothing." He said: "Either you should tell me or (Allah) the Clever, the Well-Aware would tell me." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!" I told him (what had happened). He said: "Were you that person I saw in front of me?" I answered in the affirmative. He pushed me in my chest, which pained me. Then he said: "Did you think that Allah and His Messenger would wrong you?" She said: "Whatever people conceal, Allah will know it."

He said: "Gabriel came to me when you saw me. He called me and he hid it from you. I answered him, and I hid it from you (for he was not to enter into you) since you put off your dress. I thought that you had slept, and I disliked to awaken you, for fear that you may be frightened. He (Gabriel) said: "Your Lord orders you to go to the inhabitants of (the graves of) Baqi and ask for (Allah's) forgiveness for them"."

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! how could I invoke (Allah) for them?" He said: "You could say: "Peace be upon the inhabitants of these abodes from among the Believers and the Muslims. May Allah bestow mercy upon those who preceded us, and those who would come later. Allah willing, we will join you."

104-(975) Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to instruct them to say whenever they came out to the graveyards: "Peace be upon the inhabitants of these abodes! (according to the narration of Abu Bakr, or, according to the narration of Zuhair): "Peace be upon you, the inhabitants of these abodes from amongst the believers and the Muslims! We, Allah willing, would join you later. I ask Allah to grant us and you peace."

[3] Giving and withholding the obligatory charity

11-(983) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Umar to collect the obligatory charity (Zakat). He was told that Ibn Jamil, Khalid Ibn Al-Walid, and Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib had refused to give Zakat. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Nothing made Ibn Jamil feel angry except that he was a poor man, and was made wealthy by Allah. But you are unfair in asking Zakat from Khalid as he is keeping his armours and war equipment in Allah's Cause (for Jihad). As for Al-Abbas, I'm responsible to pay it in addition to the like of it." 17-(985) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We used to give one Sa of meal or one Sa of barley or one Sa of dates, or one Sa of cottage cheese or one Sa of Raisins (dried grapes) as the charity of breaking fast "Zakat Al-Fitr".

18-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" we used to give on every Muslim, young or old, free or slave, one Sa of food or one Sa of cottage cheese or one Sa of barley or one Sa of dates or one Sa of raisins (as the charity of Al-Fitr). We kept doing that until Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan (became the Caliph and he) came as a pilgrim. He spoke to the people on the pulpit. From among what he said to them was his statement: "I think that two Mudds (i.e. half a Sa) of wheat are equal to a Sa of dates (or any of those mentioned above)." The people adopted that opinion. Abu Sa'id said: As for me, I still give it as I used to give it (during the lifetime of The Prophet, and I would keep doing that) as long as I live.

[7] Pleasing the charity collectors

29-(989) Jarir Ibn Abdullah narrated: Some Bedouins came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Some people of the charity collectors come and wrong us." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Please your charity collectors." Jarir said: "Since I heard that from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", no charity collector (came and then) departed from me but that he became satisfied with me."

[8] The grievous punishment of him, who refuses to give Zakat

30-(990) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he was sitting under the shade of the Ka'ba. When he saw me he said: "By the Lord of the Ka'ba! They are the losers." I came there until I sat. I could not stay (any more) and stood up. I asked: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! Who are those (losers)?" He said: "They are those, who have a great wealth except so and so and so (i.e. those who spend their wealth on whomever they find) in front of them, behind them, on their right and on their left; and how a few they are! No owner of camels, cattle or goat and sheep does not give in charity but that those (animals) would come on the Day of Judgement, more fleshy, and they would gore him with their horns and trample him with their hoofs. The more the last would pass away, the more the first would return (to trample him once again) until it is judged among the people."

(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was sitting in the shade of Ka'ba...(and mentioned the same narration of Waki, but here he said: "By Him, in Whose hand my soul is! There is no one, who died, letting camels, cows or sheep without paying what is due on them...").

31-(991) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I would not be pleased to have gold as (much as the mountain of) Uhud but that before the third (day) comes I would have no Dinar of it except for a Dinar which I would set apart to fulfill my debt."

(...) Muhammad Ibn Ziyad narrated: I heard Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrating the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[9] Exhortation to give in charity

32-(94) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While I was walking with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at the middle of Medina in the evening, looking at the mountain of Uhud. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abu Dharr!" I replied: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm responding to your call!" he said: "I would not like to have gold equal to (the mountain of) Uhud for me, of which no single Dinar remains with me for more than three days, except for a single Dinar which I will keep for repaying debts. I will spend all of it among Allah's slaves like this (he pointed in front of him), like this (on his right), and like this (on his left)."

Then, we walked for sometime, after which he said: "O Abu Dharr!" I replied: "Here I'm responding to your call, O Allah's Apostle!" He said: "Those who have much wealth (in this world) will have the least reward (in the Hereafter) except those who do like this, like this and like this (i.e. spend their wealth in charity)." He did the same as he did in the first time.

Then we walked for some time, after which he said to me: "Remain at your place and do not leave it, O Abu Dharr till I come back." He went away until he disappeared from me. I heard some noise, and then I heard a voice and feared that something might have happened to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I intended to go (to detect the matter) but I remembered the statement of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" not to leave my place, so I kept waiting.

When he came back, I mentioned to him what I had heard. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "That was Gabriel who came to me and said: "Whoever among your followers died without joining others in worship with Allah, would enter Paradise." I said: "Even if he had committed fornication and theft?" He said: "Even if he had committed fornication and theft."

33-(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once I went out at night and saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" walking alone with nobody in his company. I thought that he might have disliked anybody to accompany him. So I walked in the shade, away from the moonlight. But when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked behind he saw me and said: "Who is that?" I replied: "Abu Dharr, let me be sacrificed for you!" He said: "O Abu Dharr! Come here!"

فَقَالَ: «مَنْ هٰذَا؟» فَقُلْتُ: أَبُو ذَرٍّ، جَعَلَنِيَ اللَّهُ فِدَاءَكَ. قَالَ: «يَا أَبَا ذَرٍّ، تَعَالَهْ» قَالَ: فَمَشَيْتُ مَعَهُ سَاعَةً.

So I accompanied him for a while after which he said: "The rich people are in fact the poor (little rewarded) on the Day of Judgement except the person whom Allah gives wealth which he gives (in charity to whomever he finds) on his right, on his left, in front of him, and on his back, and with which he does good deeds." I walked with him sometime longer. Then he said to me: "Sit down here." So he made me sit in an open space surrounded by rocks, and said to me: "Sit here till I come back to you." He went towards Al-Harra until I could not see him, where he stayed away for a long time.

Sometime later, while he was coming back, I heard him saying: "Even if he committed theft and fornication?" When he came, I could not keep patient and asked him: "O Allah's Prophet! Let Allah make me sacrificed for you! Whom were you talking to by the side of Al-Harra? I heard none responding to your talk." He said: "It was Gabriel who appeared to me beside Al-Harra and said: "Give the good tidings to your followers that whoever dies without having associated in worship anything with Allah, will enter Paradise." I said: "O Gabriel! Even if he committed theft or fornication?" He said: "Yes." I said: "Even if he committed theft or fornication?" He said: "Yes." I said: "Even if he committed theft or fornication?" He said: "Yes, and even if he committed the sin of drinking wine."

[10] What about the hoarders of wealth and their grievous punishment

34-(992) Al-Ahnaf Ibn Qais narrated: I came to Medina, and while I was in the company of some chiefs from Quraish, sitting in a (form of) circle, a man with very rough hair, clothes, and appearance came and stood in front of us, greeted us and said: "Inform those who bury wealth, that a stone will be heated in the Hell-fire and will be put on the nipples of their breasts till it comes out from the bones of their shoulders and then put on the bones of their shoulders till it comes through the nipples of their breasts. The stone will be moving and hitting." After saying that, the people lowered their heads, and none replied to him. Then, he retreated and I followed him until he sat by the side of the pillar. I said to him: "I think the people disliked what you had said." He said: "These people do not understand anything. However, my friend (The Prophet) Abu Al-Qasim called me: "O Abu Dharr! Do you see the mountain of Uhud?" On that I started looking towards the sun to judge how much remained of the day as I thought that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wanted to send me to do something for him. I said: "Yes! " He said: "I would not like to have gold equal to it (i.e. the mountain of Uhud) unless I spend it all (in Allah's cause) except for three Dinars." Then, those people do not understand and collect worldly wealth." I said: "Why do you not ask your brothers from Quraish and get something from them?" he said: "No, by Allah, Neither I ask them for worldly benefits nor am I in need of their religious advice till I join Allah and His Messenger."

٣٤ ـ (٩٩٢) ـ وحدّثني زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، عَنِ الْجُرَيْرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِي الْعَلاَءِ، عَنِ الأَحْنَفِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ. قَالَ: قَدِمْتُ الْمَدِينَةَ، فَبَيْنَا أَنَا فِي حَلْقَةٍ فِيهَا مَلأٌ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ، إِذْ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ أَخْشَنُ الثِّيَابِ، أَخْشَنُ الْجَسَدِ، أَخْشَنُ الْوَجْهِ، فَقَامَ عَلَيْهِمْ فَقَالَ: بَشِّرِ الْكَانِزِينَ بِرَضْفٍ يُحْمَىٰ عَلَيْهِ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ، فَيُوضَعُ عَلَىٰ حَلَمَةِ ثَدْيِ أَحَدِهِمْ، حَتَّىٰ يَخْرُجَ مِنْ نُغْضِ كَتِفَيْهِ وَيُوضَعُ عَلَىٰ نُغْضِ كَتِفَيْهِ، حَتَّىٰ يَخْرُجَ مِنْ حَلَمَةِ ثَدْيَيْهِ يَتَزَلْزَلُ. قَالَ: فَوَضَعَ الْقَوْمُ رُؤُوسَهُمْ، فَمَا رَأَيْتُ أَحَداً مِنْهُمْ رَجَعَ إِلَيْهِ شَيْئاً. قَالَ: فَأَدْبَرَ، وَاتَّبَعْتُهُ حَتَّىٰ جَلَسَ إِلَىٰ سَارِيَةٍ. فَقُلْتُ: مَا رَأَيْتُ هٰؤُلاَءِ إِلاَّ كَرِهُوا مَا قُلْتَ لَهُمْ. قَالَ: إِنَّ هٰؤُلاَءِ لا يَعْقِلُونَ شَيْئاً، إِنَّ خَلِيلِي أَبَا الْقَاسِمِ ﷺ دَعَانِي فَأَجَبْتُهُ. فَقَالَ: «أَتَرَىٰ أُحُداً؟» فَنَظَرْتُ مَا عَلَيَّ مِنَ الشَّمْسِ وَأَنَا أَظُنُّ أَنَّهُ يَبْعَثُنِي فِي حَاجَةٍ لَهُ. فَقُلْتُ: أَرَاهُ. فَقَالَ: «مَا يَسُرُّنِي أَنَّ لِي مِثْلَهُ ذَهَباً أُنْفِقُهُ كُلَّهُ، إِلاَّ ثَلاَثَةَ دَنَانِيرَ» ثُمَّ هٰؤُلاَءِ يَجْمَعُونَ الدُّنْيَا لاَ يَعْقِلُونَ شَيْئاً. قَالَ: قُلْتُ: مَا لَكَ وَلإِخْوَتِكَ مِنْ

35-(...) Al-Ahnaf Ibn Qais narrated: While I was sitting with some chiefs of Quraish, Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" came and said: "Give glad tidings to the hoarders of wealth that their backs would be branded to the extent that it (the hot Iron) would come out of their sides, and when their napes would be branded, it would come out of their foreheads." He then went away and sat down. I asked about him. They said: "He is Abu Dharr." I went to him and said: "What is that which I heard from you?" He said: "I said nothing but only what I heard from their Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I said: "What do you say about this gift?" He said: "Take it, for today it is a support. But when it becomes a price for your religion, then leave it."

[11] Exhortation to spend (in Allah's way) and giving the spender the glad tidings of having the compensation (for what he spent)

36-(993) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" related that Allah, the Most Blessed and Exalted, said: "O son of Adam, spend, I will spend on you." He said: "The right hand of Allah is full and overflowing; and nothing would diminish it, by overspending day and night."

37-(...) Hammam Ibn Munabbih, the brother of Wahb Ibn Munabbih, narrated: This is what Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" told us from the traditions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned some traditions, including the following). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: Allah said to me: "Spend, I will spend on you." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The right hand of Allah is full and overflowing; and the overspending by day and night would not diminish it. Do you not see what He has spent since He created the heaven and the earth? No doubt, what is in His Right Hand has not decreased. His Throne is on the water. In His other hand is death, and He elevates and degrades (whomever He wills)."

[12] The virtue of spending on one's family and servants, and the sin of him, who neglects or withholds their sustenance

38-(994) Thawban narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The best Dinar one spends is that, which one spends on his family, and that, which he spends on his animal in the cause of Allah, and that, which he spends on his companions for the sake of Allah." Abu Qilaba (a sub-narrator) said: "He started with the family." Then, he commented: "Which man would have more reward than him, who spends on young (members of a) family, in order to protect and save them, by which Allah would benefits them, and make them rich?"

39-(995) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(From among the Dinars you spent, i.e.) a Dinar which you spent in the way of Allah, a Dinar which you spent to emancipate a slave, a Dinar you gave in charity to a needy one, and a Dinar you spent on your family, the one for which you would have the greatest reward, is that, which you spent on your family."

40-(996) Khaithama narrated: While we were sitting with Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both", there entered his warden, to whom he said: "Did you give the provision to the slaves?" He answered in the negative. He said: "Go and give it to them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is enough for a man to have a sin that he keeps from the one whom he owns his sustenance"."

[13] In spending, one should start with himself, then his family, and then his kith and kin

41-(997) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A person from (the tribe of) Banu Udhra emancipated a slave after his death. This news reached the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Upon this he asked: "Do you have any property in addition to it?" He replied in the negative. He asked: "Who would buy (that slave) from me?" Nu'aim Ibn Abdullah Al-Adawi bought it for eight hundred Dirhams, which he brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (The Prophet) gave the money to him (the owner) and said: "Start with yourself and spend on it. If anything is left, it should be spent on your family. If anything is left from your family it should be spent on your kith and kin. If anything is left from your kith and kin, it should be spent like this, and like this,, i.e. (on whomever you find) In front of you, on your right and on your left."

(...)Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a man from the Ansar called Abu Madhkur manumitted a slave of his called Ya'qub (on condition that it would come into force) after death...(and the rest of the Hadith is the same as that of Al-Laith).

[14] The virtue of spending on, and giving in charity one's kith and kin, spouse, children, and parents, even if they are not believers

42-(998) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Abu Talha had more property of date-palm trees gardens than anyone amongst the Ansar in Medina, the most beloved of which to him was Bairuha garden, and it was in front of the Mosque of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to go there and drink from its nice water. Anas added: When this verse was revealed: "By no means shall ye attain righteousness unless ye give (freely) of that which ye love; and whatever ye give, of a truth Allah knoweth it well" (Al Imran 92) Abu Talha said to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Allah's Apostle! Allah, the Blessed, the Superior says: "By no means shall ye attain righteousness unless ye give (freely) of that which ye love." No doubt, Bairuha garden is the most beloved of all my property to me. So I want to give it in charity in Allah's Cause. I expect its reward from Allah. O Allah's Apostle! Spend it where Allah makes you think it feasible." On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bravo! It is a profitable property. It is a profitable property. I heard what you said (O Abu Talha), and I think it would be proper if you gave it to your Kith and kin." Then Abu Talha distributed that garden amongst his relatives and his cousins."

43-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When the following Verse was revealed: "By no means shall ye attain righteousness unless ye give (freely) of that which ye love; and whatever ye give, of a truth Allah knoweth it well" (Al Imran 92), Abu Talha said (to The Prophet): "I think that our Lord asks us (to give in charity) from our property. So, I make you witness, O Messenger of Allah, that I gave the garden of Bairuha (in charity) for the sake of Allah." He (The Prophet) said: "Then, give it to your kith and kin." So, he (Abu Talha) distributed it between Hassan Ibn Thabit and Ubai Ibn Ka'b.

44-(999) Kuraib narrated that Maimuna "Allah be pleased with her", daughter of Al-Harith, manumitted a slave-girl (for the sake of Allah) during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When she mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said: "Had you given her (in charity) to your maternal uncles, it would have been more yielding of your reward."

45-(1000) Zainab, the wife of Abdullah said: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "O women! Give in charity, even from your ornaments." I returned and said to Abdullah: "You

Zainab added: So I went and found at the door of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" an Ansari woman with a similar problem as mine. Since The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was invested with awe (we disliked to knock at his door). At the same time, Bilal came out to us to whom we said: "Tell The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that two women ask you whether it is sufficient for them to spend (the Zakat) on their husbands and on the orphans under their protection, and do not tell him who we are."

So Bilal went in and asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" regarding our problem. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Who are those two (women)?" Bilal replied: "A woman from the Ansar and Zainab." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Which Zainab?" Bilal said: "The wife of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud)." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, (it is sufficient for them) and they will receive a double reward (for that): One for helping relatives, and the other for giving alms."

forbidding evil is a charity, and in man's sexual Intercourse (with his wife) there is a charity." They (the Companions) said: "O Messenger of Allah! is there a reward for anyone among us who satisfies his sexual desire (with his wife)?" He said: "Tell me if he directed it to what is prohibited, would it not be regarded as a sin committed by him? Similarly, if he directed it to what is lawful, he would receive a reward (for it)."

54-(1007) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Everyone of Adam's sons has been created with three hundred and sixty joints. So whoever magnifies Allah, praises Allah, testifies of Allah's Oneness, Glorifies Allah, asks for Allah's forgiveness, removes a stone, a thorn, or a bone from the road of the people, enjoins what is good and forbids what is evil, (and all of that amounts) to the number of those three hundred and sixty joints, then, he will walk that day, having removed himself from the fire (of Hell)."

(...)The same was narrated on the authority of Zaid, with the same chain of transmitters, but here, he (The Prophet) said: "Or he enjoins what is good..." and said: "In the evening of that day, (he will walk)."

(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated, through another chain of transmitters, that she heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Everyone of Adam's sons has been created..." and the rest is like the Hadith narrated by Mu'awiya from Zaid.

55-(1008) Sa'id Ibn Abu Burda narrated from his father from his grandfather that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Giving in charity is obligatory on every Muslim." It was said (to him): "Tell us if one does not find (what enables him) to do so (what should he do)?" He said: "He should work with both his hands, so as to benefit himself and give in charity." It was said to him: "Tell us if he cannot do so (what would he do)?" He said: "He would help the needy distressed one." It was said to him: "Tell us if he cannot do so (what should he do)?" He said: "He should enjoin what is favourable or what is good." It was said to him: "Tell us if he cannot do so (what should he do)?" He said: "He should abstain from what is evil, for that is a charity for him."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.

56-(1009) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated: That is what Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated to us from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". (He mentioned many traditions,

To judge justly between two persons is regarded as charity, to help a man to ride his mount or lift his luggage on to it, is also considered to be a charity, and (to say) a good word is also a (kind of) charity. Every step taken on one's way to offer the compulsory prayer (in the mosque) is also charity. To remove a harmful thing from the way is also charity."

[17] The one who gives and the one who withholds the charity

57-(1010) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no day on which the servants (of Allah) get up in the morning, but that two angels would come, one of whom says: "O Allah! Recompense with more the one who spends (for the sake of Allah)" and the other says: "O Allah! Bring destruction to the one who withholds (charity from others)."

[18] Exhortation to give in charity, before a day comes, when there would be no one to accept it

58-(1011) Haritha Ibn Wahb narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Give in charity, for a time is about to come when one would walk with the (objects of) charity and the one to whom it is to be given would say: "Had you brought it yesterday, I would have accepted it. But now, I'm not in need of it." In this way, he (the charity giver) would find none to accept it."

59-(1012) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There would come a time for the people when a person would wander about with Charity of gold, but he would find no one to accept it from him. A man would be seen (or you would see a man, according to the narration of Ibn Buraid) pursued by forty women seeking refuge with him in view of the scarcity of men and the abundance of women."

60-(157) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Hour (of doom) would not be established until the wealth increases so much abundantly that one would get out with the charity of his wealth, but he would find none to accept it from him. people! Verily, Allah is good, and He never accepts but good. No doubt, Allah has given the faithful believers the same order he had given to His Messenger, when He said: "O ye messengers! Eat of the good things, and do right. Lo! I am Aware of what ye do." (The Believers 51) He also said: "O ye who believe! Eat of the good things wherewith We have provided you, and render thanks to Allah if it is (indeed) He Whom ye worship." (The Heifer 172) then, he mentioned a man, of dishevelled hair, covered with dust, who travels for long journeys. He raises his hand to the sky (and invokes Allah saying): "O Lord! O Lord!" but, his (source of) food is unlawful, his drink is unlawful, his clothes are unlawful and his nourishment is unlawful. How can then his invocation be responded to?

[20] Exhortation to give in charity, even half a date, or (by saying) a good word, for it will be a veil from the fire (of Hell)

66-(1016) Adi Ibn Hatim narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you is able to save himself from the fire (of Hell) by (giving in charity even) half a date, he should do".

67-(...) Adi Ibn Hatim narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no one of you except that he will be talked to by Allah when there will be no interpreter between him and Allah. Then he will look to his right and see nothing but his deeds, which he had forwarded. Then he will look to his left and see nothing but (his deeds) which he had forwarded. Then he will look in front of him, and see nothing but The Fire facing him. So, any of you should save himself from the fire by (giving in charity even) half a date, (or by saying a good pleasant word" according to the addition made in the Hadith narrated by Khaithama).

68-(...) Adi Ibn Hatim narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Beware of the (Hell) fire !" Then he turned his face to the other side. Then he said: "Beware of the (Hell) fire!" then he turned his face to the other side to the extent that we thought that he was looking at it. Then he said: "Any of you should save himself from the fire even by giving half a date-fruit (in charity). Whoever finds nothing, then (he can do it through saying) a good pleasant word (to his brethren)."

(...)Adi Ibn Hatim narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned the (Hell) fire from which he sought refuge with Allah and then turned his face to the other side thrice. Then he said: "Any of you should save himself from the fire even by giving half a date-fruit (in charity). If you find nothing, then (you can do it through saying) a good pleasant word (to your brethren)."

69-(1017) Al-Mundhir Ibn Jarir narrated from his father: While we were sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the early hours of the morning, some people came in. they were barefooted, naked, wearing striped woollen clothes, or cloaks, carrying their swords. Most of them, if not all of them, were from (the tribe of) Mudar. The colour of the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed when he saw them in such a state of poverty. He entered (his home) and came out ordering Bilal (to call to prayer). He made a call to prayer, and then to the prayer establishment. Then, he (The Prophet) offered prayer (leading his Companions). Then he delivered a sermon, in which he recited: "O mankind reverence your guardian Lord, who created you from a single person, created, of like nature, his mate, and from them twain scattered (like seeds) countless men and women; reverence Allah, through whom ye demand your mutual (rights), and (reverence) the wombs (that bore you): for Allah ever watches over you." (Women 1) he also recited the following Verse from the Sura of Mustering: "O ye who believe! Fear Allah, and let every soul look to what (provision) he has sent forth for the morrow. Yea, fear Allah: for Allah is well acquainted with (all) that ye do." (the Mustering 18).

Then, (they started giving in charity.) Some gave a Dinar, others gave a Dirham, others gave clothes, others gave a Sa of wheat, some gave a Sa of dates, and so on until he (The Prophet) said: "(Give) even if it is (as little as) half a date." One from the Ansar came there with a moneybag, which his hands could hardly, if not, carry. Then the people followed (giving in charity) continuously, till I saw two heaps of food and clothes. I saw the face of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as glittering as gold (because of happiness). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who lays the foundation of a good tradition in Islam, will receive a reward for this (good tradition) and reward of anyone, who acts upon it subsequently, and that will reduce nothing from their rewards; and he who lays the foundation of an evil tradition in Islam, will bear the burden of it, and the burden of anyone who acts upon it subsequently, and that will reduce nothing from their burden."

[23] The example of the charitable and the miser

75-(1021) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The example of a miser and a charitable is like the example of two persons wearing two iron cloaks on them from their breasts to their collar bones. When the charitable (or the almsgiver) wants to give in charity, the cloak becomes capacious. When the miser wants to spend, it (the iron cloak) sticks and every ring gets stuck to its place. As for the almsgiver, it covers his whole body to such an extent that it hides his fingertips and covers his footprints." Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: He (the miser) tries to widen it (the iron cloak), but it does not become wide."

76-(...)Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set for us an example of a miser and an almsgiver, which is like the example of two persons wearing iron cloaks, with their hands pressed closely to their breasts and their collar bones. When the almsgiver wants to give in charity, the cloak becomes capacious till it covers his whole body to such an extent that it hides his fingertips and covers his footprints. When the miser intends to give in charity, it (the iron cloak) sticks and every ring gets stuck to its place. Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" said: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying, with his fingers in his pocket (to illustrate the great effort made by the miser to widen the iron cloak): "If you see him trying to widen it, it will not become wide."

77-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The example of a miser and an almsgiver is like the example of two persons wearing iron cloaks over them. When the almsgiver wants to give in charity, the cloak becomes capacious to such an extent that it covers his footprints. When the miser intends to give in charity, it (the iron cloak) sticks over him, his hands are tied up to his collar bones, and every ring gets stuck to another." He (the narrator) said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "He (the miser) does his best to widen it (the iron cloak), but, he could not do."

[24] The almsgiver would receive a reward for his charity, even if it was taken by its improper people

78-(1022) Abu Huraira “Allah be pleased with him” narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man said: “Tonight, I’m going to give something in charity.” He went out with his object of charity and unknowingly gave it to an adulteress. Next morning the people said that he had given his object of charity to an adulteress. (On hearing that) he said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I gave in charity unknowingly) to an adulteress. I’m going to give in charity once again." So he again went out with his charity and (unknowingly) gave it to a rich man. Next morning the people said that he had given his charity to a rich man. The man said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I gave my charity) to a rich man. I’m going to give in charity once again." So he went out with his charity again and (unknowingly) gave it to a thief. (The people) next morning said that he had given his charity to a thief. He said: "O Allah! All the praises be to you. (I had given charity) to an adulteress, to a wealthy man and to a thief." Then it was said to him: "As for your (object of) charity which you gave, it was accepted (by Allah, for which you would receive a reward). The (object of) charity you gave to the adulteress might make her abstain from adultery, the (object of) charity you gave to the wealthy man might make him take a lesson from it and spend his wealth which Allah has given him (in Allah’s cause), and the (object of) charity you gave to the thief might make him abstain from stealing.””

[25] The reward of the honest storekeeper, and (the reward of) the woman who gives in charity from the house of her husband fairly, whither or not by his permission

79-(1023) Abu Burda narrated from Abu Musa “Allah be pleased with him”: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "An honest Muslim storekeeper who carries out the orders of his master and pays fully what he has been ordered to give with a good heart, affording to that person to whom he was ordered to pay, is regarded as one of the two charitable persons."

80-(1024) A’isha “Allah be pleased with her” narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When a woman gives in charity something of the foodstuff which she has in her house without spoiling it, she will receive the reward for what she has spent, her husband will receive the reward because of his earning, and the storekeeper will also have a reward similar to it, and (the reward of anyone of them) would not reduce the reward of the others.”

[26] When the slave spends (in charity) from the property of his master

82-(1025) Umair, the freed slave of Abu Al-Lahm narrated: I was a slave when I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Could I give in charity something from the property of my master?" he said: "Yes (you could), and the reward of that would be divided into to halves between you."

83-(...) Umair, the freed slave of Abu Al-Lahm, narrated: My master ordered me to cut some meat in strips. Meanwhile, a needy came to me whom I gave some of it to eat. When my master knew that, he beat me. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whom I told what had happened. He invited him and said: "Why did you beat him?" He said: "He gives (from) my foodstuff without being ordered to do so." He (The Prophet) said: "The reward would be shared by you two."

84-(1026) Hammam Ibn Munabbih narrated: That is what Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated to us from Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". So he mentioned many traditions, including the following: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No woman should fast when her husband is present (in home) without taking his permission. She should not admit any (person whom it is unlawful to meet) in his home , while he (her husband) is present, without taking his permission. But, he would receive half the reward for whatever she spends (in charity) from his earnings without taking his permission."

[27] Gathering (the two characteristics of) giving in charity and doing good deeds

85-(1027) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever gives a pair (of things or property) in charity for Allah's Cause, will be called from the gates of Paradise and will be addressed: "O slave of Allah! That (gate) is better (for you, so come and enter through it)." So, whoever was amongst the people who used to offer their prayers, will be called from the gate of the prayer; whoever was amongst the people who used to participate in Jihad, will be called from the gate of Jihad; whoever was amongst those who used to give in charity, will be called from the gate of charity; and whoever was amongst those who used to observe fasts, will be called from the gate of Ar-Raiyyan." Abu Bakr said: "Let my parents be sacrificed for you, O Allah's Apostle! No distress or need will befall him who will be called from those gates. Will there be any one who will be called from all these gates?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Yes, and I hope you will be one of them."

(...) A Hadith like that transmitted by Yunus, was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, through another chain of transmitters.

86-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever spent a pair (of things) in the cause of Allah, the guardians of Paradise would call him, with every gate guardian (addressing him): "O so-and-so! Come on." Abu Bakr said: "O Messenger of Allah! No distress would befall this person." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I hope you would be one of them."

87-(1028) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Who from amongst you has observed fast today?" Abu Bakr replied: "I have done." He asked: "Who from amongst you has followed a funeral procession today?" Abu Bakr said: "I've done." He (The Prophet) asked: "Who from amongst you has presented food to a needy person today?" Abu Bakr said: "I've done." He asked: "Who from amongst you has visited a patient (to inquire about his health) today?" Abu Bakr replied: "I've done." Upon this, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Those (good deeds) never gather in a person but that he would be admitted in Paradise."

[28] Exhortation to spend (in charity), and the undesirability to calculate (whatever is spent)

88-(1029) Asma, daughter of Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Spend or give abundantly (in charity for the sake of Allah), and do not calculate (whatever you've spent), otherwise Allah would calculate (whatever He confers) upon you."

(...)Asma, daughter of Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Spend or give abundantly (in charity for the sake of Allah), and do not calculate (whatever you've spent), otherwise Allah would calculate (whatever He confers) upon you; and do not hoard (in order to withhold the surplus of what you spend in charity) lest Allah would withhold (His blessing) from you."

89-(...) Abbad Ibn Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that Asma came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have nothing (of wealth or foodstuff) other than what (my husband) Az-Zubair gives me. Would there be any harm to me if I spent something from it (for the sake of Allah)?" he replied: "Spend (in charity for the sake of Allah) as much as you could (out of Az-Zubair's will), and do not hoard (and withhold your charity) lest Allah would withhold (His blessings) from you."

[29] Exhortation to give in charity even though little, and do not discourage (giving) the little because of being looked down upon

90-(1030) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Muslim women! Let none of you consider as little (anything she would give to) her neighbour, even if it is (as insignificant as) a trotter of a sheep."

[30] The virtue of giving in charity secretly

91-(1031) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah will give shade to seven on the Day when there will be no shade but His: a just ruler, a youth who has been brought up in the worship of Allah sincerely, a man whose heart is attached to the mosques (by praying the compulsory congregational prayers in them), two persons who love each other only for Allah's sake and they meet and part only in Allah's cause, a man who refuses the call of a charming woman of noble birth for adultery with her and says: I am afraid of Allah, a man who gives charitable gifts so secretly

٣٣ ـ بابُ النَّهْيِ عن المَسْأَلَةِ

(...) ـ حدّثنا ابْنُ أَبِي عُمَرَ الْمَكِّيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ دِينَارٍ: حَدَّثَنِي وَهْبُ بْنُ مُنَبِّهٍ ـ وَدَخَلْتُ عَلَيْهِ فِي دَارِهِ بِصَنْعَاءَ فَأَطْعَمَنِي مِنْ جَوْزَةٍ فِي دَارِهِ ـ عَنْ أَخِيهِ. قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنَ أَبِي سُفْيَانَ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ، فَذَكَرَ مِثْلَهُ.

100-(1037) Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf narrated: I heard Mu'awiya saying, while he was delivering a sermon: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If Allah wants to do good for somebody, He would cause him to have the religious knowledge and understanding. I'm only but a distributor (of wealth) and it is Allah Who bestows (upon the people)."

[34] The needy is the one who never finds enough to satisfy himself, and whom the people never consider as too poor to be given charity

101-(1039) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The needy is not that wandering one, who goes round the people, and is dismissed by one or two morsels, or one or two dates." They (the companions) asked: "Then, who is the needy one, O Messenger of Allah?" he replied: "He is the one, who neither finds enough (money) to satisfy himself,, nor does he draw the attention of others so as to give him charity (since he doesn't seem to be too poor to be given), nor does he beg the people for anything."

102-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The poor person is not the one who is dismissed by a date or two or a morsel or two, but the poor person is he who abstains from begging (people for anything as well as from showing his poverty at all). Recite, if you wish, Allah's Statement: "They beg not importunately from all and sundry." (Heifer "Al-Baqara" 273)

(...) It was narrated through another chain of transmitters, on the authority of Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (a Hadith like that transmitted by Isma'il).

[35] It is undesirable to beg anything from the people

103-(1040) Hamza Ibn Abdullah narrated from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If a man keeps begging people, he will meet Allah, having no piece of flesh on his face" (because of his humiliation, and as a punishment for his begging).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of the brother of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters. But here, there is no mention of the word "piece".

105-(1041) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever begs the wealth of others in order to increase his own is asking only for pieces of fire. Let him then ask for little or much."

106-(1042) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If anyone of you went in the morning (to the forest) in order to cut and carry firewood on his back so as to (sell it and utilize its profit in such a way as to) give in charity, and (satisfy his needs and) become independent from the people, that would be better for him than to beg (something) from another who might or might not give him. No doubt, the upper hand (which gives charity) is better than the lower hand (which receives)."

(...) Abu Hazim narrated: We came to Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" who told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you went in the morning to bring and carry firewood on his back so as to sell it..." (and the rest is the same as narrated by Bayan).

108-(1043) Malik Ibn Awf Al-Ashja'i narrated: We, nine, eight, or seven men, were sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he said to us: "Wouldn't you give the pledge of allegiance to The Messenger of Allah?" However, that was just a short time after we had given the pledge of allegiance. We said: "We've given you, O Messenger of Allah, the pledge of allegiance." He said (once again): "Would you not give the pledge of allegiance to The Messenger of Allah?" we said: "We've given you the pledge of allegiance, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Would you not give the pledge of allegiance to The Messenger of Allah?" then, we stretched our hands and said: "We give you the pledge of allegiance, O Messenger of Allah. would we give the pledge of allegiance to you?" he said: "(You should give the pledge of allegiance) to worship Allah and associate nothing with Him (in worship), to offer the five (obligatory daily) prayers, to obey (and he uttered a word secretly), and not to beg the people for anything." (From this time) I saw some of this group (which was present with me), who (never begged the people for anything to the extent that) if the whip of anyone of them fell from him, he would never ask anyone to bring it up to him.

[36] The one for whom begging is lawful

109-(1044) Qabisa Ibn Mukhariq Al-Hilali said: I (loaned some money in order to make peace among some people and) became in debt. I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and begged him for something in that respect. He said: "Wait until the charity is brought to us, so that we would order that something be given to you." Then, he said: "O Qabisa! (You should know that) begging is not lawful except for one of the following three types of persons: If one brought debt upon himself (in order to make such things as to make peace among people), begging would be lawful for him till he fulfills it, after which he must stop begging; if one was befallen by a catastrophe, which destroyed his property, begging would be lawful for him till he gets what sustains him or provides him with reasonable subsistence; and if a person was struck by poverty, as confirmed by three intelligent men of his people saying: "So-and-so was befallen by a great poverty), then, begging would be lawful for him till he gets what sustains him or provides him with fair subsistence. O Qabisa! Except for those three types, begging is forbidden, and the One who practices it does what is forbidden."

[37] It is lawful to accept what is given (to you), with neither begging nor greediness

110-(1045) Salim Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from his father: I heard Umar "Allah be pleased with him" saying: Whenever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave me something, I would say to him: "would you give it to a poorer and more needy one than me?" once, he gave me some property, and I said to him: "would you give it to a poorer and more needy one than me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Take it. If you are given something from this property, without begging or greediness, you would take it; otherwise, you should not seek for it."

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Take and make it your property, or give it in charity. If you are given something from this property, without greediness or begging, you would take it; otherwise, you should not seek for it." Salim commented: For that reason, Ibn Umar neither asked for anything, nor did he refuse to take whatever was given to him.

After I had fulfilled that (task) and handed over that (collected charity) to him, he ordered that a remuneration should be given to me (for what I had done). I said: "I fulfilled this duty for the sake of Allah and my reward is with Allah." He said: "Take whatever is given to you. Indeed, I fulfilled this duty during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who appointed me as a collector of charity. (When he wanted to give me a remuneration for the work I had done) I said as you say. But, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "If you are given anything without begging, you should (accept and) eat it and give it in charity.""

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" remained silent for a while, after which he said (to the questioner): "What did you say?" he said: "I said: O Messenger of Allah! Can the good bring forth evil?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "(Real) good never brings forth but good. Indeed whatever grows on the banks of a water-stream either kills or nearly causes the animal to perish (particularly because of eating from it so much), except that animal which eats the vegetation, and when its flanks are swollen (out of satisfaction), it faces the sun, then chews its cud, defecates, urinates, and returns to eat again. So, whoever takes that wealth rightly, would be blessed in it, and whoever takes it with no right, would be like the one who eats, but is never satisfied."

Then we noticed that he was being inspired divinely. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wiped off his sweat and said: "Where is the questioner?" It seemed as if The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praised him (for his question). Then he said: "Good never brings forth evil. Indeed whatever grows on the banks of a water-stream either kills or makes the animals sick, except that (animal) which eats its fill vegetation, and when its flanks are swollen, it faces the sun, then chews its cud, urinates and grazes again. No doubt this wealth is (as fresh as) sweet fruit. Blessed is the wealth of a Muslim from which he gives the poor, the orphans, the needy, and the travellers. (Or The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said something similar to it) He who takes it illegally will be like the one who eats but is never satisfied, and his wealth will be a witness against him on the Day of Judgement."

[42] The merit of abstention (from begging) and of patience

124-(1053) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Some people from among the Ansar asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to give them something), and he gave them. They again asked him and he gave them once again, until what he had was used up. Then, he said: "Whatever good (such as wealth, goods or so) I have, I will not withhold from you. He who abstains from begging, Allah protects him against need; he who seeks for independence (from asking people), Allah causes him to be independent; and he who proves to be patient, Allah supports him to be patient. None is endowed with anything better and greater than endurance."

[43] Regarding the minimum needs of living and satisfaction

125-(1054) Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Prosperous was he, who embraced Islam, and was endowed with the minimum requirements of subsistence, whom Allah made to be satisfied with whatever He gave him."

126-(1055) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! Make the provision of Muhammad's family sufficient just to sustain life."

[44] Giving him who begged something impolitely and awkwardly

127-(1056) Salman Ibn Rabie'a narrated: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed some property among some people. I said: "By Allah, O Messenger of Allah, there are some else, who have more right to take this property than those (among whom you distributed it)." He (The Prophet) said: "They (begged me so much importunately to the extent that they) forced me to choose whether (they would) ask me awkwardly, or they would accuse me of stinginess; and I'm not a miser."

128-(1057) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was walking with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was wearing a Najrani garment with a thick border. A Bedouin met him and pulled the garment so violently that I saw the traces of its border on the neck of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" because of this violent pulling. He (the Bedouin) said: "O Muhammad! Order that something should be given to me from the wealth

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik through another chain of transmitters.

133-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gathered the Ansar and said to them: "Is there anyone else other than you?" they replied: "No, except for one, who is a son of our sister." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, a son of the people's sister belongs to them." Then he said: "The people of Quraish are still close to the period of ignorance (since they embraced Islam very recently), and they are still suffering from a calamity. So, I wanted to help them, and make their hearts adhere (to Islam). Won't you be pleased to see the people returning with the world (fortune) and you will return with The Messenger of Allah to your houses? If the people took their way through a valley, and the Ansar took their way through a mountain pass, I would take my way through the mountain pass of the Ansar."

134-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day of the Conquest of Mecca, when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given (from the booty) the Quraish, the Ansar said: "By Allah, this is indeed very strange. Though our swords are still dribbling with their blood, our war spoils are distributed amongst them." When this news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he called the Ansar and said: "What is this news that has reached me from you?" They used not to tell lies, so they replied: "What has reached you is true." He said: "Doesn't it please you that the people take the booty to their homes and you take The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon

135-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day (of The Holy Battle) of Hunain, the tribes of Hawazin and Ghatafan and others, with their animals and offspring came to fight against The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had with him ten thousand men in addition to some of those who had been set free as Muslims (on The Day of Mecca Conquest) . The companions fled, leaving The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" alone. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then made two calls, which were clearly distinguished from each other. He turned right and said: "O community of Ansar!" They said: "We are answering your call, O Messenger of Allah! Rejoice, for we are with you!" Then he turned left and said: "O community of Ansar!" They said: "We are responding to your call! O Messenger of Allah! Rejoice, for we are with you!"

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at that time was riding his white mule. Then he dismounted and said: "I am Allah's Messenger." The infidels then were defeated. On that day The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got a large amount of booty which he distributed amongst the Immigrants and those set free; and he did not give anything to the Ansar. The Ansar said: "When there is a difficulty, we are called, but the booty is given to others than us." The news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who gathered them in a leather tent and said: "What is this news which reached me from you, O community of Ansar?" They kept silent. He further said: "O community of Ansar! Won't you be happy that the people take the worldly things and you take The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to your homes, keeping him for yourself?" They said: "Yes." Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the people took their way through a valley, and the Ansar took their way through a mountain pass, I would take the Ansar's mountain pass." Hisham said: "O Abu Hamza (Anas)! Did you really attend that (event)? " He replied: "And how could I be absent from it!"

made into rows. We (people) were large in number, and we (Muslims) were six thousand. On one side, Khalid Ibn Al-Walid was leading the cavalry. But, at once our horses turned back from behind us. We could hardly keep steadfast when our horses were exposed. The Bedouins and the people whom we knew retreated.

Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made the following call: "O Emigrants! O Emigrants!" He then. said: "O Ansar! O Ansar!" (Anas said: "This Hadith is narrated by a group of preeminent people.") We said: "Here we are responding to your call, O Messenger of Allah." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded. By Allah, we had not yet reached them when they were defeated by Allah. Then, we seized the wealth and then marched towards Ta'if, which we besieged for forty nights, after which we returned to Mecca and descended (at a certain place). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started to give a hundred camels to each one. (The rest of the Hadith is the same as narrated by Quatada, Abu At-Taiyyah, and Hisham Ibn Zaid).

137-(1060) Abaya Ibn Rafi narrated from Rafi Ibn Khadij: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave Abu Sufyan Ibn Harb, Safwan Ibn Umaiyya, Uyaina Ibn Hisn and Al-Aqra Ibn Habis a hundred camels each. He gave Abbas Ibn Mirdas less than that., upon this, Abbas Ibn Mirdas said (the following poetic verses):

"Have you distributed the share of my booty and my horse among Uyaina and Al-Aqra? However, Neither Badr, nor Habis were more excellent than Mirdas (my father) in the gatherings. I'm not to be less than anyone of them, and whoever is lowered today, would never be raised."

He (the narrator) said: So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" completed his gift to one hundred (camels).

Umar Ibn Sa'id Ibn Masruq narrated the same Hadith, with the same chain of transmitters, according to which he reported that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed the war booty of Hunain as follows: He gave one hundred camels to Abu Sufyan Ibn Harb...and the rest is the same, with this addition: He gave Alqama Ibn Ulatha one hundred (camels).

139-(1061) Abdullah Ibn Zaid narrated: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" conquered Hunain he distributed the war booty, and he gave those whose hearts are intended to adhere to Truth. He was informed that the Ansar expected to be given the same as the people (of Quraish) had got. Upon this the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up and, after having praised and lauded Allah, he addressed them saying: "O community of Ansar! Did I not find you going astray and Allah guided you aright through me, destitute and Allah made you independent from need through me, and disunited (opposing one another) and Allah united you through me?" They (the Ansar) said: "Allah and His Messenger are more generous." He said: "Why do you not reply to me?" They said: "Allah and His Messenger are more generous."

He said: If you wish, you could say so and so, and the matter was such and such" (and he mentioned many things, Amr (a sub-narrator) alleged that he doesn't memorize them). He (the Prophet) said: "Won't you be pleased that the people should go away with goats and camels, and you would go to your houses with the Messenger of Allah? The Ansar are (as close to me as) the inner garment and (other) people are (like) the outer garment. Had it not been for the migration, I would have been from among the Ansar. If the people were to take their way through a valley or a mountain path, I would follow the valley or the mountain path of the Ansar. Soon, you would find after me people given preference (over you in getting worldly benefits). So you should keep patient until you meet me at the Fount."

140-(1062) Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" reported: On the day of Hunain, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" favoured some people in the distribution of the booty (to the exclusion of others); he gave Al-Aqra Ibn Habis one-hundred camels and Uyaina the same amount, and also gave to some of the eminent Arabs preference in this regard. Then a person came and said: "By Allah, in this distribution justice has not been observed, nor has Allah's Pleasure been aimed at." I said (to him): "By Allah, I will inform The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I went and informed him of what he (this man) had said. (The colour of) his face changed (as red) as blood, and he said: "If Allah and His Apostle did not act justly, who else would act justly? May Allah be merciful to Moses, for he was harmed with more than this, yet he kept patient." Abdullah said: I said (to myself): I would never inform him (The Prophet) of any unpleasant thing afterwards.

142-(1063) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A person came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at Al-Ji'rana on his way back from Hunain, where there was in the clothes of Bilal some silver, of which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took a handful and distributed it among the people. He (the person) said to him: "O Muhammad! Do justice." He (the Prophet) said: "Woe to you! Who would do justice if I do not do justice! You would be very unsuccessful and loser if I do not do justice."

Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give me permission to kill this hypocrite." Upon this he (the Prophet) said: "I seek refuge with Allah from the fact that people would say that I kill my companions. This man and his companions would recite the Qur'an but it would not go beyond their throats (as they do not act upon it), and they would deviate from it just as the arrow goes through the prey."

143-(1064) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Ali "Allah be pleased with him" sent from Yemen a piece of gold to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who distributed it among four persons: Al-Aqra Ibn Habis Al-Hanzali, Uyaina Ibn Badr Al-Fazari, Alqama Ibn Ulatha Al-Amiri who belonged to (the tribe of) Banu Kilab and Zaid at-Ta'i who belonged to (the tribe of) Banu Nabhan. So the people of Quraish became angry and said: "He (The Prophet) gives the chiefs of Najd and does not give us." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I give them so as to attract their hearts (to Islam)."

Then a man with a thick beard, prominent cheeks, sunken eyes, a raised forehead, and a shaven head, came (in front of The Prophet) and said: "Be afraid of Allah, O Muhammad!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace

Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" sent from Yemen a piece of gold not yet taken out of its ore, in a tanned leather container to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed it amongst four Persons: Uyaina Ibn Badr, Aqra Ibn Habis, Zaid Al-Khail and the fourth was either Alqama or Amir Ibn At-Tufail. On that, one of his companions said: "We are more deserving of this (gold) than these (persons)." When that news reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he said: "Don't you trust me though I am the trustworthy man of the One in the Heavens, and I receive the news of Heaven (revelation) both in the morning and in the evening?"

There got up a man with sunken eyes, prominent cheek bones, raised forehead, a thick beard, a shaven head and a waist sheet that was tucked up and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Be afraid of Allah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Woe to you! Am I not from amongst all the people of the earth the most entitled to fear Allah?" Then that man went away. Khalid Ibn Al-Walid said: "O Allah's Apostle! Shall I chop off his neck?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No, for he may offer prayers." Khalid said: "There are a lot of those who offer prayers and say by their tongues what is not in their hearts." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I have not been ordered (by Allah) to search the hearts of the people or cut open their bellies." would go out of the religion (of Islam) as an arrow goes through a game's body." I think he also said: "If I am present at their time I would kill them as the people of Thamud were killed."

145-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Imara Ibn Al-Qa'qa, with the same chain of transmitters, and he mentioned in his narration Alqama Ibn Ulatha, and did not mention Amir Ibn At-Tufail. He also substituted the word "prominent forehead" for "raised forehead". Then, he added: Then, Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" got up to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would I not chop off his neck?" he (The Prophet) answered in the negative. Then, he turned back. Khalid Ibn Al-Walid, Allah's sword, got up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Shall I not chop off his neck?" he (The Prophet) said: "No." then he (The Prophet) said: "From the offspring of that man, there will come out some people, who will recite Allah's Book continuously and elegantly." Imara said: I think he also said: "If I am present at their time I would kill them as the people of Thamud were killed."

146-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Imara Ibn Al-Qa'qa, with the same chain of transmitters. He mentioned in this narration: (He distributed it) among four persons: Zaid Al-Khair (of goodness), Al-Aqra Ibn Habis, Uyaina Ibn Hisn, and either Alqama Ibn Ulatha or Amir Ibn At-Tufail. He also mentioned here the word "raised forehead" as narrated by Abd Al-Wahid. He mentioned: "From the offspring of that (man), there will come out some people..." and did not mention: "If I am present at their time I would kill them as the people of Thamud were killed."

147-(...) Abu Salama and Ata Ibn Yasar narrated that they visited Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" whom they asked about Al-Haruriyya (a religious heretical sect): "Did you hear The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying anything about them?" Abu Sa'id said: "I do not know what Al-Haruriyya means, but I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There will come out in this nation (he did not say "From this nation ") a group of people so apparently pious that you will consider your prayers inferior to theirs. They will recite the Qur'an, but, it will not go beyond their throats. They will go out of the religion as an arrow goes through the prey, whereupon the archer may look at his arrow, its blade, its feathers, and its shaft to see whether it is stained with blood.""

[البخاري: كتاب المناقب، باب علامات النبوة في الإسلام، رقم: ٣٦١٠].

148-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: While we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was distributing some property, there came Dhul-Khuwaisira At-Tamimi and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Do Justice." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Woe to you! Who could do justice if I did not? You would be unsuccessful and loser if I did not do justice."

Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" said: "O Allah's Apostle! Give me the permission to chop off his head." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let him, for he has companions who pray and fast in such a way that you will consider your fasting and prayer inferior to theirs. They would recite the Qur'an but it would not go beyond their collarbones. They will desert (the religion of Islam) as an arrow goes through a prey, so that the hunter, on looking at the arrow's feathers, would see nothing on it. He would look at its blade and see nothing. He would look at its shaft and see nothing. He would look at its strings and see nothing (neither meat nor blood), for the arrow has been too fast even for the blood and excretions to smear. The sign by which they will be recognized is that among them there will be a black man, one of whose arms (or said one of whose breasts) will resemble a woman's breast or a lump of meat moving loosely. This faction will appear when there will be disputes amongst the people."

Abu Sa'id further said: I testify that I heard this narration from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and I testify that Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" fought with such people, and I was in his company. The man (described by The Prophet) was ordered to be brought. He was looked for, and was found. Then, he was brought, at whom I looked and noticed that he was exactly as The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had described.

149-(1065) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned a sect that would appear from among his nation when there would be dissension among the people. Their distinctive mark would be shaven heads. They would be the worst creatures or the worst of the creatures. They would be killed by the faction, which, from among the two (opposing) factions, would be much closer to the truth.

156-(...) Zaid Ibn Wahb Al-Juhani who was among the army led by Ali "Allah be pleased with him" which set out (to fight) the religious Secessionists (Khawarij) narrated: Ali "Allah be pleased with him" said: O people! I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "There would emerge from among my nation people who would recite the Qur'an in such a way that you would regard your recital as insignificant as compared with theirs, your prayer as inferior to theirs, and your fast as unimportant in relation to theirs. They would recite the Qur'an thinking that it would be an evidence in their favour, , though it would be an evidence against them. Their recital does not go beyond their collarbones. They would deviate from Islam just as the arrow goes through the prey."

If the (people of the) army, which would fight them, knew (what great benefit) has been assured to them by their Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they would completely rely upon this deed. Their (Khawarij's) clear mark is that there would be (among them) a person whose wrist would be with no arm, and the end of his wrist would be fleshy like the nipple of the breast on which there would be white hair. Are you going to proceed towards Mu'awiya and the people of Sham and leave them behind among your children and property (to cause harm)? By Allah, I expect that those are the people (against whom you were ordered to fight), for they shed the forbidden blood, and raided the animals of the people. So go forth in the name of Allah (to fight them).

Salama Ibn Kuhail (a sub-narrator) said: Zaid Ibn Wahb mentioned to me every stage at which they dismounted (and resumed) till we crossed a bridge. Abdullah Ibn Wahb Ar-Rasibi was leading Khawarij when we fought them. He said to his army: "Throw the spears and unsheathe your swords, for I fear that they might attack you as they attacked you on the day of (the battle of) Harura." They went back, threw their spears and unsheathed their swords. The people fought them with spears with the result that they were killed one after another. On that day, only two persons were killed of the people (from among the army of Ali).

Ali "Allah be pleased with him" said: "Look for the one of defective (hand) from among (the dead bodies of) them." They looked for him, but they did not find him. Ali "Allah be pleased with him" himself stood up and (proceeded) until he came to the people who had been killed one after another. He said: "look for them to the last." They found (the dead body of) him near the earth. He (Ali) magnified Allah and said: "Allah told the Truth and His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reported it."

Then, Abida As-Salmani stood in front of him and said: "O Commander of the Believers! by Allah, with Whom there is no god! Did you really hear this Hadith from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" He said: "Yes, by Allah, with Whom there is no god." He requested him to take an oath thrice and he did.

157-(...) Ubaidullah Ibn Abu Rafi, the freed slave of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: When those of Harura (the Khawarij) set out (and he was in the company of Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him") they said: "There is no judgement but that of Allah." Ali said: "Though this statement is true, it is intended to support falsehood. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" described some people whose characteristics I found in those (Khawarij). They utter the truth with their tongue, but it does not go beyond this part of their bodies (he pointed to his throat). The most hateful one of the creatures of Allah is a black man among them. One of his hand is like the teat of a goat or the nipple of a breast."

When Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah be pleased with him" killed them, he said: "Look for (his dead body)." They looked for him, but found nothing. He said: "Go (and look for him) once again. By Allah, neither did I tell a lie, nor was the lie told about me." Ali said this twice and thrice. They then found (the dead body of) him in a hole. It was brought until it was put in front of him (Ali). Ubaidullah said: I was present when this happened and when Ali said what he had said about them. Bukair said: A person narrated to me from Ibn Hanain that he (Ubaidullah) said: I saw that black man.

They will renegade from the religion (of Islam) just as an arrow goes through a prey. Then, they will never return to it. They are the worst of all the creatures."

Ibn As-Samit said: I met Rafi Ibn Amr Al-Ghifari, the brother of Al-Hakam Al-Ghifari, and I said to him: "Tell me about such-and-such a Hadith I heard from Abu Dharr Al-Ghifari." I mentioned it to him. he said: "I also heard it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

[51] Avoiding the appointment of the family of The Prophet to be in charge of the charity

167-(1072) Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith narrated that Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith and Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib met together and said: "By Allah, if we sent these two young boys (I and Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas) to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in order to talk to him, he would appoint them (to be in charge) of some of those charity (jobs). Indeed, they would (collect them and) fulfill (to him) as other (collectors) fulfill and would get a share as other people get." Meanwhile, there came Ali Ibn Abu Talib and stood before them, to whom they mentioned that. Ali Ibn Abu Talib said: "Don't do that. By Allah he (The Prophet) would not do that." Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith turned to him and said: "By Allah! You say so only out of your envy against us. By Allah! When you became the son-in-law of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we had no jealousy against you." Ali said: "Then, send them (if you wish)."

They set out and Ali lay on the bed. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the noon prayer, we preceded him to his chamber beside which we stood till he came out. He took hold of our ears (out of kindness) and said: "Give out what you kept in your chests." He entered (the chamber) and we also entered. On that day, he was in (the house of) Zainab Bint Jahsh (since it was her turn). We urged each other to speak. Then one of us said: "O Messenger of Allah! You are the best and the most pious from among the people, and the best to keep good relations with kith and kin. We have reached the age of marriage. We came so that you would appoint us to be in charge of these charity (jobs). We would fulfill to you just as the (other collectors) fulfill to you, and get our share as others get theirs."

He (The Prophet) kept silent for a long time to the extent that we wished we should talk to him (once again in that matter). At the same time, Zainab pointed to us from behind the curtain not to talk (once again). He (The Prophet) said: "(Accepting) the charity objects is not legal for the family of Muhammad since they are the impurities of people (i.e. by which, they purify their wealth and property). Call to me Mahmiya (and he was in charge of the one-fifth of the booty assigned to the treasury), and Nawfal Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib."

حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي، عَنْ قَتَادَةَ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ؛ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ وَجَدَ تَمْرَةً فَقَالَ: «لَوْلاَ أَنْ تَكُونَ صَدَقَةً لأَكَلْتُهَا».

٥١ ـ بابُ تَرْكِ اسْتِعْمَالِ آلِ النبيِّ ﷺ على الصَّدَقَةِ

١٦٧ ـ (١٠٧٢) ـ حدّثني عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ أَسْمَاءَ الضُّبَعِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا جُوَيْرِيَةُ، عَنْ مَالِكٍ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ؛ أَنَّ عَبْدَ اللَّهِ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ نَوْفَلِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ حَدَّثَهُ؛ أَنَّ عَبْدَ الْمُطَّلِبِ بْنَ رَبِيعَةَ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ حَدَّثَهُ قَالَ: اجْتَمَعَ رَبِيعَةُ بْنُ الْحَارِثِ وَالْعَبَّاسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ، فَقَالاَ: وَاللَّهِ، لَوْ بَعَثْنَا هٰذَيْنِ الْغُلاَمَيْنِ ـ قَالاَ لِي وَلِلْفَضْلِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ ـ إِلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَكَلَّمَاهُ، فَأَمَّرَهُمَا عَلَىٰ هٰذِهِ الصَّدَقَاتِ، فَأَدَّيَا مَا يُؤَدِّي النَّاسُ، وَأَصَابَا مِمَّا يُصِيبُ النَّاسُ.

قَالَ: فَلَمَّا صَلَّىٰ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ الظُّهْرَ سَبَقْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ الْحُجْرَةِ فَقُمْنَا عِنْدَهَا حَتَّىٰ جَاءَ فَأَخَذَ بِآذَانِنَا ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَخْرِجَا مَا تُصَرِّرَانِ» ثُمَّ دَخَلَ وَدَخَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ، وَهُوَ يَوْمَئِذٍ عِنْدَ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ، قَالَ: فَتَوَاكَلْنَا الْكَلاَمَ، ثُمَّ تَكَلَّمَ أَحَدُنَا فَقَالَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَنْتَ أَبَرُّ النَّاسِ وَأَوْصَلُ النَّاسِ وَقَدْ بَلَغْنَا النِّكَاحَ، فَجِئْنَا لِتُؤَمِّرَنَا عَلَىٰ بَعْضِ هٰذِهِ الصَّدَقَاتِ، فَنُؤَدِّيَ إِلَيْكَ كَمَا يُؤَدِّي النَّاسُ وَنُصِيبَ كَمَا يُصِيبُونَ. قَالَ: فَسَكَتَ طَوِيلاً حَتَّىٰ أَرَدْنَا أَنْ نُكَلِّمَهُ. قَالَ: وَجَعَلَتْ زَيْنَبُ تُلْمِعُ عَلَيْنَا مِنْ وَرَاءِ الْحِجَابِ أَنْ لاَ تُكَلِّمَاهُ. قَالَ: ثُمَّ قَالَ: «إِنَّ الصَّدَقَةَ لاَ تَنْبَغِي لآلِ مُحَمَّدٍ، إِنَّمَا هِيَ أَوْسَاخُ النَّاسِ. ادْعُوَا لِي مَحْمِيَةَ ـ وَكَانَ عَلَى الْخُمُسِ ـ وَنَوْفَلَ بْنَ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ».

They came to him. He (The Prophet) said to Mahmiya: "Marry your daughter to this young man" (i.e. Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas), and he married her to him. He said to Nawfal Ibn Al-Harith: "Marry your daughter to this young man" (meaning me, the narrator, Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a), and he married her to me. He said to Mahmiya: "Pay so much as a dower on behalf of both from this one-fifth of the booty." Az-Zuhri said: He (Abdullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Nawfal) did not mention it (the amount of dower).

168-(...) Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib narrated: Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib and Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib said to Abd Al-Muttalib Ibn Rabie'a and Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas: "Go to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...", and the rest is the same, but with the following addition: Ali spread his garment, on which he lay down and said: "I am the father of Al-Hasan, and I am the chief. By Allah, I would not leave my place until your sons return to you with the answer of that for which you sent them to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He (The Prophet) said: "Verily those charity objects are the impurities of people, and they are not legal for Muhammad and for the family of Muhammad." He (the narrator) mentioned: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also said to me: "Call Mahmiya Ibn Jaz", and he belonged to Banu Asad. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had appointed him as a collector of the one-fifth of the booty (assigned to the treasury).

[52] Permissibility of accepting the present by The Prophet and his family from the sons of Hashim and the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, even if its giver possessed it by way of charity; and if one took the object of charity, then, it would no longer become a charity, and accepting it after that would be permissible by everyone for whom it was prohibited earlier

169-(1073) Juwairiya "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated that once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon her and asked: "Do you have any food?" she replied: "No, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah. We have no food except some bones (covered with meat) of a goat, given in charity to my freed slave." Upon this, he said: "Bring it to me, for it has reached its destination (since it no longer became an object of charity, and in this way, it is lawful for us)."

قَالَ: فَجَاءَاهُ، فَقَالَ لِمَحْمِيَةَ: «أَنْكِحْ هٰذَا الْغُلاَمَ ابْنَتَكَ» ـ لِلْفَضْلِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ ـ فَأَنْكَحَهُ، وَقَالَ لِنَوْفَلِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ: «أَنْكِحْ هٰذَا الْغُلاَمَ ابْنَتَكَ» ـ لِي ـ فَأَنْكَحَنِي، وَقَالَ لِمَحْمِيَةَ: «أَصْدِقْ عَنْهُمَا مِنَ الْخُمُسِ كَذَا وَكَذَا».

[53] The Prophet accepts the present and refuses the charity

175-(1077) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that whenever food was brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he would ask about it: If it was said to him that it was a present, he would eat of it, and if it was said to him that it was a charity, he would not eat of it.

[54] Invoking good upon the one who brought (an object of) charity

176-(1078) Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa "Allah be pleased with both " narrated that whenever the people came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with their (objects of) charity, he would say: "O Allah! Bestow Your blessing upon them!" once, (my father) Abu Awfa brought his (objects of) charity to him. upon this, he said: "O Allah! Send Your blessing upon the family of Abu Awfa."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned here that he (The Prophet) said: "O Allah! Bestow Your blessing upon them."

[55] Pleasing the charity collector as long as he does not require what is forbidden

177-(989) Jarir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the collector of charity comes to you, do not let him return from you until he becomes pleased with you."

(13) The Book Of Fasting

[1] The virtue of the month of Ramadan

1-(1079) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When (the month of) Ramadan comes, the gates of Paradise will be opened, the gates of the Hell will be shut down, and Satans will be fascinated."

2-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When (the month of) Ramadan comes, the gates of (Allah's) mercy will be opened, the gates of the Hell will be shut down, and Satans will be chained."

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated, through another chain of transmitters, that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When (the month of) Ramadan starts..." and the rest is the same.

[2] The obligation of observing fasts on seeing the new moon (of the month of Ramadan) and breaking fast on seeing the new moon (of the month of Shawwal); and in case it is cloudy , whether in the first or at the end of the month, the month should be completed thirty days

3-(1080) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned (the month of) Ramadan and said: "Do not observe fasts until you see the new moon , and do not break fasting until you see the new moon (of Shawwal); and if it is cloudy (and you are obstructed to see it), then you should estimate for it."

4-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned (the month of) Ramadan and said, pointing with his hand: "The month is thus and thus and thus." He withdrew his thumb at the third time. He said: "Observe fasts on seeing it (the new moon), and break fasting on seeing it, and if it is cloudy (and you are obstructed to see it) calculate it (the month of Sha'ban) thirty days."

5-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned here that he (The Prophet) said: "If it is cloudy for you, then calculate thirty days (for the month of Ramadan)."

Abdullah Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" asked me about the new moon (of Ramadan) and said: "When did you see the new moon?" I said: "We saw it on the night of Friday." He said: "Did you see it yourself?" I said: "Yes, and so did the people who observed fast. Mu'awiya also observed fast." He (Ibn Abbas) said: "But we saw it (in Medina) on Saturday night. So we would keep observing fast till we complete thirty (days) or see it (the new moon of Shawwal)." I said: "Is not Mu'awiya's seeing the new moon enough for you?" He said: "No, for this is what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us."

[6] It is of no account whether the new moon is large (when it appears after thirty nights) or small (when it appears on the thirtieth night); and Allah Almighty defers it to the time when it would be seen, and if the weather is cloudy, then thirty (fasts) should be completed

29-(1088) Abu Al-Bakhtari narrated: We set out for Umra and when we descended at the valley of Nakhla, we tried to see the new moon. Some of the people said: "It is three-night old." Others said: "It is two-night old." We happened to meet Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" whom we told that we had seen the new moon, but some of the people said it was three-night old and others said that it was two-night old. He asked: "On which night did you see it?" We told him: "On such and such a night." he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah defers it to the time when it would be seen." So it should be estimated just from the night you saw it."

٧ ـ باب بيان معنى قوله صلّى الله تعالى عليه وسلّم: «شَهْرَا عيدٍ لا يَنْقُصَان»

٣١ ـ (١٠٨٩) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ. قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ زُرَيْعٍ، عَنْ خَالِدٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ قَالَ: «شَهْرَا عِيدٍ لاَ يَنْقُصَانِ: رَمَضَانُ وَذُو الْحِجَّةِ».

[البخاري: كتاب الصوم، باب شهرا عيد لا ينقصان، رقم: ١٩١٢].

32-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakra narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The two months of the festivals are never incomplete (in reward)." In the narration transmitted by Khalid: "The two months of the festivals are Ramadan and Dhul-Hijja."

[8] One's fasting begins just at the time of dawn, and one is allowed to eat or to do anything like that until the dawn appears, and what is the valid time of dawn, at which fasting should start

33-(1090) Adi Ibn Hatim "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When this verse was revealed: "Until the white thread of dawn appears to you, distinct from the black thread" (The Heifer 187) Adi Ibn Hatim said (to The Prophet): "O Messenger of Allah! I keep two strings, one black and the other white, under my pillow by which I could distinguish night from dawn." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "no doubt, your pillow seems to be too large (to extend over the night and the day). This means the darkness of the night and the whiteness of the dawn."

34-(1091) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When the following verse was revealed: "Eat and drink until the white thread appears to you, distinct from the black thread " (and the phrase "of dawn" was not revealed), a man used to take black and white threads and eat till he could differentiate between the two (on the light of dawn). Then, Allah "Exalted be He" revealed the words "of dawn ". In this way, He made it clear (i.e. that the meant threads are night and day).

35-(...) Sahl "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When the following verse was revealed: "Eat and drink until the white thread appears to you, distinct from the black thread " and "of dawn" was not revealed, some people who intended to fast, tied black and white threads to their legs and went on eating till they differentiated between the two. Allah then revealed the words "of dawn " and it became clear that he meant night and day.

36-(1092) Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bilal pronounces the Adhan at night, So, keep eating and drinking till you hear Ibn Umm Maktum pronouncing the Adhan" (for he used not to pronounce it till it was dawn).

37-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Bilal pronounces the Adhan at night, So, keep eating and drinking till you hear Ibn Umm Maktum pronouncing the Adhan."

38-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had two Mu'adhdhins (callers to prayers): Bilal and Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind. So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bilal pronounces the Adhan at night, so keep eating and drinking till Ibn Umm Maktum pronounces the Adhan." (It was said: The period between their calls was just sufficient for this (i.e. Bilal) to descend (after pronouncing his call) and that (i.e. Ibn Umm Maktum) to ascend to pronounce his call to prayer).

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim, from A'isha, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, through the two chain of transmitters.

39-(1093) Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Adhan of Bilal (or the call pronounced by Bilal) should not stop anyone of you from having his night meal. However, he pronounces Adhan at night (or calls at night) in order to turn the standing one from among you (for the night prayers), and awaken the sleeping one from among you." he said: "The dawn is not thus and thus, (and he raised his hand) till it is like this" (and he dispersed his fingers).

(...)This Hadith was narrated by Sulaiman At-Taimi with the same chain of transmitters and mentioned here that he (The Prophet) said: "The dawn is not thus, (he gathered his fingers and lowered them), but it is like this." (He placed the index finger upon the other one and spread his hand).

40-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Sulaiman At-Taimi with the same chain of transmitters. In the narration of Al-Mu'tamir, it ended at: "(The Adhan of Bilal is) to awaken the sleeping one among you, and turn the standing one among you (for night prayer)." Jarir (a sub-narrator) said (that The Prophet said): "It (true dawn)is not like this but like that", i.e. (the streaks of true dawn are) horizontal and not vertical.

[11] It is forbidden to keep fasting continuously (without breaking it)

55-(1102) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade fasting continuously (without breaking it). They said to him: "But, you keep fasting continuously (without breaking it)." Upon this, he said: "I'm not like anyone of you. I'm provided (by Allah) with food and drink."

56-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept fasting continuously (without breaking it) during (the month of) Ramadan. When the companions did the same, he forbade them. It was said to him: "But, you keep fasting continuously (without breaking it)." He said: "I'm not like anyone of you. I'm given food and drink (by Allah)."

(...) This Hadith was narrated by Ibn Umar from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters, but he did not mention here "during (the month of) Ramadan".

57-(1103) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade uninterrupted fasting. A man said to him: "But you practice it, O Allah's Apostle!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Who amongst you is similar to me? I am given (the power of the one who is provided with) food and drink during my sleep by my Lord." So, when the people refused to stop observing uninterrupted fasts, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fasted uninterruptedly along with them for a day and then another. Then they saw the new moon (of the month of Shawwal). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them (angrily): "Had It (the new moon) not appeared, I would have made you fast uninterruptedly for a longer period." That was as a punishment for them when they refused to stop fasting uninterruptedly.

58-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Beware of fasting continuously." They said to him: "But you practice it, O Allah's Apostle!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Who amongst you is similar to me in that matter? I am given food and drink during my sleep by my Lord. Do the deeds which you can bear."

(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated the same from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", with the following change of words: "Do those deeds which are within your ability."

59-(1104) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering the Prayer during Ramadan. I came and stood by his side. Then another man came and stood likewise till we became a group. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" noticed that we were behind him, he lightened the Prayer. He then went to his dwelling place and offered a Prayer (the length of which) he never offered with us. When it was morning we asked him: "Did you take notice of us during the night?" He said: "Yes, and it was that which led me to do what I did."

He (the narrator) resumed: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started Fasting uninterruptedly at the end of the month (of Ramadan). Many from among his Companions started such an interrupted Fasting. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "What about those men who Fast uninterruptedly? You are not similar to me. By Allah! Had the month been lengthened for me, I would have fasted continuously (without breaking it), so that those who act exaggeratingly would give up their exaggeration."

60-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed an uninterrupted fasting (without breaking it) during the early days of the month of Ramadan. Some from among the Muslims also fasted uninterruptedly. When the news reached him, he said: "By Allah! Had the month been lengthened for me, I would have fasted continuously (without breaking it), so that those who act exaggeratingly would give up their exaggeration. You are not similar to me (or he said: I'm not similar to you). I remain as such, while being given (the power of the one who is provided with) food and drink by my Lord."

61-(1105) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prevented them from fasting uninterruptedly out of pity for them. They said: "But, you observe uninterrupted fast." He said: "I'm not like you. I'm given food and drink by my Lord."

[12] Kissing (one's wife) during fast is not forbidden to the one whose sexual desire is not prompted

62-(1106) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kissed one of his wives while he was fasting. she (A'isha) smiled (while narrating this).

63-(...) Sufyan narrated: I asked Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Qasim: "Did you hear your father telling about A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kissed her while he was fasting?" he kept silent for a while, after which he answered in the affirmative.

64-(...) Al-Qasim narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kiss me while he was fasting." She further said: "But, who from among you can have control over his sexual desire as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had control over his sexual desire?"

65-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kiss (his wives) while he was fasting, and embrace (them) while he was fasting too. But, he was the most capable among you of controlling his sexual desire.

66-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kiss (his wives) while he was fasting. But, he was the most capable among you of controlling his sexual desire.

67-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to embrace (his wives) while he was fasting.

68-(...) Al-Aswad narrated: I and Masruq went to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", whom we asked: "Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" use to embrace (his wives) while he was fasting?" she said: "Yes, but he had the greatest ability among you (or from among you, Abu Asim, a sub-narrator was in doubt) of controlling his sexual desire."

(...) Al-Aswad and Masruq narrated that they entered upon (A'isha) the Mother of the Believers "Allah be pleased with her" to ask her...and the rest is the same.

69-(...) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the Mother of the Believers, told him that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to kiss her, while he was fasting.

Then, we went until we entered upon Marwan, to whom Abd Ar-Rahman made a mention of that. Upon this, Marwan said: "I swear that you should go to Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" and make him withdraw what he used to say." We came to Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" (and Abu Bakra attended all of that). When Abd Ar-Rahman mentioned to him all of that, he asked him: "Did they say that to you?" he answered in the affirmative. He said: "They know better." Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" attributed what he used to narrate in this matter to Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas, and said: "I heard that from Al-Fadl, but I did not hear it from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." then, Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" retracted all of what he used to say in that matter. I (Ibn Juraij) said to Abd Al-Malik: "Did they say that (this used to happen during the month of) Ramadan?" he said: "He also got up in the morning, while being in the state of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse and) not because of a nocturnal wet dream, and then, he observed fast (on that day)."

Abdullah Ibn Ka'b Al-Himyari narrated that Abu Bakr told him that Marwan sent him to Umm Salama, in order to ask her whether the man, who might get up in the morning, while being in the state of ceremonial impurity, could observe fast (on that very day). Upon this, she said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (sometimes) got up in the morning, while being in the state of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse and) not because of a nocturnal wet dream. Then, he neither broke fasting, nor did he observe another fast in lieu."

He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Sometimes I might be overtaken by the (Fajr) prayer while I'm still in the state of ceremonial impurity, then, would I be able to observe fast (on that very day)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I also might be overtaken by the (Fajr) prayer, while being in the state of ceremonial impurity, and then I would observe fast (on that very day)." The man said: "But, you are not like us, O Messenger of Allah, for Allah has forgiven for you your earlier and later sins." Upon this, he said: "By Allah! I expect to be the most fearing of Allah among you, and the most knowledgeable among you of what I should save myself from."

80-(1109) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated that he asked Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her" whether the man, who might get up in the morning, while being in the state of ceremonial impurity, could observe fast (on that very day). Upon this, she said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (sometimes) got up in the morning, while being in the state of ceremonial impurity (because of sexual intercourse and) not because of a nocturnal wet dream. Then, he observed fast."

Yahya (a sub-narrator) said that Sufyan said: I do not know who said the following statement: "It is the last word of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that should be admitted (since it abrogated what was earlier)."

It was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri with the same chain of transmitters that breaking the fast (in a journey) was the latest of the two commands (of observing fast or leaving it), and it is the last command of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that should be admitted. Az-Zuhri said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached Mecca in the morning of the thirteenth day of (the month of) Ramadan.

(...) A Hadith like that narrated by Al-Laith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab, with the same chain of transmitters. Ibn Shihab said: They (the companions) used to adopt the latest order, which was the last of his (The Prophet's) orders, considering it the one, which abrogated the previous ones.

(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: During (the month of) Ramadan, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out (aiming at Mecca). He observed fasts until he reached Usfan. He ordered that a cup of water be brought to him, from which he drank openly, in order that the people would see him. Then, he left fasting until he arrived in Mecca. Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" commented: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (did the two things during the journey, i.e. he) observed fasts (for some days of the journey) and left fasting (for some days of the journey too). So, if one wishes, he could observe fast (on journey), and if one wishes, he could leave fasting.

89-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Do not criticize the one who observed fasts or the one who left fasting (on journey), because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (did the two, i.e. he) observed fasts (for some days on journey) and left fasting (for some days).

90-(1114) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out to Mecca during (the month of) Ramadan in the year of (Mecca) Conquest.

He and the people observed fasts till he reached Kura'a Al-Ghamim. He ordered that a cup of water should be brought to him, which he raised till the people saw it. Then he drank. Later, it was said to him that some people had kept fasting, about whom he said: "Those are the disobedient people; those are the disobedient people."

91-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Aziz, from Ja'far, with the same chain of transmitters, with the following addition: It was said to him (The Prophet): "The people find it difficult to observe fast, and they consider what you have done." Upon this, he ordered that a cup of water should be brought to him following the Afternoon (prayer).

92-(1115) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on journey when he saw a man surrounded by some people, and he was shaded (from the heat). He asked: "What is wrong with him?" they said: "He is a fasting man." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not good that you should observe fast while being on journey (particularly if you find it difficult for you)."

(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a man (while being on journey)...and the rest is the same.

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters. Shu'ba added: I was informed that Yahya Ibn Abu Kathir made an addition to this narration, according to which, he said: "You have to follow Allah's concession which He granted you." But, when I asked him (about it), he did not memorize it.

93-(1116) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Once, we took part in a holy battle with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when sixteen nights of (the month of) Ramadan had passed. Some of us observed fast, and others left it. However, neither the fasting persons criticized those who left fasting, nor did those who left fasting condemn those who observed fast.

But, in the Hadith narrated by At-Taimi, Umar Ibn Amir and Hisham, it was mentioned, "when eighteen nights had passed". left it. Then, we dismounted at a place on a very hot day. Most of us had the cloth for shelter. There were also some among us who sheltered (themselves) against the rays of the sun with the help of their hands. Those who observed Fast fell down (because of their weakness resulting from their fast on journey), and Those who did not observe fast got up, put up the tents and watered the mounts. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Today those who did not observe fast have gone with the reward."

101-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on journey (with some of his companions). Some of them observed Fast and others left it. Those who did not fast girded up their loins and worked, but those who observed Fast were too weak to work. Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "Today those who did not fast have gone with the reward."

102-(1120) Qaza'a narrated: I came to Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him", and found him surrounded by a lot of people. When the people dispersed from him, I said to him: "I would not ask you about what those (people) asked you." Then, I asked him about observing fast on journey. Upon this he said: Once, we set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Mecca, during (the month of) Ramadan. We got down at a certain place, whereas The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You became at a near distance from your enemy, and breaking fast is to make you stronger." So, it was a concession (given to us), but, some from among us kept fasting, and others broke fasting.

Then, we (proceeded on until we) got down at a certain place, whereas he (The Prophet) said: "You are going to meet your enemy in the morning, and breaking fast is to make you more powerful. So, you should break fast" It was also a concession given to us; and we broke our fast. Afterwards, we used to observe fasts while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey.

١٠٣ ـ (١١٢١) ـ حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثٌ، عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رضي الله عنها؛ أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ: سَأَلَ حَمْزَةُ بْنُ عَمْرٍو الأَسْلَمِيُّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَنِ الصِّيَامِ فِي السَّفَرِ؟ فَقَالَ: «إِنْ شِئْتَ فَصُمْ، وَإِنْ شِئْتَ فَأَفْطِرْ».

104-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Hamza Ibn Amr Al-Aslami said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! I'm a man who likes to observe much fasts; so, could I observe fasts during journey?" He said to him: "If you wish, you could observe fast, and if you wish, you could leave fasting."

105-(...) A Hadith like that transmitted by Hammad Ibn Zaid was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters.

106-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned here that Hamza said: "I'm a man who fasts so much; could I fast during journey?"

107-(...) Hamza Ibn Amr Al-Aslami was narrated to have said: "O Messenger of Allah! I feel strong enough to observe fasts during journey. So, would there be any harm to me (if I observed fast on journey)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is a concession (for you) from Allah. If one accepted it, it would be good, and if one wished to observe fast (on journey), there would be no harm to him." Harun mentioned in his Hadith: "It is a concession" and did not mention "from Allah".

108-(1122) Abu Ad-Darda "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (on journey) during (the month of) Ramadan, and it was so much hot that one of us would put his hand (to cover) his head from the scorching heat. None among us was observing fast except The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Abdullah Ibn Rawaha.

109-(...) Abu Ad-Darda "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We were in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on one of his journeys and it was a very hot day to the extent that one of us would put his hand (to cover) his head from the scorching heat. None among us was observing fast except The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Abdullah Ibn Rawaha.

[18] It is desirable that the pilgrim should leave fast on the Day of Arafat

110-(1123) Umm Al-Fadl Bint Al-Harith narrated that some people who were present with her on the day of Arafat fell in doubt and argued whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was fasting. Some said: "He is fasting." Others said: "He is not fasting." Then, she sent to him a cup of milk, while he was on his camel, at (the mountain of) Arafat, and he drank it.

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Abu An-Nadr with the same chain of transmitters, but he did not mention that he was on his camel. He said that he narrated it from Umair, the freed slave of Umm Al-Fadl.

(...) A Hadith like that narrated by Ibn Uyaina, was narrated on the authority of Salim Abu An-Nadr, with the same chain of transmitters, and said here that he narrated it from Umair, the freed slave of Umm Al-Fadl.

111-(...) Umair, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that he heard Umm Al-Fadl Bint Al-Harith saying: Some people from the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell in doubt about his fasting on the Day of Arafat, while we were at it (Arafat to perform Hajj) with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I sent to him a cup of milk, while he was at (the mountain of) Arafat, and he drank it.

112-(1124) Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas, narrated that Maimuna, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said that the people fell in doubt about the fasting of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of Arafat. So, Maimuna sent to him a vessel of milk, from which he drank while he was halting at a certain place (of Arafat) and the people were seeing him.

[19] Observing fast on the tenth day of Muharram "Ashura"

113-(1125) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Quraish used to observe fast on the tenth day of Muharram in the Pre-Islamic period of ignorance. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe fast on it too. When he emigrated to Medina, he observed fast on it too and ordered (Muslims) to fast on it. When the fasting of the month of Ramadan was prescribed, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who wants to fast (on that day) may fast, and he who does not want to fast may not fast."

114-(...) Ibn Numair narrated the same Hadith from Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, without mentioning in the beginning of the narration that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe fast on it. He mentioned in its end: "(Fasting on) the tenth day of Muharram "Ashura" was left, so, if one wished he could fast it, and if one wished, he could leave it." He did not involve this statement in the saying of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as did Jarir in his narration.

regarding the day of Ashura: "It was a day on which those of the pre-Islamic period of ignorance used to observe fast. So, whoever among you liked to fast on it, let him fast on it, and whoever liked to leave it, let him leave it." Abdullah himself "Allah be pleased with him" used not to observe fast on it except in case it happened to coincide with his routine fasting.

120-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that once, fasting on the day of Ashura was mentioned in the presence of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same as narrated by Al-Laith Ibn Sa'd.

121-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that the day of Ashura was mentioned in the presence of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "It was a day on which those of the pre-Islamic period of ignorance used to observe fast. So, whoever among you liked to fast on it, let him fast on it, and whoever liked to leave it, let him leave it."

122-(1127) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated that once, Al-Ash'ath Ibn Qais entered upon Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" while he was having his lunch. He (Abdullah) said: "O Abu Muhammad! Come near (to have) lunch (with me)!" he (Al-Ash'ath) asked: "Is not today the day of Ashura?" he said: "Do you know what is the day of Ashura?" he said: "What is it?" he said: "It was a day, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe fast before (the fasting of) the month of Ramadan was enjoined. But, when (the fasting of) the month of Ramadan was enjoined, it (the tenth day of Muharram) was abandoned (or he abandoned it, according to Abu Kuraib)."

Upon this he (Abdullah) said: "We used to observe fast on it (before enjoining the fasting of Ramadan), then it was left (after the fasting of Ramadan was enjoined)."

But, when (the fasting of) Ramadan was enjoined, it was left. So, if you are not fasting (today, come and) eat."

125-(1128) Jabir Ibn Samura "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to order us to observe fast on the day of Ashura. He used to urge us to fast on it, and he was eager to know (that we fasted on it). But, when (the fasting of) Ramadan was enjoined, he neither ordered us, nor did he forbid us (to fast on it), nor was he keen on knowing (whether we fasted on it).

126-(1129) Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated: I heard Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan delivering a sermon in Medina (in one of his visits to Medina). He delivered a speech to them on the day of Ashura, saying: "Where are your religious scholars, O people of Medina? I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying (on that day): "This is the day of Ashura, whose fasting has not been enjoined upon you by Allah. But, I'm fasting it. So, whoever among you liked to fast, let him fast, and whoever among you liked to leave fasting, let him leave fasting."

127-(1130) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Medina and saw the Jews fasting on the tenth day of Muharram. They were asked about that. They replied: "This is the day, on which Allah made Moses and the children of Israel emerge victorious over Pharaoh. So, we fast on it out of glorification to it." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We have more claim over Moses than you." So, he ordered Muslims to fast on it.

[20] On which day fasting is observed for Ashura

132-(1133) Al-Hakam Ibn Al-A'raj narrated: I came to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" while he was reclining on his mantle which he used as a pillow beside (the well of) Zamzam, to whom I said: "Tell me (on which day one can observe) fast for Ashura?" he said: "When you see the new moon of (the month of) Muharram, count (nine days) and get up fasting in the morning of the ninth day." I asked: "Was it like this that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to fast it?" he answered in the affirmative.

(...) Al-Hakam Ibn Al-A'raj narrated: I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" while he was reclining on his mantle which he took as a pillow beside (the well of) Zamzam about the fasting of Ashura...and the rest is the same as narrated by Hajib Ibn Umar.

133-(1134) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed fast on the day of Ashura, and ordered (Muslims) to fast on it, they said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! This is a day which both the Jews and the Christians respect." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When it is the next year, Allah willing, we would observe fast on the ninth day (of Muharram besides that day)." But, it was not until the next year that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had died.

134-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If I survive to the coming (year), I would surely observe fast on the ninth (day of Muharram)." He added in the narration of Abu Bakr: "He meant the day of Ashura."

[21] He, who ate on the day of Ashura, should stop (from eating) for the remaining of the day

135-(1135) Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that on the day of Ashura, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a man from (the tribe of) Aslam, to make the following announcement: "He, who intended to fast should observe fast, and he, who (did not intend to fast and) ate should refrain (from eating) until the fall of the night."

136-(1136) Ar-Rubaiy Bint Mu'awwidh narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent a messenger to the villages of the Ansar surrounding Medina in the morning of the tenth day of Muharram to announce: "Whoever got up fasting should complete it, and whoever got up and broke fast should (refrain from eating but) complete fast for the remaining of his day." Since then we used to fast on that day regularly and also make our boys fast. We used to go to the mosque, and make toys of wool for the boys and if anyone of them cried for food, he would be given those toys till there came the time of breaking the fast.

137-(...) Khalid Ibn Dhakwan narrated: I asked Ar-Rubaiy Bint Mu'awwidh about the fasting on the day of Ashura. She said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent his messenger to the villages of the Ansar...and the rest is the same as narrated by Bishr, with the following change: We used to make for them the toys of wool, and take them with us (to the mosque). If they cried (for food), we would give them those toys to divert them until they completed their fast.

[22] The forbiddance to fast on the days of Al-Fitr and Al-Adha

138-(1137) Abu Ubaid, the freed slave of Ibn Azhar narrated: I attended the festival "Id" with Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him", who came, offered the prayer, and then (after finishing the prayer) addressed the people saying: "Those are two days, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (us) to observe fast, i.e. the day of breaking your fast (after the month of Ramadan), and the day on which you eat from your (sacrifices which you slaughter as) offering to Allah."

139-(1138) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (Muslims) to observe fast on the day of Breaking Fast "Al-Fitr", (following the month of Ramadan) and the day of Sacrifice "Al-Adha".

140-(827) Qaza'a narrated: I heard from Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" a Hadith , which won my admiration. I asked him: "Did you really hear it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he said: "Would then I tell about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" what I did not hear (from him)?" he said: I heard him saying: "The fasting would not be held valid on two days: the day of Sacrifice, and the day of Breaking Fast following (the month of) Ramadan."

141-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade fasting on two days: The day of Breaking Fast "Al-Fitr" and the day of Sacrifice (i.e. tenth of Dhul-Hijja).

رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ غَدَاةَ عَاشُورَاءَ إِلَىٰ قُرَى الأَنْصَارِ، الَّتِي حَوْلَ الْمَدِينَةِ: «مَنْ كَانَ أَصْبَحَ صَائِماً فَلْيُتِمَّ صَوْمَهُ، وَمَنْ كَانَ أَصْبَحَ مُفْطِراً فَلْيُتِمَّ بَقِيَّةَ يَوْمِهِ».

142-(1139) Ziyad Ibn Jubair narrated: A man came to Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" and said: "I made a vow to observe fast on a certain day, which happened to be either a day of Fitr or a day of Adha (what should I do, since fasting was forbidden on both?)" Ibn Umar said: "No doubt, Allah Almighty ordered (us) to fulfill the vows, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade fasting on anyone of those days."

143-(1140) Amra narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade two fasts: The (fast on the) day of Al-Fitr and the (fast on the) day of Al-Adha.

[23] The forbiddance to observe fast on the days of Tashriq

144-(1141) Nubaish Al-Hudhali narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The days of Tashriq (11-13 of Dhul-Hijja) are days of eating and drinking."

(...) Nubaish narrated that Khalid said: I met Abu Al-Malih whom I asked, and he narrated to me from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a Hadith like that narrated by Hushaim with the following addition: "And celebration of Allah."

145-(1142) Ibn Ka'b Ibn Malik narrated from his father "Allah be pleased with him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent him and Aws Ibn Al-Hadathan, announcing that "None but a faithful believer would be admitted in Paradise, and that the days of Mina (i.e. those of slaughtering and Tashriq) are days of eating and drinking."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ibrahim Ibn Tahman, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned here that both of them made this announcement.

[24] It is undesirable to fast on Friday alone

146-(1143) Muhammad Ibn Abbad Ibn Ja'far narrated: I asked Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" while he was circumambulating Ka'ba: "Did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbid observing fast on Friday (alone)?" he said: "Yes, by the Lord of this House."

[27] Completing the missed fasts on behalf of the dead person

153-(1147) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who died and had to complete (missed) fasts, then, his heir should fast on his behalf."

154-(1148) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that once, a woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My mother died and she had to observe fasts for a month which was due upon her." He asked: "Do you not think that if she was indebted, would you not fulfill this debt on her behalf?" she answered in the affirmative. Upon this he said: "Then, Allah's debt has more right to be fulfilled."

155-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that once, a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My mother died and she had to observe fasts for a month in lieu of a missed one." 163-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah said: "All the deeds of the son of Adam are for him, except fasting which is for Me, for which I will give the reward." Fasting is a shield (or protection from the fire and from committing sins). If there comes a day on which anyone of you is fasting, he should avoid using obscene language and raising his voice. If somebody insults or quarrels with him, he should say: "I am fasting." By Him, in Whose Hands my soul is, the unpleasant smell coming out from the mouth of a fasting person is sweater, in the sight of Allah on the Day of Judgement, than the odor of musk. There are two pleasures for the fasting person: When he breaks his fast, he will be pleased because of breaking his fast, and when he meets his Lord, then he will be pleased because of his fasting."

164-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every act of the son of Adam would be multiplied, in such a way that every good deed will be recorded as ten to seven hundredfold. Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He," said: "Except fasting, which is done for My sake, for which I give rewards. He abandons his (sexual) desire and diet for My sake." No doubt, the fasting person has two pleasures: One at the time of breaking his fast, and the other at the time of meeting his Lord (on the Day of Judgement). Verily, the unpleasant smell of his (the fasting person's) mouth is sweater, in the sight of Allah, than the odor of musk."

Indeed, he was the best worshipping one among the people." I asked: "O Prophet of Allah! How is the fasting of David?" he said: "He used to observe fast on a day and leave fasting on another (i.e. to fast on alternate days)."

He also mentioned that he (Abdullah) said: I said: "What is the fast of David, The Prophet of Allah?" He said: "Half the time (i.e. fasting on alternate days forever)." In this narration, no mention was made of the recital of the Qur'an, and he did not mention that he (The Prophet) said: "Your visitors have a right upon you", but he said: "Your children have a right upon you."

He said: "I wish I would be given the power to do so." Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Fasting three days monthly, and (the month of) Ramadan every year will be equal to the perpetual fasts. I expect from Allah that the fasting of the day of Arafat (for the non-pilgrim) will expiate (the sins of) the preceding and the coming years. Moreover, I expect from Allah that the fasting of the day of Ashura will expiate (the sins of) the preceding year."

197-(...) Abu Quatada Al-Ansari narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about his fast. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became angry. Umar "Allah be pleased with him" said: "We have been pleased with Allah as our Lord, Islam as our religion, Muhammad as our Prophet, and our pledge (we gave to you) as a (true firm) commitment."

Then, he (The Prophet) was asked about the perpetual fast. He said: "He (who does it is like the one who) neither fasted nor did he break fast (or said did not fast and he did not break fast)." Then, he was asked about fasting for two days and then breaking fast for one day. He (The Prophet) said: "Who could endure that?" He was asked about fasting one day and breaking fast for two days. He said: "I wish we would be given the power by Allah to do so." Then, he was asked about fasting a day and breaking fast on another. He said: "This is the fast of my brother (The Prophet) David "Peace be upon him"." Then, he was asked about observing fast on Monday. He said: "This is the day on which I was born and on which also I was sent (as a Messenger) (or said on which I was Divinely inspired)." Then, he (The Messenger of Allah) said: "Fasting three days monthly, and (the month of) Ramadan every year will be equal to the perpetual fasts." Then, he (The Prophet) was asked about the fasting of the day of Arafat (for the non-pilgrim). He said: "It expiates (the sins of) the preceding and the coming years." Then, he was asked about the fasting of the day of Ashura. He said: "It expiates (the sins of) the preceding year."

In the narration of Shu'ba, it was mentioned that he was asked about fasting on Monday and Thursday, but we (Imam Muslim) did not mention Thursday for we found it as an error (in narration).

211-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Seek for the Night of Power in the last ten nights (or said in the last nine) (nights of Ramadan)."

212-(1166) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I was shown in a dream (the time of) the Night of Power, and then some of my family awakened me. So, I was made to forget it. However, seek for it in the remaining ten (nights of Ramadan)." Harmala (A sub-narrator) said that The Prophet did not say "I was made to forget", but he said: "I forgot."

213-(1167) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf (i.e. stay in seclusion in the mosque, devoting himself to prayer and worship) in the middle third of Ramadan. When twenty nights had elapsed, and he received the twenty-first night, he used to go back to his house on the twenty-first, and the people who were in seclusion with him also used to go back to their houses. Once in Ramadan, in which he was in seclusion (in the mosque), he established the night prayers on the night he used to return home, and then he addressed the people and ordered them whatever Allah wished him to order and said: "I used to stay in seclusion (I'tikaf) for these ten days (the middle third) but now I intend to stay in I'tikaf for the last ten days (of the month); so whoever was in I'tikaf with me should stay at his place of seclusion. I have verily been shown (the date of) this Night (of Qadr) but I have forgotten it. So search for it in the odd nights of the last ten (of this month). I also saw myself (in the dream) prostrating in mud and water."

On the night of the twenty-first, the sky was covered with clouds and it rained, and the rainwater started leaking through the roof of the mosque at the praying place of the Prophet. I saw with my own eyes the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at the completion of the Morning Prayer leaving with his face covered with mud and water.

214-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf (in the mosque) in the middle third of Ramadan...and the rest is the same, but mentioned here that he (The Prophet) said: "let him remain in his place of seclusion", and "with his forehead covered with mud and water."

215-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed I'tikaf (in the mosque) in the first ten days (of Ramadan). Then, he observed I'tikaf for the middle ten in a Turkish tent, with a straw mat hanging on its gate. Then, he took the straw mat with his hand, and placed it at a corner of the tent. Then, he put out his head and talked to the people, who came close to him. He said: "I observed I'tikaf in the first ten (days) seeking for this night (of Power). Then, I observed I'tikaf in the middle ten (days seeking for it too). But, (an angel) was sent to me, and I was informed that it would be in the last ten (nights). So, he, who wished to observe I'tikaf, let him do."

So, the people observed I'tikaf with him. He (The Prophet) resumed: "I saw that it would be on an odd night, and that I would prostrate in the morning following it on mud and water." Then, he got up in the morning, following the twenty-first night (of Ramadan). He stood up to offer the Morning prayer. Meanwhile, the sky (was covered with clouds and it) rained. The rainwater started to leak through the roof of the mosque, and I saw both mud and water. After he (The Prophet) had finished the Morning prayer, he went out, with his forehead and nose tip having the traces of mud and water. It was the twenty-first night from among the last ten nights.

216-(...) Abu Salama narrated: We celebrated the Night of Power. I came to Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" who was a friend of mine and said: "Won't you come with us to the garden of date-palms?" he came out, having a square shirt over him. I said to him: "Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" talking about The Night of Power (Qadr)?" He said: "Yes. We observed I'tikaf (in the mosque) in the middle third of the month of Ramadan with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". In the morning of the twentieth of Ramadan, we came out, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us saying: "I was informed of (the date of) The Night of Power but I forgot it (or I was caused to forget it); so search for it in the odd nights of the last ten nights of the month of Ramadan. (In the dream) I saw myself prostrating in mud and water (as a sign). So, whoever observed I'tikaf with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should return to it with me (for another ten day's)."

So we returned. At that time there was no sign of clouds in the sky. But suddenly a cloud came and it rained till rainwater started leaking through the roof of the mosque, which was made of date-palm leaf stalks. Then the prayer was established and I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prostrating in mud and water and I saw the traces of mud on his forehead."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Abu Kathir, with the same chain of transmitters, but with the following slight change of wording: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he had finished the prayer, with the traces of mud on his forehead and nose tip.

217-(...) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed I'tikaf during the middle ten (days of Ramadan) seeking for the Night of Power, before it was shown to him. When they elapsed, he ordered that the tent should be pulled down. But (a while later) it was shown to him. So, he ordered that the tent should be pitched once again. Then, he came out to the people and said: "O People! The Night of Power was shown to me, and I came out to inform you of it, but there came two men, each of whom was demanding his right from the other, having the Devil with them. So, I forgot it. But, you could seek for it in the last ten nights of Ramadan. Seek for it either in the ninth, in the seventh, or in the fifth (night)."

I (a sub-narrator) said: "O Abu Sa'id! You know the numbers better than us." He said: "Yes, we have more right than you in this respect." I said to him: "Then, tell me what are the ninth, the seventh, and the fifth?" he said: "When twenty one (nights) passed, the next one is the twenty-second, and it is the ninth; and when twenty three (nights) passed, the next one is the seventh; and when twenty five (nights) passed, the next one is the fifth." (Ibn Khallad replaced "each of whom was demanding his right from the other" with "and they were quarreling with one another").

218-(1168) Abdullah Ibn Unais narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I was shown (in a dream) the (date of the) Night of Power, but I was made to forget it. I saw myself prostrating in the morning following it in water and mud." Then, on the twenty-third night, it rained. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the prayer, and when he finished, the traces of water and mud were on his forehead and nose. Abdullah Ibn Unais used to say that (the Night of Power is on) the twenty-third night.

He (Ubai) said: "May Allah bestow mercy upon him! He wanted not to make the people rely only on it. No doubt, he knew that it is in Ramadan, particularly in the last ten nights, and that it is, namely, the twenty-seventh night." He (Ubai) took an oath without restrictions (such as to say: "Allah willing") that it is the twenty-seventh night. I (the sub-narrator) asked: "On which thing do you depend in saying that, O Abu Al-Mundhir?" he said: "I depend upon the portent or the sign, of which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told us. ٢١٩ ـ (١١٦٩) ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ وَوَكِيعٌ، عَنْ هِشَامٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رضي الله عنها قَالَتْ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: ـ قَالَ ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ: ـ: «الْتَمِسُوا ـ، وَقَالَ وَكِيعٌ: ـ تَحَرَّوْا ـ لَيْلَةَ الْقَدْرِ فِي الْعَشْرِ الأَوَاخِرِ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ».

Shu'ba (a sub-narrator) had a doubt concerning the statement: "it was that night, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to stand for (supererogatory) prayer". That was narrated to me from him by a companion of mine.

222-(1170) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We mentioned the Night of Power while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Who among you does remember that night, on which the moon appeared like half a bowl?" (It means that it is towards the end of the month. That is because the moon never takes such a form except towards the end of the month).

وَإِنَّمَا شَكَّ شُعْبَةُ فِي هٰذَا الْحَرْفِ: هِيَ اللَّيْلَةُ الَّتِي أَمَرَنَا بِهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، قَالَ: وَحَدَّثَنِي بِهَا صَاحِبٌ لِي عَنْهُ.

(14) The Book Of I'tikaf

(To stay in seclusion in the mosque for prayer and worship)

[1] Observing I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan

1-(1171) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan.

2-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan. Nafi said that Abdullah showed me the very place in which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to stay in seclusion in the mosque.

3-(1172) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan.

4-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan.

5-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan, until he died. Then, his wives practiced I'tikaf after him.

[2] When does one enter his place of I'tikaf if he intends to practice it?

6-(1173) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to observe I'tikaf, he would offer the Dawn prayer and then enter his place of seclusion. Once, he intended to observe I'tikaf in the last ten (days) of Ramadan. So, he ordered that his tent should be pitched. Then, Zainab ordered that a tent should be pitched for her. Then, some of the wives of The Prophet ordered that tents should be pitched for them. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Dawn prayer, he looked and saw the tents (of his wives). Upon this he said: "Do you intend to do righteousness?" then, he ordered that his tent should be pulled down, and he left observing I'tikaf in Ramadan, and practiced I'tikaf in the first ten days of Shawwal.

١٤ ـ كِتَابُ الاعْتِكَافِ

١ ـ بابُ اعْتِكَافِ العَشْرِ الأَوَاخِرِ من رَمَضَان

قَالَ نَافِعٌ: وَقَدْ أَرَانِي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ رضي الله عنه الْمَكَانَ الَّذِي كَانَ يَعْتَكِفُ فِيهِ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ. [البخاري: كتاب الاعتكاف، باب الاعتكاف في العشر الأواخر...، رقم: ٢٠٢٥].

(ح) وَحَدَّثَنَا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَأَبُو كُرَيْبٍ ـ وَاللَّفْظُ لَهُمَا ـ قَالاَ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ نُمَيْرٍ، عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رضي الله عنها قَالَتْ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَعْتَكِفُ الْعَشْرَ الأَوَاخِرَ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ.

٥ ـ (...) ـ وحدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا لَيْثٌ، عَنْ عُقَيْلٍ، عَنِ الزُّهْرِيِّ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رضي الله عنها، أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ كَانَ يَعْتَكِفُ الْعَشْرَ الأَوَاخِرَ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ حَتَّىٰ تَوَفَّاهُ اللَّهُ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ، ثُمَّ اعْتَكَفَ أَزْوَاجُهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ.

[البخاري: كتاب الاعتكاف، باب الاعتكاف في العشر الأواخر...، رقم: ٢٠٢٦].

٢ ـ باب مَتَى يَدْخُلُ من أَرَادَ الاعْتِكَافَ في مُعْتَكَفِهِ

٦ ـ (١١٧٣) ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ: أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ عَمْرَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ رضي الله عنها قَالَتْ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِذَا أَرَادَ أَنْ يَعْتَكِفَ صَلَّى الْفَجْرَ ثُمَّ دَخَلَ مُعْتَكَفَهُ، وَإِنَّهُ أَمَرَ بِخِبَائِهِ فَضُرِبَ، أَرادَ الاعْتِكافَ فِي الْعَشْرِ الأَوَاخِرِ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ، فَأَمَرَتْ زَيْنَبُ بِخِبَائِهَا فَضُرِبَ، وَأَمَرَ غَيْرُهَا مِنْ أَزْوَاجِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ بِخِبَائِهِ فَضُرِبَ، فَلَمَّا صَلَّىٰ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ الْفَجْرَ، نَظَرَ فَإِذَا الأَخْبِيَةُ. فَقَالَ: «آلْبِرَّ تُرِدْنَ؟» فَأَمَرَ بِخِبَائِهِ فَقُوِّضَ، وَتَرَكَ الاعْتِكَافَ فِي شَهْرِ رَمَضَانَ حَتَّىٰ اعْتَكَفَ فِي الْعَشْرِ الأَوَّلِ مِنْ شَوَّالٍ. [البخاري: كتاب الاعتكاف، باب اعتكاف النساء، رقم: ٢٠٣٣].

(...) A Hadith like that transmitted by Abu Mu'awiya was narrated on the authority of A'isha, in which it was mentioned that A'isha, Hafsa, and Zainab "Allah be pleased with them" pitched tents for I'tikaf.

[3] Doing one's best in prayer and worship during the last ten days of the month of Ramadan

7-(1174) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Whenever the (last) ten (days of Ramadan) started, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would remain awake throughout the night (for prayer and worship), and awaken his family (to offer the Night prayer). He would also be more energetic in worship, devoting himself to the prayers more vigorously.

8-(1175) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to exert (in prayers and worship) during the last ten (days of Ramadan) much more than he used to do at any other time.

[4] Observing fasts in the (first) ten days of Dhul-Hijja

9-(1176) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: I've never seen The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observing fasts during the (first) ten (days) of Dhul-Hijja.

10-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never fasted during the (first) ten (days) of Dhul-Hijja.

(15) The Book Of Pilgrimage

[1] What is permissible for the one in the state of Ihram to wear, and perfume is forbidden to him

1-(1177) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A person asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "What clothes may be worn by the one who is in the state of Ihram?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Do not wear shirts, turbans, trousers, hooded cloaks, or leather socks except if there is one who has no sandals, in this case, let him wear the leather socks, and cut them short off the ankles. Moreover, do not wear anything perfumed with saffron or Wars (a yellow plant of good smell)."

2-(...) Salim narrated from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about what clothes the one who is in the state of Ihram might wear. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "He should not wear a shirt, a turban, a hooded cloak, a trousers, or any clothes perfumed with Wars or saffron. He also should not wear leather socks, unless he finds no sandals. In this case, (he could wear them, and) cut them short off the ankles."

3-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade the one who is in the state of Ihram to wear any clothes dyed with saffron or Wars, and said: "He, who finds no sandals, then let him wear the leather socks, and cut them short off the ankles."

4-(1178) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying while he was addressing the people: "The trousers are to be worn by the one who finds no lower garment, and the leather socks are to be worn by the one who finds no sandals." He meant the one who is in the state if Ihram.

(...) This Hadith was narrated by Shu'ba from Amr Ibn Dinar with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned that he (Ibn Abbas) heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying, while he was delivering a sermon in Arafat...and the rest is the same.

(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Dinar, through another chain of transmitters, and there is no mention of "delivering a sermon in Arafat" except in the narration of Shu'ba alone.

6-(1180) Safwan Ibn Ya'li Ibn Umaiyya narrated from his father: A man came to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was at Al-Ji'rana. The man was wearing a cloak, which had traces of perfume (or a yellowish colour). The man asked (the Prophet): "What do you order me to perform in my Umra? " So, Allah revealed to the Prophet and he was screened by a piece of cloth. I wished to see the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while being revealed. Umar said to me: "Come! Will you be pleased to look at the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while Allah is revealing to him?" I replied in the affirmative. Umar lifted one corner of the cloth and I looked at the Prophet who was snoring. (The sub-narrator thought that he said: The snoring was like that of a camel). When that state was over, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Where is the questioner who asked about Umra? Wash away the traces of the yellowish colour (or said the traces of the scent) from your body and Put off your cloak. Then, perform in your Umra what you perform in your Hajj (concerning circumambulation round Ka'ba and compassing round Safa and Marwa)."

He (the man) was wearing a sewed cloak, and was perfumed. He said: "I assumed Ihram with the intention of performing Umra, while I was wearing this cloak, and I was perfumed." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "(If you had faced such a problem) what would you have done in your Hajj?" he said: "I would have put off this cloak, and washed the (traces of) this perfume off my body." Upon this The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, do in your Umra what you would have done in your Hajj."

Umar, suddenly there came to him a man wearing a woollen cloak and he was perfumed excessively. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! What is your opinion regarding a man wearing a cloak, who assumed Ihram for Umra after applying perfume to his body?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked at him and kept silent for a while during which the revelation came down to him. Umar signalled with his hand to Ya'li to come. Ya'li came and put his head (under that cloth sheet) and saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" red-faced and he was snoring for a while. When that state (of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") was over, he said: "Where is him, who asked me about the Umra?" The man was looked for and brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "As for the perfume you applied to your body, wash it off your body thrice, and take off your cloak, and then do in your Umra what you do in your Hajj."

9-(...) Safwan Ibn Ya'li Ibn Umaiyya narrated from his father that once, a man came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was at Al-Ji'rana. He (the man) had assumed Ihram for Umra, while he was dying his beard and hair with yellowish scent, and wearing a cloak. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I assumed Ihram for Umra while I was in such a state as you see me." He (The Prophet) said: "Put off the cloak, and wash the yellowish scent off your body. Then, do in your Umra what you would have done in your Hajj (if you had faced such a problem)."

10-(...) Safwan Ibn Ya'li narrated from his father: We were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man, wearing a cloak, having the traces of scent, came to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I assumed Ihram for Umra (while being in such a state as you see). What would I do?" he (The Prophet) kept silent and did not reply to him. On the other hand, Umar screened him, for whenever the Revelation came down to him (The Prophet) Umar would shade him (with a cloth). I had said to Umar "Allah be pleased with him": "I wish I would get in the cloth whenever he was Divinely revealed." When he was Divinely revealed, Umar "Allah be pleased with him" covered him with the cloth. Then, I came to him and put my head in the cloth with him, and I looked at him. When this state was over, he asked: "Where is the one who asked about Umra?" the man stood up to him, to whom he (The Prophet) said: "Put off your cloak, and wash the traces of the scent off your body. Then, do in your Umra what you would have done in your Hajj (if you had faced such a problem)."

[2] The places from which Ihram for Hajj and Umra is to be assumed

11-(1181) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made Dhul-Hulaifa as the Miqat (the place from where people could assume Ihram) for the people of Medina, Al-Juhfa for the people of Sham, Qarn Al-Manazil for the people of Najd, and Yalamlam for the people of Yemen. These locations of assuming Ihram are for the people who live in those very places, and besides, for those who come through those places with the intention of performing Hajj and Umra. Whoever is living within these boundaries (i.e. between Mecca and those places of assuming Ihram) can assume Ihram from his (dwelling) place (since he is one of their inhabitants, and it is not necessary for him to go to the very place to assume Ihram), and even the people of Mecca could assume Ihram from it.

[3] What about Talbiya: its nature and time

19-(1184) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet's Talbiya (Supplication during pilgrimage) was: "I'm responding to Your call O Allah, I'm responding to Your call, You have no partner with You, I'm responding to Your call. All the praises and blessings be to You, All the dominion be for You. You have no partner with You." (LabbaikAllahumma labbaik. Labbaika la sharika laka labbaik. Innalhamda wan-ni'mata laka walmulk. peace be upon him" touching except those two Yemenite (corners facing south). Regarding the tanned leather shoes, no doubt I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wearing non-hairy shoes and he used to perform ablution while wearing the shoes (by washing his feet and then putting on the shoes). So I love to wear similar shoes. As for dyeing with yellow, no doubt I saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" dyeing with it; that is why I like to dye with it. Regarding Ihram, I did not see Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having assumed Ihram till his mount started proceeding with him (towards Mina, and that was on the eighth of Dhul-Hijja)."

26-(...) Ubaid Ibn Juraij narrated: I accompanied Abdullah Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with both" for twelve times of pilgrimage, whether greater or minor. I said to him: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! I saw you doing four (peculiar) things..." and the rest is the same except the case of assuming Ihram, in connection with which, he differed from the narration of Al-Maqburi.

27-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put his feet in the stirrup, and his mount (stood up and) started proceeding with him, he would start Talbiya at Dhul-Hulaifa.

28-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started Talbiya when his she-camel got upright with him.

29-(...) Salim narrated that Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" said: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having ridden his mount at Dhul-Hulaifa. Then, he started pronouncing Talbiya when it stood upright with him.

[6] Offering the prayer in the mosque of Dhul-Hulaifa

30-(1188) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: In the beginning (of his pilgrimage), The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" spent the night in Dhul-Hulaifa, and offered prayer in its mosque.

[7] What about perfume for the Muhrim when he assumes Ihram

Then, in the morning, he became in the state of Ihram, overflowing with perfume.

49-(...) Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Al-Muntashir narrated from his father that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" said: "To be stained with tar is dearer to me than to become in the state of Ihram in the morning, overflowing with perfume." A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: I perfumed The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at the time of assuming Ihram. Then, he went round his wives, and in the morning, he became in the state of Ihram."

[8] Forbiddance of hunting to the one in the state of Ihram

50-(1193) Abdullah Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported that As-Sa'b Ibn Jaththama Al-Laithi presented an onager to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was at Al-Abwa or at Waddan, but he refused it. On noticing the signs of unpleasant feeling of disappointment on his (As-Sa'b's) face, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "We returned it to you only because we are in the state of Ihram."

51-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned that (he said): "I presented to him an onager ", as narrated by Malik, and in the Hadith of Al-Laith and Salih he mentioned that As-Sa'b Ibn Jaththama presented (an onager) to him.

52-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Sufyan Ibn Uyaina, from Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned here "I presented some meat of an onager to him.

53-(1194) Ibn Abbas “Allah be pleased with both” narrated: As-Sa’b Ibn Jaththama presented an onager to The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” while he was in the state if Ihram. He (The Prophet) refused it and said: “Had we not been in the state of Ihram, we would have accepted it from you.”

54-(…) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas, through another chain of transmitters. According to the narration of Mansur who transmitted it from Al-Hakam: “As-Sa’b Ibn Jaththama presented to The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” a leg of an onager.” According to the narration of Shu’ba, who transmitted from Al-Hakam “a rump of an onager, dribbling blood.” According to the narration of Shu’ba, who transmitted it from Habib: “A half of an onager was presented to The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, but he refused it.”

55-(1195) Tawus narrated: Once, Zaid Ibn Arqam came (to Ibn Abbas). Abdullah Ibn Abbas “Allah be pleased with both” said to him, requesting him to remind him: “Tell me about the meat of a game which was presented to The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” while he was in the state of Ihram.” He (Zaid) said: “Once, a peace of the meat of a game was presented to him (The Prophet), but he refused it and said: “We do not eat it since we are in the state of Ihram.””

56-(1196) Abu Quatada "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We set out in the company of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" until we reached (a place called) Al-Qaha. Some of us had assumed Ihram while the others had not. I noticed that some of my companions were watching something, so I looked up and saw an onager. I saddled my horse which I rode and took the spear and whip, but my whip fell down and I asked my companions, who were in the state of Ihram, to pick it up for me, but they said: "By Allah! We, by no means, will help you as we are in a state of Ihram." So, I dismounted and picked it up myself. Then, I rode my horse and attacked the onager from behind a hillock. I stabbed it with my spear and slaughtered it. I then brought it to my companions. Some of them said: "Eat it." While some others said: "Do not eat it." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was ahead of us and I made my horse proceed on (while I was riding it) until I joined him. (I asked him about it and) he replied: "Eat it. It is lawful for you."

57-(...) Abu Quatada "Allah be pleased with him" narrated That he was in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When they covered a portion of the road to Mecca, he and some of the companions lagged behind. The latter were in a state of Ihram, while he (Abu Quatada) was not. Saw an onager, he rode his horse and requested his companions to give him his lash but they refused. Then he asked them to give him his spear but they refused. So he took it by himself, attacked the onager, and killed it. Some of the companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate of it while some others refused to eat. When they caught up with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" they asked him about that. He said: "That was a meal with which Allah fed you."

58-(...) This Hadith, related with the onager, which is like that narrated by Abu An-Nadr, was narrated on the authority of Abu Quatada. But in the narration of Zaid Ibn Aslam, he mentioned that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have anything from its flesh with you?"

59-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abu Quatada narrated: My father proceeded with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the year of Al-Hudaibiya and his companions assumed Ihram but he did not. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was informed that some enemies were at Ghaiqa, so The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went on towards them. He (Abu Quatada) said: "While I was with My companions who started laughing among themselves, I looked and saw an onager. I chased it with my horse, stabbed and caught it. I wanted some help from my companions but they refused. (I slaughtered it all alone).

We all ate from it. Then I followed Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" lest we might be left behind. At times I urged my horse to run at a galloping speed, and at other times at an ordinary slow speed. On the way I met a man from the tribe of Banu Ghifar at midnight. I asked him where he had left Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The man replied that he had left him at (a place called) Tahun and he had the intention of having the midday rest at As-Suqya.

So, I followed Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" till I reached him and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have been sent by my companions who send you their greetings and compliments and ask for Allah's Mercy and Blessings upon you. They were afraid that the 60-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abu Quatada narrated from his father: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out for Hajj and so did his companions. He sent a batch of his companions by another way and Abu Quatada was one of them. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to them: "Proceed along the seashore till we meet all together." So, they took the route of the seashore, and when they proceeded ahead of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", all of them assumed Ihram except Abu Quatada. While they were proceeding on, his companions saw a group of onagers. Abu Quatada chased the onagers and attacked and wounded a she-onager.

They (his companions) got down and ate some of its meat. But, they said to each other: "How do we eat the meat of the game while we are in a state of Ihram?" So, they carried the rest of the she-onager's meat.

When they met Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" they asked: "O Allah's Apostle! We assumed Ihram except for Abu Quatada. We saw (a group of) onagers. Abu Quatada attacked them and wounded a she-onager from them. Then we got down and ate from its meat. Later, we said: How do we eat the meat of the game and we are in a state of Ihram? So, we carried the rest of its meat." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Did anyone of you order him (to attack it), or hint with anything to him (to do so)?" [10] It is permissible for the one who is in the state of Ihram to get his head shaved, in case he is troubled, and the obligation of the expiation for such a shaving

80-(1201) Ka'b Ibn Ujra “Allah be pleased with him” reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood beside me at Al-Hudaibiya while I was kindling fire under my cooking pot, with the lice creeping on my face. He asked me: "Have your lice troubled you?" I replied in the affirmative. He ordered me to get my head shaved, and to fast three days, or to feed six poor persons, or to offer a sacrifice. Aiyyub (a sub-narrator) said: I do not know which one he started with.

(…) The same was narrated by Aiyyub.

81-(…) Ka'b Ibn Ujra “Allah be pleased with him” narrated: This Holy verse: " And whoever among you is sick or hath an ailment of the head must pay a ransom of fasting or almsgiving or offering" (The Heifer 196) was revealed regarding me. He (Ka’b) added: I came to him (The Prophet) and he said: “Come near!” I did and he said once again: “Come near” and I did. He "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked me: "Have your lice troubled you?" (Ibn Awn said: I think he replied in the affirmative). Ka’b said: He ordered me to (get my head shaved and to) give a ransom of fasting, or almsgiving, or offering (of sacrifice), whatever was available.

82-(…) Ka'b Ibn Ujra “Allah be pleased with him” reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood beside me and the lice were falling from my head in great number. He asked me: "Have your lice troubled you?" I replied in the affirmative. He ordered me to get my head shaved. Ka'b added: "It was in connection with me that the following verse was revealed: " And whoever among you is sick or hath an ailment of the head must pay a ransom of fasting or almsgiving or offering.” (The Heifer 196) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then ordered me to fast three days, or to give three Sas (of food)to six poor persons, or to offer sacrifice, whatever was available.

[12] It is permissible for the one in a state of Ihram to treat his eyes

89-(1204) Nubaih Ibn Wahb narrated: We set out in the company of Aban Ibn Uthman (while being in the state of Ihram). When we were at Malal (twenty-two or twenty-eight miles from Medina) the eyes of Umar Ibn Ubaidullah became sore. When we reached Rawba the pain increased. He (Nubaih Ibn Wahb) sent to Aban Ibn Uthman to ask him (what to do). He sent to him (telling him) to apply aloes to them, for Uthman "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told that if there was a person whose eyes were sore and he was in the state of Ihram he would apply aloes to them.

90-(...) Nubaih Ibn Wahb narrated that the eyes of Umar Ibn Ubaidullah Ibn Ma'mar grew swollen, and he intended to treat them with antimony. Aban Ibn Uthman forbade him to do so and told him to apply aloes to them, and narrated that Uthman Ibn Affan "Allah be pleased with him" told that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had done so.

[13] It is permissible for the one in the state of Ihram to wash his body and head

91-(1205) Abdullah Ibn Hunain narrated: Abdullah Ibn Abbas and Al-Miswar Ibn Makhrama differed at Al-Abwa . Ibn Abbas said that the one in the state of Ihram could wash his head, while Al-Miswar insisted that he should not do so. Abdullah Ibn Abbas sent me to Abu Aiyyub Al-Ansari whom I found taking a bath between the two wooden posts (of the well) and was screened with a sheet of cloth. Abu Aiyyub asked me who I was. I answered: "I am Abdullah Ibn Hunain and I am sent by Ibn Abbas to Tell us how The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" washed himself while he was in the state of Ihram." Abu Aiyyub caught hold of the sheet of cloth and lowered it till his head appeared before me, and then told somebody to pour water on his head. He poured water on his head. Abu Aiyyub rubbed his head with his hands by bringing them from back to front and from front to back and said: "I saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" doing like this."

92-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Aslam, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned here that Abu Aiyyub passed his hands upon all parts of his head, bringing them from back to front and from front to back. Upon this, Al-Miswar said to Ibn Abbas: "I would never argue with you."

[14] What would be done with the Muhrim if he died

93-(1206) Abdullah Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A man fell down from his mount with his neck broken (while he was in Arafat with The Messenger of Allah). (Consequently, he died). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Wash him with water mixed with fused leaves of lote tree and shroud him in two pieces of cloth. Do not cover his head, for he will be resurrected on the Day of Judgement pronouncing Talbiya" (i.e. As a pilgrim).

[16] What about assuming Ihram for the woman who is in the state of menses or parturition, and it is desirable for her to take a bath

109-(1209) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Asma Bint Umais gave birth to Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr near the tree (at Dhul-Hulaifa). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told Abu Bakr to order her to take a bath and assume Ihram.

110-(1210) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated, concerning the story of Asma Bint Umais, when she gave birth (to Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr) at Dhul-Hulaifa, that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told Abu Bakr "Allah be pleased with him" to order her to take a bath and then assume Ihram.

[17] The different types of assuming Ihram: only for Hajj "Ifrad", or for combining both Umra and Hajj together "Qiran" or for Umra and Hajj separately "Tamattu"

I complained of that to the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who replied: "Undo and comb your hair, and assume Ihram for Hajj (only) and leave the Umra." I did so. When we had performed the Hajj, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me with (my brother) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr to Tan'im. So I performed the Umra. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "This Umra is instead of your missed one." Those who had assumed Ihram for Umra (along with Hajj separately, i.e. At-Tamattu) circumambulated Ka'ba and compassed Safa and Marwa round and then finished their Ihram. After returning from Mina, they compassed again (between Safa and Marwa) for their Hajj. Those who had assumed Ihram for both Hajj and Umra jointly (Al-Qiran) compassed only once (between Safa and Marwa).

Some people assumed Ihram for Umra, some assumed Ihram for both Hajj and Umra, and others assumed Ihram for Hajj. I was one of those who assumed Ihram for Umra...and the rest is the same, in which Urwa said: In this way, Allah enabled her to complete both her Hajj and Umra. Hisham said: For that (Umra) neither sacrificing animals, fasting nor alms were required.

He said: "This is a thing, which Allah has ordained for the daughters of Adam. So do what all the pilgrims do with the exception of the Circumambulation round the House until you get clean."

When we reached Mecca, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered his companions (who had no sacrificial animals with them) to make it Umra (instead of Hajj). So, the people finished their Ihram (after completing the rituals of Umra) except for those, who had the sacrificial animals with them. Indeed, there were sacrificial animals with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abu Bakr, and Umar, in addition to those wealthy people. Then, they (i.e. those who finished their Ihram) assumed Ihram (for Hajj when they went to Mina on the eighth day of Dhul-Hijja, which is the day of Tarwiya).

When it was the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice "Nahr" I got clean. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to offer the Ifada circumambulation. Then, some beef was brought to us, about which I said: "What is it?" they said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed cows on behalf of his wives." When it was the night of Hasba, I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Everyone is returning with (the reward of) both Hajj and Umra, and I'm returning with (the reward of) Hajj only." Upon this, he ordered (my brother) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr (to accompany me to At-Tan'im), and he made me ride behind him on his camel. I still remember that at this time I was a girl of tender age, and whenever I got drowsy, (I would be inclined to the extent that) my face would touch the bind part of the howdah until we reached At-Tan'im, where I assumed Ihram for Umra, which was in lieu of the Umra (I was obliged to leave, which) the people offered.

We dismounted at Sarif (a village ten miles from Mecca). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then addressed his companions and said: "Anyone who has not got the sacrificing animal and likes to do Umra instead of Hajj may do so (Tamattu) and anyone who has got the sacrificing animal should not do so."

A'isha added: Some of them (the companions of The Prophet) who did not have the sacrificial animals with them performed it (the Umra), and others (who had sacrificial animals with them) did not do so. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and some of his companions were resourceful and had Sacrificial animals with them. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me and saw me weeping and said: "What does make you weep?" I replied: "I have heard your conversation with your companions and I cannot perform the Umra." He asked: "What is wrong with you?" I replied: "I do not offer the prayers (as I have my menses)." He said: "It will not harm you. Keep on with your intention for Hajj and Allah may bestow upon you with it. Indeed, you are one of the daughters of Adam, and Allah has written for you (this state) as He has written it for them."

A'isha added: Then we proceeded for Hajj till we reached Mina and I became clean from my menses. Then I went out from Mina and circumambulated Ka'ba. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" dismounted at Al-Muhassab (a valley outside Mecca). He called Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Bakr and said to him: "Take your sister outside the sanctuary of Mecca and let her assume Ihram for Umra, and then circumambulate the House, and I will wait for you both here ."

127-(...) The Mother of the Believers (A'isha) "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: I said: "O Allah's Apostle! All the people are returning with (the reward of) two worships...and the rest is the same.

128-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: We went out with the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (from Medina) with the intention of performing Hajj only. When we reached Mecca we circumambulated Ka'ba and then the Prophet ordered those who had not driven the sacrificial animals along with them to finish their Ihram. So the people who had not driven the sacrificing animals along with them finished their Ihram. The Prophet's wives too had not driven the sacrifices with them, so they too finished their Ihram.

A'isha added: I got my menses and could not circumambulate Ka'ba. So when it was the night of Hasba (when we stopped at Al-Muhassab), I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Everyone is returning after performing Hajj and Umra but I am returning after performing Hajj only. " He said: "Didn't you circumambulate Ka'ba on the night we reached Mecca?" I replied in the negative. He said: "Go with your brother to Tan'im and assume the Ihram for Umra. Then come back to such and such a place."

On that Safiyya "Allah be pleased with her" said: "I feel that I will detain you all." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let you be barren and shave-headed! Did you not circumambulate Ka'ba on the day of Slaughtering sacrifice?" Safiyya replied in the affirmative. He said (to Safiyya): "There is no harm to you to proceed on with us." A'isha added: (after returning from Umra), the Prophet met me while he was ascending from Mecca and I was descending to it, or I was ascending and he was descending.

Ihram with the sole intention of performing Hajj only (Ifrad), and A'isha set out assuming Ihram for Umra. When we reached Sarif, she got her menses. We proceeded on till we reached (Mecca) and circumambulated Ka'ba and compassed round Safa and Marwa. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that whoever among us had no sacrificial animal with him should put off Ihram. We asked: "What does that (putting off Ihram) imply?" He said: "It implies to get completely free from the state of Ihram." In this way, we (put off Ihram and) approached our wives, applied perfume and put on our clothes. That was at a distance (as long as to be covered in) four night's from Arafat. Then, we assumed Ihram (for Hajj) on the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja).

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" and saw her weeping. He asked: "What is the matter with you?" She said: "The matter is that I got my menses, and the people put off Ihram (after completing the rituals of Umra), but I neither did so, nor did I circumambulate the House. The people are now going for Hajj (and I cannot go)." He said: "It is a matter which Allah has ordained for the daughters of Adam. So, now take a bath and assume Ihram for Hajj."

She did accordingly, and stayed at the places of staying till the menses was over. She then circumambulated Ka'ba, and (compassed round) Safa and Marwa. He (the Prophet) said (to her): "Now both your Hajj and Umra are complete." But, she said: "I feel in my mind that I missed the circumambulation (of Umra) of the House (which I did not do) till I performed Hajj." He (The Prophet) said: "O Abd Ar-Rahman! Take her to At-Tan'im to (make her) perform Umra." That was the night of Hasba.

140-(1215) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Neither The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" nor his companions (who assumed Ihram for Hajj and Umra together) offered but one circumambulation (of the House and) round Safa and Marwa. Muhammad Ibn Bakr added in his narration: His first circumambulation.

141-(1216) Ata narrated: I and some people heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: We, the Companions of (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", assumed Ihram for Hajj only. Ata told that Jabir said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came in the morning of the fourth of Dhul-Hijja and ordered us to put off Ihram. intercourse). Ata said: He did not make it obligatory for them, but it became permissible. Jabir resumed) We said: "When only five days remained to Arafat, he (the Prophet) ordered us to have sexual intercourse with our wives. And in this case, we would reach Arafat just after having sexual intercourse (with our wives)." (He (Ata) said: Jabir pointed with his hand, as if I am observing his hand as it moved).

At the same time, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood among us and said: "You know very well that I am the most Allah-fearing, the most truthful and the most pious among you. Had I not brought the sacrificial animals with me, I would also have put off Ihram as you have put off. Had I known earlier what I have come to know later, I would not have brought sacrificial animals with me." So they (the Companions) put off Ihram and so did we, and, in this way, we listened to and obeyed (the order of the Prophet).

Jabir said: Ali came with the tribute (from Yemen). He (the Prophet) asked: "For what did you assume Ihram (i.e. for Hajj and Umra together or Hajj and Umra separately)?" He said: "I assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." Thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Offer a sacrificial animal, and keep on the state of Ihram." Ali brought a sacrificial animal for him (The Messenger of Allah).

Suraqa Ibn Malik Ibn Ju'shum said: "O Messenger of Allah! Is it (this concession of putting off Ihram of Hajj or Umra) to be held valid only this year, or is it held valid perpetually?" He said: "It is held valid perpetually."

142-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We assumed Ihram for Hajj with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and when we reached Mecca, he ordered us to make it Umra and put off Ihram. We felt it hard, and we were disturbed by that. This news reached The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". we do not know whether he was Divinely inspired of anything (in connection with this news) or he was informed by the people. He said: "O people! Put off Ihram. Were it not for the sacrificial animals I have with me, I would have done what you did." We put off Ihram, (so completely) that we had sexual intercourse with our wives, and did everything the one who is not in the state of Ihram is permissible to do. When it was the day of Tarwiya (eighth day of Dhul-Hijja), we turned our backs to Mecca and assumed Ihram for Hajj (as we were leaving for Mina).

143-(...) Musa Ibn Nafi reported: I came to Mecca to perform Umra of Tamattu (i.e. to perform Umra firstly, then put off Ihram, and then assume it once again for Hajj). I reached Mecca four days before the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja). Some people of Mecca said to me: "Your Hajj will be like the Hajj performed by Meccans." So I went to Ata Ibn Abu Rabah asking him his view about it. He said: Jabir Ibn Abdullah Al-Ansari "Allah be pleased with both" reported: I performed Hajj with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the year when he drove the sacrificial animals with him. The people had assumed Ihram only for Hajj (Ifrad). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered them to finish their Ihram after circumambulating Ka'ba, and between Safa and Marwa and to cut short their hair. Then they would stay there (in Mecca) as non-Muhrim till the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja) when they would assume Ihram for Hajj. They were ordered to make the Ihram with which they had come for Umra only. They asked: "How can we make it Umra (Tamattu) as we have intended to perform Hajj?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do what I have ordered you. Had I not brought the Sacrifice with me, I would have done the same, but I cannot finish my Ihram till the Sacrifice reaches its destination (by being slaughtered)." So, they did (what he ordered them to do).

144-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We came with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", assuming Ihram for Hajj. But, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to make it Umra, and consequently put off Ihram (after completing the rituals of Umra). He (Jabir) added: But, since he (The Prophet) had the sacrificial animals with him, he was not able to make it Umra.

[18] Offering Hajj and Umra separately "At-Tamattu"

145-(1217) Abu Nadra narrated: Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" used to give permission to the people to offer Umra and Hajj separately (i.e. to assume Ihram for Umra during the months of Hajj, then put off Ihram after completing its rituals, and then assume Ihram for Hajj once again, and it is called) Mut'a. But Ibn Az-Zubair used to forbid it. I mentioned that to Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both", who said: It is through me that this Hadith became in circulation. We performed Hajj and Umra separately "Mut'a" while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's

[19] The (Farewell) pilgrimage of The Prophet "p.b.u.h"

147-(1218) Ja'far Ibn Muhammad narrated from his father: We went to Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" who started inquiring about the people (who came with me) till he reached me. I said: "I am Muhammad Ibn Ali Ibn Husain." He placed his hand upon my head and opened my upper button and then the lower one. Then he placed his palm between my breasts (out of compassion). I was still a young man. He said: "You are welcome, O my nephew. Ask about whatever you want." I asked him. indeed, he was blind, and the time of prayer came. He stood up wrapping himself in a mantle, which was so short that whenever he placed its ends upon his shoulders they slipped down. Another mantle was hanging on the clothes rack beside him. He led us in the prayer.

(After he had finished the prayer) I said to him: "Tell me about the Hajj of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He pointed nine with his hand, and said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stayed in (Medina) for nine years without offering Hajj. Then he announced publicly in the tenth year that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was going to offer Hajj. A great number of people came to Medina, all of whom were eager to follow The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and do the same as his doing.

We set out with him till we reached Dhul-Hulaifa. Asma Bint Umais delivered Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr. When it stood upright with him at Al-Baida, I stretched my sight as far as it could reach, and I couldn't see in front of me but riders and pedestrians. (I saw also) on my right like this, on my left like this, and behind me like this. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was among us, on whom The Holy Qur'an was being sent down.

It is he, who knows well its (truly right) interpretation. Whatever he did, we also did. He uttered the (statement affirming the) Oneness of Allah: "I'm responding to Your call, O Allah, I'm responding to Your call, You have no partner with You, I'm responding to Your call. All the praises and blessings be to You, All the dominion be for You. You have no partner with You." (LabbaikAllahumma labbaik. Labbaika la sharika laka labbaik. Innalhamda wan-ni'mata laka walmulk. La sharika lak). The people also pronounced their Talbiya, which they used to pronounce, from which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not reject anything. But The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stuck to his own Talbiya.

Jabir said: We did neither have any intention but that of Hajj only, nor did we know (that we would assume Ihram for) the Umra. When we came with him to the House, he touched the corner and circumambulated (Ka'ba seven times), three of which as running and four as walking. Then he went to the Station of Abraham, and recited: "And take the Station of Abraham as a place of prayer." He made the Station between him and the Qibla.

(The narrator said): My father said (and I do not know except that he had mentioned it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") that he recited in the two Rak'as (he offered): "Say: He is Allah, The One and Only" and "say: O unbelievers!" He then returned to the corner (of the Black Stone) and kissed it. He went out of the gate to Safa. When he came near it he recited: " Safa and Marwa are from amongst the signs appointed by Allah." (He said): "I start with what Allah (ordered me to) start."

He first ascended Safa till he saw the House. Facing Qibla, he declared the Oneness of Allah Whom he magnified, and said: "There is no god but فَخَرَجْنَا مَعَهُ حَتَّىٰ أَتَيْنَا ذَا الْحُلَيْفَةِ، فَوَلَدَتْ أَسْمَاءُ بِنْتُ عُمَيْسٍ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ، فَأَرْسَلَتْ إِلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: كَيْفَ أَصْنَعُ؟ قَالَ: «اغْتَسِلِي، وَاسْتَثْفِرِي بِثَوْبٍ وَأَحْرِمِي».

فَكَانَ أَبِي يَقُولُ ـ وَلاَ أَعْلَمُهُ ذَكَرَهُ إِلاَّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ ـ: كَانَ يَقْرَأُ فِي الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ: ﴿قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ﴾، و ﴿قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ﴾.

Allah, The One, with Whom there is no partner. To Him be the Dominion, and to Him be the praise, and He has Power over everything. There is no god but Allah The One, Who accomplished His promise, enabled His servant to emerge victorious, and (He) Alone defeated the confederates." He invoked (Allah) in that way, reciting such statements thrice. He then descended and walked towards Marwa. When his feet came down in the bottom of the valley, he walked fast. When he started to ascend he walked normally till he reached Marwa, where he did as he had done at Safa.

When it was his last round at Marwa he said: "Had I known earlier what I have come to know later, I would not have driven the sacrificial animals and would have made it Umra. So, whoever among you does not have the sacrificial animal with him should put off Ihram and make it Umra." Suraqa Ibn Malik Ibn Ju'shum got up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Does it apply only to this year or perpetually?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intertwined the fingers (of one hand) into the other and said twice: "The (rituals of) Umra became included in the (ceremonies of) Hajj" (adding): "No, but perpetually and everlastingly."

Ali "Allah be pleased with him" came from Yemen with the sacrificial animals of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and found (his wife) Fatima "Allah be pleased with her" among those who had put off Ihram. She put on dyed clothes and put kohl (in her eyes). He denied that from her. But, she said: "It is my father who ordered me to do so." (He (the narrator) said that Ali used to say in Iraq: I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" showing my disturbance from Fatima for what she had done, in order to ask about the religious verdict of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" concerning what she had told about him. I told him that I was angry with her. He said: "She has told the truth; she has told the truth. Anyway, what did you say when you intended to perform Hajj?" I (Ali) said: "O Allah! I assume Ihram with the same intention as that of Your Messenger." He said: "I have the sacrificial animals with me, so do not put off Ihram."

He (Jabir) said: The number of those sacrificial animals brought by Ali from the Yemen and of those brought by The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was one hundred. Then all the people put off Ihram, and cut short their hair, except The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and those who had the sacrificial animals with them. When it was the day of Tarwiya (eighth of Dhul-Hijja) they went to Mina and «لاَ إِلَٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لاَ شَرِيكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ، لاَ إِلَٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ، أَنْجَزَ وَعْدَهُ، وَنَصَرَ عَبْدَهُ، وَهَزَمَ الأَحْزَابَ وَحْدَهُ» ثُمَّ دَعَا بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ. قَالَ مِثْلَ هٰذَا ثَلاَثَ مَرَّاتٍ. ثُمَّ نَزَلَ إِلَى الْمَرْوَةِ، حَتَّى إِذَا انْصَبَّتْ قَدَمَاهُ فِي بَطْنِ الْوَادِي سَعَىٰ، حَتَّىٰ إِذَا صَعِدَتَا مَشَىٰ، حَتَّىٰ أَتَىٰ الْمَرْوَةَ فَفَعَلَ عَلَى الْمَرْوَةِ كَمَا فَعَلَ عَلَى الصَّفَا.

فَلَمَّا كَانَ يَوْمُ التَّرْوِيَةِ تَوَجَّهُوا إِلَىٰ مِنًى، فَأَهَلُّوا بِالْحَجِّ. وَرَكِبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ

assumed Ihram for Hajj. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode and led the Dhuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha and Fajr prayers. He waited a little until the sun rose, and ordered that a tent of hair should be pitched for him at (the area of) Namira. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded on, and (the people of) Quraish had no doubt that he would halt at the sacred site "Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram" as they used to do in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded on till he came to Arafat where he found that the tent had been pitched for him at Namira. He halted till the sun had declined. He ordered that (his she-camel) Al-Qaswa should be brought and saddled for him. Then he came to the bottom of the valley, and addressed the people saying: "Verily your blood and property are as sacred and unbreakable as the sanctity of this day of yours, in this month of yours, in this town of yours. Behold! Everything belonging to the Days of pre-Islamic period of Ignorance is to be under my feet, fully abolished.

The blood (claims) of retaliations of the Days of the pre-Islamic period of Ignorance are to be annulled. The first claim of ours on blood of retaliation, which I abolish, is that of Ibn Rabie'a Ibn Al-Harith, who was nursed in the tribe of Sa'd and then killed by (the tribe of) Hudhail. The usury of the pre-Islamic period of ignorance is also to be abolished. The first usury of ours I abolish is that of Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib, for it is entirely abolished. Fear Allah concerning women! Verily you have taken them under the protection of Allah, and sexual intercourse with them has been made lawful for you by words of Allah. You also have right over them, i.e. they should not allow anyone whom you do not like to sit on your bed. But if they do that, you can chastise them but not severely. Their rights upon you are that you should fairly provide them with food and clothing.

I have left among you the Book of Allah, and if you hold fast to it, you would never go astray. You would be asked about me (on the Day of Judgement): Then, what would you say?" They (the people) said: "We will testify that you reported (Allah's message), fulfilled (the duties of Prophethood) and presented good (sincere) advice." He (The Prophet) lifted his index finger towards the sky and pointed it at the people, (saying): "O Allah! be witness! O Allah! be witness!" he said it thrice. Then, he (The Prophet ordered Bilal to pronounce Adhan, and he) pronounced Adhan and then pronounced the prayer establishment. He (The Prophet) led the Dhuhr prayer. He (Bilal) then pronounced the prayer establishment once again and he (The Prophet) led the Asr prayer. He offered no other prayer in between them.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then rode his she-camel and came to the place of stay, making his she-camel Al-Qaswa turn towards the direction of the rocks, having the path of walkers in front of him, and he was facing the Qibla. He kept staying there till the sun set, the yellow light had gone a little, and the disc of the sun had disappeared. He made Usama ride behind him. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pulled the nose string of Al-Qaswa so forcefully that its head touched the saddle (in order to have complete control over it). He pointed out to the people with his right hand to be calm (and moderate in speed). Whenever he happened to pass over an elevated tract of sand, he slightly loosened it (the nose string of his she-camel) till it climbed up. He kept doing so until he reached Al-Muzdalifa, where he led the Maghrib and Isha prayers with one Adhan and two calls for prayer establishment. He did not glorify (i.e. offer supererogatory prayers) in between them.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then lay down till the dawn appeared. He offered the Fajr prayer with an Adhan and Iqama when the light of the morning was clear. He rode Al-Qaswa (and proceeded on). When he came to the Sacred Site (Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram), he faced Qibla, supplicated and Glorified Allah, and pronounced His Uniqueness and Oneness (i.e. There is no god but Allah). He kept standing till the daylight was very clear.

He then proceeded on quickly before the sun rose, and made Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas ride behind him, who was a man of beautiful hair, fair complexion and handsome face. While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was advancing, there was a group of women (walking side by side with them). Al-Fadl started looking at them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put his hand on the face of Al-Fadl who turned his face to the other side, and starting looking, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned his hand to the other side and put it on the face of Al-Fadl. He turned his face to the other side till he came to the bottom of Muhassir. He (The Prophet) urged it (al-Qaswa) a little. Taking his way through the middle road, which comes out at the greatest Jamra, he came to the Jamra near the tree, which he threw with seven small pebbles, magnifying Allah with every throwing in a manner in which the small pebbles are thrown (with fingers) and he did so in the bottom of the valley.

He then went to the place of sacrifice, and sacrificed sixty-three (camels) with his own hand, and confided to Ali to slaughter the rest, whom he made share sacrifice with him. He then ordered that a piece of flesh from each sacrificial animal should be put in a pot. Then, it was cooked, from which both of them (The Prophet and Ali) ate some meat and drank its soup. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode and came to the House, and offered the Dhuhr prayer at Mecca. He came to the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, who were supplying water (to the people) at Zamzam. He said (to them): "Draw water O sons of Abd Al-Muttalib! But for the fact that people would overpower you in your right of supplying water, I would have drawn it with you." They gave him a bucket (full of water) from which he drank.

148-(...) Ja'far Ibn Muhammad narrated from his father: I came to Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" and asked him about the (Farewell) Pilgrimage of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same, but with the following addition: It was Abu Sayyara among the Arabs (during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance) who used to carry (people from Muzdalifa to Mina). When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out from Muzdalifa to Al-Mash'ar Al-Haram, (the people of) Quraish had no doubt that he would halt there and that it would be his place of stay. But he passed on (without staying) there. and paid no attention to it until he came to Arafat where he stayed.

[20] The whole (area of) Arafat is a place of stay

149-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I slaughtered (my sacrificial animal) here, and the whole (area of) Mina is a place of slaughtering (sacrifice), so, slaughter (your sacrifices) at your (dwelling) places; I stayed here (at Arafat), and the whole (area of) Arafat is a place of stay; and I also stayed here (at Muzdalifa) and the whole (area of) Muzdalifa is a place of stay."

150-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Mecca, he came to the (Black) Stone, which he kissed. Then, he started walking (in circumambulation) to his right. He made three circuits as walking fast, and four as walking normally.

[21] What about the stay, in view of Allah's saying: "Then pass on at a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitude so to do"

151-(1219) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: (The people of) Quraish (during the Pre-Islamic period of ignorance) and those who followed their religious practices stayed at Al-Muzdalifa, and they named themselves as Hums (strictly religious radicals), whereas all other Arabs stayed at Arafat. When Islam appeared, Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" ordered His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to come to Arafat and stay there, and then pass on a quick pace from there. This is the meaning of Allah's saying: "Then pass on at a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitude so to do." (The Heifer 199)

152-(...) Urwa narrated: During the Pre-Islamic period of Ignorance, the Arabs used to circumambulate Ka'ba naked except the Hums (strictly religious radicals), that is Quraish and their offspring. They used to circumambulate as naked except if Quraish gave them clothes. The men among them used to give clothes to the men, and the women (of Quraish) used to give women., The Hums (of Quraish) used not to get out of Muzdalifa, but all the people used to go to Arafat. Hisham added: My father narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" had said: The following verse was revealed by Allah "Exalted and Glorified be He" in connection with the Hums: "Then pass on a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitudes so to do." (Heifer 199) she said: the people used to depart from Arafat, while they (those of Quraish) used to depart from Al-Muzdalifa, saying: "We would not depart except from the Sanctuary." But, when Allah revealed: "Then pass on a quick pace from the place whence it is usual for the multitudes so to do", they went to (depart from) Arafat.

153-(1220) Jubair Ibn Mut'im "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I lost my camel and went in search of it on the day of Arafat, and I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" staying along with people in Arafat. I exclaimed: "By Allah ,he is from the Hums

[22] Abrogating the permissibility of putting off Ihram before completing (both Hajj and Umra)

154-(1221) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I came upon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he was at Al-Batha. He asked me: "Have you intended to perform Hajj?" I replied in the affirmative. He asked: "For what have you assumed Ihram?" I replied:" I have assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have done well! Go and circumambulate the House and compass round Safa and Marwa, and then put off Ihram (since you did not bring the sacrificial animals with you)." Then I circumambulated the House, compassed round Safa and Marwa, and went to one of the women of Banu Qais who took out lice from my head. Then, I assumed Ihram once again for Hajj.

So, I used to give this religious verdict (to the people concerning this matter) till the Caliphate of Umar "Allah be pleased with him" when a person said to him: "O Abu Musa, or O Abdullah Ibn Qais! Stick to restraint in giving some religious verdicts of yours, for you do not know what has been made after you by the Commander of the Believers in the rituals (of Hajj)." He said: "O people! Whomever we gave the religious verdict (concerning putting off Ihram) let him wait, for the Commander of the Believers is going to come to you, and you should follow him."

Umar "Allah be pleased with him" then came to whom I mentioned that, whereupon he said: "If we follow the .Holy Book, then it orders us to complete (the rituals of Hajj and Umra). If we follow the tradition of Allah's Apostle then Allah's Apostle did not finish his Ihram till the sacrifice had reached its destination (by being slaughtered)."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.

155-(...) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I came upon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he was encamping at Al-Batha. He asked: "For what have you assumed Ihram?" I

[23] The permissibility of (offering Hajj) Al-Mut'a

158-(1223) Abdullah Ibn Shaqiq narrated: Uthman "Allah be pleased with him" used to forbid (offering Hajj) Al-Mut'a, but Ali "Allah be pleased with him" used to permit it. Uthman said something to Ali, whereupon Ali said: "You know that we offered (Hajj) Al-Mut'a while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." he replied: "Yes, but we were afraid."

Uthman used to forbid offering (Hajj) At-Tamattu and Umra (during the months of Hajj), whereupon Ali said: "Do you forbid but a matter which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did?" Uthman said: "Let's alone!" he (Ali) said: "I cannot let you alone." When Ali saw this, he assumed Ihram for both (Hajj and Umra together).

160-(1224) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: (Practicing) Mut'a in Hajj was particular for the companions of (The Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

161-(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: It (practicing Mut'a in Hajj) was a concession given to us.

162-(...) Abu Dharr "Allah be pleased with him" told: "The two types of Mut'a have not been held valid but for us in particular." He meant the temporary marriage with women and offering Hajj At-Tamattu.

163-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Ash-Sha'tha narrated: I met Ibrahim At-Taimi and Ibrahim An-Nakh'i, to whom I said: "I intend to offer both Hajj and Umra together this year" (in the form of Tamattu). Ibrahim An-Nakh'i said: "But your father never intended to do so." Qutaiba narrated from Jarir from Bayan from Ibrahim At-Taimi that his father passed by Abu

[24] Offering sacrifice is obligatory for the one who continued Umra unto Hajj (if he could afford it), and if he could not afford it, he should fast three days during Hajj in addition to seven when he returns

174-(1227) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: in the Farewell pilgrimage of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he continued Umra onto Hajj. He drove the Sacrificial animals along with him from Dhul-Hulaifa. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started by pronouncing his response to Allah's call for Umra "Talbiya" and then he pronounced the response to Allah's call for Hajj. The people, too, continued the Umra onto Hajj along with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Some of them brought the Sacrifice and drove it along with them, while the others did not.

So, when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Mecca, he said to people: "Whoever among you has driven the Sacrifice, should not finish his Ihram till he completes his Hajj. Whoever among you has not (driven) the Sacrifice with him, should circumambulate the House and compass round Safa and Marwa, then cut short his hair and finish his Ihram, and should later assume Ihram for Hajj; but he must offer a Sacrifice. If anyone cannot afford a Sacrifice, he should fast for three days during the Hajj and seven days when he returns home."

Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" circumambulated the House on his arrival in Mecca. He touched the (Black Stone) corner first of all and then walked fast with moving the shoulders during the first three rounds of the seven, and during the last four rounds he walked (normally). After finishing circumambulation of Ka'ba, he offered a two-rak'a prayer at Abraham's Station. Then he went to Safa and Marwa and compassed them round seven times and did not do any deed forbidden because of Ihram, till he finished all the ceremonies of his Hajj and slaughtered his sacrifice on the day of slaughtering (tenth of Dhul-Hijja). He then hastened onwards (to Mecca) where he circumambulated the House and then everything that was forbidden because of Ihram became permissible. Those who took and drove the sacrifice with them did the same as Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did.

175-(1228) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told him about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he continued Umra onto Hajj and so did the people along with him the same as Salim narrated to me, from Abdullah (Ibn Umar) "Allah be pleased with him" about The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[25] He who assumes Ihram for both Hajj and Umra jointly and he who assumes it only for Hajj put off Ihram at the same time

176-(1229) Ibn Umar “Allah be pleased with both” narrated: Hafsa "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, asking The Prophet: "O Allah's Apostle! Why have the people finished their Ihram (after performing Umra) but you have not finished your Ihram after offering your Umra?" He replied: "I have matted my hair and garlanded my sacrifice. So I will not finish my Ihram till I have slaughtered it."

Why have the people finished their Ihram (after performing Umra) but you have not finished your Ihram after offering your Umra?" He replied: "I have garlanded my sacrifice and matted my hair. So I could not put off Ihram (from Umra) till I have finished from Hajj."

178-(…) Ibn Umar “Allah be pleased with both” narrated: Hafsa said: O Messenger of Allah!…and the rest is the same as narrated by Malik, in which he (The Prophet) said: “I could not put off Ihram until I have slaughtered (my sacrifice).”

179-(…) Ibn Umar “Allah be pleased with both” narrated: Hafsa told me that The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” ordered his wives to put off Ihram (after performing Umra) in the year of the Farewell Hajj. Hafsa said: I said (to The Prophet): “What does prevent you from putting off Ihram?” He replied: "I have matted my hair and garlanded my sacrifice. So I could not put off Ihram till I have slaughtered my sacrifice."

[26] It is permissible to put off Ihram if one is detained (from continuing the rites), and it is permissible to perform Umra and Hajj jointly

180-(1230) Nafi reported that Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" set out for Umra during the affliction, and he said: “If I am detained (from reaching) the House, we would do the same as we did with The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”.” So he went out, assuming Ihram for Umra. He proceeded on and when he reached Al-Baida, he turned to his Companions and said: “Their (i.e. both Hajj and

He circumambulated the House seven times and compassed between Safa and Marwa seven times. (He made all of that once for both Hajj and Umra) without no addition to it since he thought it to be sufficient for him. Then, he offered sacrifice.

181-(...) Nafi narrated that both Salim Ibn Abdullah and Abdullah Ibn Abdullah talked to (their father) Abdullah (when he intended to set out for Hajj) at the time Al-Hajjaj came to fight Ibn Az-Zubair), saying: "There would be no harm for you if you did not (set out and) offer Hajj this year. However, we are afraid that the fighting would break up among the people, with the result that you might be detained from (reaching) the House." He said: "If I'm detained from it (the House), I would do the same as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did, and I was with him, when the pagans of Quraish detained him from the House. Indeed, I make you witness that I made the Umra obligatory for me."

He set out until he reached Dhul-Hulaifa, where he assumed Ihram for Umra and said: "If I'm left (to reach the House), then, I would perform my Umra, and if I'm detained from it, I would do the same as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did, and I was with him." then he recited (Allah's saying): "Verily, you have in The Messenger of Allah a beautiful pattern." (The Confederates "Al-Ahzab" 21) then, he proceeded on until he came to Al-Baida, he said: "Verily, the ceremonies of both (Hajj and Umra) are similar, and if I'm detained from offering Umra, I would (consequently) be detained from offering Hajj. Be witness that I made Hajj obligatory for me along with Umra."

Then, he proceeded and bought a sacrificial animal from (the place of) Qudaid. (When he reached Mecca) he offered (a seven-round) circumambulation round the House and between Safa and Marwa for both (Hajj and Umra). He did not put off Ihram (from Umra) until he finished from Hajj on the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice.

Nafi narrated: Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" intended to offer Hajj at the time when Al-Hajjaj came to attack Ibn Az-Zubair...and the rest is the same, and added in the end: He (Ibn Umar) used to say: If one combined both Hajj and Umra together, then only one circumambulation (containing of seven rounds) would be sufficient for him. He should not put off Ihram (from Umra) until he finishes from both of them.

"I'm responding to Your call (O Allah) with (the intention to offer) both Umra and Hajj.""

186-(...) Bakr Ibn Abdullah narrated that Anas "Allah be pleased with him" told that he saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having combined both (i.e. Hajj and Umra jointly). Bakr (a sub-narrator) said: I asked Ibn Umar (about that) and he said: "WE assumed Ihram for Hajj solely." I returned to Anas and told him of what Ibn Umar had said. Upon this he said: "(You deal with us) as if we were children!"

[28] What is obligatory for the one who assumes Ihram for Hajj and then enters Mecca, concerning circumambulation

187-(1233) Wabara narrated: I was sitting with Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" when a man came and asked him: "Could I circumambulate the House before going to the place of stay (at Arafat)?" Ibn Umar answered in the affirmative. The man said: "But Ibn Abbas says: Do not circumambulate the House until you have come the place of stay (at Arafat)." Upon this Ibn Umar said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered Hajj, in which he circumambulated the House before he came to the place of stay. Then, would you rather stick to the tradition of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" or to the statement of Ibn Abbas, if you are truthful?"

188-(...) Wabara narrated: A man asked Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": "Could I circumambulate the House, after I had assumed Ihram for Hajj?" He said: "What does prevent you from doing so?" He said: "I saw the son of so-and-so denying it. However, you are dearer to us than him, since he is fascinated by the world." He said: "Who among you and us is not fascinated by the world?" He further said: "We saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having assumed Ihram for Hajj in which he circumambulated the House and then compassed between Safa and Marwa. No doubt, the tradition set by Allah and that prescribed by His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is more entitled to be followed than that of so-and-so, if you are truthful."

189-(1234) Amr Ibn Dinar narrated: We asked Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" about a man who came to perform Umra, in which he circumambulated the House, but did not compass between Safa and Marwa: Is he able to (put off Ihram and consequently) approach his wife? Upon this he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came (for Umra) and circumambulated the House seven times, offered a two-Rak'a prayer behind the station of Abraham, compassed between Safa and Marwa seven times; and verily, there is, in The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a beautiful pattern for you."

[29] If one (who assumed Ihram for Umra and Hajj jointly) circumambulated the House and compassed between Safa and Marwa should not put off Ihram (before completing all rites of Hajj)

190-(1235) Muhammad Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that a man from the people of Iraq said to him: "Ask Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair on my behalf about a man who assumed Ihram for Hajj, and then he circumambulated the House, could he put off Ihram? If he said to you that he could not put off Ihram, tell him that there is a certain man who adopts such an opinion." I asked him and he replied: "The one who assumed Ihram for Hajj should not put off Ihram except (when he finish all the rites of) Hajj." I said to him: "There is a certain man, who adopts that opinion." He said: "What a bad opinion he adopts."

Then, the man met me and I mentioned him what he (Urwa) had said. He said to me: "Tell him then that a certain man narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had done so. Furthermore, why did Asma and Az-Zubair do so?" I came to him (Urwa) and mentioned that to him. he said to me: "Who is that man (who asked you)?" I said: "I do not know." He (Urwa) said: "Then, why does he not come to me to ask me by himself? I think he is an Iraqi man." I said: "I do not know." He said: "However, he has told a lie.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed Hajj, and A'isha told me that the first thing he started with when he reached Mecca was that he performed ablution, and then he circumambulated the House. Later Abu Bakr performed Hajj and the first thing he started with was to circumambulate the House, and it was not Umra (alone). Then Umar did the same. Then Uthman performed Hajj and the first thing he started with was to circumambulate the House and it was also not Umra (alone). Then Mu'awiya and Abdullah Ibn Umar did the same. Then I saw The Emigrants and Ansar doing the same and it was not Umra only. The last person I saw doing the same was Ibn Umar, and he did not break it with another Umra. Now here is Ibn Umar present amongst the people! Why do they not ask him or anyone of the previous ones? All these people, on entering Mecca, would not start with anything but that they would circumambulate the House, and would not put off Ihram (before completing the rites of Hajj). No doubt, I saw my mother and my aunt, on entering Mecca doing nothing before circumambulating the House, and they would not put off Ihram (before completing the rites of Hajj). Since I had no sacrificial animals with me, I put off Ihram. But Az-Zubair had sacrificial animals with him. So, he did not put off Ihram.

[30] Concerning the Mut'a in Hajj

194-(1238) Muslim Al-Qurri narrated: I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" about the Mut'a in Hajj, and he permitted it. But, Ibn Az-Zubair forbade it. He (Ibn Abbas) said: "This is (Asma) the mother of Ibn Az-Zubair confirming that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had permitted it, so you'd rather go to her and ask her about it." He (Muslim) said: We entered upon her and she was a bulky blind woman. (When we asked her) she said: "No doubt, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" permitted it."

195-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters.

196-(1239) Muslim Al-Qurri narrated that he heard Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Umra (along with Hajj), and his companions assumed Ihram for Hajj. In this way, neither The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" nor his companions who had sacrificial animals with them put Ihram. But, the rest of them (who drove no sacrificial animals with them) put off Ihram (after completing the rites of Umra). However, Talha Ibn Ubaidullah was among those who drove sacrificial animals with them. So, he did not put off Ihram.

197-(...) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters, with the following change: From among those who had no sacrificial animals with them, a mention is made of Talha Ibn Ubaidullah and another man. So, they put off Ihram.

[31] Permissibility of offering Umra in the months of Hajj

198-(1240) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" reported: The people (of the Pre-Islamic Period) used to think that to perform Umra during the months of Hajj was one of the major sins on earth. They also used to consider the month of Safar as a forbidden (Sacred) month and they used to say: "When the wounds of the camel's back heal up (after they return from Hajj), the signs of those wounds vanish, and the month of Safar passes away, by then Umra is permissible for the one who wishes to perform it." In the morning of the fourth of Dhul-Hijja, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions reached Mecca, assuming Ihram

٣٠ ـ بابٌ في مُتْعَةِ الحَجِّ

فَأَمَّا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَٰنِ فَفِي حَدِيثِهِ الْمُتْعَةُ، وَلَمْ يَقُلْ: مُتْعَةُ الْحَجِّ. وَأَمَّا ابْنُ جَعْفَرٍ فَقَالَ: قَالَ شُعْبَةُ: قَالَ مُسْلِمٌ: لاَ أَدْرِي مُتْعَةُ الْحَجِّ أَوْ مُتْعَةُ النِّسَاءِ.

٣١ ـ بابُ جَوَازِ العُمْرَةِ في أَشْهُرِ الحَجِّ

١٩٨ ـ (١٢٤٠) ـ وحدّثني مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ حَاتِمٍ: حَدَّثَنَا بَهْزٌ: حَدَّثَنَا وُهَيْبٌ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ طَاوُسٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ رضي الله عنهما قَالَ: كَانُوا يَرَوْنَ أَنَّ الْعُمْرَةَ فِي أَشْهُرِ الْحَجِّ مِنْ أَفْجَرِ الْفُجُورِ فِي الأَرْضِ، وَيَجْعَلُونَ الْمُحَرَّمَ صَفَراً،

for Hajj. But he ordered his companions to make it (the intention of Ihram) for Umra only (instead of Hajj). So, they considered his order as something great and were puzzled, and said: "O Allah's Apostle! What kind of putting off Ihram is allowed?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Put off Ihram completely (like a non-Muhrim who is allowed everything)."

199-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Hajj. He came when four days had passed from Dhul-Hijja, and offered the Morning prayer. After he had finished the prayer, he said (to his companions): "Whoever likes to make it (the intention of Ihram) for Umra, then let him make it Umra."

200-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters. As for Rawh and Yahya Ibn Kathir, they mentioned in their narration, as Nasr did: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assumed Ihram for Hajj. According to the narration of Abu Shihab: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", pronouncing Talbiya for Hajj. All of their narrations agreed on the fact that he offered the Morning prayer at Al-Batha, except for Al-Jahdami, who did not mention that.

201-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions came (for Hajj) when four days had passed from the first ten (of Dhul-Hijja), while they were pronouncing Talbiya for Hajj. He ordered them to make it Umra.

202-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Morning prayer at Dhu-Tawa. Then, when four days of Dhul-Hijja had passed, he ordered his companions to turn their Ihram for Hajj into Umra, except for those who had sacrificial animals with them.

203-(1241) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is Umra of which we took advantage. So, whoever had no sacrificial animals with him, let him put off Ihram completely, for indeed, the Umra became included in Hajj until the Day of Judgement."

204-(1242) Abu Jamra Ad-Dab'i narrated: I intended to perform Hajj of Tamattu and the people advised me not to do so. I asked Ibn Abbas "Allah

[32] Garlanding and marking the sacrificial animals on assuming Ihram

205-(1243) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered Dhuhr prayer at Dhul-Hulaifa. Then, he ordered that his (sacrificial) she-camel should be brought to him, which he marked (by making a small wound) in the right side of its hump, and removed the blood from it. Then, he tied two sandals round its neck. Then, he rode his mount, and when it stood upright with him at Al-Baida, he pronounced Talbiya for Hajj.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Quatada, with the same chain of transmitters, but mentioned here: When The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Dhul-Hulaifa...and did not say that he offered Dhuhr prayer at it.

206-(1244) Abu Hassan Al-A'raj narrated that a man from sons of Hujaim said to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both": "What is this religious verdict of yours which has attracted the people or which has become controversial among them that the one who circumambulated the House can put off Ihram?" he said: "This is the tradition of your Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", even if you deny it (or accept it with humiliation)."

207-(...) Abu Hassan narrated: It was said to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" that this matter had attracted the people (or had become in circulation among the people), i.e. that the one who circumambulates the House is permitted to circumambulate for Umra (even though his Ihram is assumed for Hajj). He said: "This is the tradition of your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", even if you deny it (or accept it with humiliation)."

208-(1245) Ata narrated: Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" used to say: "No one, whether offering Hajj or Umra, circumambulates the House but that he could put off Ihram (after that)." 211-(1247) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", raising our voices with Talbiya for Hajj. When we came to Mecca, he (The Prophet) ordered us to make it Umra, except for those who drove the sacrificial animals with them. When it was the day of Tarwiya (the eighth of Dhul-Hijja) and we intended to go to Mina, we assumed Ihram for Hajj.

212-(1248) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We came with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", raising our voices with Talbiya for Hajj.

(1249) Abu Nadra narrated: I was with Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" when a man came to him and said: "Ibn Abbas and Ibn Az-Zubair differed about the matter of the two types of Mut'a (i.e. the Mut'a of Hajj and that of marriage with woman temporarily)." Upon this he (Jabir) said: "We practiced it (that of Hajj) while we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then Umar forbade us to do it. So, we did not practice it again.

219-(1255) Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair narrated: I and Ibn Umar were reclining against (the wall of) the chamber of A'isha, and we were hearing the sound of brushing her teeth. I asked: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! Did The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" perform Umra in Rajab?" he replied in the affirmative. I said to A'isha: "O mother! Do you not listen to what Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says?" she asked: "What does he say?" I said: "He says that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered Umra in Rajab." Upon this she said: "Allah might pardon Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! By my life! He (The Prophet) never performed Umra in Rajab. However, he (The Prophet) did not offer any Umra but that he (Ibn Umar) was with him." he (Urwa) said: Ibn Umar was listening. He replied neither in the negative nor in the affirmative. But, he kept silent.

He said: "It is a (kind of) heresy (i.e. that they offer it in congregation in the mosque and not in their houses)." Then, Urwa asked him how many times The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had performed Umra. He replied: "Four times; and one of them was in the month of Rajab." We disliked to object to him.

Then, we heard A'isha brushing her teeth. Urwa asked her: " O Mother of the believers! Do you not hear what Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says?" She said: "What does he say?" [36] The excellence of offering Umra in Ramadan

221-(1256) Ata narrated: I heard Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" saying: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked an Ansari woman (Ibn Abbas named her but Ata forgot her name): "What prevented you from performing Hajj with us? " She replied: "We have two camels used for carrying water. The father of so-and-so and his son (she meant her husband and her son) offered Hajj on one and left one for us to use for carrying water." He said (to her): "Perform Umra when Ramadan comes, for Umra in Ramadan is equal to Hajj (in reward)."

222-(...) Ibn Abbas saying: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked an Ansari woman called Umm Sinan: "What prevented you from performing Hajj with us? " She replied: "There were only two camels used for carrying water owned by so-and-so (meaning her husband). He and his son offered Hajj on one, and the other was left to be used for irrigation." He said (to her): "Then, Umra (offered) in Ramadan is equal to Hajj or Hajj with me (in reward)."

[37] It is desirable to enter Mecca from the upper side, and get out from it through the lower side, and it is desirable to enter the town through a way different from that through which one gets out from it

223-(1257) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to come out (from Medina) via Ash-Shajara way and enter via Mu'arras way. Furthermore, whenever he intended to enter Mecca, he would enter from the upper side , and (whenever he got out from it) he would get out from the lower side.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned in the narration of Zuhair: From the side, which is at Batha.

224-(1258) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Mecca, he entered it from its upper part, and got out from its lower part.

225-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: In the year of the conquest of Mecca, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Mecca from Kada at the higher place of Mecca. (Hisham, a sub-narrator said: " My father (Urwa) used to enter (Mecca) from both (i.e. Kada and Kuda) though he often entered through Kada)."

[38] It is desirable to spent the night at Dhu-Tawa when one intends to enter Mecca, and it is desirable to take a bath on entering it, and it is better to enter it by day

226-(1259) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" spent the night in Dhu-Tawa till it was morning when he entered Mecca. Nafi told that Abdullah used to do the same. In the narration of Ibn Sa'id, he said: Until he offered the Morning prayer. Yahya said: Or until it was morning.

227-(...) Nafi narrated: Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" did not come to Mecca but that he passed the night at Dhu-Tawa until it was morning. Then, he would take a bath and enter Mecca by day. He told that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did so.

228-(...) Nafi narrated that Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" told him that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to descend at Dhu-Tawa, on his way to Mecca. He used to stay the night till he got up (in the morning) to offer The Dawn prayer. The praying place of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on a rough hillock, other than the place in which the mosque was built later, but at the lower side of that, on a rough hillock.

229-(1260) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had faced the two hillocks which intervene between him and the long mountain towards the direction of Ka'ba. In this way, the mosque, which was established there, was at the left of the hillock. Lower of that, there was the place of prayer of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the black hillock. He used to leave ten cubits or so from the hillock and then he would pray, facing the two hillocks of the long mountain, which is between you and Ka'ba.

[39] It is desirable to walk fast in the circumambulation of Umra and in the first circumambulation of Hajj

230-(1261) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the first circumambulation round the House, he would walk fast (with moving the shoulders) in the first three rounds (of the seven), and walk (normally) in the remaining four. He also used to run in the bottom of the valley (between Safa and Marwa), whenever he compassed between Safa and Marwa. Ibn Umar used to do the same.

The pagans said: "A group of people are coming to you and they had been weakened by the Fever of Yathrib (Medina), from which they suffered much." They sat near Al-Hijr. So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered his companions to walk fast (with moving their shoulders) in the first three rounds of circumambulation and to walk between the two corners (The Black Stone and Yemenite corner), in order that the pagans should see their (Muslims') strength. Upon this the pagans said: "Are those the people whom you pretended that the fever had weakened? They are much healthier and stronger than so-and-so, and so-and-so." Ibn Abbas added: Nothing prevented him (The Prophet) to order them to walk fast (with moving the shoulders) in all the circuits but out of pity for them.

round Safa and Marwa, there will be no harm to him (as regards Hajj)." She asked: "Why (do you think so)?" I said: "For Allah says: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth." (Heifer 158)

She said: "Allah never regards as complete the Hajj or Umra of a person in case he does not compass between Safa and Marwa. Were it so as you said, then, the statement would have been: "There is no sin for him if he does not compass them round." Do you know the occasion (in connection with which this verse was revealed)? The Ansar in the Days of Ignorance used to assume Ihram for two idols (lying) on the bank of the river, which were called Isaf and Na'ila. The people used to go there, and then compass between Safa and Marwa and then got their heads shaved. When Islam appeared, they (Muslims) disliked compassing between them as they used to do during the Days of Ignorance. It was on this occasion that Allah, "Exalted and Hallowed be He", revealed: Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth."" She said: "Then, the people began to compass.

upon this she said: "Were it so as you said, then, the statement would have been: "There is no sin for him if he does not compass them round." But in fact, this divine inspiration was revealed concerning the Ansar who used to assume Ihram for an idol called "Manah" (near the place of Qudaid) which they used to worship during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and whoever assumed Ihram (for the idol), would consider it not right to compass round Safa and Marwa. with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for Hajj, they mentioned that to him. So Allah revealed this Verse. By my life! Allah never regards as complete the Hajj or Umra of one if he does not compass between Safa and Marwa."

261-(...) Sufyan narrated: Urwa said: I said to A'isha, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "I think there would be no harm to him who did not compass round Safa and Marwa, and as for myself, I never mind whether or not I compass round them." Upon this, she said: "What a bad statement you had said, O my nephew! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the Muslims compassed (between them) and it became Sunna. Indeed, (it was the habit that) whoever assumed Ihram for (the idle of) Manat (whose worshipper were) disobedient, which was at Al-Mushallal, should not compass round Safa and Marwa. When Islam came, we asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. So, Allah revealed: "Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah. So if those who visit the House in the Season or at other times, should compass them round, it is no sin in them. And if any one obeyeth his own impulse to good - be sure that Allah is He Who recogniseth and knoweth." (Heifer 158) Were it so as you said, then, the statement would have been: "There is no sin for him if he does not compass them round."

Az-Zuhri said: I mentioned that to Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Hisham, who admired it and commented: That is the perfect knowledge. I heard many religious scholars saying: Those, from among the Arabs, who did not compass round Safa and Marwa, used to say: Our compassing between those two stones is a matter, which belonged to the days of ignorance. Others from the Ansar said: We have been ordered to circumambulate round the House, and not co compass between Safa and Marwa. So, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" revealed: ""Behold! Safa and Marwa are among the Symbols of Allah." Abu Bakr Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman said: I think it was revealed in connection with both.

271-(...) Both of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid and Al-Aswad Ibn Yazid narrated: We heard Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" saying , while we were at Muzdalifa: "No doubt, I heard the one (i.e. The Prophet), on whom the Sura of Heifer "Al-Baqara" was revealed, pronouncing Talbiya in this station: "I'm responding to Your call O Allah, I'm responding to Your call!" then, he pronounced Talbiya, and so did we along with him.

[46] Talbiya and magnification on going from Mina to Arafat on the day of Arafat (i.e. the ninth day of Dhul-Hijja)

272-(1284) Abdullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from his father "Allah be pleased with him": We set out in the morning with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from Mina to Arafat, with some of us pronouncing Talbiya (I'm responding to Your call, O Allah, I'm responding to Your call!) , and others magnifying (Allah is Greater).

273-(...) Abdullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar narrated from Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": We were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the morning of (the day of) Arafat, with some of us pronouncing Talbiya, and others magnifying Allah. As for us, we were magnifying Allah. I said: How strange is that you did not ask him (the narrator): what did you see The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" doing?"

274-(1285) Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr Ath-Thaqafi narrated that he asked Anas "Allah be pleased with him" while they were going from Mina to Arafat: "What did you use to do on this day while you were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" He said: "If anyone among us pronounced Talbiya, he would not disapprove that, and if anyone among us magnified Allah, he would not also deny that."

[47] Pouring down from Arafat to Muzdalifa, and desirability to offer both Maghrib and Isha prayers at Muzdalifa this night

276-(1280) Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that he heard Usama Ibn Zaid "Allah be pleased with both" saying: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded from Arafat till he reached the mountain pass. Then, he dismounted, urinated and then performed ablution but not perfectly. I said to him: "(Would you not offer) the prayer, O Allah's Apostle?" He said: "The (place of) prayer is ahead of you." He rode till he reached Al-Muzdalifa, where he dismounted and performed ablution perfectly. The (call for) establishing the prayer was pronounced and he led the Maghrib prayer. Then everybody made his camel kneel down at its place. Then the prayer establishment was pronounced for the Isha which The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led. No prayer was offered in between the two prayers.

277-(...) Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas narrated from Usama Ibn Zaid "Allah be pleased with both": After proceeding from Arafat (to Muzdalifa) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" turned away to one of those mountain passes, in order to answer the call of nature. Then, I poured water (for ablution) for him. I asked: "Would you offer the prayer?" he said: "The (place of) prayer is ahead of you."

278-(...) Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas, narrated that he heard Usama Ibn Zaid "Allah be pleased with both" saying: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" poured down from Arafat and when he reached the mountainous pass he dismounted and urinated. (Usama did not use a word other than "urinated"). Then, he (The Prophet) called for water and performed a light ablution. Then, I said: "O Messenger of Allah! (would you not offer) the prayer?" he said: "The (place of) prayer is ahead of you." Then, he proceeded on until he reached Muzdalifa, wherein he led both Maghrib and Isha prayers.

both Maghrib and Isha prayers at Muzdalifa. He prayed three Rak'as for Maghrib and two Rak'as for Isha, (and he prayed both) with one Iqama.

291-(...) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated: We poured down (from Arafat) along with Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" until we came to Muzdalifa, wherein he led us in Maghrib and Isha prayers with one Iqama. When he finished, he said: "It was in this very way that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed with us in this place."

[48] Desirability to offer Dawn prayer at the earliest portion (of its time) at Muzdalifa, on the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice

292-(1289) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated that Abdullah "Allah be pleased with him" said: I never saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having offered a prayer but that (he would offer it) in its prescribed time except two prayers: Both Maghrib and Isha at Muzdalifa (as he deferred Maghrib to combine it with Isha), and the Dawn prayer, which he offered on that day before its prescribed time.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, and said here: Before its prescribed time, when it was still dark.

[49] It is desirable that the weak of old men and women should hasten in proceeding from Muzdalifa to Mina at the later part of the night before the rush of the people, and it is desirable that the others should stay until they pray Dawn at Muzdalifa

293-(1290) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: On the night (when we were) at Al-Muzdalifa, Sawda asked the permission of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to leave (early) before the rush of the people. She was a slow woman and he gave her permission, so she departed (from Al-Muzdalifa) before the rush of the people. We kept on staying at Al-Muzdalifa till dawn, when we set out with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But (I suffered so much that) I wished I had taken the permission of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as Sawda had done, and that would have been dearer to me than any other happiness.

294-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Sawda was a slow fat woman. So, she asked the permission of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to leave from Muzdalifa at night, and he gave her permission. A'isha said: I wished I had asked for permission of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace was said to him: "They stone it (Jamra) from the upper side (of the valley)." upon this he said: "By Him, with Whom there is no god, this is the station of the one (i.e. The Prophet) upon whom the Sura of Al-Baqara was revealed (from which he stoned Jamra)."

٥٠ ـ بابُ رَمْيِ جَمْرَةِ الْعَقَبَةِ من بَطْنِ الْوَادِي وتكون مكة عن يساره ويكبر مع كل حصاة

306-(...) Al-A'mash narrated: I heard Al-Hajjaj Ibn Yusuf saying while he was delivering sermon on the pulpit: "Take care of the order of the (Verses of the Holy) Qur'an which has been made by Gabriel: The one in which the Heifer has been mentioned, then the one in which women have been mentioned (i.e. the Sura of Women)" and then the one in which the Family of Imran has been mentioned." I (the narrator) met Ibrahim and told him of what he (Al-Hajjaj Ibn Yusuf) had said. He insulted him and said: "Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated to me that when he was with Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" he came to the Jamra of Aqaba and entered into the heart of the valley and faced it (the Jamra, making Mecca on his left side, and Mina on his right side). Then, he stoned it from the heart of the valley, with seven pebbles, and he magnified Allah with every pebble. I (Abd Ar-Rahman) said to him: "They stone it (Jamra) from the upper side (of the valley)." upon this he said: "By Him, with Whom there is no god, this is the place of the one (i.e. The Prophet) upon whom the Sura of Al-Baqara was revealed (from which he stoned Jamra)."

(...) Al-A'mash narrated: I heard Al-Hajjaj saying: "The Sura of Al-Baqara..." and the rest is the same.

307-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated that he offered Hajj in the company of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) "Allah be pleased with him". He said: He (Abdullah) stoned Jamra with seven pebbles, making the House on his left side, and Mina on his right side, and said: "This is the place (from which) the one, upon whom the Sura of Al-Baqara was revealed (stoned it)."

308-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, with the same chain of transmitters, and mentioned here (that the narrator said): "When he came to the Jamra of Aqaba."

309-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated: It was said to Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) "Allah be pleased with him": "Some people stone Jamra from the upper side of Aqaba." Abdullah stoned it from the heart of the valley and then said: "It is from here, by Him, with Whom there is no god, that the one (i.e. The Prophet) upon whom the Sura of Al-Baqara was revealed stoned it."

قَالَ: فَقِيلَ لَهُ: إِنَّ أُنَاساً يَرْمُونَهَا مِنْ فَوْقِهَا. فَقَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مَسْعُودٍ: هٰذَا وَالَّذِي لاَ إِلَهَ غَيْرُهُ، مَقَامُ الَّذِي أُنْزِلَتْ عَلَيْهِ سُورَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ.

[51] It is desirable to stone the Jamra of Aqaba on the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice "Nahr" as riding, and what about the saying of The Prophet: "Take your rites (from me)"

310-(1297) Abu Az-Zubair narrated: I heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: I saw The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" throwing pebbles, as riding his camel on the Day of Slaughtering Sacrifice, and saying: "Take your rites (from me), for I do not know whether I would offer Hajj after this of mine."

311-(1298) Yahya Ibn Al-Husain narrated from his grandmother Umm Al-Husain: I attended the Farewell Hajj with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I saw him when he stoned the Jamra of Aqaba and then went, while he was riding his mount, accompanied by Usama and Bilal, one of whom was driving his (The Prophet's) mount, and the other was raising his garment over the head of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to protect him) from sun. she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said many things, (among which) I heard him saying: "If a slave, (as mean as even) some of his limbs are cut, became your ruler, (I think she said also "black"), and he governed you according to The Book of Allah and His Messenger, then, you should listen to him, and obey (his orders)."

312-(...) Umm Al-Husain narrated: I attended the Farewell Hajj with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I saw Usama and Bilal (with him), one of whom was catching hold of the nose string of the mount of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the other was raising his garment (over his head) to protect him from the heat, until he stoned the Jamra of Aqaba.

[52] The pebbles with which the Jamra is to be stoned should be small

313-(1299) Abu Az-Zubair narrated: I heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: I saw The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having stoned the Jamra with small pebbles.

[53] The favoured time of flinging

314-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated from Jabir "Allah be pleased with him": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stoned the Jamra on the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice "Nahr" in the forenoon, and (he threw the Jamra of the two days) which followed that when the sun declined.

(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" telling about The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same.

[54] The pebbles of Jamra should be odd number

315-(1300) Abu Az-Zubair narrated: Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Cleaning one's private parts (after answering the call of nature) should be done by odd number of stones (often three), stoning the Jamra should be done with odd number (seven) of pebbles, compassing (between Safa and Marwa) should contain of odd number (seven) of circuits, circumambulation (round the House) should contain of odd number (seven) of rounds, and if anyone of you intended to clean his private parts (after answering the call of nature) he should use odd number of stones (from three to seven)."

[55] Getting the head shaved is more excellent than cutting short the hair, though the latter is permissible (as one of the pilgrimage rites)

316-(1301) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got his head shaved (after slaughtering his sacrifice on the tenth day of Dhul-Hijja), and so did a group of his companions, while others cut short their hair. Abdullah said that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah's mercy be upon those who got their heads shaved" once or twice, and then added: "and those who cut short their hair."

317-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! Bestow Your mercy upon those who got their heads shaved!" they (the companions) said: "And those who cut short their hair, O Messenger of Allah!" he said (once again): "O Allah! Bestow Your mercy upon those who got their heads shaved!" they (the companions) said: "And those who cut short their hair, O Messenger of Allah!" then, he said: "And those who cut short their hair."

321-(1303) Yahya Ibn Al-Husain narrated from his grandmother that during the Farewell Hajj, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked good upon those who got their heads shaved thrice, and once upon those who cut short their hair. Waki did not mention "during the Farewell Hajj" in his narration.

322-(1304) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got his head shaved (after slaughtering his sacrifice) in the Farewell Hajj.

[56] It is out of the tradition (of The Prophet) on the day of Slaughtering Sacrifice to stone Jamra, then slaughter sacrifice, and then get the head shaved, and it is desirable to start shaving from the right side of the head

323-(1305) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Mina, he went to Jamra and stoned it with pebbles. Then, he went to his dwelling place in Mina and slaughtered his sacrifice. He then called for a shaver, to whom he turned the right side of his head, and let him shave it. Then, he turned his left side. He then gave it (his hair) to the people.

٥٨ ـ بابُ استحباب طَوَافِ الإِفَاضَةِ يوم النحر

٣٣٥ ـ (١٣٠٨) ـ حدّثني مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ: أَخْبَرَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَفَاضَ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ فَصَلَّى الظُّهْرَ بِمِنًى.

قَالَ نَافِعٌ: فَكَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ يُفِيضُ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ، ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ فَيُصَلِّي الظُّهْرَ بِمِنًى، وَيَذْكُرُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ فَعَلَهُ.

٣٣٦ ـ (١٣٠٩) ـ حدّثني زُهَيْرُ بْنُ حَرْبٍ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْحَاقُ بْنُ يُوسُفَ الأَزْرَقُ: أَخْبَرَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ بْنِ رُفَيْعٍ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ أَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ قُلْتُ: أَخْبِرْنِي عَنْ شَيْءٍ عَقَلْتَهُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ: أَيْنَ صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ يَوْمَ التَّرْوِيَةِ؟ قَالَ: بِمِنًى. قُلْتُ: فَأَيْنَ صَلَّى الْعَصْرَ يَوْمَ النَّفْرِ؟ قَالَ: بِالأَبْطَحِ. ثمَّ قَالَ: افْعَلْ مَا يَفْعَلُ أُمَرَاؤُكَ.

[59] It is desirable to halt at Muhassab and offer prayer in it on the day of Departure "Nafr"

337-(1310) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abu Bakr and Umar used to halt at Al-Abtah.

338-(...) Nafi narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" regarded halting at Muhassab (and praying in it) as Sunna. He used to offer the Dhuhr prayer at Muhassab on the day of Departure "Nafr". Nafi said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" descended at Muhassab, and so did the caliphs after him.

339-(1311) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Halting at Al-Abtah was not out of Sunna. However, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" halted at it because it was easier for his departure whenever he left (for Medina).

(...) The same was narrated by Habib Al-Mu'allim, on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters.

340-(...) Ma'mar narrated from Az-Zuhri from Salim that Abu Bakr, Umar and Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with all of them" used to halt at Al-Abtah. Az-Zuhri said that Urwa told me that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" used not to do so, and she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" halted at it because it was easier for his departure whenever he left (for Medina).

341-(1312) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Halting at Al-Muhassab is not of significance, but it was simply a place, at which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" halted.

342-(1313) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated: Abu Rafi (the freed slave of The Prophet) said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not order me to halt at Al-Abtah when he departed from Mina, but, (it happened that) I came and pitched his tent there. Then, he came and halted at it. Abu Bakr said in the narration of Salih: I heard Sulaiman Ibn Yasar... he said in the narration of Qutaiba: (I narrated it) from Abu Rafi, who was in charge of the luggage of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

343-(1314) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Tomorrow, Allah willing, we would halt at the Khaif of Banu Kinana, wherein they had taken an oath on disbelief.

[البخاري: كتاب التوحيد، باب في المشيئة والإرادة، رقم: ٧٤٧٩].

344-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us while we were at Mina: "Tomorrow we are going to halt at Khaif Banu Kinana where the pagans had taken an oath on unbelief (heathenism)." I.e. when the Quraish tribe and Banu Kinana concluded a contract against Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib that they would not intermarry, or deal with them in business until they handed over The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to them. He meant (by that place) Al-Muhassab.

345-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If Allah endowed us with victory, our place of halt will be, Allah willing, the Khaif wherein they (the pagans of Quraish) took an oath on unbelief."

[60] The obligation of spending the nights of Tashriq at Mina, and the concession of leaving it for the water suppliers

346-(1315) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that Al-Abbas "Allah be pleased with him" asked for the permission of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to spend the nights of Mina at Mecca in view of his (responsibility for) water supply, and he gave him permission.

(...) The same was narrated by Ibn Juraij, on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Umar, with the same chain of transmitters.

347-(1316) Bakr Ibn Abdullah Al-Muzani narrated: I was sitting along with Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" near the Ka'ba, when there came a Bedouin to him and said: "Why do I see that the offspring of your paternal uncle supply honey and milk (as drink to the pilgrims), and you supply water sweetened with dates? Is it because of your poverty or because of your miserliness?" Ibn Abbas said: "Praise be to Allah! It is neither because of poverty nor because of miserliness. Indeed, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came here riding his mount, with Usama riding behind him. He asked for water, and we gave him a cup full of water sweetened with dates, which he drank, and gave the remaining to Usama. Then, he (The Prophet) said: "You have done good, You have done well. It is so that you should do." So, we do not want to change what Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered us to do."

A man asked Jabir: "Could one share in (sacrificing) a cow as he shares in (sacrificing) a camel?" he said: "Is it not but one of the sacrificial animals?" Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" attended (the occasion of) Hudaibiya, and he said: We slaughtered seventy sacrificial animals, and every seven persons of us shared in one sacrifice.

354-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated, telling about the Hajj performed by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": He (The Prophet) ordered us, as we were about to put off Ihram, to offer sacrificial animals, in such a way that every group (containing of seven persons) of us would share in one sacrificial animal. That was when he ordered them to put off Ihram from their Hajj.

355-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We offered the Umra of Mut'a along with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and we sacrificed a cow on behalf of (every) seven persons of us, who shared in it.

356-(1319) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: On the day of Sacrificing, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed a cow on behalf of A'isha.

357-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated that he heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed on behalf of his wives, (or sacrificed a cow on behalf of A'isha in her Hajj, according to the narration of Abu Bakr).

[63] Slaughtering camels while being fettered, in a standing posture

358-(1320) Ziyad Ibn Jubair narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" came upon a man who was slaughtering his (sacrificial) camel which was kneeling down. Upon this he said to him: "Let it be in a standing posture and fettered (and then slaughter it) according to the Sunna of your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

[64] It is desirable to send the sacrificial animals to the Sanctuary if one does not want to go himself, and it is desirable to garland them, and twisting the garlands, and their sender does not become in a state of Ihram, with the result that nothing would become unlawful for him

359-(1321) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to send the sacrificial animals from Medina and I used to twist the garlands for them; and he did not keep away from any of these things from which a Muhrim keeps away.

360-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: As if I am observing myself, twisting the garlands of the sacrificial animals of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same.

361-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Qasim narrated from his father: I heard A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" saying: I used to twist the garlands of the sacrificial animals of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with my own hands, and then, he would not keep away or avoid anything (of those from which the Muhrim keeps away).

362-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: I twisted the garlands for the sacrifices of the Prophet; and then he marked and garlanded them. Then he made them proceed to the House, but he remained in Medina, and nothing, permissible for him before (as a non-Muhrim), was regarded as unlawful for him then .

363-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to send the sacrificial animals (to the House) and I used to twist the garlands for them; and he did not keep away from anything from which a non-Muhrim does not refrain.

364-(...) Al-Qasim narrated from A'isha, the mother of believers, "Allah be pleased with her": I twisted the garlands of the sacrifices from the wool which was with me. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" remained non-Muhrim among us, and he would do what the non-Muhrim could do with his wife, or do what a man could do with his wife

365-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: I observed myself twisting the garlands of the sacrificial animals of sheep for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he would send them (to the House) and stay among us (in Medina) as a non-Muhrim.

366-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: I twisted the garlands of the sacrifices of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he garlanded them and sent them (to the House). Then he stayed (among us in Medina) without refraining from anything from which a Muhrim keeps away.

376-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated: I asked Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" about riding on the sacrificial animal. Upon this he said: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Ride on it fairly if you are forced to that, until you find (another) mount."

[66] What is to be done with the sacrificial animal if it gets exhausted on the way

377-(1325) Musa Ibn Salama Al-Hudhali narrated: I set out along with Sinan Ibn Salama for Umra, and Sinan set out with a sacrificial animal, which he was driving. On the way, it stopped and became exhausted. He was unable (to know what to do) with it, if it completely stopped and became too weak to move forward, then, how would he bring it (to the House to be sacrificed)? I asked Bilal whether The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had prayed in it. Bilal replied: "Yes." I asked: "Where did he offer prayer?" He replied: "Between the two pillars in front of him." I forgot to ask him how much he (The Prophet) prayed.

390-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came on the day of Victory, riding a she-camel owned by Usama. He made it kneel down at the courtyard of Ka'ba. Then, he called upon Uthman Ibn Talha to bring him the key. He (Uthman) went to his mother (to take the key from her), but she refused to give it to him. he said to her: "By Allah! You should give it to me, otherwise, this sword would be thrust into my side." So, she gave it to him. he brought it to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", whom he gave it. Then, he opened the door...and the rest is the same as narrated by Hammad Ibn Zaid.

391-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the Ka'ba, accompanied by Bilal, Usama and Uthman Ibn Talha. They closed the door (and kept it closed) for a long time, after which the door was opened. I was the first to enter, where I met Bilal, whom I asked: "Where did The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offer the prayer?" he said: "Between the two front pillars." But, I forgot to ask him how much The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed.

both" said: "An idea has occurred to me according to which I think that you should repair what was damaged, and leave the House (as such) on which the people embraced Islam and (leave) those stones (in their state) on which the people accepted Islam, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sent."

Ibn Az-Zubair said: "If the house of any one of you was burnt, he would not be satisfied until he renews it; then what about the House of your Lord? I would ask Allah (to guide me) to better choice thrice and then I would decide what to do in this matter." After asking Allah (to guide him) to the better choice thrice, he decided to demolish it. The people expected that calamity might fall from heaven on the first person who would climb (over the House to demolish it), till one ascended it and threw down one of its stones. When the people saw that no calamity had befallen him, they followed him, and started demolishing it until it was pulled down to the ground. Then Ibn Az-Zubair set up pillars and hung curtains on them (in order that the people would face them in the prayers as their Qibla, and know the position of Ka'ba). Then, the walls were raised.

Ibn Az-Zubair said: I heard A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" saying that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had the people not been close to (the time of) unbelief, and had I had the (necessary) resources to reconstruct it, I would have included in it five cubits from (the area of) Al-Hijr. I would also have built a door for the people to enter, and a door for them to exit." (Ibn Az-Zubair further added) "Now, I have the resources to spend and I have no fear from the part of the people (that they would object to that)." So he added five cubits from the (area of) Al-Hijr to it, to the extent that there appeared (the original) foundation (laid by The Prophet Abraham), which The people saw. it was upon this base that the wall was raised. The length of the Ka'ba was eighteen cubits. when this addition was made to it (in breadth), the length seemed to be small (in proportion with the breadth). For that reason, ten cubits were added to its length. Two doors were also built, one for entrance and the other for exit.

When Ibn Az-Zubair was killed, Al-Hajjaj wrote to Abd Al-Malik Ibn Marwan telling him about it, stating that Ibn Az-Zubair rebuilt (the House) upon those original foundations (laid by The Prophet Abraham) and which reliable men from among the Meccans had seen. Abd Al-Malik wrote to him: "Criticizing Ibn Az-Zubair (for what he had done) is of no significance for us. As for the addition made by him in length, you should fix it, and as for what he added from the direction of Al-Hijr, revert it to (its previous) foundation. Wall up the door which he had opened." In this way, he (Al-Hajjaj) demolished that (part) and rebuilt it on (its previous) bases.

403-(...) Abdullah Ibn Ubaid narrated that Al-Harith Ibn Abdullah came leading a delegate to Abd Al-Malik Ibn Marwan during his caliphate. Abd Al-Malik said: "I do not think that Abu Khubaib (i.e. Ibn Az-Zubair) heard from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" what he alleged that he heard from her (concerning the rebuilding of Ka'ba)." Al-Harith said: "But, I myself heard that from her." He said: "What did you hear from her?" He said that she (A'isha) told that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Your people reduced (an area) from the building of the House, and had they not been still close to the (time of) heathenism, (since they did not embrace Islam but very recently), I would have added to it what they had left out of it. If it seemed to your people after me to rebuild it, then come along with me so as to show you what they have left out of it." He showed her about seven cubits (from the direction of Al-Hijr).

This is the narration transmitted by Abdullah Ibn Ubaid. Al-Walid Ibn Ata added the following: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (resuming his previous statement): "I would have made two doors at the level of the ground, one towards the east and the other towards the west. Do you know why your people raised its (the House's) door?" She said: "No." He said: "That was out of pride so that none but whomever they wanted should enter into it. When a person intended to get into it, they let him go upstairs, and as he was about to enter, they would push him and he would fall down."

Abd Al-Malik said to Al-Harith: "Did you hear her saying that?" He answered in the affirmative. He (Al-Harith) said that he (Abd Al-Malik) scratched the ground with his stick for some time after which he said: "I wished I had left what he (Ibn Az-Zubair) had done there."

The obligation of Hajj enjoined by Allah on His devotees has become due on my father who is old and weak, and cannot sit firm on the Mount; may I perform Hajj on his behalf?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Yes, you may." That happened during the Farewell Hajj.

408-(1335) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated from Al-Fadl: A woman from the tribe of Khath'am came and said The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Allah's Apostle! My father is now an old man, upon whom the obligation of Hajj enjoined by Allah has become due, and he (is so weak that he) cannot sit firm on the back of the Mount; (may I perform Hajj on his behalf?)" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Yes, you may offer Hajj on his behalf."

[72] The validity of the boy's pilgrimage and the reward of him who enabled him to offer Hajj

409-(1336) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that once, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met a group of riders at (the place of) Rawha, whom he asked: "Who are the people?" they said: "(We are among) the Muslims." Then, they asked: "Who are you?" he said: "I'm The Messenger of Allah." A woman (from among them) raised a young boy to him (to see) and said: "Is there any Hajj to be offered by that (young boy)?" he said: "Yes, and you would receive a reward (for enabling him to perform it)."

410-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: A woman raised a young boy of hers (to The Prophet to see) and said: "Is there any Hajj to be offered by that (young boy)?" he said: "Yes, and you would receive a reward (for enabling him to perform it)."

411-(...) Kuraib (the freed slave of Ibn Abbas) narrated: A woman raised a young boy of hers (to The Prophet to see) and said: "Is there any Hajj to be offered by that (young boy)?" he said: "Yes, and you would receive a reward (for enabling him to perform it)."

(...) The same was narrated by Kuraib, on the authority of Ibn Abbas

(the Prophet) kept silent, and he (the man) repeated (his question) thrice, after which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If I said "yes", it would become obligatory (for you to offer it every year) and you would not be able to do it." Then he said: "Just (stick to my orders and) abandon (asking) me so long as I left you (and did not order you to do a certain thing). However, those who were before you were destroyed for their excessive questions, and their disputes with their Prophets. So when I order you to do anything, do it as much as is within your power, and when I forbid you to do anything, then leave it."

[74] The woman should not travel for Hajj or anything else without a Mahram (a person whom she cannot marry)

413-(1338) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The woman should not travel on a three-day journey without a Mahram" (her husband or one to whom she could not be married such as her father, brother, grandfather or so).

(...) The same was narrated by Ibn Numair, on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters.

414-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not lawful for a woman, who believes in Allah and the Last Day, to travel on a three-day journey without a Mahram."

415-(827) Qaza'a narrated: I heard from Abu Sa'id a Hadith, which I admired. I asked him: "Did you really hear it from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he said: "Would then I tell about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" what I did not hear (from him)?" I heard him saying: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No journey should be made (with the purpose of religious devotion) except for three mosques: this mosque of mine, the Sacred Mosque (of Ka'ba), and the Furthest mosque (of Jerusalem)." I also heard him (The Prophet) saying: "The woman should not travel on a two-day journey without a Mahram (whom she cannot marry such as her father or brother), or her husband."

416-(...) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard four things from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" which won my admiration and appreciation. They are: No lady should travel on a two-day journey without her husband or a Mahram (one to whom she could not be married)"....and the rest is the same.

Mahram (such as her husband or anyone to whom she could not be married at all)." A man got up and said: "O Allah's Apostle! My wife set out for performing Hajj and I was enlisted in such and such an army." Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "Go and offer Hajj in her company."

[75] What one says when he rides (and sets out) for Hajj or anything else

425-(1342) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that whenever The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set firm on his mount for a journey, he would magnify Allah thrice and then say: "Glory be to Him, Who subdued that (mount) for us, and (had it not been for that reason) we would not have been able to bear its (power and obstinacy), and to our Lord we are returning. O Allah! We ask You in this journey of ours (to enable us to do) righteousness and piety, and from the deeds whatever You are pleased with. O Allah! Make easy this journey of ours, and fold up for us its far distance. O Allah! You are the companion in the journey, and the Guardian of our families. O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the troubles of the journey, the gloominess of sight, and the evil changes in property and family (on return)." Whenever he (The Prophet) returned (from journey) he would repeat it, and add: "We are returning (as) repentant, worshipping, and praising our Lord."

426-(1343) Abdullah Ibn Sarjis narrated that when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out on journey, he would seek refuge (with Allah) from the trouble of the journey, the evil changes on return, disgrace after honour, the curse of the oppressed one, and the gloominess of sight in family and property.

427-(...) A Hadith like this was narrated on the authority of Asim, with the same chain of transmitters. But, the Hadith transmitted by Abd Al-Wahid the (word) "property" precedes the (word) "family". In the Hadith transmitted by Muhammad Ibn Khazim (the word) "family" precedes (the word) "Property" on return. In both narrations (the following is added): "O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the trouble of the journey."

[76] What one says on return from the journey of Hajj or anything else

428-(1344) Abdullah Ibn Omar "Allah be pleased with both" reported: Whenever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned from a holy battle, Hajj or Umra, he used to magnify Allah thrice at every elevation of the ground and then say: "There is no God (to be worshipped) but Allah; He is One and has no partner. The dominion is for Him, all the praises are for Him, and He has power to all things. We are returning as repentant, worshipping, prostrating, and praising our Lord. He has kept up His promise and made His slave victorious, and He Alone defeated all the confederates (of unbelievers)."

(...) The same was narrated by Nafi, on the authority of Ibn Umar who narrated it from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

429-(1345) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I and Abu Talha came back along with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", while (his wife) Safiyya was riding behind him on his she-camel. When we were came to the outskirts of Medina, he said: "We are returning as repentant, worshipping, and praising our Lord." He kept repeating it until we reached Medina.

[80] The pilgrim's halting at Mecca, and the inheritance of its ancestors

439-(1351) Usama Ibn Zaid Ibn Haritha "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I asked The Prophet: "O Allah's Apostle! Will you halt in your house in Mecca?" He replied: "Has Aqil left any property or house?" Aqil along with Talib had inherited the property of Abu Talib. Ja'far and Ali did not inherit anything as they were Muslims, and Aqil and Talib were unbelievers.

[82] Sanctifying Mecca, its games, vegetation, trees, and its fallen things

445-(1353) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: On the day of the conquest of Mecca, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no more emigration (from Mecca) but Jihad (holy war) and intentions, and whenever you are called for Jihad, you should go forth immediately." He said also on the day of Conquest of Mecca: "No doubt, Allah has made this town (Mecca) a sanctuary since the creation of the heavens and the earth and will remain a sanctuary till the Day of Judgement as Allah has ordained its sanctity. Fighting was not permissible in it for anyone before me, and even for me it was allowed only for a portion of a day. So, it is a sanctuary with Allah's sanctity till the Day of Judgement. Its thorny shrubs should not be uprooted and its game should not be chased; and its fallen things should not be picked up except by one who would announce that publicly, and its vegetation (grass etc.) should not be cut." Al-Abbas said: "O Allah's Apostle! Except Al-Idhkhir (a kind of grass) for it is used by our goldsmiths and for our graves." upon this he (The Prophet) said: "Except Al-Idhkhir."

No doubt it is, as of this moment, a sanctuary. It is not allowed to uproot its thorny shrubs or to uproot its trees or to pick up its fallen lost things except by a person who will look for its owner (by announcing it publicly). If somebody is killed, then his closest relative has the right to choose one of the two: the blood money or retaliation (having the killer killed)." In the meantime, a man from Yemen came and said: "O Allah's Apostle! Get that written for me." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered his companions to write that for him. Then a man from Quraish said: "Except Al-Idhkhir (a type of grass that has good smell) O Allah's Apostle, as we use it in our houses and graves." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Except Al-Idhkhir (which is allowed to be plucked)."

[83] It is forbidden to carry arms in Mecca when there is no need for it

449-(1356) Abu Az-Zubair narrated from Jabir "Allah be pleased with him": I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It is not permissible for anyone of you to carry arms in Mecca."

[84] It is permissible to enter Mecca without putting on Ihram

450-(1357) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Mecca in the year of its Conquest wearing an Arabian helmet on his head. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took it off, a person came and said: "Ibn Khatal is catching hold of the covering of Ka'ba (as anything to recite other than Allah's Book (Qur'an) and this document (hanging in the sheath of his sword), then he has told a lie. It (this paper) implies the ages of the camels (to be paid as charity or as blood money), (legal verdicts about the retaliation for) wounds. In it too, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Medina is a sanctuary from Air (mountain) to Thawr (mountain). So whoever innovates in it a heresy (concerning religion), or gives shelter to such an innovator, will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his obligatory or supererogatory deeds will be accepted by Allah on The Day of Judgement. The asylum granted by any Muslim is to be respected by all the Muslims, even if it is granted by one of the lowest social status among them. Whoever claimed to (be a son of) anyone other than his (real) father, or (if a slave fled and) belonged to other people than his (real) masters, will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his obligatory or supererogatory deeds will be accepted by Allah on The Day of Judgement." The narration of Abu Bakr and Zuhair ended at the statement: "even if it is granted by one of the lowest social status among them", without mentioning what follows. There is also no mention (in their narration) of (the phrase): "hanging in the sheath of his sword."

The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters, but with this addition: "And whoever betrays a Muslim (in this respect), will incur the curse of Allah, the angels, and all the people, and none of his obligatory or supererogatory deeds will be accepted by Allah on The Day of Judgement." The statement "And whoever claimed to (be a son of anyone) other than his (real) father..." is not mentioned in the Hadith transmitted by the other two narrators. 494-(1387) Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said:

٨٩ ـ باب مَنْ أَرادَ أهلَ المدينةِ بِسُوءٍ أَذَابَه الله

٤٩٤ ـ (١٣٨٧) ـ حدّثنا قُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ: حَدَّثَنَا حَاتِمٌ ـ يَعْنِي ابْنَ إِسْمَاعِيلَ ـ عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ نُبَيْهٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي دِينَارٌ الْقَرَّاظُ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ سَعْدَ بْنَ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ يَقُولُ: قَالَ

"He, who intends to do any harm to the inhabitants of Medina, then, Allah will melt him as the salt is dissolved in the water."

(...)Sa'd Ibn Malik narrated the same from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", adding here "assault and harm."

495-(...) Both Abu Huraira and Sa'd "Allah be pleased with them" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! Bless the people in Medina in their Mudd..." and the rest is the same, in which he (The Prophet) said: "He, who intends to do any harm to the inhabitants of Medina, then, Allah will melt him as the salt is dissolved in the water."

[90] Exhortation to settle in Medina, when the towns are conquered

496-(1388) Sufyan Ibn Abu Zuhair "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The towns of) Sham will be conquered and some people will set out from Medina along with their families, driving their camels, though Medina is better for them if they were to know it. Then Yemen will be conquered and some people will set out from Medina along with their families, driving their camels, though Medina is better for them if they were to know it. Then Iraq will be conquered and some people will set out of from Medina along with their families, driving their camels, though Medina is better for them if they were to know it."

497-(...) Sufyan Ibn Abu Zuhair narrated that he heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Yemen will be conquered and some people will set out (from Medina to it), driving their camels and carrying their families and those who are under their guardianship, though Medina is better for them if they were to know it. Then (the towns of) Sham will be conquered and some people will set out (from Medina to it), driving their camels and carrying their families and those who are under their guardianship, though Medina is better for them if they were to know it. Then Iraq will be conquered and some people will set out (from Medina to it) driving their camels and carrying their families and those who are under their guardianship, though Medina is better for them if they were to know it."

[91] When the people of Medina leaves it

498-(1389) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said about Medina: "Its inhabitants will leave it, though it is good for them, and it will become a place of shelter for beasts and birds."

رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ أَرَادَ أَهْلَ الْمَدِينَةِ بِسُوءٍ، أَذَابَهُ اللَّهُ كَمَا يَذُوبُ الْمِلْحُ فِي الْمَاءِ».

٤٩٥ ـ (...) ـ وحدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ: حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ مُوسَىٰ: حَدَّثَنَا أُسَامَةُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ، عَنْ أَبِي عَبْدِ اللَّهِ الْقَرَّاظِ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُ: سَمِعْتُ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ وَسَعْداً يَقُولاَنِ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ لأَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ فِي مُدِّهِمْ» وَسَاقَ الْحَدِيثَ. وَفِيهِ: «مَنْ أَرَادَ أَهْلَهَا بِسُوءٍ أَذَابَهُ اللَّهُ كَمَا يَذُوبُ الْمِلْحُ فِي الْمَاءِ».

٩٠ ـ باب التَّرغيبِ في المدينةِ عندَ فتحِ الأَمْصارِ

[البخاري: كتاب فضائل المدينة، باب من رغب عن المدينة، رقم: ١٨٧٥].

٤٩٧ ـ (...) ـ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ رَافِعٍ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّزَّاقِ: أَخْبَرَنَا ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي هِشَامُ بْنُ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ أَبِي زُهَيْرٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «يُفْتَحُ الْيَمَنُ، فَيَأْتِي قَوْمٌ يَبُسُّونَ، فَيَتَحَمَّلُونَ بِأَهْلِيهِمْ وَمَنْ أَطَاعَهُمْ. وَالْمَدِينَةُ خَيْرٌ لَهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ، ثُمَّ يُفْتَحُ الشَّامُ، فَيَأْتِي قَوْمٌ يَبُسُّونَ، فَيَتَحَمَّلُونَ بِأَهْلِيهِمْ وَمَنْ أَطَاعَهُمْ وَالْمَدِينَةُ خَيْرٌ لَهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ، ثُمَّ يُفْتَحُ الْعِرَاقُ، فَيَأْتِي قَوْمٌ يَبُسُّونَ، فَيَتَحَمَّلُونَ بِأَهْلِيهِمْ وَمَنْ أَطَاعَهُمْ، وَالْمَدِينَةُ خَيْرٌ لَهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ».

٩١ ـ بابٌ في المَدِينَةِ حينَ يتركُها أَهلُها

499-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" reported: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "They (the inhabitants of Medina) will leave Medina though it is good for them and it will be inhibited by beasts and birds. Two shepherds will come out from Muzaina aiming at Medina, crying in their sheep, but they will find nothing there but wilderness until when they reach Thaniyyat Al-Wada, they will fall down on their faces."

[92] (The area) between the grave and the pulpit (of The Prophet) is one of the gardens of Paradise

500-(1390) Abdullah Ibn Zaid Al-Mazini "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The area) which is between my house and my pulpit is one of the gardens of Paradise."

501-(...) Abdullah Ibn Zaid Al-Ansari narrated that he heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "(The area) lying between my pulpit and my house is one of the gardens of Paradise."

502-(1391) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The area) which is between my house and my pulpit is one of the gardens of Paradise; and my pulpit is upon my Fount."

[93] Uhud is a mountain, which loves us as we love it

503-(1392) Abu Humaid "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: We set out with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the holy battle of Tabuk... and he further narrated: We proceeded until we reached the Valley of Al-Qura, whereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I am going to move fast, so he who among you likes to move fast with me may do so; and he who likes to go slowly may do so." We proceeded until we reached the outskirts of Medina, whereupon he said: "This is Taba (another name of Medina); this is Uhud, the mountain which loves us as well as we love it."

504-(1393) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Uhud is a mountain, which love us as well as we love it."

(...)Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" looked at (the mountain of) Uhud and then said: "No doubt, Uhud is a mountain, which love us as well as we love it."

٤٩٩ ـ (...) ـ وحدّثني عَبْدُ الْمَلِكِ بْنُ شُعَيْبِ بْنِ اللَّيْثِ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي، عَنْ جَدِّي: حَدَّثَنِي عُقَيْلُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ، أَنَّهُ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي سَعِيدُ بْنُ الْمُسَيَّبِ، أَنَّ أَبَا هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «يَتْرُكُونَ الْمَدِينَةَ عَلَىٰ خَيْرِ مَا كَانَتْ، لاَ يَغْشَاهَا إِلاَّ الْعَوَافِي ـ يُرِيدُ عَوَافِيَ السِّبَاعِ وَالطَّيْرِ ـ ثُمَّ يَخْرُجُ رَاعِيَانِ مِنْ مُزَيْنَةَ يُرِيدَانِ الْمَدِينَةَ يَنْعِقَانِ بِغَنَمِهِمَا، فَيَجِدَانِهَا وَحْشاً، حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَا ثَنِيَّةَ الْوَدَاعِ، خَرَّا عَلَىٰ وُجُوهِهِمَا».

[94] The excellence of the prayer in the two mosques of Mecca and Medina (i.e. the Sacred House and the mosque of The Prophet)

505-(1394) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Verily, a single prayer (to be offered) in my mosque is more superior than one thousand prayers (to be offered) in any mosque else except the Sacred mosque."

506-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, a single prayer (to be offered) in my mosque is more superior than one thousand prayers in any other mosque except the Sacred mosque."

507-(...) Abdullah Al-Agharr narrated that he heard Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" saying: "Verily, a single prayer (to be offered) in the mosque of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is more superior than one thousand prayers (to be offered) in any other mosque except the Sacred mosque. That is because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is the last Prophet, and his mosque is the last of the mosques."

Abu Salama and Abu Abdullah (sub-narrators in this chain of transmission) said: We had no doubt that what Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" had said was narrated by him from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and it was that, which prevented us to verify from Abu Huraira of this Hadith until Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" died. We discussed this matter among ourselves and blamed one another that we did not talk to Abu Huraira about it, so that he could attribute this narration to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" if he had heard It from him. While we were discussing it, Abdullah Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Qariz came and sat along with us. We mentioned this Hadith, and our failure (to verify of) its direct transmission by Abu Huraira from him (the Prophet), Abdullah Ibn Ibrahim said to us: "I testify that I heard Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" saying that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I am the last of The Prophets and my mosque is the last of the mosques.""

508-(...) Abd Al-Wahhab narrated that he heard Yahya Ibn Sa'id saying: I asked Abu Salih: Did you hear Abu Huraira narrating anything regarding the superiority of the prayer in the mosque of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? he said: "No, but I heard

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, with the same chain of transmitters.

509-(1395) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A single prayer in this mosque of mine is more superior than one thousand prayers in any other mosque except the Sacred mosque."

(...)Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying the same.

(...) The same was narrated through another chain of transmitters by Ibn Umar, from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

510-(1396) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that a woman suffered from a certain disease. She said: "If Allah cured me, I would set out and offer the prayer in (the Furthest mosque of) Jerusalem." Then, she got cured. She prepared herself for setting out. Maimuna "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to bid farewell to her. Then, she (the woman) told her about that (vow). Upon this she (Maimuna) said to her: "Stay here, and eat whatever (provision) you made and offer the prayer in the mosque of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". no doubt, I heard him saying: "A single prayer in it is more excellent than one thousand prayers in any other mosque except for the mosque of Ka'ba.""

(16) The Book Of Marriage

[1] The desirability of marriage for the one who has longing for it and can afford to it, and the one who cannot afford to it should occupy himself with observing fasts

1-(1400) Alqama narrated: While I was with Abdullah at Mina, Uthman met him and got up with him in order to talk to him. Uthman said: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! Shall we marry you to a virgin who will get you remember your past days?" Abdullah said: "Since you said that, (then let me tell you that) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "O young men! Whoever among you can afford to marry, should marry, because it helps him refrain his sight from looking at other women, and guard his private parts from committing adultery, and whoever cannot afford to marry, would fast, because fasting diminishes his sexual power.""

2-(...) Alqama narrated: While I was with Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud at Mina, Uthman met him and said: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! I have something to say to you." So he took him aside. When Abdullah felt that there was no need for his (being alone with Uthman much longer), he waved to me with his hand saying: "O Alqama! Come here!" Uthman said: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! Shall we marry you to a virgin who will get you remember your past days?" he replied: "Since you said that..." and the rest is the same.

3-(...) Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "O young men! Whoever among you can afford to marry, should marry, because it helps him refrain his sight from looking at other women, and guard his private parts from committing adultery, and whoever cannot afford to marry, would fast, because fasting diminishes his sexual power."

4-(...) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated: I along with my uncle Alqama and Al-Aswad, entered upon Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, and I was still a young man. He narrated to us a Hadith (transmitted from The Prophet), and I think he mentioned it only for my case. He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said...and the rest is the same as narrated by Abu Mu'awiya. He added here: Very soon, I married.

(...)Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid narrated on the authority of Abdullah: We went to him, and I was the youngest of all (of us), but he did not mention:" Very soon, I got married.

١ ـ بابُ اسْتِحْبَابِ النِّكَاحِ لمنْ تاقَتْ نَفْسُهُ إليه ووَجَدَ مُؤَنَهُ، واشْتغال مَنْ عجز عن المُؤَنِ بالصَّوْمِ

5-(1401) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: Some of the companions of The Prophet asked his wives about what The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do (of acts of worship) privately. (When they were informed, they considered their deeds as insufficient and) one of them said: "I will never marry women forever." Another one said: "I will never eat the meat." A third one said: "I will never lie down on bed." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" praised Allah and lauded Him. then he said: "What about some people who say so-and-so? No doubt, I perform prayer (at night) and sleep, I fast (for some time) and break my fast (for some time), and I also marry women. So he, who abandons my Sunna, is not from me (not one of my followers)."

6-(1402) Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah be pleased with him" reported: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rejected (the idea that) Uthman Ibn Maz'un would (abstain from marrying women and) live in celibacy. Had he allowed him to do so, we would have got castrated.

7-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated that he heard Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah be pleased with him" saying: Uthman Ibn Maz'un was forbidden (by The Prophet) to live in celibacy (and abstain from marrying women). Had he allowed him to do so, we would have got castrated.

8-(...) Sa'id Ibn Al-Musaiyyab narrated that he heard Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah be pleased with him" saying: Uthman Ibn Maz'un wanted to live in celibacy (and refrain from marrying women). But he was forbidden by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Had he allowed him to do so, we would have got castrated.

[2] If one saw a woman who appealed him, he should come to his wife or slave-girl to have sexual intercourse with her

9-(1403) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that once, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a woman, then he came to his wife Zainab, who was tanning a leather and had sexual intercourse with her. Then, he came out to his Companions and said to them: "Verily, a woman comes and returns in a shape of a Satan. So when one of you saw a woman (who appealed him), he should come to his wife (and have sexual intercourse with her), for that will keep away what he feels in his heart."

(...)Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that once, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a woman, then he came to his wife Zainab, who was tanning a leather...and the rest is the same, without mentioning: "and returns in a shape of a Satan."

٥ ـ (١٤٠١) ـ وحدّثني أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ نَافِعٍ الْعَبْدِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا بَهْزٌ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ، عَنْ ثَابِتٍ، عَنْ أَنَسٍ، أَنَّ نَفَراً مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ سَأَلُوا أَزْوَاجَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ عَنْ عَمَلِهِ فِي السِّرِّ؟ فَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: لاَ أَتَزَوَّجُ النِّسَاءَ. وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: لاَ آكُلُ اللَّحْمَ. وَقَالَ بَعْضُهُمْ: لاَ أَنَامُ عَلَىٰ فِرَاشٍ. فَحَمِدَ اللَّهَ وَأَثْنَىٰ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ: «مَا بَالُ أَقْوَامٍ قَالُوا كَذَا وَكَذَا؟ لَكِنِّي أُصَلِّي وَأَنَامُ، وَأَصُومُ وَأُفْطِرُ، وَأَتَزَوَّجُ النِّسَاءَ، فَمَنْ رَغِبَ عَنْ سُنَّتِي فَلَيْسَ مِنِّي».

10-(...) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "If a woman appealed anyone of you and tempted his heart, he should come to his wife and have sexual intercourse with her, for that will repel what he feels in his heart."

[3] The temporary marriage (of enjoyment) and the fact that it was permitted and then cancelled, and it would remain forbidden until the Day of Judgement

11-(1404) Qais narrated: We used to take part in the holy battles along with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and we had no women with us. We said: "Should we got castrated?" but, he (The Prophet) forbade us to do so, and permitted to us to marry the women for a fixed date, with (a dower of) a garment. Then, Abdullah recited (Allah's saying): "O ye who believe! make not unlawful the good things which Allah hath made lawful for you, but commit no excess: for Allah loveth not those given to excess." (The Repast "Al-Ma'ida" 87)

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Isma'il Ibn Abu Khalid, with the same chain of transmitters.

12-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Isma'il, through another chain of transmitters, according to which he (the narrator) said: We were young men when we said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should we not get castrated?" he did not mention "we used to take part in the holy battles."

13-(1405) Both of Jabir Ibn Abdullah and Salama Ibn Al-Akwa "Allah be pleased with them" narrated: The caller of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to us and (made a public announcement, in which he) said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" allowed you to enjoy yourselves (of marrying women temporarily)."

14-(...) Both of Salama Ibn Al-Akwa and Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with them" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us and granted us permission to benefit ourselves (from marrying women temporarily).

15-(...) Ibn Juraij narrated that Ata told: Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" came to perform Umra. We visited him in his home, and the people asked him about many things. Then, they mentioned the joy (of temporary marriage). Upon this he said: "Yes, we enjoyed ourselves (of marrying women temporarily) during the lifetime of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", then Abu Bakr and Umar "Allah be pleased with both"."

16-(...) Abu Az-Zubair narrated: I heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" saying: We used to benefit (from making contracts of temporary marriage) by giving (as a dower) a handful of dates or flour during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then Abu Bakr, until Umar forbade it in view of the case of Amr Ibn Huraith.

17-(...) Abu Nadra narrated: I was with Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" when a man came to him and said: "Both of Ibn Abbas and Ibn Az-Zubair differed about the two types of joy (i.e. that of Hajj and that of temporary marriage)." Upon this he said: "No doubt, we utilized both of them during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", until Umar forbade us to do them, and we did no longer return to them."

18-(...) Iyas Ibn Salama narrated from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" granted permission in the year of Awtas (i.e. the year of Meccan Conquest) to make contracts of temporary marriage for three days, and then he forbade it.

19-(1406) Rabie Ibn Sabra Al-Juhani narrated from his father: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" granted us the permission of making contracts of temporary marriage. So I and a companion of mine set out aiming at a woman from Banu Amir, who was like a young long-necked she-camel. We presented ourselves to her (for making a contract of temporary marriage). She said: "What dower would you give me?" I said: "My garment." My companion also said: "My garment." However, the garment of my companion was better than mine, but I was younger (and healthier) than him. So when she looked at the garment of my companion she liked it, and when she looked at me I appealed her more. She said: "Well, you and your garment are sufficient for me." I remained with her for three nights, after which Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has any woman with whom he made a contract of temporary marriage, should let her off."

should not combine (in marriage) a woman with her father's sister or a woman with her mother's sister."

34-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade to combine four (types of) women in marriage: a woman with her father's sister, and a woman with her mother's sister.

35-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Neither a woman's paternal aunt should be combined (in marriage) with her brother's daughter, nor should a sister's daughter be combined (in marriage) with her maternal aunt."

36-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade to combine (in marriage) a woman with her father's sister or a woman with her mother's sister. Ibn Shihab said: We then considered her (wife's) father's paternal aunt and her father's maternal aunt at the same level.

37-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One should not combine (in marriage) a woman with her father's sister or a woman with her mother's sister."

(...) Abu Salama narrated that he heard Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" telling: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said the same.

38-(...) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A man should neither demand the hand of a woman when his brother has done so earlier (than him), nor should he offer a price for a thing for which his brother priced earlier. A woman should not be combined in marriage with her paternal aunt, nor with her maternal aunt. A woman should not seek for the divorce of her sister in order to deprive her of what belongs to her, but she should marry, because she will have what Allah has ordained for her."

[10] The father gives the young virgin in marriage

69-(1422) Hisham narrated from his father that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married me when I was a girl of six (years), and I was brought to his house (and he consummated marriage with me) when I was nine years old. We went to Medina and then I suffered from fever for a month and my hair (fell down, and later on when I recovered it) grew (as long as to reach) down to the earlobes. My mother, Umm Ruman, came to me while I was playing in a swing with some of my girl friends. She called me, and I went to her, not knowing what she wanted to do to me. She caught me by the hand and made me stand at the door of the house. I kept saying "ha, ha" (since I was breathless then), and when my breathing became all right, she took me into the house, wherein some Ansari women were gathering, and they said: "Best wishes and Allah's Blessing and a good luck." Then she entrusted me to them and they washed my head and prepared me (for the marriage). Unexpectedly, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me in the forenoon to whom they handed me over.

71-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married her when she was a girl of seven (years), and she was brought to his house (and he consummated marriage with her) when she was nine years old, having her toys with her, and he (The Prophet) died when she was eighteen years old.

72-(...) Al-Aswad narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married her when she was a girl of six (years), and she was brought to his house (and he consummated marriage with her) when she was nine years old, and he (The Prophet) died when she was eighteen years old.

[11] It is desirable to marry, get someone marry, or consummate marriage in the month of Shawwal

73-(1423) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married me in (the month of) Shawwal, and I was brought to his house (and he consummated marriage with me) also in the month of Shawwal. Then, who among his wives is dearer to him than me? However, A'isha liked that the women of her family should be brought to their houses as brides (in order to consummate their marriage) in (the month of) Shawwal.

(...)This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Sufyan, with the same chain of transmitters, without mentioning the act of A'isha.

[12] It is desirable to look at the face and the hands of the woman whom one intends to marry

74-(1424) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man came to him and told him that he contracted to marry a woman from the Ansar. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Did you cast a glance at her?" he answered in the negative. Upon this he (The Prophet) said to him: "Then, go and cast a glimpse at her. However there is something in the eyes of the Ansar."

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Did you cast a glance at her? However, there is something in the eyes of the Ansar." he answered in the affirmative. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "For what (dower) did you contract to marry her?" he said: "For four ounces (of silver)." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "For four ounces? it seems as if you dig out silver from the side of this mountain (so that you have what you would pay for such a dower). We have nothing to give you. But, we may send you to an expedition where you may gain some (booty)." He sent an expedition to Banu Abs, in which that man was involved.

[13] The dower, and it might be one's knowledge of The Qur'an, and it might be (as little as even) a ring or iron, and it is desirable to be five hundred Dirhams

76-(1425) Sahl Ibn Sa'd "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: A woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I came to present myself to you." He raised and then lowered his sight, looking at her. Then he lowered his head. When the woman saw that he did not make any decision, she sat down. On that, a man from his companions got up and said: "O Allah's Apostle! If you are not in need of this woman, then marry her to me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have anything to give to her (as a dower)?" He replied:" No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Go to your family so that you can find something."

Went and returned, the man said: "No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle! I found nothing." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Try to find something, even an iron ring." He went again and returned, saying: "No, by Allah, O Allah's Apostle, not even an iron ring. But I have this waist sheet of mine (and he had no upper garment) and she might get half of it (as dower)." So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What would she do with your waist sheet? If you wear it, she will have nothing of it over her body, and if she wears it, you will have nothing over your body." Thus, the man sat for a long while. When he got up, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw him. So he ordered somebody to call him. When he came, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: " How much of the Qur'an do you know?" He replied: "I know such Sura, فقال: إِنِّي تَزَوَّجْتُ امْرَأَةً مِنَ الأنْصَارِ. فَقَالَ لَهُ النَّبِيُّ ﷺ: «هَلْ نَظَرْتَ إِلَيْهَا؟ فَإِنَّ فِي عُيُونِ الأنْصَارِ شَيْئاً» قَالَ: قَدْ نَظَرْتُ إِلَيْهَا. قَالَ: «عَلَىٰ كَمْ تَزَوَّجْتَهَا؟» قَالَ: عَلَىٰ أَرْبَعِ أَوَاقٍ.

This is the narration of Ibn Abu Hazim of this Hadith, and the narration of Ya'qub is nearly similar to it in wording.

77-(...) The same was narrated by Abu Hazim, on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd. But the Hadith transmitted through Za'ida he (The Prophet) said: "Go, I married her to you, and you should teach her something of Qur'an."

78-(1426) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated: I asked A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": "How much was the dower given by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to each of his wives)?" she said: "His dower to (each one of) his wives was twelve ounces and a half. That (amount) is equal to five hundred Dirhams. That was the dower given by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to each one of his wives)."

79-(1427) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" noticed traces of yellowish colour (because of saffron) on (the garment of) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf. He asked him: "What is this?" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! I married a woman for (a dower of) the weight of a date's stone of gold." He said: "Allah might bless for you! But, offer a wedding banquet, even with a single sheep."

80-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf married during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for (a dower of a piece of) gold equal to the weight of a date's stone. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Offer a wedding banquet, even with a single sheep."

[14] The excellence of manumitting and then marrying a slave-girl

84-(1365) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went on an expedition to Khaibar, we offered the Fajr prayer there early in the morning when it was still dark. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode and Abu Talha rode too and I was riding behind Abu Talha. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed through the lane of Khaibar quickly and my knee was touching the thigh of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He uncovered his thigh and I saw the whiteness of the thigh of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". When he entered the town, he said: "Allah is greater! Khaibar is ruined. Whenever we approach near a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned." He repeated this thrice. The people came out for their jobs and some of them said: "Muhammad (has come)." (Abd Al-Aziz, a sub-narrator, added: "With his army.") We conquered Khaibar, took the captives, and the booty was collected. Dihya came and said: "O Allah's Prophet! Give me a slave girl from the captives." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Go and take any slave girl." He took Safiyya Bint Huyai.

A man came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! You gave Safiyya Bint Huyai to Dihya; she is the chief mistress of the tribes of Quraidha and An-Nadir, and she befits none but you." So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring him along with her." Dihya came with her. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw her, he said to Dihya: "Take any slave girl from the captives other than her." Anas added: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then manumitted and married her.

Anas was asked: "O Abu Hamza! What was her dower?" he answered: "Her dower was that she was manumitted."

Anas added: "While being on the way, Umm Sulaim dressed her for marriage (ceremony) and at night she sent her as a bride to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". in this way, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became a bridegroom. He said: "Whoever has anything (of food) should bring it." He spread out a leather sheet (for the food) and some brought cooking butter, others dates, and others cottage cheese. So, they prepared a great deal of food. That was the marriage banquet of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

85-(...) It was narrated by Anas, through another chain of transmitters that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" manumitted Safiyya, and her manumission was considered as her dower. According to the narration of Mu'adh on the authority of his father: He (The Prophet) married Safiyya and gave her manumission as her dower.

86-(154) Abu Musa "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "For the one who emancipates his slave-girl and then marries her, there would be a double reward."

87-(1365) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I was riding behind Abu Talha on the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, and my foot was touching that of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". he said: We came to them when the sun rose, and they had got out driving their cattle, carrying their axes, baskets and spades. (When they saw us) they said: "Muhammad and the army!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Khaibar is ruined. Whenever we approach near a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning of those who have been warned."

He (Anas) said: Then, Allah defeated them, and a beautiful slave-girl fell in the share of Dihya, whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" take (from him) in exchange of seven heads. Then, he gave her to Umm Sulaim, in order to embellish and prepare her for him (to marry her). (I (the sub-narrator) think he said: "and to stay the period of Iddat in her house). She (this slave-girl) was Safiyya Bint Huyai. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made her wedding banquet (containing of) dates, cottage cheese and cooking butter. Pits were dug and the leather sheets were brought and spread, in which the cottage cheese and the cooking butter were put. The people ate their fill.

Then the people said: "In fact, we do not know, whether he married her, or took her as a slave-girl." They said: "If he veiled her, then she is her wife, and if he did not veil her, then, she is his slave-girl." When he wanted to ride, he veiled her, and she sat on the back of the camel, whereupon, they knew that he had married her. When we came near Medina, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" proceeded at a faster pace, and so did we with him. but, the she-camel (called) Al-Atba stumbled, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell down, and she also fell down. He sent me to invite people. When he finished, he stood up and I followed him, but two persons who were busy in conversation stayed in the house after the meal, and they did not get out. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" began to visit the apartments of his wives, greeting each one of them: "Peace be unto you! How are the inhabitants of the house?" They would say: "We are fine, O Messenger of Allah! how did you find your wife (Zainab)?" He would say: "She is in a good state."

When he finished (visiting his wives) he returned, and I returned along with him. when he reached the door, he found those two men still (sitting in the house) busy in their talk. When they saw him having returned, they stood up and went out. By Allah! I do not know whether I had informed him or he (the Prophet) was Divinely revealed that the people had gone out. He returned and I also returned along with him. when he put his foot on the threshold of the door, he threw a curtain between me and him. seen the like of her among the captives of war." He sent to Dihya and he (requested him to take her and) gave him whatever he wanted (in exchange). He then sent her to my mother and asked her to embellish her (and prepare her for marriage). Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then went out of Khaibar until when he was on the other side of it, he halted, and a tent was pitched for him.

When it was morning Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever has surplus of provision with him should bring it to us." Some brought the surplus of dates, and others surplus of powdered barley until there became a large heap of food. They started eating from that Hais and drinking from the pool situated by their side which had the water of rainfall. Anas said: That was the wedding banquet of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

He added: We proceeded until we saw the walls of Medina, thereupon we became happy. We made our mounts proceed faster and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" also made his mount proceed faster. Safiyya was at his back, since Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made her ride behind him. The mount of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stumbled and he (The Prophet) fell down and she also fell down. None among the people looked at both of them until Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and screened her. We came to him and he said: "We had no harm." We entered Medina where there came out the young women of his (The Prophet's) household. They looked (and incited each other to look) at her (Safiyya), showing their joy for her falling down.

[15] The marriage of Zainab Bint Jahsh (to The Prophet) and revealing the (Verse of) screening (The Prophet's wives), and what about the wedding banquet

89-(1428) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When the period of Iddat of Zainab (Bint Jahsh) had finished, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Zaid (Ibn Haritha): "Demand her hand for me." Zaid went to her, while she was fermenting her dough. When I saw her, I respected her so much that I could no longer be able to look at her, because The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioned her (offering the proposal of marrying her). I turned my back towards her, and then turned on my heels. I said: "O Zainab! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent (me) to demand your hand for him." she said: "I'm not to do anything until I ask my Lord for the better guidance." Then, she got up and went to her praying place. But, The Qur'an was revealed (in connection with this matter). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came and entered upon her without asking for her permission.

He (Anas) added: I saw ourselves and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" served us with bread and meat when the day rose. Then, all the people went out (of the house) except a few men, who stayed talking after the meal. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out, and I followed him. he started visiting the chambers of his wives, greeting them, and they would ask him: "O Messenger of Allah! How did you find your wife?"

He (Anas) added: indeed, I do not know whether I told him or he told me that the people (who were still in the house after the meal) had gone out. He (Anas) said: He went until he entered the house. I went to enter along with him, but, he threw the curtain between him and me. Then, the (Verse of) screening The Prophet's wives was revealed, and the people were instructed with that with which they were instructed. Ibn Rafi added in his narration (the recitation of Allah's saying): "O ye who Believe! enter not the Prophet's houses- until leave is given you- for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation: but when ye are invited, enter; and when ye have taken your meal, disperse, without seeking familiar talk. Such (behavior) annoys the Prophet: he is ashamed to dismiss you, but Allah is not ashamed (to tell you) the truth." (The Confederates "Al-Ahzab" 53)

90-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I've never seen The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" presenting a wedding banquet of (the marriage of) any woman (of his wives) as he presented in that of Zainab, in which he slaughtered a goat.

91-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I've never seen The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" presenting a wedding banquet of (the marriage of) any woman of his wives more (or better) than he presented in that of Zainab. Thabit Al-Bunani (a sub-narrator) asked: "What did he present in that wedding banquet?" he said: "He served them with bread and meat (so much) until they left it (because they ate their fill)."

92-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married

Zainab Bint Jahsh, he invited the people to a meal. They took the meal and remained sitting and talking. Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seemed to be ready to get up, but they did not get up. When he noticed that (there was no response), he got up, followed by the others (Asim and Ibn Abd Al-A'la added in their narration) except three persons who kept on sitting. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came back in order to enter his house (but he went away again). Then they left, whereupon I set out and went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to tell him that they had departed, so he came and entered his house. I wanted to enter along with him, but he put a screen between me and him. Then Allah revealed: "O ye who Believe! Enter not The Prophet's houses- until leave is given you- for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation: but when ye are invited, enter; and when ye have taken your meal, disperse, without seeking familiar talk. Such (behaviour) annoys The Prophet: he is ashamed to dismiss you, but Allah is not ashamed (to tell you) the truth. And when ye ask (his ladies) for anything ye want, ask them from before a screen: that makes for greater purity for your hearts and for theirs. Nor is it right for you that ye should annoy Allah's Messenger, or that ye should marry his widows after him at any time. Truly such a thing is in Allah's sight an enormity." (Al-Ahzab 53)

93-(...) Anas Ibn Malik "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: I know best of all (the occasion of) this verse of screening (The Prophet's wives). Ubai Ibn Ka'b "Allah be pleased with him" used to ask me about it. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" consummated marriage with Zainab Bint Jahsh, whom he had married in Medina. He invited the people to have a meal (of wedding) after the day had risen. Then, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat and some people sat down along with him after (they had finished their meal and) the people had got up and left. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and walked, and I walked along with him until he reached the door of A'isha's chamber. Thinking they had gone out, he came back and I came back with him. but, they were still sitting in their place. He returned, and I returned along with him once again (and he walked) until he reached A'isha's chamber. Then, he came back (to the house)and I came back with him. at that time, they had stood up and left. Then, he threw the curtain between him and me, and Allah revealed the Verse of screening (The Prophet's wives).

94-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married, and when he consummated marriage with his wife, my mother Umm Sulaim prepared a Hais which she put in a earthen pot and said to me: "O Anas! Go with this (food) to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and say to him: My mother sent that (food) to you and she is greeting you and saying: "That's for you, though it is little, from us, O Messenger of Allah." He (Anas) said: I went with it and said: My mother sent that (food) to you and she is greeting you and saying: "That's for you, though it is little, from us, O Messenger of Allah." He said to me: "Put it."

Then, he (The Prophet) said: "Go and invite on my behalf so-and-so and whomever you meet." He named some persons. He (Anas) said: I invited those whom he had named in addition to whomever I met. I (sub-narrator) said to Anas: "How many were they?" He said: "They were three hundred." Then Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "O Anas! Bring that earthen pot." They started entering until the courtyard and the chamber were crowded. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Make a circle of ten (persons), and let everyone eat from what is nearest to him." They started eating, until they ate their fill. A group came out (after finishing), and another group entered until all of them had eaten. He (The Prophet) said to me: "O Anas! Raise it (the earthen pot)." I raised it, and, however, I did not know whether it had more (food) when I put it or when I raised it (after they had eaten from it).

A group among them started talking in the house of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting and his wife was sitting, with her face turned towards the wall. That was difficult for Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out and greeted his wives. Then, he came back. When they (the people who were still talking in the house) saw that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had come back, they felt that they (by their overstay) caused him to be troublesome. Consequently, they hastened towards the door and went out entirely. Then, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, threw a curtain and went in, while I was still sitting in his chamber. He did not stay but for a short while, when he came to me and this Verse (of screening The Prophet's wives) was revealed.

وَقَالَ لِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «يَا أَنَسُ، هَاتِ التَّوْرَ» قَالَ: فَدَخَلُوا حَتَّى امْتَلأَتِ الصُّفَّةُ وَالْحُجْرَةُ. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «لِيَتَحَلَّقْ عَشَرَةٌ عَشَرَةٌ وَلْيَأْكُلْ كُلُّ إِنْسَانٍ مِمَّا يَلِيهِ» قَالَ: فَأَكَلُوا حَتَّىٰ شَبِعُوا.

قَالَ: فَخَرَجَتْ طَائِفَةٌ وَدَخَلَتْ طَائِفَةٌ حَتَّىٰ أَكَلُوا كُلُّهُمْ. فَقَالَ لِي: «يَا أَنَسُ، ارْفَعْ» قَالَ: فَرَفَعْتُ، فَمَا أَدْرِي حِينَ وَضَعْتُ كَانَ أَكْثَرَ أَمْ حِينَ رَفَعْتُ.

قَالَ: وَجَلَسَ طَوَائِفُ مِنْهُمْ يَتَحَدَّثُونَ فِي بَيْتِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. وَرَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ جَالِسٌ، وَزَوْجَتُهُ مُوَلِّيَةٌ وَجْهَهَا إِلَى الْحَائِطِ. فَثَقُلُوا عَلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَخَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَسَلَّمَ عَلَىٰ نِسَائِهِ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ، فَلَمَّا رَأَوْا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَدْ رَجَعَ ظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ قَدْ ثَقُلُوا عَلَيْهِ.

قَالَ: فَابْتَدَرُوا الْبَابَ فَخَرَجُوا كُلُّهُمْ، وَجَاءَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّىٰ أَرْخَى السِّتْرَ وَدَخَلَ. وَأَنَا جَالِسٌ فِي الْحُجْرَةِ، فَلَمْ يَلْبَثْ إِلاَّ يَسِيراً حَتَّىٰ خَرَجَ عَلَيَّ، وَأُنْزِلَتْ هٰذِهِ الآيَةُ.

Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out and recited it to the people: "O ye who Believe! Enter not The Prophet's houses- until leave is given you- for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation: but when ye are invited, enter; and when ye have taken your meal, disperse, without seeking familiar talk. Such (behaviour) annoys The Prophet: he is ashamed to dismiss you, but Allah is not ashamed (to tell you) the truth. And when ye ask (his ladies) for anything ye want, ask them from before a screen: that makes for greater purity for your hearts and for theirs. Nor is it right for you that ye should annoy Allah's Messenger, or that ye should marry his widows after him at any time. Truly such a thing is in Allah's sight an enormity." (Al-Ahzab 53) (Al-Ja'd told that Anas said: I am the first from among the people to hear these verses). Subsequently, the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" were screened (from all the people).

95-(...) Anas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married Zainab, (my mother) Umm Sulaim presented to him a Hais which she (prepared and) put in a earthen pot. Anas said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Go and invite on my behalf (for that wedding meal) whomever you met of Muslims." I (went and) invited on his behalf whomever I met. They started entering upon him and eating and then coming out (after finishing in groups).

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" placed his hand over the food, and invoked (Allah's blessing) upon it, and said what Allah willed him to say. I did not let anyone whom I met but that I invited him, until all of them ate their fill. Then, all of them came out except a group of them, who were busy in talking. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt ashamed to say anything to them (i.e. to ask them to leave). So, he went out and left them in the house. Then, Allah revealed:

"O ye who Believe! Enter not The Prophet's houses- until leave is given you- for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation: but when ye are invited, enter; and when ye have taken your meal, disperse, without seeking familiar talk. Such (behaviour) annoys The Prophet: he is ashamed to dismiss you, but Allah is not ashamed (to tell you) the truth. And when ye ask (his ladies) for anything ye want, ask them from before a screen: that makes for greater purity for your hearts and for theirs."

[16] The order to respond to the inviter to a wedding banquet

96-(1429) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you was invited to a wedding banquet, he should attend it."

97-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If anyone of you was invited to a banquet, he should attend it." (Khalid told that Ubaidullah restricted it to a wedding banquet).

98-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If anyone of you was invited to a wedding banquet, he should attend it."

99-(...) Nafi narrated from Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should attend the wedding banquet If you were invited to it."

100-(...) Nafi narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" told from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If anyone of you invited his brother, he (the latter) should accept (his invitation) whether it was a wedding banquet or anything else."

101-(...) Ibn Umar narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you was invited to a wedding banquet or anything else, he should accept it."

102-(...) Abdullah Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should attend the banquet If you were invited to it."

103-(...) Nafi narrated: I heard Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" saying that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should attend the banquet If you were invited to it." He said: Ibn Umar used to attend the banquet, whether it was of wedding or of anything else, and he used to attend it, even if he was fasting.

104-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you were invited to a (banquet and it was as little as even) leg of a sheep, you should accept it."

105-(1430) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you

Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, at that time, was sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and Khalid Ibn Sa'id Ibn Al-As was standing at the door, and had not been admitted. He said: "O Abu Bakr! Do you not prevent this lady from saying such things openly in the presence of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?"

١٧ ـ باب لا تَحِلُّ المطلقةُ ثلاثاً لمُطلِّقِها حتى تَنْكِحَ زوجاً غيره ويَطأها ثم يفارقها وتنقضي عدتها

فَقَالَ: «لَعَلَّكِ تُرِيدِينَ أَنْ تَرْجِعِي إِلَى رِفَاعَةَ. لاَ، حَتَّىٰ يَذُوقَ عُسَيْلَتَكِ وَتَذُوقِي عُسَيْلَتَهُ». وَأَبُو بَكْرٍ الصِّدِّيقُ جَالِسٌ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، وَخَالِدُ بْنُ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْعَاصِ جَالِسٌ بِبَابِ الْحُجْرَةِ لَمْ يُؤْذَنْ لَهُ. قَالَ: فَطَفِقَ خَالِدٌ يُنَادِي أَبَا بَكْرٍ: أَلاَ تَزْجُرُ هٰذِهِ عَمَّا تَجْهَرُ بِهِ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ؟

113-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Rifa'a Al-Qurazi divorced his wife thrice (i.e. irrevocably). Then, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Az-Zubair married her. But, she came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Rifa'a divorced her thrice (i.e. irrevocably)..." and the rest is the same.

114-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the woman who is divorced (irrevocably) and then is married to another man, and then is divorced from him before consummating marriage with him (i.e. without having sexual intercourse with her): Is it legal for her to return then to her first husband? He said: "No, until he (the latter husband consummates marriage with her and) tastes the pleasure of sexual intercourse with her."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters.

115-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: A man divorced his wife thrice. Then she married another man who also divorced her before consummating marriage (i.e. before having sexual intercourse) with her . then, her first husband wanted to marry her again. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about that. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "No, she cannot marry the first husband unless the second husband (consummates his marriage and) tastes the pleasure of sexual intercourse with her, just as the first husband had done."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah, with the same chain of transmitters.

[18] What is desirable to be said at the time of sexual intercourse

116-(1434) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of them says, when having sexual intercourse with her wife: "In the name of Allah! O Allah! Keep Satan away from us, and let it be far from what you bestow upon us!" then, if they are destined to have a child, Satan will not be able to cause harm to their child."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Mansur, but in the narration of Shu'ba, there is no mention of "In the name of Allah". In the narration of Abd Ar-Razzaq from Ath-Thawri, a mention is made of "In the name of Allah." In the narration of Ibn Numair, Mansur said: I think he said "In the name of Allah."

[19] It is permissible to have sexual intercourse with one's wife from her front or from her back, but not through the anus

117-(1435) Jabir "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Jews used to say that if one had sexual intercourse with his wife through vagina, but from her back, the child would have squint. So, Allah revealed His saying: "Your wives are as a tilth unto you; so approach your tilth when or how ye will." (The Heifer 223)

So, the following Verse was sent down: "Your wives are as a tilth unto you; so approach your tilth when or how ye will." (The Heifer 223)

119-(…) The same was narrated on the authority of Jabir, through another chain of transmitters. But, it was added in the narration of Az-Zuhri: "If he wished, he might (have sexual intercourse) from her back or from her front, but through one opening (i.e. vagina)."

120-(1436) Abu Huraira "Allah be pleased with him" narrated from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "If a woman spent the night abandoning the bed of her husband, the angels would keep cursing her until morning." (This is a proof of the prohibition of the woman's keeping herself away from the bed of her husband, without legal excuse, even the menstruation, since menstruation is not considered as a legal excuse, because the husband has the right to enjoy of her (by having sexual intercourse with her) from behind the cloth).

[22] What about coitus interruptus

125-(1438) Ibn Muhairiz narrated: I and Abu Sirma entered upon Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, whom Abu Sirma asked: "O Abu Sa'id! Did you hear The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying anything pertaining coitus interruptus?" Abu' Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" reported: "Yes. We set out with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for the holy battle of Banu Al-Mustaliq and we got captives from among the distinguished Arab women. The celibacy became long for us. Since we desired to get the ransom (for those captives), we wished to enjoy (of having sexual intercourse with those women) and, at the same time do coitus interruptus. So when we intended to do so, we said: "How can we do so before asking Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who is present among us?" We asked (him) about it and he said: "There will be no harm to you if you do not do so, for if any soul is predestined to exist to the Day of Judgement, it will exist."

do so? Do you do so?" no doubt, there is no soul, which is predestined to exist, to the Day of Judgement, but that it will exist."

128-(...) Anas Ibn Sirin narrated from Ma'bad Ibn Sirin: I asked him: Did you really hear it from Abu Sa'id?" he said: "Yes, (and he narrated it) from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "There will be no harm to you if you do not do it, for it (the existence of the creatures) is due to (Allah's) ordinance."

129-(...) The same was narrated by Shu'ba, on the authority of Anas Ibn Sirin, but in his Hadith transmitted from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he (mentioned that The Prophet) said: "There will be no harm to you if you do not do that, for it (the child birth) is due to (Allah's) ordinance." According to the narration of Bahz, Shu'ba said: I said to him: "Did you really hear it from Abu Sa'id?" he said: "Yes."

130-(...) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about coitus interruptus. He said: "There will be no harm to you if you do not do it, for it (the existence of the creatures) is due to (Allah's) ordinance." Muhammad (a sub-narrator) said: His (The Prophet's) saying "There is no harm to you" is much closer to the forbiddance.

131-(...) Abu Sa'id "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: The coitus interruptus was mentioned before The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who asked: "What is (the reason for) that?" they said: "It is (done by) a man whose wife is suckling and he has sexual intercourse with her, but, at the same time, he dislikes to have her pregnant from him, and a man who has a slave-girl, who has sexual intercourse with her, but he dislikes to have her conceived from him (lest he would not be able to sell her if he wished)." He said: "There will be no harm to you if you do not do it, for it (the existence of the creatures) is due to (Allah's) ordinance." Ibn Awn said: I narrated it to Al-Hasan, who said: "By Allah! It (The Prophet's statement) seems to imply scolding."

(...) Hammad Ibn Zaid narrated from Ibn Awn: I narrated from Ibrahim to Muhammad the Hadith of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Bishr, (meaning the narration of coitus interruptus). He said: Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Bishr narrated it to me directly.

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I intended to forbid sexual intercourse with the suckling woman, until I considered that both the Persians and the Roman do it (during the time of suckling) their children, and it does not cause any harm to their children." Then, they asked him about coitus interruptus. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, that is the hidden burying alive." Ubaidullah added in his narration (Allah's saying): "When the female (infant), buried alive, is questioned." (At-Takwir 8)

142-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha from Judama Bint Wahb Al-Asadiyya that she heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying...and the rest is the same.

143-(1443) Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah be pleased with him" narrated that a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I do coitus interruptus with my wife. (What is your religious verdict regarding that)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Out of pity for her child (or her children lest they should be harmed)." (17) The Book Of Fosterage

1-(1444) Amra narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told her that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was with her, when she heard a voice of a man asking permission (to be admitted) in the house of Hafsa. A'isha said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! This is a man asking permission (to be admitted) in your house." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I think he is so-and-so (Hafsa's foster uncle)." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Had so-and-so (her foster uncle) been alive, would he have been permitted to enter upon me?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes, however, the fosterage forbids what consanguinity forbids."

2-(...) Amra narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Fosterage forbids what consanguinity forbids."

(...) A Hadith like the one narrated by Hisham Ibn Urwa was transmitted on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Bakr.

[2] The forbiddance of fosterage applies also to any paternity relation

3-(1445) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Aflah, the brother of Abu Al-Qu'ais, asked permission to visit me her, and he was her foster uncle, after the order of the veil was revealed. She said: I refused to give him permission. When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, I told him of what I had done. He ordered me to admit him.

4-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": My foster uncle Aflah Ibn Abu Al-Qu'ais came to ask my permission to visit me...and the rest is the same, in which he added: I (A'isha) said: "It was the woman who suckled me and not the man." Upon this he (The Prophet) said: "May your hands (or right hand, the narrator was in doubt about it) be covered with dust! (i.e. you are mistaken in this understanding)"

5-(...) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" that Aflah, the brother of Abu Al-Qu'ais, asked her permission to visit her after the order of the veil was revealed. Indeed, Abu Al-Qu'ais was A'isha's foster father. A'isha said: I said: "By Allah! I will not permit Aflah unless I take permission of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about him for it was not Abu Al-Qu'ais but his wife that suckled me." When

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me, I said : "O Allah's Apostle! Aflah, the brother of Abu Al-Qu'ais asked permission to visit me but I refused to permit him till I take your permission." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Admit him." Urwa told: A'isha used to say: "Fosterage relation forbids what consanguinity forbids."

6-(...) Ma'mar narrated from Az-Zuhri, with the same chain of transmitters, that Aflah, the brother of Abu Al-Qu'ais came to ask permission to visit her...and the rest is the same, in which he (The Prophet) said: "He is your (foster) uncle, let your right hand be covered with dust!" Abu Al-Qu'ais was the husband of the woman who suckled A'isha.

7-(...) Hisham narrated from his father that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: my foster uncle came to ask my permission to visit me. I refused to give him permission until I consult The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, I said to him: "My foster uncle asked my permission to visit me, but I refused to give him permission." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let your (foster) uncle be admitted to you." I said: "But, it was the woman and not the man who suckled me." He said: "He is your (foster) uncle, so, let him be admitted to you."

(...) Hisham narrated, with the same chain of transmitters, that the brother of Abu Al-Qu'ais asked her permission to be admitted to her...and the rest is the same.

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Hisham, with the same chain of transmitters, but he (mentioned here that the narrator) said: Abu Al-Qu'ais asked her permission to be admitted to her.

8-(...) Ata narrated from Urwa Ibn Az-Zubair that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told me: My foster uncle Abu Al-Ja'd asked my permission to visit me but I returned him. (Hisham said to me: He is Abu Al-Qu'ais). When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, I told him of that. upon this he said: "Would you not admit him? let your right hand (or your hands) be covered with dust!"

9-(...) Urwa narrated that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told him that her foster uncle called Aflah asked her permission to be admitted to her, but she was screened from him. when she told The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of that, he said: "Do not screen yourself from him, for fosterage forbids what consanguinity forbids."

But, I refused to admit him. when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, I told him of that. upon this he said: "Admit him for he is your (foster) uncle."

[3] The daughter of one's foster brother is unlawful (to him to marry)

11-(1446) Abu Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that Ali "Allah be pleased with him" told: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why do you select (for your marriage women) only from Quraish, and leave (the women of) us (i.e. sons of Abd Al-Muttalib)?" he said: "Do you have anything (suitable to me)?" I said: "Yes, it is the daughter of Hamza." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is unlawful to me, since she is the daughter of my foster brother."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Al-A'mash, with the same chain of transmitters.

12-(1447) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated that it was suggested that The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should marry the daughter of Hamza. Upon this, he said: "She is unlawful to me, since she is the daughter of my foster brother; and fosterage forbids what genealogy forbids."

13-(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Shu'ba, Quatada, and Hammam. But the narration of Shu'ba ended at his saying: "The daughter of my foster brother." In the narration of Sa'id (it was mentioned): "Fosterage forbids what genealogy forbids." In the narration of Bishr Ibn Umar (it was mentioned in the transmission): I heard Jabir Ibn Zaid.

14-(1448) Humaid Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated that he heard Umm Salama "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: It was said to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Where are you, O Messenger of Allah from (marrying) the daughter of Hamza? (or: Why do you not engage the daughter of Hamza Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib?)" upon this he said: "Hamza is my foster brother (and his daughter is unlawful to me since she is the daughter of my brother)."

sucklings (should make marriage unlawful)." Then it was revealed (to abrogate it): "Five clear (sucklings should make marriage unlawful) (and although its recitation was abrogated, its judgement remained).

[7] Suckling of the young man

26-(1453) Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Qasim narrated from his father that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" said: Sahla Bint Suhail came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I observe the signs (of disgust) in the face of Abu Hudhaifa, on the entering of Salim (his ally while I was in the house)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Give suck to him." She said: "Then, how could I suckle him and he is a young man?" upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "No doubt, I know that he is a young man." Amr added in his narration that he took part in the holy Battle of Badr. According to the narration of Abu Umar he (the narrator) said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laughed.

(This Hadith is particular to the case of Sahla, the wife of Abu Hudhaifa, and Salim, who was his freed slave and then he manumitted him and made him his ally. According to most famous religious scholars, it should not be applicable to anyone else. On the other hand, it was said that she did not give suck to Salim directly from her breast, but she milked her breast in a pot or so, which she gave to him).

27-(...) Ibn Abu Mulaika narrated from Al-Qasim that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told: Salim, the freed slave of Abu Hudhaifa, lived in the house of Abu Hudhaifa and his wife. She (the daughter of Suhail, the wife of Abu Hudhaifa) came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Salim has (grown up and) attained the age of puberty like men, and he came to perceive what they perceive. At the same time, he always enters (the house) and I would be there, and I think that there is something (of annoyance lurking) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa." Upon this The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Suckle him, and (in this way) you would become unlawful to him, with the result that what is (lurking) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa would disappear." Later, she came back (to The Prophet) and said: "I suckled him, and what was (rankling) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa disappeared."

الرَّضَاعَةِ، قَالَتْ عَمْرَةَ: فَقَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ: نَزَلَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ: عَشْرُ رَضَعَاتٍ مَعْلُومَاتٍ، ثُمَّ نَزَلَ أَيْضاً: خَمْسٌ مَعْلُومَاتٌ.

28-(...) Ibn Abu Mulaika narrated from Al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Abu Bakr that A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" told: Sahla Bint Suhail Ibn Amr (the wife of Abu Hudhaifa) came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Salim, (i.e., the freed slave of Abu Hudhaifa) lives with us (in our house) and he has (grown up and) attained the age of puberty like men, and he came to know what they know (about sex matters)." Upon this The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Suckle him, and (in this way) you would become unlawful to him (in marriage)."

I (Ibn Abu Mulaika) spent a year or so, without narrating it to anyone, for fear of (what might result from) it. Then, I met Al-Qasim and said to him: "You narrated to me a Hadith, which I dared not to transmit to anyone afterwards." He asked me: "What is it?" I told him. Upon this he said: "Narrate it on the authority of me that A'isha reported it to me."

29-(...) Zainab Bint Umm Salama narrated that Umm Salama said to A'isha: "(It is undesirable that) the boy, who is about to attain the age of puberty enters upon you, whom I do not like to enter upon me." A'isha said: "Do you not have in The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a good pattern?" she (A'isha) resumed: "The wife of Abu Hudhaifa said: "O Messenger of Allah! Salim enters upon me. He is a (young) man, and there is something (of annoyance lurking) in the heart of Abu Hudhaifa because of that." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, suckle him, so that (it would be lawful that) he should enter upon you (since you would become unlawful to him to marry).""

30-(...) Zainab Bint Umm Salama narrated that she heard Umm Salama saying to A'isha: "By Allah! I'm not pleased to allow (anyone even if he was as young as) a boy, who passed the age of fosterage to see me." Upon this A'isha said: "Why is that? Once, Sahla Bint Suhail (the wife of Abu Hudhaifa) came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! By Allah! I notice the signs of disgust in the face of Abu Hudhaifa because of Salim's entering (upon me as he lives in our house)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Suckle him." She said: "O Messenger of Allah! He has (grown up to the extent that he has) a beard." He said: "Suckle him, so that what is in the face of Abu Hudhaifa would disappear (as he would rest assured that Salim became unlawful to you)." Later, She said: "By Allah! I never observed (such a sign of disgust) in the face of Abu Hudhaifa."

31-(1454) Zainab Bint Umm Salama narrated that her mother Umm Salama, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: All the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (except A'isha) refused to admit anyone depending upon this form of fosterage (permitted to Sahla, the wife of Abu Hudhaifa, as regards Salim), and they said to A'isha: "By Allah! We don't think but that was a concession granted by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Salim in particular. So, none should be permitted to enter upon us, and to see us, depending upon this kind of fosterage."

[8] The fosterage (relation of forbiddance) should not be held valid unless suckling is given because of hunger

32-(1455) Masruq narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me while a man was sitting with me. He (The Prophet) felt it, and the signs of anger appeared on his face as if he disliked that. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! He is my foster brother." He said: "Be sure as to who is your foster brother, for fosterage (relation of forbiddance) is held valid only when suckling is given because of hunger." (i.e. when it is given to an infant, whose food is milk, and whose hunger is to be satisfied with it).

[9] Permissibility to have sexual intercourse with the captivated woman after her purification (of menses or delivery), and if she had a husband (before capture) her marriage would be dissolved after capture

33-(1456) Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri "Allah be pleased with him" narrated: On the day of (the holy battle of) Hunain, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent an expedition to Awtas, where they met an enemy (of infidels), with whom they fought, and then emerged victorious over them, and got (women) captives from them. Some of the companions of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt reluctant to have sexual intercourse with them because of their husbands from the infidels. On this occasion, Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" revealed: "Also (prohibited are) women already married, except those whom your right hands possess." (The Women 24) (i.e. they are lawful to you (to have sexual intercourse with them) after the period of their Iddat has been over).

whenever he allotted (his visits in turns) among them, he would not come back to the first except on the ninth (day). All of them used to gather every night in the house of the one whom he would visit. When he was in the house of A'isha (as it was her turn), Zainab came, to whom he stretched his hand. Upon this she (A'isha) said: "This is Zainab (and not A'isha)." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" withdrew his hand.

Then, both of them (A'isha and Zainab) quarrelled with one another until their voices became loud. At the same time, the prayer was established. Such being the case, Abu Bakr passed by and heard their voices. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! Come out to the prayer and throw dust in their mouths." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out (to lead the prayer). A'isha said: "Now, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would finish the prayer, and then Abu Bakr would come and do with me such-and-such." When The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, Abu Bakr came to her and talked to her so much harshly, and then said to her: "How do you behave like that?"

[14] Permissibility to grant one's day (she has to spend with her husband) to her fellow-wife

47-(1463) Hisham Ibn Urwa narrated from his father from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": I never found any woman more loving to me than Sawda Bint Zam'a. I wished I were so self-possessed like her. When she became old, she granted her day (which she had to spend) with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to A'isha. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! I granted my day with you to A'isha." (I kept saying so) until Allah revealed: "Thou mayest defer (the turn of) any of them that thou pleasest, and thou mayest receive any thou pleasest." (Al-Ahzab 51) upon this I said (to The Prophet): "Your Lord seems to hasten to fulfill your desires."

51-(1465) Ata narrated: We attended with Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" the funeral of Maimuna "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at Sarif. Ibn Abbas said to us: "This (This is (the dead body of) the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". However, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had nine (wives), and he used to allot (his visits in turns) among eight of them, but he did not fix (any day) for the ninth." Ata said: "The one for whom he (The Prophet) did not allot (a night) was Safiyya Bint Huyai Ibn Akhtab." (That's a mistake from Ibn Juraij, the sub-narrator, because the one to whom The Prophet did not allot a night was Sawda Bint Zam'a. but that was out of her own free will since she gave her day to A'isha as we saw earlier in Hadith 47-(1463).

I answered: “A matron." he said: “Why (did you) not (marry) a virgin, so that you would play with her and she would play with you, (or you would amuse her and she would amuse you)?" I said: “Abdullah (my father) died and left nine or seven girls (my sisters), and I dislike to marry a girl like them. For this reason, I married a lady (matron) so as to look after them and teach them good manners." On that he said: “May Allah bless you", or "That is good." camel and come into (the mosque) and pray two Rak'as." I entered and offered the prayer. He told Bilal to weigh and give me an ounce of gold. So Bilal weighed for me fairly. When I went away, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Call Jabir for me." I was called back, and I thought that he would return to me my camel (a process) which I hated more than anything else. But The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Take your camel as well as its price."

58-(...) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: We were with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in a journey, and I was riding a camel used for carrying water which lagged behind all the people. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" poked or pricked it (I think) with something he had, after which (it proceeded so quickly) that it went ahead of all the people, and it struggled with me (to move faster than I wanted) and I had to hold it. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you sell it at such-and-such (price)? May Allah forgive you!" I said: "It is for you, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Do you sell it at such-and-such (price)? May Allah forgive you!" I said: "It is for you, O Messenger of Allah." He said to me: "Have you married after (the death of) your father?" I answered in the affirmative. He said: "A matron or a virgin?" I said: "A matron." He said: "Why did you not marry a virgin so that she would amuse you and you would amuse her, and she would play with you and you would play with her?" Abu Nadra (a sub-narrator) said: That was the common phrase, which the Muslims used to say (to each other), i.e.: "Do such-and-such (thing) and Allah might forgive you."

(18) The Book Of Divorce

[1] The forbiddance of divorcing the menstruating woman particularly without her demand, and if he opposed that opinion and divorced her, he should be order to cancel it

1-(1471) Nafi narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" divorced his wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Order him (your son) to take her back and keep her till she is clean and then to wait till she gets her next period and becomes clean again. If he wishes to keep her, he can do so. If he wishes to divorce her he can divorce her before approaching her; and that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah Almighty for the women meant to be divorced."

(...) Nafi narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" divorced one of his wives once while she was menstruating. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" Ordered him to take her back and keep her till she is clean, and then (to wait) till she gets her next period in his house, and waits her until she becomes clean again. If he wishes to divorce her he can divorce her when she is clean, before approaching her; and that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah for the women to be divorced."

Ibn Rumh added in his narration: Whenever Abdullah was asked about that (matter), he used to say to the one (who asked him): "If you divorced your wife once or twice, then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to do so (which is also applicable to you), but if you divorced your wife thrice, then she became unlawful to you (to remarry) until she marries another one, and (in this way) you (would be regarded to have) disobeyed Allah in what He commanded you to do regarding the divorce of your wife."

2-(...) Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" told: I divorced my wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Umar mentioned that to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "Let your son take her back, and let her until she is clean. Then he should wait her until she gets her next menses (while she is in his house). When she is clean, and he wishes to divorce her, he can divorce her before approaching her,

Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" Ordered him to take her back and keep her till she is clean, and then she gets her next period (in his house), and waits her until she becomes clean again. (If he wishes to divorce her) then he can divorce her, before approaching her; and that is the prescribed period fixed by Allah for the women to be divorced." Whenever Ibn Umar was asked about the man who divorced his wife while she was menstruating, he used to say (to the one who divorced his wife once or twice): "If you divorced your wife once or twice, then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him (the one who had a similar case) to take her back, and wait her until she (becomes clean and then) gets her next menses, and then wait until she becomes clean. Then, he can divorce her before approaching her." But if you divorced your wife thrice, you (would be regarded to have) disobeyed your Lord in what He commanded you to do regarding the divorce of your wife, who would become unlawful to you (to remarry until she marries another one)."

4-(...) Salim Ibn Abdullah narrated that Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" told: I divorced my wife while she was menstruating. Umar mentioned that to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became angry and said: "Order him to take her back, and let her until she gets next menses (while she is in his house), other than that during which he divorced her. Then, if it seemed to him to divorce her, he can divorce her after she becomes clean from that menses, before approaching her; and that is the divorce according to the prescribed period fixed by Allah." However, Abdullah (Ibn Umar) had divorced her once, which was counted as (valid) one for her. Then, he took her back as was ordered by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

I kept deeming him far above suspicion but without learning the real tradition, until I met Abu Ghallab: Yunus Ibn Jubair Al-Bahili, who was reliable. He told me that he asked Ibn Umar (about that), who told him that he divorced his wife once, while she was menstruating. Then, he was ordered (by The Prophet) to take her back. I (Abu Ghallab) asked: "Was it counted (as valid one divorce)?" he (Ibn Umar) said: "What would it be then (if it was not counted as so?" or: "(Would it not be counted) if someone became helpless and foolish?"

first) two years of the caliphate of Umar was regarded as one (divorce). But Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: "Verily the people started hastening in the matter in which they are supposed to be deliberate. (Would that) we had enjoined this upon them." However, he enjoined it upon them.

16-(...) Ibn Tawus narrated from his father that Abu As-Sahba said to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both": "Do you know that the three (pronouncements of divorce) were regarded as one during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", then Abu Bakr and the (first) three years of the caliphate of Umar?" Ibn Abbas answered in the affirmative.

17-(...) Tawus narrated that Abu As-Sahba said to Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both": "Tell me from your amazing news. Were the three (pronouncements of divorce) not considered as one during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then Abu Bakr?" he (Ibn Abbas) said: "It was so. But, when it was the caliphate of Umar, the people hastened to observe divorce so frequently. So, Umar enjoined it upon them (to regard three pronouncements of divorce at the same time as only one legal divorce)."

[3] The expiation is obligatory for the one who regarded his wife unlawful to him, without the intention to divorce her

18-(1473) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated that Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" used to say about (making one's wife) unlawful (to him without divorcing her that it is as) an oath, for which he should expiate. Ibn Abbas recited: "Verily, for you there is, in The Messenger of Allah, a good pattern." (Al-Ahzab 21)

19-(...) Sa'id Ibn Jubair narrated that he heard Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" saying: "If one made his wife unlawful to him, without divorcing her, then it would be as an oath, which should be atoned." Then, he recited: "Verily, there is in The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a good pattern for you." (Al-Ahzab 21)

20-(1474) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" reported: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to drink honey in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and would stay there with her. So Hafsa and I agreed secretly that, if he comes to either of us, she will say to him: "It seems you have eaten Maghafir (a kind of bad-smelling resin), for I smell in you the smell of Maghafir." said that to him. He replied: "No, but I was drinking honey in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and I shall never take it again." Then Allah revealed: "O Prophet! Why holdest thou to be forbidden that which Allah has made lawful to thee? Thou seekest to please thy consorts. But Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Prohibition "At-Tahrim" 1) he also said: "If ye two turn in repentance to Him (meaning Hafsa and A'isha), your hearts are indeed so inclined." (4) He also said: "When the Prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his consorts (meaning The Prophet's saying: "I drank honey"), and she then divulged it (to another)." (3)

21-(...) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" narrated: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was fond of honey and sweet edible things. After finishing the Asr prayer he was accustomed to visit his wives and approach them. Once he went to Hafsa, the daughter of Umar and stayed with her more than usual. I asked for the reason for that. I was told that a lady of her folk had given her as a gift a skin filled with honey, from which she made a syrup and gave it to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to drink (and that was the reason for the delay).

I said: "By Allah we will play a trick on him (to prevent him from doing so)." So I said to Sawda Bint Zam'a: "The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" will approach you, and when he comes near you, say: Have you taken Maghafir (a bad-smelling gum)? He will say: No. Then say to him: Then what is this bad smell, which I smell from you? (However, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to feel it hard that a bad smell would be detected on him). He will say to you: Hafsa made me drink honey syrup. Then say: Perhaps the bees of that honey had sucked the juice of the tree of Urfut. I shall also say the same. O you, Safiyya, say the same."

When he entered upon Sawda, (and let her tell the story herself): Sawda said: "By Allah, with Whom there is no god, as soon as he (The Prophet) had stood at the door, I was about to say to him what you (A'isha) had ordered me to say because I was afraid of you." So when The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came near Sawda, she said to him: "O Allah's Apostle! Have you taken Maghafir?" He said: "No." She said: "Then what is this bad smell which I detect on you?" He said: "Hafsa made me drink honey syrup." She said: "Perhaps its bees had sucked the juice of Urfut tree." When he came to me, I also said the same, and when he

[4] Giving one's wife the option of divorce does not mean the divorce itself, unless it is intended

22-(1475) A'isha "Allah be pleased with her", the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" narrated: "When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was ordered by Allah to give his wives the choice (either to remain with him or to depart from him), he (The Prophet) started with me, saying: "I am going to tell you something to which you should give no hasty reply before consulting your parents", though he knows that my parents were not to order me to depart from him." A'isha added: "He (The Prophet) said: "Allah said: "O Prophet say to thy Consorts: if it be that ye desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner. But if ye seek Allah and His Messenger, and the Home of the Hereafter, verily Allah has prepared for the well-doers amongst you a great reward."" (Al-Ahzab 28:29) I said: "What is that on which I should take my parents' opinion? Of course I want Allah, His Messenger, and the hereafter." Then all of The Prophet's wives did the same as I did."

23-(1476) Mu'adha Al-Adawiyya narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to take the permission of that wife with whom he was supposed to stay overnight if he wanted to go to one other than her, after this Verse was revealed: "Thou mayest defer (the turn of) any of them that thou pleasest, and thou mayest receive any thou pleasest: and there is no blame on thee if thou invite one whose (turn) thou hadst set aside." (Al-Ahzab 51) Mu'adha asked A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": "Then what did you use to say?" she said: "I used to say to him: "Had it (the matter of option) been up to me, I would not have given anyone preference over me."

29-(1478) Jabir Ibn Abdullah "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: Abu Bakr came to ask the permission to enter upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but he found the people sitting beside his door, and none of them was admitted. Then, Abu Bakr was admitted. Then, Umar came, and he was admitted. He found The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sitting as frowned and silent, with his wives around him. He (Umar) said: "I'm going to say something as a result of which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would smile." Then he said: "O Messenger of Allah! If I told you about the daughter of Kharija (Umar's wife, you would smile). She asked me for more expense. So, I stood up towards her and slapped her on the neck." Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "They (my wives) are around me as you see, asking me for more expense."

Then, Abu Bakr stood up towards A'isha in order to slap her on the neck, and Umar also stood up towards Hafsa in order to slap her on the neck, and both of them were saying: "Do you ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for what he doesn't have?" they said: "By Allah! We never ask The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for anything he doesn't have."

Then, he kept away from them for a month, or for twenty-nine (nights), after which the following Verse was revealed: "O Prophet say to thy Consorts: if it be that ye desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner. But if ye seek Allah and His Messenger, and the Home of the Hereafter, verily Allah has prepared for the well-doers amongst you a great reward."

Then, he (The Prophet) started with A'isha. He said: "O A'isha! I want to offer something to you, and I like that you should not give a hasty reply to it until you consult your parents." She asked: "What is it, O Messenger of Allah?" he recited the Verse to her. Then she said: "Would I consult my parents (whether to choose) you, O Messenger of Allah? Surely, I choose Allah, His Messenger and the hereafter. Moreover, I request you not to tell anyone of your wives of that which you said (to me)." He said: "No woman of them asks me (about that) but that I would tell her (the same). Indeed, Allah has sent me neither as one who gives (the people) hard instructions (concerning religion), nor as one who asks others to do what is difficult for them to do. But, He has sent me as a tauter who facilitates (things to the people)."

30-(1479) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab "Allah be pleased with him" reported: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept himself away from his wives, I entered the mosque, and found people striking the ground with pebbles and saying: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorced his wives." That was before they were ordered to screen themselves. Umar said to himself: "I should verify of (the reality of) this matter today."

فَقَامَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ إِلَىٰ عَائِشَةَ يَجَأُ عُنُقَهَا، فَقَامَ عُمَرُ إِلَىٰ حَفْصَةَ يَجَأُ عُنُقَهَا، كِلاهُمَا يَقُولُ: تَسْأَلْنَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ مَا لَيْسَ عِنْدَهُ. فَقُلْنَ: وَاللَّهِ، لا نَسْأَلُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ شَيْئاً أَبَداً لَيْسَ عِنْدَهُ، ثُمَّ اعْتَزَلَهُنَّ شَهْراً أَوْ تِسْعاً وَعِشْرِينَ. ثُمَّ نَزَلَتْ عَلَيْهِ هٰذِهِ الآيَةُ: ﴿يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلنَّبِيُّ قُل لِّأَزۡوَٰجِكَ﴾، حَتَّى بَلَغَ: ﴿لِلۡمُحۡسِنَٰتِ مِنكُنَّ أَجۡرًا عَظِيمٗا﴾ [الأحزاب: ٢٨ ـ ٢٩].

قَالَ: فَبَدَأَ بِعَائِشَةَ، فَقَالَ: «يَا عَائِشَةُ، إِنِّي أُرِيدُ أَنْ أَعْرِضَ عَلَيْكِ أَمْراً أُحِبُّ أَنْ لاَ تَعْجَلِي فِيهِ حَتَّى تَسْتَشِيرِي أَبَوَيْكِ» قَالَتْ: وَمَا هُوَ يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ؟ فَتَلاَ عَلَيْهَا الآيَةَ. قَالَتْ: أَفِيكَ، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، أَسْتَشِيرُ أَبَوَيَّ؟ بَلْ أَخْتَارُ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَالدَّارَ الآخِرَةَ، وَأَسْأَلُكَ أَنْ لا تُخْبِرَ امْرَأَةً مِنْ نِسَائِكَ بِالَّذِي قُلْتُ. قَالَ: «لا تَسْأَلُنِي امْرَأَةٌ مِنْهُنَّ إِلاَّ أَخْبَرْتُهَا، إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمْ يَبْعَثْنِي مُعَنِّتاً وَلاَ مُتَعَنِّتاً، وَلَكِنْ بَعَثَنِي مُعَلِّماً مُيَسِّراً».

I went to A'isha "Allah be pleased with her" and said: "O Daughter of Abu Bakr! Have you reached the extent of causing harm to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" She said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! What do you have to do with me? You'd rather be concerned with your own receptacle (i.e. your daughter)." He (Umar) said: I entered upon Hafsa, daughter of Umar, to whom I said: "O Hafsa! I was informed that you cause harm to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". You should know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" does not love you, and had it not been for me (as being your father) he would have divorced you." She went on weeping bitterly. I asked her: "Where is Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" She said: "He is in his store in the attic room."

I went there and found Rabah, the servant of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", sitting on the threshold of the attic room, dangling his feet on the hollow wood of the date-palm, on which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to come up to and down from (the attic room). I shouted: "O Rabah! Ask permission for me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be admitted." Rabah cast a glance at the chamber and then looked at me but said nothing. I again said: "O Rabah! Ask permission for me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be admitted." Rabah cast a glance at the chamber and then looked at me, but said nothing. I raised my voice and said: "O Rabah! Ask permission for me from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be admitted."

I thought that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had the idea that I came for the sake of Hafsa. By Allah, if The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would order me to strike her neck, I would surely strike her neck. I raised my voice and he pointed to me to ascend (and enter into the chamber). I entered upon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he was lying on a (straw) mat. I sat down, and he drew up his lower garment over him, other than which he had nothing over him. The (straw) mat left its marks on his sides. I looked with my sight in the storeroom of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and found only a handful of barley equal to one Sa and a similar quantity of the leaves of Salm tree placed in the corner of the cell, and a semi-tanned leather bag hanging (in one side).

ثُمَّ رَفَعْتُ صَوْتِي فَقُلْتُ: يَا رَبَاحُ، اسْتَأْذِنْ لِي عِنْدَكَ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَإِنِّي أَظُنُّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ ظَنَّ أَنِّي جِئْتُ مِنْ أَجْلِ حَفْصَةَ، وَاللَّهِ، لَئِنْ أَمَرَنِي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِضَرْبِ عُنُقِهَا لأَضْرِبَنَّ عُنُقَهَا، وَرَفَعْتُ صَوْتِي، فَأَوْمَأَ إِلَيَّ أَنِ ارْقَهْ، فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَهُوَ مُضْطَجِعٌ عَلَىٰ حَصِيرٍ فَجَلَسْتُ، فَأَدْنَىٰ عَلَيْهِ إِزَارَهُ، وَلَيْسَ عَلَيْهِ غَيْرُهُ، وَإِذَا الْحَصِيرُ قَدْ أَثَّرَ فِي جَنْبِهِ، فَنَظَرْتُ بِبَصَرِي فِي خِزَانَةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَإِذَا أَنَا بِقَبْضَةٍ مِنْ شَعِيرٍ نَحْوِ الصَّاعِ، وَمِثْلِهَا قَرَظاً فِي نَاحِيَةِ الْغُرْفَةِ.

My eyes started shedding tears (on seeing such a state of the Prophet). But, he said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! What causes you to weep?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why do I not shed tears? This (straw) mat has left its marks on your sides and I see in your storeroom (nothing other than) what I have seen. On the other hand, Caesar and Khosrau are leading their (luxurious) lives in abundance of gardens and rivers while you are The Messenger of Allah, His (best) chosen one, and that is your storeroom!" He said: "O Ibn Al-Khattab! Are you not pleased that for us (Muslims, there would be the prosperity) of the Hereafter, and for them (the infidels, there would be the prosperity of) this world?" I said: "Yes."

When I entered I saw the signs of anger on his face. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! What harm do you feel from the part of your wives? If you have divorced them, no doubt, Allah is with you, His angels, Gabriel, Michael, as well as I, Abu Bakr and the believers are with you." Hardly I spoke (something) -and praise be to Allah- but that I hoped that Allah would confirm my statement that I said. Then, the Verse of giving the (right of) choice (to The Prophet's wives) was revealed: "It may be, if he divorced you (all), that Allah will give him in exchange Consorts better than you, who submit (their wills), who believe, who are devout, who turn to Allah in repentance, who worship (in humility), who travel (for Faith) and fast, previously married or virgins." (At-Tahrim 5) And: "but if ye back up each other against him, truly Allah is his Protector, and Gabriel, and (every) righteous one among those who believe, and furthermore, the angels will back (him) up." (At-Tahrim 4)

It was A'isha Bint Abu Bakr, and Hafsa (Bint Umar) who had backed up (each other) against all the wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Did you divorce them?" He answered in the negative. I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I entered the mosque and found Muslims playing with pebbles (involved in thought) and saying: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorced his wives." Would I get down and inform them that you did not divorce them?" He said: "Yes, if you so wish."

I went on talking to him until I observed that (the signs of) anger disappeared from his face, which turned to have its natural tranquility and then he laughed, and his teeth were the most charming of (those of) all the people. Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got down and so did I, catching hold of the wood of the palm-tree. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came down (so much easily) as if he was walking on the ground, not touching anything with his hand (to get help).

I said: "O Messenger of Allah! You remained in your chamber for twenty-nine days (and not for a full month as you vowed)." He said: "The month (sometimes) consists of twenty-nine days." I stood at the door of the mosque, shouting at the top of my voice: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not divorce his wives." (It was in connection with this that the following) verse was revealed: "When there comes to them some matter touching (public) safety or fear, they divulge it. If they had only referred it to the Messenger, or to those charged with authority among them, the proper investigators would have tested it from them (direct). Were it not for the Grace and Mercy of Allah unto you, all but a few of you would have followed Satan." (Women 83) However, I investigated it. Then the verse of giving the (right of) choice was revealed.

31-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: For a year I had the desire to ask Umar Ibn Al-Khattab regarding the explanation of a Verse (in The Sura of The Prohibition) but I could not do out of respect for him. When he went to perform the Hajj, I accompanied him. On our return, while we were still on the way home, Umar went aside to answer the call of nature by the Arak trees. I waited till he finished. Then I proceeded with him and asked: "O Commander of The Believers! Who were the two wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who backed up each other against him?" He said: "They were Hafsa and A'isha." I said to him: "By Allah, I wanted to ask you about this a year ago, but I could not do out of respect for you." Umar said: "Do not do (i.e. refrain from asking me). If you think that I have knowledge (about something), you would ask me; and if I know, I will tell you."

Then Umar further said: "By Allah, in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance we did not pay attention to women until Allah revealed in connection with them what He had revealed, and assigned for them what He had assigned. Once while I was thinking over a certain matter, my wife said: "I recommend that you do so-and-so." I said to her: "What do you have to do with this matter? Why do you poke your nose in a matter which I want to see fulfilled?" She said: "How strange you are, O son of Al-Khattab! You don't want to be argued with, though your daughter Hafsa argues with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so much that he (sometimes) remains angry for the whole day!""

Umar added: "Very soon, I put on my outer garment and went to Hafsa to whom I said: "O my daughter! Do you argue with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so that he (sometimes) remains angry for the whole day?" Hafsa said: "By Allah, we argue with him." I said: "You should know that I warn you of Allah's punishment and the anger of His Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". O my daughter! Don't be betrayed by she (A'isha), who is proud of her beauty and the love of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" for her.""

Umar further said: "Then I went out to the house of Umm Salama, who was one of my relatives, to whom I talked. Umm Salama said: "O son of Al-Khattab! You seem to interfere in everything to the extent that you even want to interfere between The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his wives!" By Allah, I was influenced by her talk so much that I lost some of my anger. Then, I left her.

At that time I had a friend from the Ansar who used to bring me the news (from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") in case of my absence, and I used to bring him the news if he was absent. In those days we were afraid of one of Ghassan's kings. We heard that he intended to proceed and attack us. Indeed, our hearts were full of fear because of that. (Once) my Ansari friend unexpectedly knocked at my door, and said: "Open! Open!" I said: "Has the king of Ghassan come?" He said: "No, but something worse! The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has kept away from his wives." I said: "Let the nose of A'isha and Hafsa be stuck to dust (humiliated)!"

Then I put on my clothes and went out. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was staying in an attic room belonging to him, to which it would be ascended by a ladder. There was a black slave of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (sitting) on the first step. I said to him: "(Tell The Prophet that) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab is here." Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" admitted me. I related the story in full to him. When I came to the item of Umm Salama, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled while he was lying on a mat made of palm tree leaves with nothing between him and the mat. Under his head there was a leather ابْنَتَكَ لَتُرَاجِعُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَتَّىٰ يَظَلَّ يَوْمَهُ غَضْبَانَ.

On seeing the marks of the mat imprinted on his side, I wept. He said: "Why are you weeping?" I replied: "O Allah's Apostle! Caesar and Khosrau are leading a (Luxurious) life, while you, (in spite of your being) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", (are living in such a destitute." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Won't you be satisfied that (the vanities of) this world would be for them, and the (eternal prosperity of the) Hereafter would be for you?"

32-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I set out with Umar, and when we reached (the place of) Mar Az-Zahran...and the rest is the same as narrated by Sulaiman Ibn Bilal, according to which he (Ibn Abbas) said: I asked: "What about the two women (who backed up each other)?" he said: "They are Hafsa and Umm Salama." He added: I (Umar) came upon the chambers (of the wives of The Prophet), and behold! In each dwelling place, there was (somebody) weeping." He also added: He (The Prophet) vowed to keep away from them for a month. But, when twenty-nine (nights) had passed, he got down to them.

33-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I wanted to ask Umar "Allah be pleased with him" about those two women (from amongst The Prophet's wives) who backed up each other against The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". For one year I was seeking, though in vain, the opportunity to ask this question, until I set out with him (for Hajj) to Mecca. While we were in (the place of) Mar Az-Zahran, Umar went to answer the call of nature. He said to me: "Bring me a container of water (for ablution)." So I brought it to him and when he finished answering the call of nature and returned, I started pouring for him. I found it a good opportunity to ask him, so I said: "O Commander of The Believers! Who were those two women (from amongst The Prophet's wives who had backed up each other against The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him")?" Before I could finish my question, he replied: "They were Hafsa and A'isha."

34-(...) Ibn Abbas "Allah be pleased with both" narrated: I had been eager to ask Umar Ibn Al-Khattab about the two ladies from among the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in connection with whom Allah said: "If ye two turn in repentance to Him, your hearts are indeed so inclined" (The Prohibition 4) until Umar performed the Hajj and I too performed it along with him. On the way Umar went aside to answer the call of nature, and I also went aside along with him carrying a tumbler full of water. After Umar had finished answering the call of nature, I poured water over his hands and he performed the ablution. Then I said to him: "O Commander of The Believers! Who were the two ladies from among the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in connection with whom Allah said: "If ye two turn in repentance to Him, your hearts are indeed so inclined" (The Prohibition 4)? He said: "I am astonished at your question, O Ibn Abbas. They were A'isha and Hafsa."

Then Umar went on narrating the tradition in full. He said: "We, the people of Quraish used to have the upper hand over our wives, but when we came to Medina, we found there people, whose women had the upper hand over their men, so our women also started learning the ways of the Ansari women." He added: "My house was at (the district of) Banu Umaiyya Ibn Zaid, at the heights (of Medina). Once I shouted at my wife and she retorted against me. I disliked that she should answer me back. She said to me: "Why do you dislike my answering you back? By Allah, the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answer him back and some of them may not speak to him for all the day."

I set out and entered upon Hafsa and said to her: "Do you answer back The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" She said: "Yes." I said: "Might anyone of you not speak to him all the day until night?" she said: "Yes." I said: "Let anyone of you who did so be ruined and become loser! So you should neither answer back The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", nor should you ask more from him. Ask me whatever you need. Do not be tempted to imitate your neighbor (A'isha) in her manners for she is more charming than you and more beloved to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".""

Umar further said: "I had a neighbor from the Ansar, and we used to visit The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in turn. He used to go one day and I another day. their horses to invade us. My Ansari companion, on the day of his turn, went (to the town) and returned to us at night and knocked at my door (violently and asked if I was there). I came out to him. He said: "Today a great thing has happened." I asked: "What is it? Have (those of) Ghassan come?" He said: "No, but it is greater and more horrifying. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorced his wives.""

I said: "Hafsa is a ruined loser." I had already thought that most probably this (divorce) would happen in the near future. I waited until I offered the Morning prayer. Then, I dressed myself and then entered upon Hafsa and saw her weeping. I asked: "Did The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorce you all?" She said: "I do not know. There he is retired alone in the attic room." I came to a black slave of his (The Prophet's) and said: "Will you get the permission (of The Prophet) for Umar (to be admitted)?" The slave went in, (talked to The Prophet about it) and then returned saying: "I mentioned you to him (The Prophet) but he kept silent." I came out and sat near the pulpit where I saw a group of people sitting around it, some of whom were weeping. I sat with them for a while but could not endure the situation, so I went (to the upper room where The Prophet was) and once again I said to the slave: "Will you get the permission for Umar (to be admitted)?" He went in and returned saying: "I mentioned you to him but he kept silent." So I turned back, (and when I was about to depart) The slave called me saying: "Get in, for he (The Prophet) has admitted you."

Then I entered and greeted The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who was Lying on a bed made of stalks of date palm leaves which left marks on his side. I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Did you divorce your wives?" He raised his head towards me and said: "No." I said: "Allah is greater! O Messenger of Allah! We, the people of Quraish used to have power over our women, but when we came to Medina we found that the men (here) were overpowered by their women. So, our women also started learning the ways of those women. Once I shouted at my wife and she retorted against me. I disliked that she should answer me back. She said to me: "Why do you dislike my answering you back? By Allah, the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answer him back and some of them may not speak to him for all the day." I said: "Let anyone of them who did so be ruined and become loser! Does anyone of them not fear that Allah may get angry for the fury of His حَتَّىٰ إِذَا صَلَّيْتُ الصُّبْحَ شَدَدْتُ عَلَيَّ ثِيَابِي، ثُمَّ نَزَلْتُ فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَىٰ حَفْصَةَ وَهِيَ تَبْكِي. فَقُلْتُ: أَطَلَّقَكُنَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ؟ فَقَالَتْ: لا أَدْرِي، هَا هُوَ ذَا مُعْتَزِلٌ فِي هٰذِهِ الْمَشْرُبَةِ.

فَأَتَيْتُ غُلاَماً لَهُ أَسْوَدَ. فَقُلْتُ: اسْتَأْذِنْ لِعُمَرَ. فَدَخَلَ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ إِلَيَّ، فَقَالَ: قَدْ ذَكَرْتُكَ لَهُ فَصَمَتَ.

فَانْطَلَقْتُ حَتَّى انْتَهَيْتُ إِلَى الْمِنْبَرِ فَجَلَسْتُ، فَإِذَا عِنْدَهُ رَهْطٌ جُلُوسٌ يَبْكِي بَعْضُهُمْ، فَجَلَسْتُ قَلِيلاً، ثُمَّ غَلَبَنِي مَا أَجِدُ، ثُمَّ أَتَيْتُ الْغُلاَمَ فَقُلْتُ: اسْتَأْذِنْ لِعُمَرَ. فَدَخَلَ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ إِلَيَّ فَقَالَ: قَدْ ذَكَرْتُكَ لَهُ فَصَمَتَ، فَوَلَّيْتُ مُدْبِراً، فَإِذَا الْغُلاَمُ يَدْعُونِي. فَقَالَ: ادْخُلْ، فَقَدْ أَذِنَ لَكَ. فَدَخَلْتُ فَسَلَّمْتُ عَلَىٰ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَإِذَا هُوَ مُتَّكِيءٌ عَلَىٰ رَمْلِ حَصِيرٍ ـ قَدْ أَثَّرَ فِي جَنْبِهِ ـ.

فَقُلْتُ: أَطَلَّقْتَ، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ نِسَاءَكَ؟ فَرَفَعَ رَأْسَهُ إِلَيَّ وَقَالَ: «لاَ». فَقُلْتُ: اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، لَوْ رَأَيْتَنَا، يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، وَكُنَّا مَعْشَرَ قُرَيْشٍ، قَوْماً نَغْلِبُ النِّسَاءَ.

فَقُلْتُ: قَدْ خَابَ مَنْ فَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ مِنْهُنَّ وَخَسِرَ. أَفَتَأْمَنُ إِحْدَاهُنَّ أَنْ يَغْضَبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهَا لِغَضَبِ رَسُولِهِ ﷺ. فَإِذَا هِيَ قَدْ هَلَكَتْ؟ فَتَبَسَّمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَقُلْتُ:

Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and thus she will be ruined?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled.

Then I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I entered upon Hafsa and said to her: "Do not be tempted to imitate your neighbour (A'isha), for she is more charming than you and more beloved to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled for a second time. (When I saw him smiling) I said: "Would I resume, O Messenger of Allah?" he answered in the affirmative. I sat down. Then I raised my head (and looked around) the home, and by Allah, I could see nothing of significance in his house except three hides, so I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Invoke Allah to make your followers rich, for the Persians and the Romans have been made prosperous and they have been given (the luxuries of) the world, although they do not worship Allah." Thereupon The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat up as he was reclining and said: "Are you in doubt, O son of Al-Khattab? These are the people who have received the rewards for their good deeds in this world." I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Ask Allah to forgive me." Indeed, he (The Prophet) had taken an oath not to enter upon them (his wives) for a month, because of his great anger with them and Allah admonished him in connection with this matter.

35-(1475) Urwa narrated from A'isha "Allah be pleased with her": When twenty-nine nights had passed, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered upon me first. I said to him: "O Allah's Apostle! You took an oath that you would not enter upon us for one month, but now only twenty-nine days have passed, for I have been counting them one by one." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (current) month consists of twenty-nine (days)."

Then, he said: "I am going to tell you something to which you should give no hasty reply before consulting your parents". Then, He recited: "O Prophet say to thy Consorts: if it be that ye desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner. But if ye seek Allah and His Messenger, and the Home of the Hereafter, verily Allah has prepared for the well-doers amongst you a great reward." (Al-Ahzab 28:29) indeed, he knows, by Allah, that my parents were not to order me to depart from him." I said: "Should I take my parents' opinion in that matter? Of course I want Allah, His Messenger, and the hereafter." Ma'mar told: Urwa narrated to me that A'isha "Allah be

[6] There is no maintenance for the woman who is divorced with three pronouncements (i.e. irrevocably)

36-(1480) Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman narrated from Fatima Bint Qais that (her husband) Abu Amr Ibn Hafs divorced her irrevocably, while he was absent from her. He sent to her his deputy, carrying (a quantity of) parley, which she refused. Upon this he said: "By Allah! You have no (right of maintenance) on us (so that we would give it to you after your divorce)." Then, she went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and told him of that. He said to her: "Verily, you have no (right of) maintenance with him (which he should give you)."

Then, he ordered her to spend the prescribed period of her Iddat in the house of Umm Sharik. But he said: "This (Umm Sharik) is a woman, whose house my companions might come. So, you should spend the prescribed period of your Iddat in the house of Ibn Umm Maktum. Indeed, he is a blind man, and (in his house) you could put off your garment (if you so liked to sit at ease, and he would not be able to see you). Then, if you finished (your Iddat), you should inform me."

She said: When I finished (my Iddat), I told him that both of Mu'awiya Ibn Abu Sufyan and Abu Jahm demanded my hand. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for Abu Jahm, he does not put down his stick from his shoulder (i.e. either he nearly spends his life on journeys, or he always hits his women). As for Mu'awiya, he is very poor, and he has no property (to spend on you fairly). But, you'd better marry Usama Ibn Zaid." But, she objected to him (at first). He (The Prophet) said to her once again: "Marry Usama Ibn Zaid." He got married to him, and Allah made in him a (source of) goodness for her, and she was envied (because of him).

37-(...) Abu Salama narrated from Fatima Bint Qais that her husband divorced her (irrevocably) during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he gave her an insufficient maintenance. When she saw that, she said: "By Allah! I'm going to inform The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (of

٦ ـ باب المُطَلَّقة ثلاثاً لا نَفَقَةَ لها ولا سُكْنَى

that). If I have (the right of) maintenance, I would take that which might keep me, and if I have no (right of) maintenance, I would take nothing from him." She said: I mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "You have no (claim of) maintenance or residence (on him)."

(...) Abu Salama narrated: I asked Fatima Bint Qais (about the case of her divorce) and she told me that her husband, who was from Makhzum, divorced her (irrevocably), and refused to spend on her. She went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him. Upon this he said: "There is no (right of) maintenance for you. But, you'd better go to the house of Umm Maktum (to spend your Iddat). Indeed, he is a blind man, in whose house you could put off your garment (and lift your veil, without committing a sine of being seen by a man, for he would not see you)."

38-(...) Abu Salama narrated that Fatima Bint Qais, the sister of Ad-Dahhak Ibn Qais told him that (her husband) Abu Hafs Ibn Al-Mughira Al-Makhzumi divorced her irrevocably (with three separate pronouncements), and then set out to Yemen. His family said to her: "You have no (claim of) maintenance on us." Khalid Ibn Al-Walid, along with a group of people, went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the house of Maimuna. They said to him: "Abu Hafs Al-Makhzumi divorced his wife irrevocably. Is there any (claim of) maintenance for her (on us)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no maintenance for her, and she has to spend the prescribed period of Iddat (before marriage)."

Then, he (The Prophet) sent (a message) to her, saying: "Do not hasten to do anything regarding your marriage before informing me." Then, he ordered her to move to (the house of) Umm Sharik (in order to spend the prescribed period of Iddat). Then, he said to her: "Indeed, the early Emigrants always visit Umm Sharik. So, you should move to (the house of) Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind, for if you lifted your veil (in his house) he would not see you." She went to it, and when the prescribed period of her Iddat was over, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married her to Usama Ibn Zaid Ibn Haritha.

39-(...) Abu Salama narrated from Fatima Bint Qais: I was married to a man from sons of Makhzum and he divorced me irrevocably. I sent a message to his family asking for maintenance...and the rest is the same, with a slight change of wording.

Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf narrated that Fatima Bint Qais was the wife of Abu Amr Ibn Hafs Ibn Al-Mughira Al-Makhzumi, who divorce her with the last and third pronouncement of divorce (i.e. divorced her irrevocably). She asserted that she went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", asking for his religious verdict regarding her coming out of her house. He (The Prophet) ordered her to move to the house of Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind. Marwan (who was Medina governor at that time) refused to believe him (in that narration) as regards the coming out of the divorced woman from her house (before finishing the prescribed period of her Iddat). They said (to her): "By Allah! You have no (right of) maintenance (on us), unless you are pregnant." She went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned to him their statement. Upon this he said: "You have no (claim of) maintenance (on them)." So, she asked for his permission to move (to another house), and he gave her permission. She asked: "Where (would I move), O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "To (the house of) Ibn Umm Maktum." However, he was a blind, in whose house, she would be able to put off her garment, without seeing her. When the prescribed period of her Iddat was over, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" married her to Usama Ibn Zaid.

Later, Marwan (who became the governor of Medina) sent to her Qabisa Ibn Dhu'aib, in order to ask her about this Hadith, which she narrated to him. But, you'd better marry Usama Ibn Zaid."

[7] It is permissible for the one who is divorced irrevocably and she is still spending the period of her Iddat, and for the one whose husband died (and she is still spending the period of her mourning) to get out from her house during the day to fulfill her needs

55-(1483) Abu Az-Zubair narrated from Jabir "Allah be pleased with him": My maternal aunt was divorced. (during the period of her Iddat) she wanted to get out (of the house) to pluck (the fruits of) her date palm trees. But a man scolded her for her coming out. Upon this she went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said (to her): "No, you might (get out in order to) pluck (the fruits of) your date-palm trees, so that you might give in charity, or do a good favour."

[8] The period of Iddat (of a pregnant) comes to an end by delivery

56-(1484) Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utba narrated that his father had written to Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam Az-Zuhri, ordering him to go to Subai'a Bint Al-Harith Al-Aslami in order that he might ask her about her story, and what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her when she went to him to take his opinion (regarding her marriage after she had given birth to her child, knowing that her husband had died during her pregnancy). Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam replied: Subai'a Bint Al-Harith told that she was married to Sa'd Ibn Khawla who was from the tribe of Banu Amr Ibn Lu'ai, and was one of those who attended the holy battle of Badr. He died while she was pregnant during The Farewell Hajj. Soon after his death, she gave birth to a child.

When she completed the term of birth confinement (and became clean), she embellished herself for suitors. Abu As-Sanabil Ibn Ba'kak, a man from the tribe of Banu Abd Ad-Dar visited and said to her: "What is the matter! I see you dressed up for the people to demand you in marriage. Do you want to marry? By Allah, you are not allowed to marry before four months and ten days have elapsed (following your husband's death)." Subai'a added: "When he (Abu As-Sanabil) said so, I put on my dress in the evening and went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whom I asked about this matter. He gave the verdict that I was free to marry since I gave birth to my child; and ordered me to marry if I wished."

Ibn Shihab said: I think there is no harm for her to marry when she has given birth to a child even when she is bleeding (after the childbirth) provided that her husband should not approach her until she gets clean.

57-(1485) Sulaiman Ibn Yasar narrated that once, Abu Salama Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman and Ibn Abbas gathered in the house of Abu Huraira. They talked about the woman, who might give birth a few nights after her husband's death. Ibn Abbas said: "Her Iddat is the longer one of the two prescribed periods (i.e. her giving birth to a child or four months and ten days)." Abu Salama said: "(When she gives birth to a child) her Iddat is over." They went on dispute about that. Abu Huraira said: "I'm of the opinion of the son of my brother (i.e. Abu Salama)." Then, they sent Kuraib (the freed slave of Ibn Abbas) to Umm Salama in order to ask her about that. He came back and told them that Umm Salama said that Subai'a Al-Aslamiyya gave birth to a child a few nights after her husband's death. When she mentioned that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he ordered her to marry (if she so liked, since her Iddat was over).

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, with the same chain of transmitters, but Al-Laith mentioned in his narration that they had sent (a message) to Umm Salama, without mentioning Kuraib.

[9] Mourning (for one's husband) is obligatory, but it is prohibited to be more than three days for anyone else

58-(1486) Zainab Bint Abu Salama narrated: I entered upon Umm Habiba, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when her father Abu Sufyan Ibn Harb died. Umm Habiba asked for a perfume which contained yellow scent or other kind of scent, with which she first perfumed one of the girls, and then rubbed her cheeks and said: "By Allah, I am not in need of perfume, but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.""

(1487) Zainab narrated: I entered upon Zainab Bint Jahsh when her brother died. She asked for perfume, some of which she used and said: "By Allah, I am not in need of perfume, but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying on the pulpit: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the last day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband, for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days." "

(ح) وَحَدَّثَنَاهُ أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَعَمْرٌو النَّاقِدُ. قَالاَ: حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ بْنُ هَارُونَ. كِلاَهُمَا عَنْ يَحْيَىٰ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ، بِهٰذَا الإِسْنَادِ. غَيْرَ أَنَّ اللَّيْثَ قَالَ فِي حَدِيثِهِ: فَأَرْسَلُوا إِلَىٰ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ، وَلَمْ يُسَمِّ كُرَيْباً.

٩ ـ بابُ وُجُوبِ الإِحْدَادِ في عِدَّةِ الْوَفَاةِ وتحريمه في غير ذلك إلا ثلاثة أيّامٍ

٥٨ ـ (١٤٨٦) ـ وحدّثنا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَىٰ مَالِكٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ، عَنْ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ، أَنَّهَا أَخْبَرَتْهُ هٰذِهِ الأَحَادِيثَ الثَّلاَثَةَ. قَالَ: قَالَتْ زَيْنَبُ: دَخَلْتُ عَلَىٰ أُمِّ حَبِيبَةَ زَوْجِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، حِينَ تُوُفِّيَ أَبُوهَا أَبُو سُفْيَانَ، فَدَعَتْ أُمُّ حَبِيبَةَ بِطِيبٍ فِيهِ صُفْرَةٌ، خَلُوقٌ أَوْ غَيْرُهُ، فَدَهَنَتْ مِنْهُ جَارِيَةً ثُمَّ مَسَّتْ بِعَارِضَيْهَا، ثُمَّ قَالَتْ: وَاللَّهِ، مَالِي بِالطِّيبِ مِنْ حَاجَةٍ، غَيْرَ أَنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ، عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ: «لاَ يَحِلُّ لاِمْرَأَةٍ تُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الآخِرِ، تُحِدُّ عَلَىٰ مَيِّتٍ فَوْقَ ثَلاَثٍ، إِلاَّ عَلَىٰ زَوْجٍ، أَرْبَعَةَ أَشْهُرٍ وَعَشْراً».

(1488) Zainab narrated: I heard my mother Umm Salama saying that a woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The husband of my daughter died and she is suffering from an eye disease, can she apply kohl to her eye?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "No." (He said it) twice or thrice. (Whenever she repeated the question), he said: "No." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" added: "(She should mourn for) just four months and ten days. In the Pre-Islamic Period of ignorance, a widow among you used to throw a globe of dung after a year had elapsed" (following her husband's death, to indicate that the one-year period of her mourning was over, and now that year has been reduced to only four months and ten days).

(1489) Humaid narrated: I asked Zainab: "What does "throwing a globe of dung after one year had elapsed" mean?" Zainab said: "When a lady was bereaved of her husband, she would live in a wretched small room, wear the worst clothes she had, and touch no perfume before one year had elapsed. Then she would bring an animal, e.g. a donkey, a sheep or a bird against which she would rub her body. The animal against which she would rub her body would hardly survive. Just at this time, she would come out of her room, whereupon she would be given a globe of dung, which she would throw away. Then she would use perfume or anything else she liked."

59-(1486) Humaid narrated: I heard Zainab Bint Umm Salama saying: One of Umm Habiba's kith and kin died. She asked for (scent having) yellowness, with which she rubbed her arm. Then she said: "I only do that because I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.""

(1487)&(1488) This Hadith was narrated on the authority of Zainab from her mother and from Zainab, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", or from another one of the wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

60-(1488) Humaid Ibn Nafi narrated that he heard Zainab Bint Umm Salama narrating from her mother that a woman was bereaved of her husband and her relatives worried about her eyes (which got ill). They came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and asked him to allow them to treat her eyes with kohl, but he said: "(In the Pre-Islamic period of Ignorance) a widowed among you would stay in the worst

٦٠ ـ (١٤٨٨) ـ وحدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الْمُثَنَّى: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ، عَنْ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ نَافِعٍ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتَ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ تُحَدِّثُ عَنْ أُمِّهَا، أَنَّ امْرَأَةً تُوُفِّيَ زَوْجُهَا. فَخَافُوا عَلَىٰ عَيْنِهَا، فَأَتَوُا النَّبِيَّ ﷺ، فَاسْتَأْذَنُوهُ فِي الْكُحْلِ. فَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «قَدْ كَانَتْ إِحْدَاكُنَّ تَكُونُ فِي شَرِّ بَيْتِهَا فِي أَحْلاَسِهَا ـ أَوْ فِي شَرِّ

of her clothes (or the worst part of her house). After a year had elapsed, if a dog passed by her, she would throw a globe of dung. Nay, (she cannot use kohl) before four months and ten days elapse."

(...) The same two narrations were transmitted on the authority of Humaid Ibn Nafi, i.e. the Hadith of Umm Salama pertaining kohl, and another Hadith from one of The wives of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", whom Zainab did not name.

61-(1486&1488) Zainab Bint Umm Salama narrated that she heard both of Umm Salama and Umm Habiba talking that a woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned to him that a daughter of hers was bereaved of her husband, and she was suffering from (a disease in) her eyes, so she wanted to treat it with kohl. Upon this The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(In the Pre-Islamic Period of ignorance) a widow among you used to throw a globe of dung after a year had elapsed" (following her husband's death). Nay! (She should not use kohl or anything as such) before just four months and ten days elapse."

62-(1486) Humaid Ibn Nafi narrated from Zainab Bint Abu Salama: When the news of the death of Abu Sufyan reached Umm Habiba "Allah be pleased with her", then on the third day (after his death), she asked for (perfume having) yellowness, with which she rubbed her arm and cheeks. Then she said: "I'm not in need of that, but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the last day to mourn (for a dead person) for more than three days except her husband, for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days."

63-(1490) Safiyya Bint Abu Ubaid narrated from Hafsa or A'isha, or from both of them "Allah be pleased with them": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the last day (or believes in Allah and His Messenger) to mourn (for a dead person) for more than three days except her husband."

(...) The same was narrated on the authority of Nafi.

64-(...) Safiyya Bint Abu Ubaid narrated that she heard Hafsa, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" telling about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the same, and added: "for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days"
